McCarty and Robert Kruse. Another meeting equally as important as last night's, will be held this evening at the Metropolitan.

Bartolo Marquez, a Mexican who has been working at the Atlantic & Pacific round house is missing, and his wife and relatives fear that he has been foully dealt with. Last Saturday he received his pay check of $20, was around his house in south Albuquerque all day Sunday, but since Monday his whereabouts are unknown. Several parties have searched for him, but without success. A brother, Tomas Marquez, works for M. C. Zirhut.

At last night's drill meeting of the Guards, W. H. Hennesheer was elected captain vice F. T. Berry, resigned. This evening the Guards will commencing their competitive drill for a handsome gold medal, and the judges are Lieut. Col. Borradale, Capt. Gunn and Bone. In connection there will be a concert, the following taking part: Mrs. Karl Snyder, Mrs. Schollenberger, Miss May Hawley and Miss Winnie Bart. Also the quartet male quartette and mandolin club.

Col. Walter G. Marmon, of Laguna, who has been at Santa Fe on business, returned to the city on last night's passenger train from the north. He stated that on yesterday, Delgado, the usurping democratic holder of the probate clerk's office, was by order of the court removed and the rightful holder of the office, Ignacio Lopez, given the office. The colonel stated that other democrats will be given a lesson by their removal from offices to which they were not elected.

The glorious Fourth of July will not be forgotten in Albuquerque this year. In old town a grand celebration will take place on the plaza. H. R. Whiting, an old veteran who has preserved his old flag, will read to the crowd the Declaration of Independence and Gov. Stover will deliver the oration of the day. The Mexican brass band will dispense patriotic airs. In the afternoon at the fair grounds in old town there will be, under the auspices of the Gentlemen's Driving Park association, several exciting trotting and running races will take place, and the horses will not entirely be home horses. Several will come from Fort Wingate and other places. Patriotic people will not allow the Fourth to pass by without doing the day proper credit.

The following explanatory letter is received from W. S. Frager, of Laswell, by President Hall:

Bossman, N. M., June 15, 1891.
C. C. Hall, President New Mexico Exposition, Albuquerque, N. M.

My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your kind favor of the 9th inst., and am very glad to note what you say, especially with reference to the opportunity offered to the resource of our county.

In agriculture and fine stock raising, Chaves county may well be proud of the success she has attained in the short time she has had to accomplish her resources. With her broad valleys and immense water supply, she is considered to rank second to none of any of the western counties. I shall be pleased to act on your suggestion and advise you and every endeavor in having a good display of fruits, vegetables, grapes, etc., at the coming fair to be held in your city in September. Not having any direct railroad communication it will be inconvenient to make an exhibit of live stock.

I leave in a few days for an extended trip east but I immediately on my return will give the subject my attention. In this connection I wish to thank you and your board of directors for the honor you have conferred in appointing myself as one of the vice presidents.

Wishing your fair the greatest success, which I feel assured it will have under your able and energetic management, I remain, Yours very truly,
W. S. Frager.

A. D. Johnson, the local organizer, is around securing names, with a view of instituting another A. O. U. W. Lodge in this city.

F. A. Whitney, superintendent of the hot springs company, returned to his post of duty, after a month's absence with his family in Chicago.

H. E. Grierson, of Chicago, F. S. Crane, of Topeka, W. M. Houseman, of Grand Rapids, Mich., called yesterday at the Commercial club rooms.

Says the New Mexican: Sam Neustadt a well known Albuquerque resident who has been on the sick list for some time has arrived and will spend the heated term amid Santa Fe cooling breezes.

W. W. Hite and wife (Hawthorne), after a pleasant stay of two days here, left early this morning for their home at Manzano. Mr. Hite took out with him a lot of lumber he has the contract to roof the Catholic church at Chilli.

The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle, an organization among our colored citizens, will meet this evening at the Union hall for the closing annual exercises of the society. No one except those holding invitation cards will be admitted.

It seems that we are to be afflicted again at a very early day. The warm weather is on, mosquitoes are bad, and now it is announced that an "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company is en route south on the Santa Fe, now playing in northern New Mexico.

It is rumored on the street that Teodoro Jaramillo, one of Valencia county's prominent citizens and sheep raiser, died suddenly at his home near Tros the other evening. If the report is true that county loses one of her most enterprising, progressive citizens.

