

TOWNS OF LAS VEGAS

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 23.—It was harmony as has not been seen in a political nominating gathering of its kind for many moons. The republican precinct convention last night for nominating delegates to the county convention from precinct 29 last night at the city hall was held without a dissenting voice.

Chairman Thomas Ross called the meeting to order, and Harry W. Kelly was made permanent chairman with S. B. Davis, Jr., secretary. F. O. Blood moved that the chair appoint a committee of three to retire and make up a list of delegates to present for the consideration of the meeting. B. F. Forsythe, F. O. Blood and Damacio Tafuya were appointed the committee. J. M. Reed then moved that those of the committee also be made three of the delegates to the convention, which was ordered by the president.

While the committee were deliberating Chairman Kelly rose and said that it was the most enthusiastic primary and best attended that he had ever attended without a row. He then called for a speech by some of those present, and Thomas Ross was called forward. He spoke of how gratifying it is to him to see such harmony in the ranks of the republican party, and nothing pleased him better than harmony. He saw nothing but success for the republican party this year, national as well as local. All the industries were grinding, overworked and rushed with orders, plenty of money in circulation and everything moving the best in the history of the country. He felt that the republican party were responsible for such a prosperous state of affairs, and then he spoke of the time when he first came to New Mexico. Wool was worth 5 and 6 cents a pound, and little was bought at that. Sheep and lambs were worth 50 cents and $1 a head. This was in Cleveland's time, but now things were changed; the prices were doubled, and some more than doubled. In fact, he said, he could not see why there was a democratic party in New Mexico. They were tried once, and like a child burned once with fire, he will not return to it, and he could not see how anybody, especially in New Mexico, could be anything else but a republican. He urged the continuance of harmony, and cautioned the party to take no chances, but get out and hustle; rolling up a majority that will make a better showing in Washington for statehood. Mr. Ross' remarks were assented in by all present, and it aptly put the feelings of the large crowd present.

At the conclusion of his speech, Mr. Kelly recalled the fact that there had been no failures among the business men in the city for years; in fact, when he asked for any record none could be given. This speaks well, not only for the town, but the grand republican principles which have caused such a state of affairs.

The committee on delegates then came in and the following names were passed upon and made delegates to the county convention to meet October 29: J. S. Clark, A. T. Rogers, Jr., Isidoro Bustos, Al Quinney, W. H. Coleman, George Fleming, M. Stewart, B. C. Pittinger, P. Lyman, Al Lane, O. I. Gregory, W. C. Hurt, E. Herrera, J. M. Reed, A. Brinkley, D. Strawmatt, Damacio Tafuya, B. F. Forsythe and F. O. Blood.

The meeting then adjourned at 8:30, everybody feeling happy over the harmonious meeting and the united fight against the enemy it means.

Short Notes.

Mrs. W. C. Uptegrove, mother of Mrs. C. Waring, left yesterday evening for Los Lunas for a visit. From there she will go on to Deming, where she will make her home for a period.

Word was received here yesterday announcing the death at El Paso of Mrs. W. L. Peabody, the wife of the gentleman who was formerly the local manager for Wardenburg & White. Mr. Peabody is now in the drug business at El Paso. He made many friends here who will regret to learn of his wife's untimely death.

Judge E. V. Lora returned yesterday evening from his trip to Watrous. He brought home a fine bear skin, a recent capture near that town.

C. L. Gibson and C. L. Heidel left this morning for a trip to the mountains. They are not telling where they are going, but evidently have a "gold mine" some where.

There was frost last night as the weather man predicted.

Sig Nahn received a telegram this morning from the Kohn boys at Montoya in answer to one he sent inquiring about their fracas there a day or so ago, in which the boys were roughly handled, saying they were not seriously injured, but they gave no particulars.

Bernardo Archuleta was married yesterday to Miss Salastina Gutierrez at San Geronimo. There was a big dance and feast after the wedding.

Edward David, of Bernalillo county, has been adjudged insane and papers have been made out committing him to the asylum here.

Mrs. Charles Rudolph, son and daughter, and Mrs. Richard Dunn came in from Roviada yesterday and will go out to San Geronimo to visit Mrs. Bert Adams.

