RED HATS GIVEN NEW CARDINALS WITH POMP BY POPE PIUS

Brilliant and Impressive Ceremonies Mark Investiture of Princes of Catholic Church With Authority.

EACH IS ASSIGNED TO CHURCH IN ROME

Rings of Office Are Placed on Fingers and Ecclesiastics Are Formally Inaugurated to High Offices.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) Rome, Nov. 30.—The concluding and most impressive ceremony connected with the creation of three new cardinals occurred this morning at the great public consistory at the Vatican, when fourteen princes of the church, including the three American candidates, Cardinals Farley, Falconio and O'Connell, were invested with the red hat indicating their rank. The hall of investiture, an immense chamber over the portico of St. Peter's, had been prepared for the occasion. At one end stood the throne, flanked by the cardinal's "stalls" and the places for high ecclesiastics and the sistine choir, while facing these were several tribunes for the diplomatic body accredited to the holy see and for the Roman aristocracy. Beneath this latter had been arranged standing room for ticket holders, among whom were nearly 1,000 Americans.

After all had taken their allotted places, distant strains of vocal music were heard and the low approaching murmur of many voices announced the arrival of the papal procession. The picture which then unfolded itself was magnificent.

First came a leveled cross held aloft by white clad guards. Following came a group of Swiss guards in their uniforms of red, black and yellow, designed by Michael Angelo, the men carrying halberds. Then came the sistine choir led by Abbe Perosi, singing as they marched, and after them ecclesiastics of all orders, dressed in black, monks in brown and white, heads of religious congregations and members of the papal court dressed in quality Elizabethan costumes.

Behind were the cardinals of Curia, about twenty in number, all dignified and solemn. Then followed a detachment of noble guards. Directly afterward came the venerable figure of Pope Pius X. in full pontifical robes, blessing the kneeling multitude as he passed.

When all were seated intense silence fell upon the assembly broken by the rising to their feet of the cardinals of Curia, who advanced to do homage to the pope and then to introduce into the papal presence the new princes of the church.

The venerable group which now entered drew the gaze of all present. The American prelates—John M. Farley, archbishop of New York; William O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, and Dionese Falconio, formerly apostolic delegate at Washington—were eagerly pointed out. Directly behind them came the cardinal who had just been created, and one by one knelt before Pius X., kissing his hand and foot and receiving the papal embrace. They were then led to the places set apart for them to the accompaniment of music by the sistine choir.

The new cardinals then again advanced separately to the foot of the throne to receive their red hats, which were held over the head of each recipient by the master of ceremonies while the pontiff repeated the usual Latin formula for such occasions, after which he embraced the supplicant kneeling before him. When the ceremony was closed the pope arose, seated on the papal throne, and on all present and withdrew with the cardinals and others who had formed the procession, the choir singing as they went while halls and corridors echoed with acclamation which could no longer be restrained in a medley of English, Italian, French, German, Spanish and other tongues.

COMING WINTER TO BE SEVERE ONE ON VERY POOR WORKMAN

Salvation Army Declares That Necessity for Charity Will Make Itself Felt More Severely Than Ever.

EMPLOYMENT NEEDED FOR THE MASSES

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) New York, Nov. 30.—The national organization of the Salvation Army, which has been gathering reports from its charity relief officials in all parts of the United States, announces that the approaching winter will be a period of great suffering for the very poor people, especially in the larger cities. More than ever before the high and rising cost of foodstuffs, clothing, fuel and shelter, and the slackness of operation in many big industries are causing the poor to look toward the winter with apprehension. The demands for charity relief this year, according to Salvation Army officials, will be fifteen per cent greater than a year ago.

UNKNOWN VESSEL PERISHED IN BIG LAKE STORM

Marine Men Believe That the Wreckage Scattered Along Water Front is From Ship That Went Down in Gale.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 30.—That some vessel was lost in the fierce storm of Tuesday on Lake Superior is the theory of marine men here from the reports of wreckage off Vermilion point. The steamers Wipon and Mueller arrived last night and reported passing through large quantities of short timber. Some think the Jay Gould is the unfortunate steamer. The Gould is said to have had a cargo of short lumber and has not yet been reported.

If reports are confirmed it will add another boat to the long list which has found a resting place in that section known as the "graveyard of the lakes," for in the neighborhood of Whitefish and Vermilion more boats have been lost than any other place on the lakes.

The steamer Rochester of the West Transit Line has arrived here encased in ice. She showed the marks of a rough trip down the lake in the storm of Tuesday. Captain P. Murray said: "We were tossed about by the fierce wind for twenty-four hours and in the blinding snow we could see nothing. Our cargo of rails was smashed by the heavy seas. The cabin windows were broken and the water poured in. The forward water tank was torn from its fastenings and washed away. Our cargo which consisted mostly of four was damaged by water."

FOG AT SEATTLE HOLD UP VESSELS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 30.—Vessels seeking to aid the distressed Canadian Pacific steamer Tees, which struck a rock in Kluquot sound yesterday, dared not enter the sound this morning because of the dense fog. The Alaska steamship Northwesters, which was supposed to have gone to the assistance of the Tees, reported to her owners today but did not mention the Tees, and it is supposed she was unable to enter Kluquot sound. The cessation of the distress calls from the Tees is accounted for by the flooding of the engine room and the stopping of the dynamo. If the passengers and crew were forced to take to the boats they easily could have reached shore.

