Chas. A. Spies, a well known republican attorney of Las Vegas, came to the north last night and is here to-day on legal matters. Mr. Spies attended the republican convention of Mora county, and reports everything and everybody in the convention as harmonious and on the right side of the fence.

Mrs. Harry Lockhart was this morning granted a divorce from her husband, Harry Lockhart. Judge Crumpacker also permitted her to resume her maiden name of Winifred S. Shuckhart.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS.

Gave a Delightful Entertainment to Their Friends at the Assembly.

That Miss Catherine Field and her physical culture class, of the University, are popular entertainers, was again evinced last evening by the rendition of a singing program. The room was crowded with spectators and admirers of the young ladies, and as a result of the evening's entertainment the University gained a small little sum to add to their treasury.

The young ladies composing the physical culture class are the following: Miss Lillian Lellor, Miss Jeanne Lella Buchanan, Miss Overholt, Lida Kellogg, Nellie Brewer, Mabel Hunt, Laura Kravinko, Myrtle Williams, Mary Coons, Olive Everett, Mabel Stam, Zora Barth, Elizabeth Hughes, Gertrude Keddings, Olive Hawley.

Miss Freda Barth and Laura Kravinko opened the evening's program with a piano duet, and was followed by the fancy march by the sixteen young ladies of the class.

Miss Fannie Paul delivered a fine recitation, and a concert solo was rendered by Miss Mabel Anderson.

"Mamma's Lullaby," a recitation given by Miss Lilla Buchanan, was received with great applause. Miss Mabel Hunt and Francis Lilla delighted the audience with a charming mandolin and guitar duet.

The game on the program was the game of basket ball, and the opposing teams lined up as follows: Miss Mabel Hunt, captain; Misses Freda Barth, Myrtle Williams, Gertrude Keddings, first team; Misses Gertrude Keddings, Myrtle Williams, Lida Kellogg, second team.

The game began and was hotly contested throughout. All the players were well drilled and during the entire evening the spectators were kept on their feet. The first half neither side could build up any score, and when time was called the score stood 2 to 2. It was necessary to award a foul, and the result was a 4 to 2 in favor of Miss Keddings' team.

When the game was ended the players and spectators joined in a very enjoyable pastime of dancing. All present had a most enjoyable evening.

State of Houston Hot Springs.

On Thursday forenoon, February 22, at the Hotel Condon, Mrs. W. H. Jacob, assignee, sold all the estate, right, title and interest in and to the property, real and personal of the Hudson Hot Springs and Sanitarium company to F. C. McBermet, of Elgin, Minn., for the cash consideration of $10,000. The proceeds of the sale were used to pay existing mortgages, amounting to $2,750 in the aggregate.

Mr. McBermet has opened the hotel and grounds, and is ready to receive the springs will find every comfort and convenience at hand. The waters of these hot springs are a sure cure for rheumatism and blood diseases.

Indian Disposition.

W. M. H. Woodward, of the Indian agency, returned from San Felipe pueblo and his assistants, who attended a council meeting yesterday of the Indians, held to consider means of opposing the slow canal crossing their lands. Mr. Woodward, who has been in attendance at the council, said that the Indians to desist from any violence in relating the canal project, but for a time it seemed as if his counsel would not prevent the danger of trouble he is not entirely over. Mr. Woodward says that the Albuquerque papers to the contrary notwithstanding, the feeling among the Indians is not so bitter as at around Bernalillo—Santa Fe New Mexican.

The Hanging Murderer.

S. Barajas, the Valenciana county deputy sheriff, with headquarters at home at San Rafael, came in from Los Lunas this morning, and was attended by a party of two men charged with the murder of J. Manning near Hamah, Valenciana county, one day last week. Mr. Barajas was leaving for the city by the early morning train this morning. The former will leave this evening for Hamah to investigate into the killing of Manning, while Sheriff Barajas will continue his investigation on business connected with his office.

