REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following is the text of the patriotic and forcible resolutions adopted by the Republican territorial convention at Socorro:

1. With the record of the achievements of the national Republican party during the last three years as a guarantee of the protection of the honor of our nation, and the prosperity of our fellowmen in the future, the Republican party of the territory of New Mexico, in convention assembled, at Socorro, N. M., on the 17th day of March, 1900, reaffirms its faith and allegiance in the declaration of principles set forth in the national Republican platform of 1896.

2. That we pledge ourselves, and the party in New Mexico, to the hearty support of the platform to be adopted in Philadelphia, to protection, sound money and expansion, and to the nominee of that convention, whom we believe will, and of right should be, that honored, tried, true and patriotic type of American manhood, William McKinley.

3. That we admire and reverence the wise and patriotic administration by President McKinley, of public affairs in war and in peace, at home and abroad, and that particularly this territory is grateful to him and the principle he represents, for the unprecedented prosperity we have enjoyed during the three years of his administration; that we are grateful to the president for appointing as governor a native of this territory, the first in our history under the American government, and we most heartily endorse the administration of Governor Otero as having been economical, conservative and prudent for the best interests of New Mexico here and in the east.

4. We particularly commend in Governor Otero his zeal and energy in organizing the troops from New Mexico for the war with Spain, by which he enabled New Mexico to furnish more than her quota of soldiers in less time than was required, and in that splendid American regiment called the "Rough Riders" to gain for our territory undying fame, and for his excellent and voluminous reports upon the different sections of the territory, made to the secretary of the interior, and through him to the president, congress and the citizens of the United States, which have done so much to bring our great natural advantages before the people of the country. We believe the salaries paid to the governor and justices of the supreme court to be altogether inadequate. Therefore, we earnestly pray that the bill now before congress for an increase in the salary of those officers be enacted into law.

5. That this convention strongly commends the measure introduced into the United States senate by Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, a bill entitled "an act to promote and encourage the mining, mineral and metallurgical industries of the United States," and that our delegate in congress be instructed to use all honorable means in aiding and securing the passage of the same.

6. We heartily approve the action of congress in its refusal to pass the pending bill under which it was proposed to lease the public domain in the territory of New Mexico, and thereby deprive our citizens of the privilege of pasturing and grazing their flocks and herds thereon.

7. That, whereas there are many just and meritorious claims pending on account of the Indian depredations, for the adjudication and payment of which no adequate provision has yet been made, we respectfully call the attention of congress thereto, and earnestly request such legislation as will lead to a prompt consideration and payment of all such claims.

8. We renew our demand for the speedy admission of our territory into the sisterhood of states as an inherent right by virtue of our population, resources, our past and present patriotism, and our constant loyalty to the flag of the union and solemn treaty obligations.

9. And be it resolved that this convention voices the Republican party of our territory in an appeal to the members of the house of representatives to defeat the bill recently reported favorably by the committee on territories of the said house of representatives disapproving the act of the legislative assembly of New Mexico, entitled "An act to create McKinley county," being chapter 19 of the session laws of 1899. That in this proposed legislation we perceive an attempted interference with the right of local self government, which should properly be admitted to the territorial legislative assembly for appropriate legislation thereon, and a covert design by interested persons to now defeat an act of the assembly which those same persons at the time of its passage advocated, and that we hereby disapprove and distinctly condemn the policy pursued in the attempted passage of the measure by congress.

10. Resolved, That the Hon. Solomon Buck, our present able and efficient member of the Republican national committee, be and he is hereby unanimously endorsed for that position for the ensuing term upon such committee, with our sincere thanks and appreciation for his valuable services thereto in the past.

FOR THE FARMER

Despite the efforts of the philanthropist in behalf of the farmer and of the agricultural colleges to dignify the occupation of farming, there still exists in the mind of many an old farmer visions of son John's name written with either a handle before or after it, says Coleman's Rural World. Doctor, lawyer, professor, "senator," has a smack of aristocracy, and "my son, Dr. Smith" or "Professor Brown" is spoken as if that was pretty high sounding and a thing to be just a little bit prouder of than "my son," plain "Jim Jones," the farmer.

The same fact is only too evident when the boy at school is a close student and makes good grades and delivers his schoolboy orations in good style. The father smilingly approves when the teacher predicts a future for the promising youth that will lead beyond the farm and out into the world, where wealth and honor will be his. The father thinks of his own life of toil and delights in the dreams of blissful ease that his son may lead if he will but heed the warnings of parent and teacher. Ah, how easily deceived! No man ever attained true honors and great emoluments that did not win them by hard work and close application.

The merchant endeavors to conduct his business in such manner that his son will become a partner and continue the firm name even after his demise because of the value that attaches to a long established business enterprise. Until such spirit permeates the business and occupation of farming it will not be accorded the confidence and respect which it ought to merit. If the boy has talents which are needed in the professions or in mercantile life, he will be found in them, but from the moment the primer is put in his hand don't teach him that the farm and farm life are not the best and that he must be taught things that will enable him to earn bread and butter in some other way.

