If this war is to end soon, as it seems, it will have proved a good thing for Mexico. It has drawn the attention of the people who have the power to right the wrongs of the country, to the wrongs that need righting, and meantime it has drawn the attention of the world to Mexico. When peace is restored, the world will come to Mexico with its money, to help Mexico continue her progress and development.—El Paso Herald.

The splendid rain on Monday night will bring out the crops in fine shape. Reports from various portions of the valley show that the moisture was general, being somewhat heavier south than north. With warmer weather promised by the weather report, crops will grow with leaps and bounds. Farmers generally, are rejoicing, and all are working to get in larger areas, wherever possible. Apparently the gods are favorable to the Estancia Valley in the year of our Lord 1911.

A farmer, who has been absent from the valley during the past winter, was in town yesterday for supplies. He had supposed, according to the reports that Estancia was dead and that he could get his supplies in a short time. Imagine his surprise when entering the store to be compelled to wait half an hour before the clerks had time to wait on him. A dead town?—Not yet a while.

Biggest Liar of All.
The biggest liar of all is the tramp beggar and petty thief. This Munchausen of the highways lives by lying of a weak, silly, romantic sort and by petty swindling. Charity can stretch a long way with such petty pretenders, for they often go into pronounced incurable dementia, the worst form of bughouse. All habitual liars are, of course, in some way or another, moral idiots—except the Japs, who lie for politeness, well knowing that truth makes trouble.