New Secretary.

Last night, at a special meeting of the Commercial Club, A. E. Carasol resigned as secretary of the club, and in his stead P. J. McAnnan was selected to fill the vacancy. The new secretary is a young man of the name of Albuquerque, and is well known to the people of Albuquerque, and the Commercial club is to be congratulated on securing his valuable services.

They were shipped from Magdalena to Fort Collins, where they were placed in the feeding pens to be prepared for the market—Las Vegas Optic.

STAMM HED A GUN.

He Shot Off the City Engineer and a Gang of Workmen.

At about the seventh hour to-day there came from a bridge a report of a gun being fired in the city of Albuquerque. The city engineer and a gang of workmen are following out the instructions of the city council to clean the ditch and to extend the same through the city. The ditch extends across the property of M. P. Stamm, and he has objected to the existence of the ditch for a long time. When the workmen reached his premises this morning he went out to them, armed with a double-barreled shot gun, and forbade them from tearing up the ditch on the premises. Up to the present writing his demand has been heeded, and the workmen are still busy a few feet below the ditch.

The city engineer was authorized by the mayor and council to clean the ditch from one end to the other. Mr. Stamm prohibits them from tearing up the ditch across his property unless it is replaced.

Money Matters.

New York, March 2.—Money on call, nominally 2 1/4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4 1/2 per cent.

Every cough makes your throat more raw and irritable. Every cough congests the lining membrane of your lungs. Clearing your throat and lungs in this way. Put the parts at rest and give them a chance to heal. You will need some help to do this, and you will find it in Agers' Cherry Cough Cure. From the first dose the quiet rest begin: the tickling in the throat ceases; the spasm weakens; the cough disappears. Do not wait for pneumonia and consumption but cut short your cold without delay. Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster should be over the lungs of every person troubled with a cough. Special Correspondence.

Albuquerque, Feb. 27.—A. A. Grant, W. H. Childers and M. S. Otero, members of the low line canal company, together with Chief Engineer F. E. Harroun, came up from Albuquerque to see how work was progressing on the canal. The gentlemen paid only a flying visit and went back the same day. They seemed quite well satisfied with the progress being made with the work.

Day before yesterday, the plowdriver at the head of the canal fell overboard and was somewhat damaged, but is about ready for work again.

Indian School Superintendent Allen, in company with Dick Leary, was up from the metropolis to-day, and went around taking in the sights on the big work.

The Santa Ana Indians are trying to get the canal people to change the route of the canal somewhat, so that it will not occupy so much of their cultivated lands.

Workmen are busy preparing their ditch for the spring work.

Matched His Foot.

Engineer Frank George, of the Santa Fe Pacific, met with a painful accident yesterday morning, in which his left foot was badly crushed. While the engine was moving along at a leisurely rate of speed he went out on the running board to make some repairs, and in so doing his foot caught in the machinery, and as a result he is suffering with a horribly mangled foot. The injured man was brought to the hospital yesterday and Dr. Corbett rendered the necessary surgical attention. He is expected to get on comfortably to-day, but he will be laid up for some time.

Opera House Case.

Two hours were consumed this morning in procuring testimony from the several witnesses who were placed on the stand in regard to the recent sale of the opera house. Judge J. W. Crumpacker was on the bench and advised the attorneys to prepare briefs and submit their arguments at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Arguments to confirm the sale of the theater will be submitted by Judge Lee and District Attorney T. A. Finlay, and by George W. Smith and W. E. Ketcher will represent George R. Neher and others.

OPERA HOUSE CASE.

Arguments Heard For and Against Confirmation of Sale.