Rev. T. L. Wittase, Methodist missionary to the Navajo Indians, headquarters at Fort Defiance, is in the city, on his return from Lakeland, Ohio, where Mrs. Wittase is at present quite ill. The reverend gentleman has resigned his mission at the Navajo agency, will leave tonight to close up the affairs there, and be ready to transfer to his successor on his appointment and arrival from the east. Rev. Wittase does not know the gentleman who will succeed him. Mrs. Wittase's health is bad, and her physician prohibits her from returning to the high altitude of this country. They will take up their future home in Ohio.

W. M. Houseman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Grand Rapids, Mich., part owner of a large tract of land a few miles north of Grants, on the Atlantic & Pacific, has just returned from an exploring and surveying trip over the land. He states that he found several veins of coal and considerable deposit of iron ore near the base of the San Mateo mountains. The gentleman will remain in the city a few days, he will then return to his Michigan home, and on his next trip here, which will be in a few weeks, he will doubtless make arrangements to develop some of his property along the Atlantic & Pacific.

D. A. Hurley, good natured Hurley of Gallup, the road master of the Atlantic & Pacific, who has been back to the big eastern cities having whole barrels of fun, returned to the city last night and is here to-day. He will leave tonight for Gallup, and it is understood that he will spend his leisure time hereafter in writing a most exciting book on his recent experience in Chicago. Tell the truth, Hurley, and the book will have an immense sale.

W. B. Lyons, a telegraph operator from Leadville, is in the city, and has accepted a position in the Western Union office. It is hoped that he will prove to be an operator, for the man "with the steno-graph" who came here highly recommended, could not work in a fifth class office, say nothing about a first class office. Manager Delaney has worked quite hard the past few days.

Mrs. Chas. F. Bailey, Misses Sallie Gibson, Mabel Kellogg, Ida Elder and K. O. Elder, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Valle, and S. H. Wallace, Jr., who have been roughing it and having a good time generally, on the Elder brothers' ranch, near Lamy Junction, will return to the city this evening. To-day they are taking in the ancient sights of Santa Fe.

Eugenio Arins, who held up and robbed Epifanio Garcia, yesterday at the saloon of G. Oxendine, in the Highlands, taking from him $75, had a trial this morning before Justice Madden and was bound over in the sum of $500 bond to wait the action of the next grand jury. In default of bail, he was taken to the old town jail.

It is said that a sergeant, sent out by the war department, has taken possession of Fort Union, and that the annual beef contract for that place, has been let. This would look somewhat, as though the government did not intend to abandon to decay this property, which cost over $2,000,000.

Among the passengers east bound Wednesday night, or rather early Thursday morning, was Carl Stephens, formerly of this city but now in the employ of the Atlantic & Pacific at Gallup. Carl will visit relatives in Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, being absent about six weeks.

B. F. Houts, a business gentleman of Raton and a friend of Chas. F. Hunt, district court clerk, is here and is figuring on renting the Montezuma corner. This is Mr. Houts' first visit to the metropolis and he is much pleased with the city's business like appearance.

Harry McCarty, not content with handling the throttle of an engine on the Atlantic & Pacific, has commenced pulling the levers of a Safety bicycle. He is learning rapidly, but was ditched several times this morning.

Mrs. Sam Boucher, wife of Yardmaster Boucher, and children arrived last night from Las Vegas. For a short time they will have their home at the Windsor.

Rev. Wright on New Mexico.
The following is a report of a lecture delivered by Rev. S. C. Wright on New Mexico, in Canada, where he is now visiting:

Last night in the auditorium of St. Andrew's church, Rev. S. C. Wright, who has been three years in New Mexico, delivered a lecture on that country. For over an hour the speaker delighted his audience as he spoke of the climate, agriculture, sheep and cattle raising, mines, etc. The audience was kept in a good humor by the amusing incidents related, of which the reverend gentleman has an inexhaustible supply. The benefits to be derived from the climate of Albuquerque made it interesting to many of the audience who have been seeking health elsewhere. Next Tuesday evening the people of Woodbridge will have the pleasure of listening to the same lecture.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.
The Promenade Concert of the Guards, last evening.

The promenade concert of the Albuquerque Guards, now one of the crack militia organizations of the southwest, last night at the large Armory, was a pronounced success in every particular, and the program, which had been prepared with a view to suit the wishes of all, was carried out, with only two exceptions, and the participants rendered their parts in admirable style. The singing of the quartette of the company, the flute playing of Chas. Stever, the recitations of Moses Virginia Dix and Winno Bart, the music by the Mexican brass band, and the songs of Moses May Hawley and Maud Talbott, were indeed good and pleasing, especially as the evening was quite sultry.

