THE BOSTON DAILY TRAVELER, UNDER THE FORGOTTEN CAPTION, REVIEWS THE RUN BROUGHT BY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TO THE COUNTRY DURING THE TWO YEARS OF THEIR ADMINISTRATION...

There may be no great streaks of beauty in the arrangement, but unfortunately what is said of it is true, as may be gathered from the following:

Democratic control has already cost the country more actual money than did the four years' war for the maintenance of the union.

This is a startling statement, but it is absolutely true. Less than two years of democratic control has reduced more men of former affluence to absolute poverty than any other twenty years in the history of the United States.

It has practically bankrupted most of the great railroads of the west, and crippled many in the south and east.

It has thrown out of heretofore profitable employment an army of men greater than was ever commanded by the invincible General Grant, and he commanded more men than any other general in the history of the world.

It has converted honest and industrious mechanics into strikers and tramps all over the land.

It has pinched and starved tender women and little children, leaving them homeless and without hope.

It has paralyzed trade, stopped the besting of millions of industrious hands, and silenced the hum of countless looms and spindles in the south as well as in the north.

It has reduced the farmers of this country almost to a state of vassalage.

No one has profited by all this unless he has speculated on the misfortunes of his fellow men, for it has been an absolute destruction of property and the wiping out of values as with a sponge.

If any dictator, emperor or king could have oppressed a great people as the democratic party has done, he would have been sentenced to death a thousand times and the sentences summarily carried into effect.

Not even the most abject apologist for democratic failure can point to one single act of the democratic majority that has benefited the country in the slightest degree.

Nothing that may or may not be done at Washington now can change the result. The mischief has been wrought. Confidence has been destroyed.

The people have been deceived and betrayed. Amid all this financial chaos there is a ray of hope.

On the 6th of November the people of this country will pronounce emphatic judgment upon an incompetent and unfaithful stewardship and will entrust the control to other hands.

The mission, then, of the republican party is to bind up the nation's wounds and to bring back smiling peace and plenty again.

LETTERS FROM THE WEST.

city throughout the country are printed by Bradstreet's. As a rule, an improvement has ensued as the result of the removal of tariff uncertainty.

A feature is found in declarations from manufacturers of wooden goods, glassware, pottery and iron and steel at various centers of production that wages will probably be reduced as the result of the substitution of the Wilson bill for the McKinley act.

In contradistinction to these unfavorable signs in the United States, Bradstreet's prints this brief interesting and significant announcement from Toronto, Canada:

"The new United States tariff, it is thought here, will be advantageous to this country, and a revival in many industries is looked for."

Gov. STOVER, who is chairman of the republican central committee of this county, is in favor of throwing every precaution about the conduct of the precinct primary caucuses of the party, so that no unfairness can be charged by any one in the selection of delegates to the county convention.

Heretofore the precinct primaries in this county have been carelessly managed, and whoever was chairman of the primary had it in his power to control the selection of delegates.

Gov. Stover is in favor of stating in the call the exact time and place of holding the primaries, and that proxies must be held by residents of the precinct.

These reforms are so fair to all that the committee will doubtless embody them into the next call. If this is done there will be no cause for an "independent" movement this year.

The appropriations made during the present session of congress are greater than those provided at the first session of the Fifty-first congress—the famous billion-dollar congress—whose performance almost caused the patriotic democracy to despair of the future of their beloved land.

Mr. Cannon places the excess at $27,209,858.72, and this in spite of the fact that the appropriations for pensions this year are $39,099,504.85 less than was appropriated last year.

These days are sensibly growing shorter, and the long evenings of the pleasant weather steal in with a sense of contentment and enjoyment which renders them very attractive.

Time flies rapidly and it surprises none to find that they are already far advanced in the latter half of a year that seems to have opened upon them but yesterday.

The Santa Fe Republican says: "The records of the Colorado Irrigation Engineers show that more than 40,000 cubic feet of water are appropriated from the Rio Grande above the New Mexico line. This is a fact. Yet Antonio Joseph Munchhausen is now earnestly engaged in lobbying a bill through congress for a new Colorado ditch."