A number of interested spectators assembled at the court house to hear arguments in the opera house case this morning. A. B. McMillen, attorney for the plaintiff, presented the opening argument, to set aside the recent sale of the opera house made by Special Master A. J. Crawford on the 31st of January, 1900. He argued that the price paid at the special master's sale was grossly inadequate, and that the plaintiff was not an innocent purchaser, and that the plaintiffs were in no wise responsible for any legal costs in the sale. He argued that the sale was without power and could not be considered legal. W. R. Childers next occupied the attention of Judge Crumpacker in behalf of the defendant, and submitted a number of citations with reference to the case at issue, declared that when Otto Dieckman purchased the opera house he was not aware of the fact that the sale had not been advertised the length of time required by law.

Thomas A. Finlay made the opening argument in the interest of the defendant. He held that A. J. Crawford, being appointed by the court as special master, was simply carrying out the instructions of the court, and that he was not responsible for the sale. He argued that the sale was in conformity with the law and tried to encourage high bidding of the sale at the court house. The plaintiff's attorney declared that it was within their power to satisfy all claims before date of sale. He cited instances where he would be held liable for the amount of a note, and that in this particular case the purchase was made in good faith, and Mr. Dieckman expected to secure a good title to the property.

The court postponed the hearing of the arguments until to-morrow morning, when W. D. Lee will finish the argument for the defense.

Otero County Convention.

The republican county convention of Otero county has been called at Alamogordo for March 10, 1900. The convention will consist of twenty delegates, and will elect three delegates to the Socorro convention.

Horses for South Africa.

New Mexico is to furnish horses for the war in the Transvaal. A horse breeder at Magdalena, Socorro county, has received a contract for horses for European export, and if the horses will stand the trip New Mexico will receive some special favor for another profitable industry, for despite automobile and trolley there is an ever-increasing demand for horses. European cavalry alone has to use over 1,000,000 horses, and this is only one of the noble animals in put in Europe and in this country. The world looks to New Mexico for a considerable part of its wool, cattle, hides, fruit, gold, copper, and why not for horses and other goods that this territory can supply whenever the demand is strong enough to make its supply profitable.—New Mexican.

From Friday's Daily.

J. O. Gidson and E. S. Abell are on the sick list.

A. H. Collins is among the late arrivals from Flagstaff.

G. W. Harris was here from the Jeandoo City yesterday.

G. A. McIntosh, of Silver City, arrived in the city this morning from the south.

Henry Howe is among the Blaudites who arrived in the metropolis yesterday.

Librado C. de Baca and Procelina Ortiz, of Pena Blanca, are in the city to-day.

W. W. Judy, prominently known in Winslow, is enjoying life in the metropolitan city to-day.

L. Scott and C. C. Lord are pleasant Los Angeles gentlemen who put up at the Grand Central last night.

Mrs. K. W. Davis, of Las Vegas, came to the city last night, and will visit a few days with her sister, Mrs. Weed.

Dr. Y. Davis Valle and Abelardo Perez are in the city from San Mateo, New Mexico. They are registered at the Sturges.

J. T. McLaughlin, superintendent of the mining and smelting plant at San Pedro, came in from the north last night on a business trip.

Robert B. Benham, who is extensively interested in the lumber business at Miami, is transacting some business matters in the city to-day.

Clifton Hill the latest general merchant, writes THE CITIZEN that there will be a big dance among the Indians of that village on Sunday, March 4.

Manager W. L. Bretherton, of the big coal mine at Clarksville, N. M., was an incoming passenger from the west last night. He is accompanied by his son.

Dr. W. G. Hope, who accompanied A. M. Adams to Los Angeles the other day, has returned to the city. The doctor left his patient comfortably located and somewhat better in health.

The mayor of Los Griegos acquiesces in the city data that he is about to turn his water into the city ditch, and that honorable body is getting a hump on itself to obey the mandate.

George Bush, who conducts the big dairy at Miami, was in the city to-day and purchased several head of cattle. He was accompanied by John Kwans. They started on the return trip this evening.

Miss Mabelle Biggart's conception of George Klot and great work, Adam Bede, was just, concise and masterly.—New Orleans Piousyne. Congregational church, Saturday, 3 o'clock. Adam Bede matinee recital.