All members of the Guards, except commissioned officers, took part in the competitive drill for the Abright medal, and finally, after all had been retired except three: Louis Mandel, Jesse Robins and James Bell, the judges, Col. Borradale, Capt. Gunn and Piam Otzen, awarded the medal to Mr. Mandel, accepting him as the best drill member of the company. The medal is a magnificent souvenir and it being worn to-day with much pride by Mr. Mandel.

Less crowd, less and less and were secured during the evening and they were liberally patronized.

The Army was elegantly and tastefully arranged and the standard under the personal supervision of W. H. Hennesheer, who devoted almost the entire of yesterday in the work.

Before the hour for the concert arrived, a grand parade was made through the principal streets of the city, First Lieutenant Fred Hoyt, Jr., leading the Mexican brass band in new uniforms, followed by the drum corps and then the Guards. The parade made a very impressive spectacle.

Bushnell, second sergeant; L. H. Chamberlain, third sergeant; D. M. Boness, fourth sergeant; J. W. Robins, fifth sergeant; J. W. Helmer, quartermaster sergeant; Louis Mandel, first corporal; J. C. Flourary, second corporal; A. E. Morse, third corporal; Frank M. Kee, fourth corporal. There are about forty five active members.

Frank Stever, a member of the Guards, has been appointed sergeant major of the First regiment.

The drum corps is composed of the following young gentlemen: Chas. Stever, sergeant; Chas. Schellenberger, John Moore, Chas. Donnelly, Wm. Moore, Frank Lee.

From Chaves County.
The following explanatory letter is received from W. S. Frager, of Laswell, by President Hall:

Bossman, N. M., June 15, 1891.

Remains Removed.
The remains of the Richmond (Ind.) Enterprise. The young ladies were well known by Prof. Hodgins, he having lived a near neighbor to them for many years.

Last week Mr. J. E. Preston came here from Cincinnati for the purpose of removing the remains of his two daughters, Misses Clara and Anna, from Maple Grove cemetery to Eartham. The bodies were laid away about eight years ago, in metallic cases. On opening the graves the great weight of the caskets attracted attention, and when the lids were removed it was found that both bodies were petrified. The faces appeared just as they did when they were laid to rest, and the condition of the grave clothes indicates that petrification had taken place soon after burial.

A Live Firm.
While in Albuquerque last Saturday the editor of this paper visited the New Albuquerque Foundry. The building is now almost completed and is pretty nearly fireproof, being constructed almost entirely of brick and iron. In a few hours after the old buildings were in ashes, men were at work clearing up the debris, and telegrams were on the way for new machinery, and in a few days new work was being turned out, the firm never taking its advertisements from the papers. Cerrillos Rustler.

Colfax Called.
Our county commissioners at their next meeting should appoint some good live man to collect an exhibit of the county's products for the territorial fair. They also should make a liberal appropriation to carry out this work.

If the commissioners fail to do this they will fall short of their duty to the country, as by this they can help to induce good immigration. Springer Rustler.

STOCK ITEMS.
New Mexico Cattle Stopped by the Sheriff at Dodge City.

G. L. Brooks, secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, was in Secor yesterday on business. He got back early this morning.

Joseph Clott was here yesterday from his cattle ranch near Pueblo, Colo., and has gone to Magdalena, from which place he will load and ship his steers from his Dutch mountain ranch to his Colorado ranch.

A Bauer, owner of a cattle ranch in Sulphur Springs valley, Arizona, passed through the city last night on his return home from Kansas City, where he disposed of two train loads of three and four year old steers, which he had previously shipped from his ranch, expecting to realize much better prices there than had been offered here. Unfortunately the eastern market was dull, and the steers only brought $1.85 per hundred pounds, netting him the small sum of $4 per head. Before he had rounded up his steers to be shipped to Kansas City, he was offered $15 per head, a difference of $11 to him had he accepted the price. He is returning home a very sad man, but his experience is doubtless worth something.

John A. Lockhart, Jr., assistant live stock agent of the Santa Fe road, is in receipt of the following telegram:

LAVAS, N. M., June 25.
Jas. A. Lockhart, Albuquerque.

Send J. J. Stout at once. The sheriff at Dodge City, Kansas, objects to New Mexico cattle being unloaded at Dodge City. If E. Tobey is now at San Marcial with four car loads of cattle, and he is willing to know if Kansas has quarantined against New Mexico cattle. I advise him to go ahead and ship. Tell Mr. Stout to see Mr. Tobey.