Edward Folsom of Hammondport, N. Y., is accused of having planned three murders, made three attempts to rob a bank, fired eleven buildings, passed several forged notes, eloped with the village belle and twice attempted suicide—all in two weeks.

And yet New York papers still talk about dime novel desperadoes in the west.

The new tariff bill reduces the import duty on cotton goods from 11 to 21 per cent, and on cloths from 8 to 50 per cent according to quality.

LEARN LOWER WAGES.

A team left town this morning en route for Verde station, having on board J. W. ... as driver, and Messrs. Poff, ... Jay and F. X. Garrett, as passengers.

When they reached the Point of Rocks, a man with a four-inch over his head and a trust Winchester in his hand, gently asked that the boys elevate their hands.

This was complied with in the usual hasty manner people are noted for under such circumstances, when the lone highwayman commenced his work of putting goods, wares and coins on the free list in a manner that would make the average democrat blush with envy.

Each man was held up for all he was worth, and the robber secured a little over $150 for his labor. He was very modest in his disposition as far as it could be shown but at the same time he was resolute and determined.

The team proceeded on its journey, and later Mr. Jackson returned to notify the officers of the occurrence and also to swear out a complaint, which he did before Judge Fleury.

Deputy Sheriff Potts was sent out to the scene, but up to the time of going to press nothing has been learned from him.

This is the first hold-up to take place in several years in this section, and may be considered somewhat of a surprise as to the amount the robber received, in view of the full times heard of on every hand.—Prescott Journal-Miner.

In Old Town. "If you know anybody who wants an old pump, send them to me, for I have a half dozen discarded ones," remarked Herman Blueher, the gardener, who took pleasure in showing the new Marsh steam pump put up by Whitney, Dodson & Co., the agents in this city.

This pump has a capacity of 4,000 gallons per hour, raising water thirty-five feet from four points, of eighteen feet each, to a tank of 10,000 gallons capacity, the latter having been shipped through John A. Lee & Co., from California.

It is made of redwood, Fred Herman and Ernest Krieglsteiner have "bitched" on the level land. Mr. Cannon places the excess at $27,209,858.72, and this in spite of the fact that the appropriations for pensions this year are $39,099,504.85 less than was appropriated last year.

The morning sheet in this city, has made a business every election of selling its supposed influence to whoever would buy, but this year that paper will find slim picking. The Socorro Advertiser says on this subject:

The Albuquerque Democrat has proposed everything for a "day" this year and no one need be surprised to see it supporting the republican nominees. It is learned from republican sources that the party leaders consider $250 entirely too much for the supposed influence of the great morning failure published in the Lake city, and the chances are good for a smaller offer being made; not because its influence (if) is desired, but just to keep the colonel from feeling badly.

When a jim crow daily like the Democrat attempts to set the standard of newspaper morality in New Mexico, its fall should be a matter of public congratulation.

HEAVY RAIN.

Las Cruces, Aug. 26.—H. W. Cox, of San Augustine, reports a heavy rain at his place which completely washed away a windmill that he had just erected.

Rocks that weighed a ton were washed down the canon nearly half a mile.

Miss Susie Adair, postmistress at Pinos Altos, is here on a visit to her friends and also expects to regain her health while here.

The public school will open with many more pupils and some new furniture. The Agricultural college will also open with a larger attendance than last year.

Hon. Numa Raymond says he will not be an office seeker but will help to down the democratic party.

A Life sentence. The jury in the Jose Marquez case returned a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. It was thought by many that the sentence would be hanging, but there was no evidence that the murder was a premeditated one, and Judge Hawkins sentenced Marquez to imprisonment for life.

The crime for which Jose Marquez will serve the territory for the rest of his life was the killing of Thomas Grady at Miquel station on the Grand Canon stage line. The murder was committed on the morning of September 14, 1893.

Grady was popular, and had Marquez been caught at the time, it is quite likely that his case would never have come to trial. He made good his escape, and was at large until April 15, 1894, when he was captured near Las Vegas, N. M., by ex-Sheriff Ralph H. Cameron, and was the next day placed in the Coconino county jail, where he remained until his trial.

