

RAILROAD NOTES.

R. B. Mudge, day clerk at the Alvarado, is back at his accustomed position after a few days' sickness.

Local No. 99 was held several hours today on account of power shortage. The Santa Fe is short on engines.

Charles Stevenson, the popular passenger conductor, left yesterday afternoon for California.

John H. Bell has been succeeded as messenger of the Wells-Fargo Express company on the Lamy branch, by Ray Kivenburg.

E. J. Scott resigned his position in the car repairing shop at Las Vegas, and left for Santa Fe, to take a position in the job rooms of the New Mexican.

Conductor Forkner and Brakemen Miller and Shepard have taken a lay off and will spend their leisure time hunting bear in the mountains around Glorieta.

Dan Strawmatt, who had been firing on the Hot Springs branch for several days, has gone back on the main line, and Fireman Lyster takes the Springs run.

The nuptials of W. K. Etter, chief clerk to General Superintendent J. E. Hurley at Topeka, Kan., and Miss Lockie Fort, of Las Vegas, are announced in railroad circles.

The industrial department of the Santa Fe is locating several large creameries in Texas, where that business has been found to be very profitable.

A local railroad man thinks it is a sure thing that the Rock Island will enter into a joint traffic agreement with the Santa Fe to use its new cut off.

A letter of inquiry has been received asking for J. H. Wilson, formerly of Longview and Mineola, Texas. He was at one time a railroad man and is well known at Tuskahoma, I. T., Rockport and Tyler, Texas. The letter, which is from F. L. DeShong, of Tyler, Texas, says his friends fear he has met with foul play, but they have just been informed Wilson has been seen at Santa Fe. The letter is one of friendly solicitude only.

J. B. Yobe, general superintendent of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad, accompanied by his family, passed through the city this morning in a private car attached to passenger No. 2. They have been touring the coast and are on their return to their eastern home.

Dan Elliott, the roadmaster, is in the territorial metropolis from Las Vegas.

H. Heuser, representing B. Lantry & Sons, the big railroad construction contracting firm, is in the city.

It is stated that all of the old employees of the Union Pacific will be retired on pensions. This system will involve about $30,000 annually. It goes into effect January 1.

The world's fair commission for Texas reports the receipt of $5,000 from the Texas & Pacific road, $10,000 from the Southern Pacific and $5,000 from the Santa Fe.

T. M. Ramsdell, traveling superintendent of the car department of the Santa Fe, is visiting the local yards.

The Raton Gazette states that Master Mechanic David Suller, formerly an engineer running out of Albuquerque, is still in a serious condition as the result of the injuries he received. Mr. Suller was running through the Raton shops to a nearby fire, and in the darkness fell into a drop pit in the round house. He broke several ribs, was injured internally and badly bruised by the accident. He will recover.

SANTA FE ALL RIGHT.

Commerce Commission Sustains Its San Francisco Rates.

Commissioner Prouty of the interstate commerce commission has handed down a decision in the case of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway and other roads accused of charging exorbitant freight rates on goods shipped from Chicago, St. Louis and other middle western points to San Francisco. The commissioner holds that the evidence is not sufficient to prove violation of the law on the part of the railways. He says in part:

"The differences between car load and less than car load rates from St. Louis, Chicago and other points in the middle west to Pacific coast territory, which are the subject of complaint herein and which average about 50 cents per 100 pounds, are not, taking the rate adjustment as a whole, and giving due consideration to the controlling force of water competition between the eastern seaboard and the Pacific coast, different enough to be unjust. But while the tariff cannot be condemned as a whole upon grounds urged by the complainants, many of the details in such tariff are in violation of law."

Further hearings in the case will be held at St. Louis on the second Tuesday in February.

PUEBLO TO SANTA ROSA.

Rock Island Said to Be Ready to Let More Contracts.

Within sixty days it is said contracts will be let for the building of 265 miles of railroad by the Rock Island system connecting Pueblo with Santa Rosa. The object is to secure for the Rock Island another outlet from Denver and Colorado Springs to the Pacific coast via El Paso, and, at the same time, tap the immense coal fields at Trinidad, Col.

The Rock Island line from Liberal, Kan., which connects with the Southern Pacific at El Paso, runs through Santa Rosa, and the proposed line from Pueblo will be the connecting link in the system between Colorado and the Pacific coast.

The Rock Island uses the tracks of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad between Colorado Springs and Pueblo, and when the proposed line is finished, it is understood the road will lay its own tracks from Colorado Springs to Pueblo.

RIO PUERCO BRIDGE.

It is Being Repaired, Rip-Rapped and Strengthened.