W. H. E. LEBWELLYS.

Mr. Stout is the president, and Mr. Brooks is the secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, and both gentlemen emphatically state that Kansas has no quarantine against cattle from this territory, and it is their opinion that the sheriff of Dodge City has exceeded his authority. The governor of Kansas will be informed at once of the action of the Dodge City official.

The following explanatory letter is received from W. S. Frager, of Laswell, by President Hall:

Bossman, N. M., June 15, 1891.
C. C. Hall, President New Mexico Exposition, Albuquerque, N. M.

My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your kind favor of the 9th inst., and am very glad to note what you say, especially with reference to the opportunity offered to the resource of our county.

In agriculture and fine stock raising, Chaves county may well be proud of the success she has attained in the short time she has had to accomplish her resources. With her broad valleys and immense water supply, she is considered to rank second to none of any of the western counties. I shall be pleased to act on your suggestion and advise you and every endeavor in having a good display of fruits, vegetables, grapes, etc., at the coming fair to be held in your city in September. Not having any direct railroad communication it will be inconvenient to make an exhibit of live stock.

I leave in a few days for an extended trip east but I immediately on my return will give the subject my attention. In this connection I wish to thank you and your board of directors for the honor you have conferred in appointing myself as one of the vice presidents.

Wishing your fair the greatest success, which I feel assured it will have under your able and energetic management, I remain, Yours very truly,
W. S. Frager.

Remains Removed.
The remains of the Richmond (Ind.) Enterprise. The young ladies were well known by Prof. Hodgins, he having lived a near neighbor to them for many years.

Last week Mr. J. E. Preston came here from Cincinnati for the purpose of removing the remains of his two daughters, Misses Clara and Anna, from Maple Grove cemetery to Eartham. The bodies were laid away about eight years ago, in metallic cases. On opening the graves the great weight of the caskets attracted attention, and when the lids were removed it was found that both bodies were petrified. The faces appeared just as they did when they were laid to rest, and the condition of the grave clothes indicates that petrification had taken place soon after burial.

A Live Firm.
While in Albuquerque last Saturday the editor of this paper visited the New Albuquerque Foundry. The building is now almost completed and is pretty nearly fireproof, being constructed almost entirely of brick and iron. In a few hours after the old buildings were in ashes, men were at work clearing up the debris, and telegrams were on the way for new machinery, and in a few days new work was being turned out, the firm never taking its advertisements from the papers. Colfax Called.
Our county commissioners at their next meeting should appoint some good live man to collect an exhibit of the county's products for the territorial fair. They also should make a liberal appropriation to carry out this work.

If the commissioners fail to do this they will fall short of their duty to the country, as by this they can help to induce good immigration. Springer Rustler.

STOCK ITEMS.
New Mexico Cattle Stopped by the Sheriff at Dodge City.

G. L. Brooks, secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, was in Secor yesterday on business. He got back early this morning.

Joseph Clott was here yesterday from his cattle ranch near Pueblo, Colo., and has gone to Magdalena, from which place he will load and ship his steers from his Dutch mountain ranch to his Colorado ranch.

A Bauer, owner of a cattle ranch in Sulphur Springs valley, Arizona, passed through the city last night on his return home from Kansas City, where he disposed of two train loads of three and four year old steers, which he had previously shipped from his ranch, expecting to realize much better prices there than had been offered here. Unfortunately the eastern market was dull, and the steers only brought $1.85 per hundred pounds, netting him the small sum of $4 per head. Before he had rounded up his steers to be shipped to Kansas City, he was offered $15 per head, a difference of $11 to him had he accepted the price. He is returning home a very sad man, but his experience is doubtless worth something.

John A. Lockhart, Jr., assistant live stock agent of the Santa Fe road, is in receipt of the following telegram:

LAVAS, N. M., June 25.
Jas. A. Lockhart, Albuquerque.

Send J. J. Stout at once. The sheriff at Dodge City, Kansas, objects to New Mexico cattle being unloaded at Dodge City. If E. Tobey is now at San Marcial with four car loads of cattle, and he is willing to know if Kansas has quarantined against New Mexico cattle. I advise him to go ahead and ship. Tell Mr. Stout to see Mr. Tobey.

W. H. E. LEBWELLYS.

Mr. Stout is the president, and Mr. Brooks is the secretary of the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board, and both gentlemen emphatically state that Kansas has no quarantine against cattle from this territory, and it is their opinion that the sheriff of Dodge City has exceeded his authority. The governor of Kansas will be informed at once of the action of the Dodge City official.
