Revise Your Life

By GEO. H. GIVAN

Take down the book of life, my friend,
With care examine its condition;
And if you find mistakes, my friend,
Bring out, at once, a new edition.

Look for misprints on every page—
Each page may need a close revision;
Rewrite each word, re-read each line
Before you print the new edition.

Cross out the wicked, filthy words,
Correct the deeds of vile intention;
Blot from each leaf unholy thoughts
As you prepare the new edition.

Mark off each angry, hateful look,
For they've a tinge of dark perdition;
Omit the scowl and saddening frown,
And make a pleasing new edition.

Let manhood bustle as you write,
Let courage have its fond fruition;
Let hope and love, and joy and peace
Fill many a page of this edition.

Where failure was there write success—
Give honor true a bold position;
Let truth and justice—heaven born,—
Give priceless worth to this edition.

Be careful how you punctuate
That none may have a false suspicion;
For out of place one little mark
Would greatly mar your new edition.

Let all the polished grace and art
For which a God has made provision,
Adorn it all from first to last
And you will have a good edition.

Then send the proof up to the skies—
I know that you can get permission;
And let the printer, great and wise
Correct and print your new edition.

Yes let him print it on your heart
So plain 'twill never need transition;
Then, when you reach the pearly gates
You'll need no more a new edition.