H. J. Haverkamp, the teamster and ranchman of the Jemez hot springs, was here yesterday. He left on his return for the springs this morning, and several wagons were loaded with merchandise west along with him.

The firm of Melini & Kakin received another car load of fancy wines and brandy yesterday. They are coming right to the front with their goods, and are enjoying a big wholesale business in New Mexico and Arizona.

An alarm of fire was sounded this afternoon, but the fire was extinguished in short order and the departments were not called out. A pile of rubbish had caught fire near the round house, but the employees made short work of it.

Yesterday afternoon the Ladies' Aid society of the Lead Avenue Methodist church met at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Strong. After the transaction of business, of interest only to the members of the society, those present were treated to refreshments and otherwise entertained by the hostess.

J. J. Sheridan, deputy United States marshal, and his accomplished wife, were delightfully surprised last evening when a troop of their neighbors and friends came streaming in. But they were equal to the occasion, as they always are, and there were games, music, and an elegant lunch was served by the lovely hostess. All had an enjoyable time.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Worth entertained a party of friends at their pleasant home, on West Copper avenue, last night. Progressive euchre was the principal feature of the evening's enjoyment, and a number of gentlemen and ladies who were present proved themselves to be first-class in the manipulation of cards. At a certain hour refreshments were served, which were heartily enjoyed.

Yesterday, Gross, Blackwell & Co., the big wholesale grocery merchants on Railroad avenue near the depot, took a horse and wagon to the west, and the horse was vacated by Louis Baer, the wool merchant. Gross, Blackwell & Co. will use the house for warehouse purposes. Mr. and Mrs. Baer are arranging their affairs so as to leave for Boston, Mass., their future home, in a couple of weeks.

Real estate is quietly booming in some quarters of the city and good prices are being obtained. Yesterday, F. H. Kent, the Third street real estate agent, negotiated the sale of four lots on north Fifth street to Hon. Manuel R. Otero, the popular and efficient register of the United States land office at Santa Fe. It is understood that Mr. Otero intends to improve the lots by erecting thereon several handsome residences.

Free Lectures.

The faculty of the New Mexico College of Agriculture are making arrangements for "university extension" work through the territory, in connection with the college. The following professors and subjects are available to schools desiring them, at times convenient to the lecturers: Prof. Hadley—Astronomy, education, Francis Willard.

Prof. Wootton—Botany of New Mexico, experimental physics.

Prof. Larkin—Elementary manual training.

Prof. Timpsy—The microscope, soils.

Prof. Cokerell—Nature study, evolution.

We trust this work will be of great benefit to the different sections of New Mexico. The lecturers are not receiving any compensation, but are doing it for the benefit of the people, and are not even having to pay railroad fares for the lecturers.—Donna An Republic.

What to Do Until the Doctor Arrives.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany, N. Y. druggist called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come

MINING ACTIVE.

The Cherokee District of Arizona Enjoying a Boom.

SOME EXCITEMENT AMONG MINERS.

Special Correspondence.

