No further business appearing, the Board adjourned sine die. Attest: E. T. Stone, Chairman. JONES TALIAFERRO, Clerk. STINGY MEN. I despise a stingy man. I don't see how it is possible for a man to die worth $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 in a city full of want, when he meets almost every day the withered hands of beggary and the white lips of famine. How a man can withstand all that, and hold in the clutch of his hand $20,000,000 or $30,000,000 is past my comprehension. I do not see how he can do it. I should not think he could do it any more than he could keep a pile of lumber when hundreds and thousands were drowning in the sea. Do you know, I have known men who would trust their wives with their hearts and homes, but not with their pocket-books—not with a dollar. When I see a man of that kind I always think he knows which is most valuable. Think of making your wife a beggar! Think of her asking you every day for a dollar or two dollars, or to humbly 50 cents? "What did you do with that two dollars I gave you?" Think of having a wife afraid of you! What kind of children do you expect to have with a beggar and a coward for a mother? Oh, I tell you if you have but a dollar in the world and you have got to spend it, spend it like a king; spend it as though it were a dry leaf and you the owner of unbounded forests. That's the way to spend it. I had rather be a beggar and spend my last dollar like a king, than to be a king and spend my money like a beggar. If it's got to go, let it go. Get the best you can for your family—and look as well as you can yourself. When you used to do courting how nice you looked! Ah! your eye was bright, your step was light, and you just put on the best you could. Do you know that it is insufferable egotism in you to suppose that a woman is going to love you always looking as bad as you can! Think of it! Any woman on earth will be true to you forever if you do your level best.—R. G. Ingersoll. Blanche Williams, of Philadelphia, who met with an accident at Fairmount Waterworks, by which one leg was broken, and rendered three inches shorter than the rest of her legs, has recovered $10,000 damages. It would seem to the student of nature, to be a pretty good price for three inches of ordinary leg, but some people will make such a fuss. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. NOTICES FOR PUBLICATION. U. S.
