

city editor of the Phoenix to enlist. J. Rex Hall's squad is one of the best in the Lyre there. Kean of the Kingman Miners has been active in getting recruits from his county. Webb left a position of reporter and compositor on the Jerome News to join the battalion. A. D. Webb of Graham county is also a printer and has recently been connected with the Arizona in Graham county. Of the above list, three: J. H. McClintock, G. A. McCarty and A. D. Webb, are employees of this office.—Arizona Star.

The newspaper fraternity will be well represented in the Arizona cavalry battalion. The two captains of the company, J. H. McClintock and W. O. O'Neill, both belong to the profession, although the latter is on the retired list. G. A. McCarty of Graham county is also a retired printer and newspaper editor. Walter T.