Chloride, Ariz., March 27.—Mining and prospecting claims north of town continue very energetically, and there can be hardly any doubt but what the new strip of ground is being worked on good account. Developments since the report made in THE CITIZEN of Wednesday, have proven that the ore bodies and silver content are of a high grade. The Cherokee and Kibbitt mines with the Juno and Merrimac mines, ranging in distance from two to three miles. Over 100 claims are being worked, and a number in the new territory, has ore in its prospect hole that will run up into the hundreds of dollars in gold and silver. On the Cherokee mine, a strike of silver has been of good effect both to sell and to lease, but prefers to keep it until he can better what will ultimately be worth. Mr. Harris, who took six days ago, found an indication on another one of the new claims located by Hamilton, in making preparations to open up his new acquisition as rapidly as possible. He has a hole ten feet deep, sampled $30 a ton, silver 100 tons, the sampling having been done by F. W. Thibault, of this city. Other claims, some of which have been worked for a long time, are being worked with the same energy. With the scarcity of water here, it is regarded almost as much a factor in the prosperity of the camp as a good mine. The new hole is to be very thoroughly and speedily worked and developed, and no doubt exists but what fine results will be obtained. Since the building boom subsided, it has relieved a, or nearly all, the carpenters of work, and those that decided to remain in the territory, are being employed in the building boom. Work was done immediately upon the ledge of both claims, which were not worked for a long time. The fair gold ore has been found, which has further inspired Mr. Thompson with work, and he hopes to retire from the work in a few days. The Cherokee mine, a proprietor of a popular sporting resort here, have been developing work done on a claim they located last fall, but up to now they have not been able to get it worked. Late assays from an eight-foot vein have given a little more than 200 ounces of gold, and a high percentage in silver and copper. The locality of their claim and works is only accessible a foot or two back and a mile from the town. The mine is being conveyed. Notwithstanding this, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Johnson are making better and more extensive preparations to work the mine, and to see to it so that they ascertain the value of the new find.

Among the many arrivals from Colorado, there are two new work and water, the latest are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall, of Victor. Mr. Marshall is an expert mining timberman, and had experience in the mining business in Colorado and elsewhere. He is a native of Utah, and has been at work in the deep underground tunnels and drifts of the Colorado mines. Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall are pleasantly situated and fixed in the S. W. Taylor cottage on Kibbitt avenue, and Mr. Marshall is in the employ of the Cherokee mine. Another one of the new arrivals entertain any idea whatever of leaving or wanting to leave Mohave county.

By far a representative audience of music and gospel loving people at the new public school building last Sunday evening at the discourse delivered by Rev. J. H. Kingman, and to observe and listen to the well arranged program of exercises conducted before and after the highly edifying sermon.

At the close of the services the minister announced that he would give another appointment here for four weeks, or until the fourth Sunday in March, and by that time another program of exercises will have been given. It is believed that the program will prove as highly entertaining and interesting as upon the present occasion, when it is expected that Mrs. W. C. W. will be present. Mrs. W. C. W. is a native of Ohio, and has been in the city for some time. She is a member of the church, and is a very capable and efficient teacher. Her husband is a well known and successful merchant in the city. The program will be given at the usual hour, and is expected to be a most successful one.

The body of the man who was accidentally killed by a wagon wheel last Friday night is said to be still lying in the wagon wheel freight house.

It is the justice of the peace at that point, who is ex-officio coroner, has refused to hold an inquest, or have anything to do with the disposal of the body, presumably because he had a similar case some time ago and failed to receive his fees for his services. However, Assistant District Attorney Davis wired the justice this morning to hold an inquest and bury the body at the expense of the county.—Las Vegas Optic.

at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and he hoped would give some relief. The doctor should arrive in a few hours he returned, saying the doctor had not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. O. H. Smith, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by all druggists.

STATISTICS OF THE INDIANS.

Their Numbers Estimated at 250,000—250 Schools Are Maintained.

Special Correspondence.

Chloride, Ariz., March 27.—The Indian tribes shows that the parlor companies and the apartment house builders have still a big fund of names, euphonious and otherwise, to draw from, although, in running down the list, it is explained that the selection of Indian names. No one, for instance, would want to live in the Two-Kettle Sioux apartments, and some objection might be made to names like Winklespish, Humptulup and Muck-shoo, but there are a great many of the selection of Indian names. The most expensive of dress materials is lace. Point lace, however, is the most expensive, and is sold at prices ranging up to $125 a yard, four yards being required for a skirt. The same lace could be used for the waist, in which case it would be sold at $75 a yard; but often there is added to the waist and sleeves an allover lace to match the flounce. This, in a lace from 18 to 22 inches in width, to match the flounce at $