Farm Prices.
Farms are higher priced now than they were a year ago in many locations and are very likely destined to advance in price as business grows more brisk and prices of other things are going up, says The American Cultivator. We remember how it was between 1891 and 1894.

2. That we pledge ourselves, and the party in New Mexico, to the hearty support of the platform to be adopted in Philadelphia, to protection, sound money and expansion, and to the nominee of that convention, whom we believe will, and of right should be, that honored, tried, true and patriotic type of American manhood, William McKinley.

Wheat Farming.
A Nebraska paper tells of a man who bought a farm there upon which there was a mortgage of $700. He did not make much money the first year, but he sowed 80 acres of wheat the next year. It was a poor year for wheat, and the stand was so poor that he thought he would not harvest it. He returned to his old home and left the farm and the mortgage to fight it out as they pleased. The wheat ripened, fell to the ground and seeded it well. There was a fine crop, and as some one was kind enough to write about it to him he went back, harvested it and sold it for enough to pay the mortgage and all other debts.

When the heels and soles are so much worn as to require a great deal of darning, it is much more satisfactory to refoot the stockings than to con-

A POET BURGLAR.

He is a Very Good Foot and a Very Bad Burglar.

In Thomaston (Me.) state prison is a most singular convict. He is known as "the poet burglar." He has just completed a book of verse, which is being widely commented upon. He writes good prose too. But he is an unrepentant and dangerous criminal, so it is unlikely that his literary gifts will gain for him his freedom.

The poet burglar is variously known as Paul Dennison and Fred Irving. He was born in Nova Scotia and was educated at the Boston university. His parents expected him to enter the ministry. Instead he tried to enter a house in Portland, Me., and shot at the policeman who surprised him. For this he was sentenced to serve 20 years in Thomaston.

But this Portland affair was not the beginning of his career of crime. By the time he was 19 he fell into bad ways, beginning his criminal career by petty thieving, which in time led to Refooting Stockings.

The method here given is one which The Ladies' World recommends as very useful, as the seams do not hurt the tenderest foot, and the fit is excellent. It also takes less time to repair a stocking in this manner than to darn or patch it.

Cut from pasteboard or stiff paper the patterns marked Fig. 1 and Fig. 2. Fold the worn stocking through the middle of the heel and by pattern Fig. 1 cut it off far enough to avoid all thin places. The dotted line in Fig. 3 shows the manner of cutting the stocking down.

The Wit Mr. Beecher Kept In.
In the early days of Mr. Beecher's career, when wit was unknown in the pulpit, some of the deacons of his church asked him if he didn't think such frequent outbursts of humor were calculated to diminish his usefulness. He listened patiently, and when they finished he said, "Brethren, if you only knew how many funny things I keep in you wouldn't complain about the few I let out."—Ladies' Home Journal

SCENES AT THE MESCALERO AGENCY TODAY.

1865. With wool at $1 a pound or more, flour at $18 a barrel and wheat in proportion, pork 10 cents a pound, butter 40 to 50 cents a pound and hay $40 to $50 a ton, it seemed as if money could be made in farming. Some succeeded in doing so. We know farmers whose yearly sales were more in some of those years than their farms were valued at before the war. We know others who bought at high prices about the close of the war and found that as prices of farm produce went down they could not sell enough to pay the interest on the mortgage and lost all they had. But farmers were not the only ones who made money when prices went up or lost money when they went down. Manufacturers found themselves unable to sell their finished products for as much as they had paid or agreed to pay for their raw material. There is a lesson in this for farmers. If there is a boom and a season of high prices for farm products, do not get excited over it, with the expectation that it will last forever. Do not contract obligations that cannot be met if prices go back to last year's rates.

Existing Potatoes.
Aroostook farmers understand potato raising, and many are introducing new varieties, says a Maine correspondent

Now cut by pattern Fig. 2 new soles from some suitable material—woolen is best, as it is so much more elastic. Sew up the seam from a to b and sew the piece into the stocking.

The best parts of old underwear may be used for these soles. Those cut from new webbing are, of course, better.

Useful One Fingered Gloves.
Gloves have long been made in very great variety, but a novel thing in this line is a one fingered glove, or perhaps it might be called a one fingered mitten, in which the thumb and first finger are provided for precisely as they would be in any glove, with a covering for each, while the other three fingers are inclosed in a mittenlike part. Mittens are warmer, but a driver must wear gloves or have at least one finger free to enable him to handle the reins. One fingered gloves are bought also by shipping clerks and bookkeepers and others around markets and other places. Where more or less of the business must be attended to outdoors, a man can't very well handle a pencil with mittens on his hands, but he can swing one all right in one fingered gloves. Gloves of this sort are made of calfskin or sheepskin and wool lined like any other glove, says the New York Sun.