The way of the transgressor is certainly hard, but a man who is party bolster has no kick. Jose de la Cruz and his partner went on a couple of days ago to some of the outlying precincts to bill the big Marguerite powwow to be held on the 29th. They got into a scrap and the partner had to take the train home, while Jose made merry with several women, whom it is rumored, are not of very good reputation. They imbibed together and Jose seems to have gotten skinned up somewhat. Anyway he was brought in in a wagon yesterday, knocked out after carrying sedition doctrine to the outlying precincts, and the women have a sample of the harness for a souvenir of the jamboree. The buggy is stranded some where in the country and the bill Marguerite will have to pay will make him think twice.

The spirit of harmony seems to have certainly perched on the republican banner. Last night in precinct 64, the republicans held a meeting which was to duplicate for the one in No. 29, as to harmony, and unity of thought. There were no dissenting voices in the large attendance, and enthusiastic speeches were made by Hon. Charles A. Spiess, Zacarias Valdez, D. Castillano and others. Enriquez H. Salazar was made chairman of the meeting and Bonifacio Lucero secretary. The meeting was held in the school house in district No. 1 and seven delegates were unanimously named to the county convention. Following are those selected: Secundino Romero, Charles A. Spiess, Jose S. Esquibel, Rufus Esquibel, E. H. Salazar, Felipe Baca Garcia and Antonio Madrid. The meeting held until late and in point of attendance and enthusiasm was up to the standard set this year by the republican party.

Zacarias Valdez and family left this morning for a visit at El Cervo.

The many friends of Mrs. Patience Schoonmaker heard with infinite sorrow this morning that the most estimable lady had passed to her reward. She died last night at 10 o'clock at her son, R. B. Schoonmaker's ranch up in the mountains. Her death was sudden and unexpected, though she has not been overly well for some time. She went up to the ranch a couple of weeks ago for a little cutting and her son, R. B. Schoonmaker, was with her. She was getting well advanced in years, being in the neighborhood of 78 years. The immediate cause of her death is attributed to heart failure. Word was sent to R. B. Schoonmaker, of Hield's, last night by a messenger who used the phone from Trout Springs and the sorrowing son, in company with S. K. Sydes and Charles Brown, left for the ranch this morning. S. R. The distressing intelligence was telegraphed here this morning from Los Angeles that Mrs. Emilia Otero de Hernandez had passed to her maker, she dying at the Hotel Nadeau there this morning at 6 o'clock. The sad news will come as a blow to this most estimable lady's numerous friends in this city, and their heartfelt sympathy is being extended to the children here, Manuel Henriquez and Mrs. F. A. Manzanares, Jr. It is comforting to know that Benito Baca and Miss Rebecca Henriquez were present when their mother passed away. Mr. Baca just having gone to see his mother about a week ago. The remains will leave Los Angeles tonight and are expected in this city Thursday.

Mrs. Henriquez has been in poor health for some time and went to Los Angeles last spring to try a change of climate. The immediate cause of her death is attributed to heart failure.

She is quite a noted character, and has been traveling among prisons in the states and territories of the union for the past twenty years. She is familiarly known as "Old Mother Wheaton" and is through here from back east. She travels on a railroad pass, but is unique in that she does not make any collections. She made a couple of speeches on the train coming down yesterday, one of which was made as the train was going through the Raton tunnel. She shook hands with the reporter, blessed him and wanted him saved from the hands of the democrats. She also paid W. A. Givens, who was on the train, some attention. It is said that Mr. Givens did not smoke a cigar all the way from Des Moines, as she always buttonholed every smoker she saw.

The county commissioners at their meeting yesterday, finished up the refunding of $334,600 of county bonds, which had so far been presented. Mrs. C. D. Boucher most pleasantly entertained the Round Dozen Sewing circle and their husbands last night at her home. Games instead of knitting was the order of the evening, with some good refreshments. One of the features was the guessing of the advertisements in the local papers. The advertisements were cut from the paper, and the names taken off. The guests then guessed whose advertisement was. D. J. Osborne and Clarence Iden tied for the gentlemen's prize and Mr. Osborne won in the draw. Mrs. C. Wallen took the prize for the ladies. The speeches were of a patriotic and enthusiastic, and harmonious with the expressed intention to abide by the wishes of the majority in the convention. Rafael Gallegos, a puny politician, tried to make a speech against the re-election of those people who give him the crumbs off of which he subsists, but was hooted down.
