Entered as second class matter April 21, 1911 at the post office at Estancia, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879

If editors would only print all they know about folks, or give place to the numerous requests for "roasts" made by those who have a grievance, to jump on certain other citizens and expose some of their misdoings, tear the mask off some hypocritical church member and air some of his conduct before the public, or print the communications and suggestions sent him in unmarked envelopes, there would be "something doing" almost every week. There would be separations and divorces, people would be arrested and thrown in jail, and there would be much trouble in the community. But the kickers never hear the other fellow's knocks, nor read the letters that are carefully placed in the stove. All they see is the nicely printed articles, and then they complain if a letter is left out or turned upside down, or if their initials are wrong in some complimentary notice of themselves, and growl if their own communications have been translated into readable English. If they knew all they would thank the Lord for the lowly, ignorant editor in his thread bare clothing, who has just sense enough not to print all that he is asked to, and to temper much of what he does print.—Lakewood Progress.

THE AUTOCRAT OF THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Now, kindly mark me well, my friends, in what I have to say
Anent the coffee of this morn and that of yesterday.
That coffee served us yesterday was slaty-gray and flat,
And I who know the coffee plant know what is meant by that.
The berry grew indifferent from out impoverished soil,
Nor had the richness at its roots from which to draw the oil.
Or, if a bit of oil were stored, the roasting was not well,
And being charred the oil escaped from out each tiny cell.
And so 'twas tasteless, flat and tame, and I put in my kick;
And I am pleased that Mrs. Brown has changed her brand so quick.
This coffee has a brilliant brown, its body, too, you'll note;
Those little bubbles mark the oil—observe them where they float.
That means the berry had the best that sun and soil can lend—
'Tis CHASE & SANBORN'S growth, you know—a firm that's proud to spend its time and money on its plants. Care, curing, roasting, too,
Are just the best that expert hands, experienced long, can do.
And when this richness is unlocked by Nature's charm of heat,
You have the best that Nature gives,—a draught of cheer, complete
In every coffee attribute. Thus speaks your Autocrat,
And he, you know, was never caught a-talking through his hat.

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.

It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.

PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.

Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds. There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company

WHAT SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously.

Rivesville, W. Va.—Mrs. Dora Martin, in a letter from Rivesville, writes: "For three years, I suffered with womanly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night.

The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardui.

Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardui saved my life. I will never be without Cardui in my home. I recommend it to my friends."

For fifty years, Cardui has been relieving pain and distress caused by womanly trouble. It will surely help you. It goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause.

If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. Your druggist sells and recommends it. Get a bottle from him today.
