Baltimore, Md., July 18.—On the heels of the great gathering of Christian Endeavorers at Boston, and almost before their praise had ceased to echo through the land comes the assembling in the city of the hosts of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. It is the fifth international convention of the organization, and the 15,000 delegates who have brought with them nearly as many of their kindred, come from every section of every state in the Union, as well as from Canada and from Mexico.

Owing to the fact that Baltimore has no hall large enough to accommodate so great a gathering a mammoth tent has been erected at the Madison street entrance to Druid Hill Park, and which is said to be the largest stretch of canvas ever put up in the world. It affords space for 12,000 chairs, covers a tract of ground 325 by 195 feet, and is supported by poles fifty feet in height. Under the shelter of this great canopy 10,000 delegates assembled this morning at 10 o'clock when the convention was called to order by President John H. Chapman, of Chicago. The devotional exercises, which were characterized by great enthusiasm and fervor, were led by Rev. Dr. C. A. Hobbs, of Delaware, Wis. The praise and prayer occupied nearly half a hour, and welcoming addresses were then made. Eugene Levering, of the Rutledge Place church, spoke for the churches of Baltimore; Rev. H. M. Wharton, of the Brantly Memorial church, spoke for the Young People's society of Baltimore, and response on behalf of the board of managers of the International Union and the delegates was made by the Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Brooklyn. The latter laid special stress upon the fact that this was the first time that Mexico had sent delegates to the convention and gave an especial greeting to those from the provinces of Quebec, Ontario, and Manitoba.

A rousing reception was given to the indefatigable general secretary, Dr. Frank L. Williams, when he took the platform for the purpose of reading the general report of the general managers, and after the document had been disposed of with out discussion, two brief addresses were delivered, one upon culture for service, by Rev. Dr. Wallace, of Toronto, and the other upon "The Junior Society as the Hope of the Movement," by Rev. Dr. R. D. Grant, of Portland, Ore. The afternoon service was prefaced by a praise service led by Rev. L. B. Thomas, of Colorado Springs, and the convention resolved itself into an open parliament at which systematic and proportionate giving was discussed by a number of speakers.

It was sweltering hot within the great tent brought from Cleveland for the convention. Promptly at 10 o'clock President John H. Chapman, of Chicago, called upon a chorus of 500 voices, which responded with two selections. The president was very happy in his address and called forth much laughter when he alluded to the warm hearts and warm sun of the south.

Omaha, Neb., July 18.—The cry for municipal reform in Omaha, caused generally by fire, police and other departments being dominated and used for political purposes by the radical element in the A. P. A., has resulted in a reorganization of the police force under Chief White, whom a commission secured from Chicago. Twenty five political and sectarian agitators have been discharged and an edict issued that policemen must not let political and religious affairs interfere with their duty as officers.

More Than Two Centuries. Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., July 18.—Two centuries and a half have elapsed since the day upon which Gov. Winthrop, who had been sent out from England to the Bay colony, landed with his suite from the ship Arbella on the Manchester shore, and to-day, with booming of cannon, music, processions and feasting, the patriotic citizens of the town that now covers the shores are celebrating the historic event. An interesting feature of the exercises this morning was the landing of a company of citizens from a vessel built to resemble the old Arbella in every detail, and which had been constructed at a cost of several thousand dollars. On landing they were seized by a committee and, imitating to the letter the experience of the original arrivals 250 years ago, were conducted to a place of entertainment where they were feasted on strawberries and cream and nothing else. Gov. Greenhalgh and suite arrived shortly before noon, and after reviewing the procession, took part in the public exercises and festivities.

HORR-HARVEY DEBATE. The Two Opposing Orators Whacking Away at Each Other.

Chicago, July 18.—The third day of the Horr-Harvey silver debate opened at 11 a. m. in the lateness of the morning, virtual heretofore having been found inconvenient in some respects. The subject under discussion was, what Harvey had characterized in his book "Crime of '73" demoralization of silver. After some miscellaneous sparring, Harvey charged corruption in the passage of the demoralization act.

Harvey repudiated the inference that the citizens of the United States were all corrupt, and none of them were virtuous. Horr declared that it was not true that every man had his price. The members of congress were as honest as the average American citizen. He knew where he spoke for he has been a member of that body. Harvey was one history of the demoralization act and proceeded to show the stages through which it had passed, and that final enactment was not passed after it had been before congress nearly three years.

Harvey returned to the attack upon the honesty of legislators throughout the country, including congress, and Illinois and Colorado legislatures. This venality was copying the imitations of the government as it destroyed every republic of the past.

Horr again returned to the defense of the honesty of American people. He said Harvey merely picked out a few corrupt men and drew from them a proposition that the people of the nation were all corrupt. If Harvey had lived in Job's time he would have looked over that unfortunate man's sins and gone out and published throughout the world that all children were one hundred percent liars. Horr then, amid laughter, said he would return to the question under discussion, and proceeded with the history of the demoralization act, pointing out how the bill had been passed in several times and printed separately seven times and twice in the reports of the comptroller of the currency. The demoralization bill occupied sixty six columns of the Congressional Record.