Death of Miss Louise Hensley. We are pained to announce the death of Miss Louise Hensley, which occurred this morning at 3 o'clock.

Miss Louise was born in Fulton, and was thus taken at the early age of 22. Her health had been failing for several years, and finally developed into that dread disease, consumption.

Last winter she spent in New Mexico, hoping that her health might be restored, but returned to remain with her many friends and loved ones only a few months. Her funeral will take place at the Baptist church to-morrow afternoon, and burial in the new cemetery.—Sun, Fulton, Mo.

The above article is taken from the Fulton, Mo., Sun, dated the 21st. Miss Hensley will be remembered by many friends in this city, who will be pained to hear of her death.

While in the city she stopped with the Misses Wright, on Silver avenue.

THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF YOUR ATTENDANCE.

Our Territorial Fair is of immense benefit to New Mexico, thus benefiting every resident. A great many strangers visit the fair and the only way to give them a good impression of our land of sunshine is to make the fair a grand success.

Lay aside local questions, forget politics and fall in and help the fair.—Springer or Stockman.

South Carolina. Barnwell county, South Carolina, has a prodigy of memory as much more of a wonder than McCurtain, Va. Hann et al. of that ilk as those freaks were above the average of humanity.

His first great feat, and that great when he "goes down into history," was that of committing to memory the entire book of Genesis in two hours and fifty-two minutes.

Interesting Letter. The utter emptiness of the life of an idle woman of the upper class in the last century is illustrated by the following letter, which was actually written by a French countess to the absent count.

"Dear Husband—Not knowing what else to do, I will write to you. 'Not knowing what to say, I will close. Wearily yours, COUNTESS DE R."

Baltimore Takes Freedmen. Baltimore's health authorities are destroying the mattresses used by immigrants as fast as they arrive. The bedding of 600 was destroyed one day last week. Last year 20,000 mattresses were burned, and the number this year has reached 1,000.

GRAINS OF GOLD. Truth is never afraid to wait. A long face is not a passport to heaven. The troubles we most fear never happen.

There is nothing more contagious than example. God never gave anybody the right to be disagreeable. Hurry and worry are both great enemies to health.

No prayers except those the heart speaks are heard in heaven. People who are not to be trusted in trifles are not to be trusted anywhere. A reformer is often a man whose neighbors wish he would begin on himself.

We are all the time making character, whether we are doing anything else or not. Status are moulded by little touches. Characters are formed in the same way. The world is not suffering so much for want of more preaching as it is for more practice.

You can't tell much about man's religion by what he does when he knows he is watched. One of the hardest lessons to learn is that we are made out of the same kind of clay as other folks.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer all inquiries regarding it when stamp is enclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. Wm. Rosch, J. P., Primory, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, Druggists.

John T. Kelly, of Golden, has eloped with Mrs. Hargrave, of Cerrillos. The guilty couple are believed to be in Lincoln county, and they will be arrested for violation of the Edmunds law.

A Happy Meeting.

Otterville, Va.—For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia and nothing relieved me until I tried Simmons' Liver Regulator. This is the best medicine in the world. I am now in good health.—Mrs. N. J. Collins. Your druggist sells it in power or liquid. The powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

In order to introduce Chamberlain's Cough Remedy here we sold several dozen bottles on strict guarantee and have found every bottle did good service. We have used it ourselves and think it superior to any other. W. I. Morrey, Jarvisville, W. Va. For sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, Druggists.

Major Chace Arrested. Last evening a special United States officer placed under arrest Major Chace, one of Los Animas county's old time and prominent Mexican citizens, charging him with fraud in connection with pension matters. He was taken before Commissioner Cook this morning and admitted to bail. We hope and believe that the Major will be able to establish his innocence.—Trinidad Chronicle.

Help the Fair. The Territorial Fair will be held at Albuquerque commencing Tuesday, September 11th, and continuing four days. Everybody who possibly can, should put forth an effort to assist in making the fair a success. Gather up something and forward for exhibition and if you can spare the time and expense, give the fair