That the bridge spanning the Rio Puerco is being repaired and its abutments are being rip-rapped and otherwise strengthened, and that the Santa Fe Pacific tracks and roadbed for several miles this side of the bridge are being set with rock ballast, is strong evidence that the Santa Fe intends to haul its heavy trains that way and is almost positive proof that Belen will get the cut off. If the cut off is to be built by way of La Joya, these improvements would be unnecessary, as the road would cross the Rio Puerco on the Rio Grande bridge below Salinal and thus avoid a second crossing of that treacherous bridge-weakening stream.

The contracting firm of B. Lantry & Sons are doing the rock work on the Rio Puerco bridge abutments. The foreman of the gang was here yesterday to confer with Charles J. Lantry, of the firm, who arrived from Strong City, Kan., where the firm also has contract work on the Strong City branch of the Santa Fe. Mr. Lantry said that they were going to bid for the building of the cut off, and as they are in favor with the Santa Fe, the chances for getting the job are good. Mr. Lantry as good as said that the road would go by way of Belen, for he did not deny that his firm was to bid on the building of the road across the Rio Grande at that place. It is not yet known what disposition the Santa Fe will show toward Belen, but it is very likely to make it quite a station, as it will be a junction between the Rio Grande division and the new road. A Harvey eating house will probably be established there. The good people of Belen expect great things.

STATION AGENT JONES.

How He Attends to His Duties at the Indian Village at Laguna.

Out at Laguna where the wind blows cold these days, in a room as big as all outdoors and with such cracks and crevices in the walls that a good part of the cold outdoors get in, using a dry goods box for a desk, burning his hands while fixing the fire and shivering with cold when working at his desk, is Station Agent Jones. But regardless of all these hardships, Mr. Jones treats the strangers that happen to stop at the little Indian village with most gracious, cheerful hospitality, and tells them, whoever they may be, whether railroad men or sightseers, that the company has promised him a new depot and station house.

It will be remembered that the Laguna depot burned down last summer, the fire destroying with it all of Mr. Jones' household goods. Since that time one corner of Simon Bilo's large warehouse has been used for a depot.

The plans for the new depot are now in the office of D. A. Shope, superintendent of buildings on the Winslow division, and when built, will be a big improvement over the adobe that was destroyed by fire. The building will be stone and brick. The foundation and lower portion stone, and the upper part built of brick. It will be one story. The building will have a 70-foot front and be equipped with five living rooms for the agent, an office, baggage room and freight house, and possibly a room for a Harvey lunch counter. The Indians are attracting quite a bit of tourist travel there and a lunch room is badly needed.

THE SHORTER ROUTE.

Santa Fe Will Hereafter Run Slow Between Chicago and Kansas City.

Because the Santa Fe is thirty miles shorter than any other line between Chicago and Kansas City, it has forced the other Chicago-Kansas City roads to beg for mercy in the matter of time schedule. Whatever the Santa Fe's rivals may try to do in speed between the points in question, the Santa Fe can always, without any more effort, accomplish in half an hour's less time.

This condition is responsible for the promulgation of a time card supplement by the Santa Fe for the Chicago division of the road. This supplement is issued to announce that in the future the Santa Fe trains will make slower time between Chicago and Kansas City and return.

It is of course evident that this concession by the Santa Fe was not made voluntarily. It was no doubt forced to extend its running time by the rival roads which could not keep up the pace which the Santa Fe had set. It was probably announced to the Santa Fe management that unless they put in slower trains, the rival roads would insist upon a differential rate, lower than that of the Santa Fe, between Kansas City and Chicago.

The fast time of the Santa Fe trains has been winning much patronage for that road out of both Kansas City and Chicago. People who investigated discovered that by using the Santa Fe, they could take advantage of the shorter line without any additional expense.

It is believed possible that the Santa Fe has been granted some concessions by the other roads to compensate it for the change in the time of its trains, but what these concessions are has not been announced.

The officials of the Santa Fe located in Topeka claim that they know not-

GOLDEN DISTRICT.

Mining Items from a District Just Above the City.

Special Correspondence. Golden, N. M., Dec. 1.—Messrs. Lofinck & Hall, of the McKinley mine, keep doing some development work on the McKinley and are taking out some good ore.

J. L. Lopez and Mr. Brooks, of Las Vegas, will spend several weeks in camp looking over the district and several mining claims in the vicinity of the San Miguel mine.

H. T. Brown, United States deputy mineral surveyor, with several men left this morning for the Cerrillos mining district to survey a group of claims for patent.

Prof. J. B. Livesay and Frank Romero have been doing some work in the San Miguel mine and have taken out some high grade ore which will be treated in the Lopez arrastre in Golden.

Messrs. McCullough brothers, who have been doing some extensive development work for the Gibson company in the Perry gulch, have struck some good ore in one of the company's properties.

The Gold King lode, one of the largest bodies of copper ore now being worked by T. P. White, is showing bigger than ever, and the ore being taken out every day keeps improving on every foot gained in depth.

