SAFELY REPUBLICAN.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says of President Roosevelt's visit to New Mexico and Arizona.

"The enthusiastic welcome which is being given to President Roosevelt in New Mexico and Arizona is an effective commentary on the pretense of the democrats that the southwest was turning against the republicans.

"President Roosevelt, of course, is popular in the southwest, as well as in all the rest of the west. He is a man that the whole country out this way has always liked.

"In 1904 the great west will cast a virtually solid vote for the republican party. This will be true of all the states which belong in this classification, with the possible exception of Missouri, Colorado, Montana and Idaho.

Recently the grand commandery of the Knights Templar of California decided by a unanimous vote that hereafter no wine should be served at Templar banquets.

COMING THIS FALL.

Congressman Hearst Writes a Letter to Dr. Egate Rodey.

Hon. H. S. Rodey, delegate, is in receipt of the following self explanatory letter from Congressman Wm. R. Hearst:

New York, April 25th.—Hon. H. S. Rodey, Albuquerque, N. M.—My Dear Mr. Rodey:—I received your favor of April 20 on my return yesterday from the west, and note with interest your suggestion that the proposed territorial trip be made with a view of spending a day or two at Albuquerque, between October 12 and 17.

When we take up the matter in the fall, I wish you would again call my attention to that point that you make. I have no doubt that an arrangement can be made resulting in a visit to the fair. With best wishes. Yours very truly, W. R. HEARST.

HE WANTS BEAR.

A Chicago Editor's "Serious" Objection to Statehood for New Mexico.

The Alvarado hotel folks are in receipt of the following letter from Chicago.

"Col. Fred Harvey, Albuquerque, N. M.—Dear Sir:—I send you today a marked copy of the Evening Post containing a little story on the Roosevelt blanket. The cut was made hurriedly and is not first class. I was in your building last summer when Mrs. Wright and I visited the Grand Canyon.

"You have by all odds the best Indian collection I ever seen. By the way your good people down there fooled me, the editors of both papers in Albuquerque advised me to go to Dr. Spark's ranch near Glorieta to hunt bear. I hunted for a week and never even found a track. I honestly don't believe there is a bear in the region.

"In half a day near De Beque, Colorado, I got two bears and one deer. We cannot advocate the admission of New Mexico to our glorious union unless she can produce a brin or two for our nimrods. Yours truly, JOHN E. WRIGHT."

MINING NEWS.

William McAllister, lessee of the Aztec in the Pinos Altos district, has a force of men repairing the road from the tunnel of the mine to the main road. Ore is being taken out of the Aztec and a shipment being prepared for the hamrock smelter.

Charles Morrill has purchased E. G. Maroney's interest in the Tarantula mine in the Burros and with W. B. Wayland, who is part owner, has commenced sinking on the shaft. Some very good ore has been encountered and with further work the prospects are good for the Tarantula developing into a paying proposition.

A complete powder drill plant consisting of drills, air compressor and eight-horse-power boiler, arrived last week for the Shamrock Mining and Milling company of Pinos Altos. The machinery is being installed this week and will be ready for operation in a short time. The power drills will greatly facilitate the work of mining the ore and will increase the output of the mine materially.—Silver City Enterprise.
