The body of an unknown man was found in Brooklyn last week, and upon an examination by the coroner a note was found upon the body which read, I am too poor to buy shoes for my family this winter, I can't pay the prices asked for shoes these days, Goodby.

If this man had known of the Bargain house of Willard, New Mexico, he would be alive and happy today and his family would all be shod and he would have had money left. Don't pay the high prices asked, come down to the bargain house—Here you will find all kinds of shoes from 10 cents to $2.65 per pair. We have shoes for everybody, and everybody's baby. Don't think of committing suicide, but come down and see us.

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.

It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.

PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.

Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.

There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.

The mother-of-pearl is obtained from a large species of shellfish called casque, caught chiefly on the shores of the island of Poulo Condor.

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble.

My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardui.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist tells it.