Frank White will ship a carload of his ore to the Cerrillos smelter for treatment, from which he expects to receive high enough returns to keep doing some more extensive work in the Gold King.

The Una de Gato coal fields, in Bernillo county, on which quite extensive work has been done by the Pennsylvania Development company, have shown very large bodies of the best heating coal ever found in the country, and from present indications, before long the Una de Gato coal fields will be one of the heaviest coal producing camps in New Mexico. Besides working the coal mines, gas and oil wells will be drilled for by the company, and the day is not far away until New Mexico will have some natural wells equal to any in the country.

Elys' Memorial.

The Elys' memorial service will be held in Colombo hall next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend and help enjoy a grand musical recital and address by R. W. D. Bryan.

The soloists are Miss Maud Summers and John Douglas Walker. The Apollo male quartette, composed of Messrs. Hunt, Bell, Bullard and Burg, will sing "Remember Now Thy Creator" and Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," arranged by Holden.

REWARD FOR GOODS.

S. Vann & Son Trying to Recover Their Stolen Property.

A reward of $500 has been offered by S. Vann & Son for the recovery of the jewelry stolen from their safe, or a proportionate amount for any part.

The vigilance and efforts of the police have not been relaxed for a single moment since the robbery occurred and the prospects for capturing the much wanted crooks are brightening every day.

A couple of suspicious characters were run in last night, but the marshal refuses to discuss any of the particulars relating to their arrest.

The opinion prevails that the mystery surrounding the sensational robberies will be cleared up in a very short time.

JUVENILE MINSTRELS.

A Most Successful Entertainment at Colombo Hall Last Night.

CAKE WALK WAS GRAND.

The Juvenile minstrels had a filled house at Colombo hall last night, in fact the largest house that has ever congregated in the hall.

Everyone was pleased, and showed their immense appreciation of the commendable home talent entertainers by loud applause and an ample supply of hearty laughter.

The company gave the people all and more than they expected and Mrs. Berry had numerous requests during the evening to repeat the performance that pleased.

Interlocutor Billy Berry was a star actor and his impersonation of a grand old lady was a hit.

Edward Howard, Frank Scottie, A. Baum and Maurice Hartsonett were the cause of all kinds of trouble and either kept the audience laughing or getting ready to laugh.

A very pretty number on the program was "The Willow Pattern Plate" by six little Japanese maidens.

Mrs. Rosa Berry was especially pleasing in her singing of "Trouble" and "Fade Away."

The famous real thing quartet composed of Mrs. Berry, Messrs. Berry, Strauser and Howard, in their latest song hit, "Oh, Didn't He Ramble," was the most amusing feature of the program. The make-ups were fine, and the bowery atmosphere was in evidence.

The grand cake walk in which thirteen couples walked all manner of walks, was a spectacular scene in which the walkers did justice to the famous walk. Hortense and Norine Switzer, the smallest couple on the stage, carried off the medals. They were very cute in their small white suits.

The favorite cake walker was Minnie Corcoran, who was graceful in her stepping and charming with her saucy coon air. The highly prized cake was captured by Miss Corcoran and her able escort, Willie Hopkins.

Katherine Corcoran and Abraham Baum, in fantastic costume, brought great applause from the audience by their clever cook acts. Their walking was deserving of much praise and would have undoubtedly carried off the medals had not the small walkers received the more applause by reason of their cuteness.

Besides winning the cake, Minnie Corcoran and Willie Hopkins were made a present of their pictures with the cake by Mrs. Albright, which was greatly appreciated by the successful cake walkers.

Miss Corcoran will entertain the minstrels company Friday night, when the cake will be cut and all will eat and enjoy the real cause of all the trouble between the coons.

The First Regiment band in their striking uniforms completed the musical feature of the Juvenile Minstrels by the fine music rendered.

The orchestra pleased the audience by the selections of fast and inspiring music.

They donated their services to Mrs. Berry for the evening and she was profuse in her thanks for the valuable assistance.

ACCIDENT AT SANTA RITA.

Amado Roblero Falls to Death in the Shaft in Chino Mine.

Amado Roblero, a Mexican miner, employed by the leasers of the Chino mine, in the Santa Rita camp, was accidentally killed last Sunday morning, says the Silver City Independent.

A few minutes prior a bucket of ore had been hoisted to the surface and the contents emptied into a car, and thence taken to the dump. A companion in charge of the work at the mouth of the shaft, lingered to look at some of the mineral, and while he was so doing the car automatically went back to the trapdoor covering the shaft which should have been closed.

While the companion was so occupied, however, the deceased had opened the door and started to descend the ladder, leaving the trapdoor open and falling to notify his fellow workman. The result was that the car dropped into the shaft, striking Roblero and carrying him to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of eighty-five feet, killing him instantly.

No blame can be attached for the accident, as it was due solely to the carelessness of the deceased. Roblero was a man of family and a good workman.
