In Testimony Whereof, the Chairman and Clerk of said Commission have hereunto set their hands and affixed the seal of said Commission, at the City of Santa Fe, on this Twelfth day of March, A. D. 1913.

(Seal) HUGH H. WILLIAMS, Chairman.
 EDWIN F. COARD, Clerk.

Know all men by these presents, that we, the undersigned persons, D. Bruce Smith, Norval J. Welsh and E. C. Houghton, whose names are subscribed hereto, intending and desiring to form and create a corporation under, by virtue of and in accordance with the laws of the State of New Mexico, in such case made and provided, hereby make the following certificate, statement and agreement in writing, and acknowledge the same as the Articles of Incorporation of the Company herein referred to and hereinafter mentioned:

First: The corporate name of said Company is hereby declared to be OTERO COPPER COMPANY.

Second: The location of the principal office of said corporation in the State of New Mexico shall be at Oro Grande, Otero County, New Mexico, and the agent in charge of said principal office and upon whom service of process against said corporation may be served will be Norval J. Welsh, and said corporation reserves the right to have and establish one or more offices in or outside of the State of New Mexico, and to conduct business in any other state or territory.

Third: Said corporation shall be created and formed for the following objects and purposes, to-wit:—

(a). To make contracts to purchase, lease, option, locate or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate and deal in mines, mining claims, mineral lands, coal lands, oil lands, timber lands, water and water rights for all purposes other than irrigation, and other property, both real and personal, and to work, explore, develop and operate the same.

(b). To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, operate and sell smelting and other ore reduction works, power plants, railroads and tramways to lead from the Company's principal works.

(c). To do a general mercantile business.

(d). To own, cancel and reissue shares of its own capital stock, and to own and vote shares of other corporations. To issue bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage, deed of trust or otherwise.

(e). In general to do and perform such acts and things and transact such business not inconsistent with law in any part of the world as the directors may deem of advantage to the corporation.

Fourth: The amount of the total authorized stock of said corporation shall be Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($250,000.00) Dollars, and the same shall be divided into 150,000 shares preferred stock, of a par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each per share, and 100,000 shares of common stock, at a par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each per share. The preferred stock shall not in any manner participate in the control of the Company or the election of its directors, voting power of the election of directors and all other matters to be vested entirely and exclusively in the common stock.

Fifth: The names of the incorporators, their postoffice addresses and the number of shares subscribed for and paid in cash by each, which represents the amount with which said Company shall commence business, are as follows, to-wit:

D. Bruce Smith, El Paso, Texas, 2500 shares of preferred stock.

 E. C. Houghton, El Paso, Texas, 2500 shares of preferred stock.
 E. C. Houghton, El Paso, Texas, 2500 shares of common stock.

Sixth: The duration and period for which said corporation shall exist shall be fifty (50) years from the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation with the State Corporation Commission of the State of New Mexico.

Seventh: The affairs of the corporation shall be conducted by the Board of Directors, consisting of not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) members, elected from among the stockholders holding and owning the common stock of said corporation, and the names and residences of those who shall manage the affairs of said corporation for the first three months are as follows, to-wit:

D. Bruce Smith, El Paso, Texas.
 Norval J. Welsh, Oro Grande, N. M.
 E. C. Houghton, El Paso, Texas.

Eighth: The Board of Directors shall have power to adopt and amend by-laws for the government of the corporation, to fill vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors from any cause, and to appoint an executive committee and vest said committee with all the privileges granted the Board of Directors by these Articles of Incorporation.

Ninth: The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be exempt from corporate debts of any kind whatsoever.

Tenth: The capital stock of this corporation is non-assessable.

Eleventh: The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation is at any time to subject itself is One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this twentyfourth day of February, A. D. 1913.

The Arizona Corporation Commission does hereby certify that the annexed is a true and complete transcript of the Articles of Incorporation of the Jarilla Copper Syndicate, which were filed in the office of said Arizona Corporation Commission on the 25th day of September, A. D. 1912, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, the Arizona Corporation Commission, by its Chairman, has hereunto set its hand and affixed its Official Seal. Done at the City of Phoenix, the Capital, this 26th day of September, A. D. 1912.

Arizona Corporation Commission.
 W. P. Geary Chairman.
 (Seal)
 Chas. A. Smith, Secretary.

Be it known, that we, the undersigned, residents of the City of Phoenix, State of Arizona, do hereby associate ourselves together and form a corporation under the Laws of the State of Arizona, and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I. The name of the corporation is the Jarilla Copper Syndicate and its principal place of business in Arizona is Phoenix. Offices may be established, business transacted and meetings of stockholders and directors held at such places within or outside of Arizona as the by-laws of the Company shall provide.

Article II. The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted is to make contracts; to purchase, lease, option, locate or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell, or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate and deal in mines, mining claims, mineral lands, coal lands, oil lands, timber lands, water and water rights and other property, both real and personal, and to work, explore, operate and develop the same, and to deal in the products and by-products thereof; to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, erect, own, operate and sell smelting and other ore reduction works, oil refineries, saw-mills, power plants, railroads and tramways to lead from the company's principal works, and steam, electric and motor railroads to serve as common carriers and otherwise outside of the state of Arizona; and to do a general manufacturing and mercantile business; to own and things and control letters patent and inventions; to own, cancel and re-issue shares of its own capital stock and to own and vote shares of other corporations; to issue bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage, deed of trust, or otherwise; to act as agent, trustee, broker, or in any other fiduciary capacity, and to borrow and loan money; and in general to do and perform such acts and things and transact such business, not inconsistent with law, in any part of the world, as the Board of Directors may deem to be the advantage of the corporation.

Article III. The amount of the authorized capital stock divided into Five Hundred Thousand (500,000) Shares of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each, which shall be paid in, at such time as the Board of Directors may designate, in cash, real or personal property, services, lease, option to purchase, or any other valuable right or thing, for the uses or purposes of the corporation, and all shares of capital stock, when issued in exchange therefor, shall thereupon and thereby become and be full-paid the same as though paid for in cash at par, and shall be non-assessable forever, and the value of any property, right or claim acquired in exchange for capital stock shall be conclusive.

Article IV. The time of the commencement of the corporation shall be the day these Articles are filed in accordance with law, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five (25) years thereafter, with the privilege of renewal and right of perpetual succession as now provided by law.

Article V. The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a board of not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) Directors, of whom a President and Vice-President shall be elected and a Secretary and Treasurer appointed. The Directors shall be elected by and from among the stockholders on the second Tuesday of October of each year. Until their successors are elected and qualified, the following named persons shall be Directors and Officers:

G. E. Wallace
 R. B. Hutchinson
 T. B. Rains
 Norval J. Welsh