The striking of the Tees probably was due to the fog. The sea remains calm. The relief vessels may be held up by the fog for many hours.

PRESIDENT TAFT TO BE EXHIBITED ON FILMS WHILE SPEAKING

Edison Says That Every Gesture Can Be Produced As Made; He Will Thus Reach Sixty Millions

DEVOTEES OF SHOWS TO SEE NEW FEATURE

Washington, Nov. 30.—Thomas A. Edison, the veteran inventor, unfolded before President Taft today a plan for campaigning without traveling, by which Taft might be seen and heard, not by 5 million but 60 million of the nation, without absenting himself for a day from business at the White House. It is the newest invention of Edison—the talking, moving picture machine. All that will be necessary, Edison explained to the president, would be for a man to go before an audience, make a speech on any subject he chose, and the talking, moving picture machine would reproduce to audiences all over the country every word of his speech, and every shroud of the crowd about him.

In his recent trip, Taft appeared in 215 cities and towns by arrangement and spoke from the platform of his car in perhaps a hundred small places. His secretary estimated that he had addressed 5 million people. That took up fifty-eight days of the president's time, and besides, put a strain on him which kept him down with a cold which lasted for four days more.

Edison proposes to eliminate all that, or at least to multiply more than a hundred fold of every speech. He says that his invention will place the scene before the audiences with lifelike vividness.

TAFT CUTS DOWN HIS MESSAGE

Document is Reduced to 6,000 Words and President Believes That Most of the Reading Public Will See It

Washington, Nov. 30.—President Taft has chopped the traditional 25,000-word report on the state of the union to a 6,000-word expression of his views today and sent it to the public printer. It will constitute his annual message to congress.

As the successor of a breaker of precedents in the white house the present executive herewith sets up as a precedent breaker on his own account and will give to the country about Tuesday of next week a state document that the average business man will read from start to finish.

And that is what President Taft does. He has been studying human nature, and some time ago he reached the conclusion that the reading public is tired of long messages. Also he found that the newspapers whose editors understand the psychology of the daily newspaper reader, had been acquiring the habit of treating messages even from presidents with the regard to their actual news value rather than with awesome reverence for their authors.

FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS TODAY IN GAME WITH ARIZONA

Prof. Conwell Promises a Dinner at the Alvarado to Every Man Who Makes a Touchdown for U. N. M.

CHANCES GOOD FOR VARSITY TO WIN

In rather more than an hour's space this afternoon at Traction park, will come the culmination of weeks and months of body building, soul smothering, self sacrificing hard work on the part of the university foot ball team, when the aggregation meets the team from the University of Arizona in the last game of the season. The contest will decide for all time the ownership of the Bryan trophy, which the Arizonans with true sportsmanship set up to be played for this year, after the local team had practically forfeited it last year.

But there will be more than a silver trophy at stake between the two universities. There will be the championship of two states.

This day, three years ago, the University of Arizona came to Albuquerque for the first time, bringing with them three of the members of the present team. Poor judgment on the part of the New Mexico quarterback allowed them to win. A year later, the local boys won easily from the university of the sister state, playing at Tucson. Last year, the university suffered the disbanding of its team by those inscrutable powers that rule college life, and it was then believed they had lost their chance at the cup presented by William Jennings Bryan for the team winning two out of three games in the interstate contest. This year, owing to the sportsmanship of the Arizonans, the cup is again at stake in Albuquerque.

The weather is just right for football today, and it is expected a great crowd will attend. Men whom one would ever suspect of cherishing a secret drop of sporting blood, were heard this morning anxiously inquiring about the game, the alleged ultra-huskieness of the Arizonians, the crimples on the Varsity team and a hundred other things regarding the game.

The field has been put into first class condition for the game, all the cinders have been removed, the bleachers have been changed so that they overlook a dry place for the field, and the condition itself wired off to prevent intrusion. No one will be allowed inside the wires except players, officials and newspapermen.

The lineup is as follows: Arizona Woodbridge right end, Rolfe (Capt.) Gladding, right tackle, Merritt Hunter, right guard, Thorpe Litree. Mudgett, center, Bird Probert, left guard, Barrett Strome, left tackle, Britch Carls, left end, Riggs Calkins, right half, Rollett Hamilton (capt.), left half, La Tourette Arena, full back, Taylor or Underhill.

FIRE DESTROYS AN OLD LANDMARK

Flames in Denver Early Today Wipe Out Famous Cafe and Charleston Rooming House; Innates All Escape.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) Denver, Nov. 30.—Fire early this morning, supposedly of incendiary origin, completely gutted the four-story building at Fifteenth and Curtis streets, occupied jointly by the Famous Cafe and the Charleston rooming house.

Fifty lodgers were asleep in the rooming house and many of these were taken from the burning building on ladders.

WOLGAST AWAKENS IN HOSPITAL; IS ANXIOUS TO HEAR NEWS

Plucky Little Champion Withstood Operation in Excellent Shape and Enquired About Fight Game First.

ANOTHER BOUT IS ARRANGED FOR TODAY

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 30.—After a comfortable night in his hospital bed Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, awoke early today, eager to learn if a program had been arranged to take the place of the one in which he had been scheduled to defend his title against Freddie Welsh at Vernon. The removal of his appendix yesterday has not lessened the champion's interest in the fight game. His nurses said that he had passed a restful night and Wolgast declared that he was "feeling fine."

His only complaint was that the doctors denied him water when he came out of the effect of the anesthetic which yesterday's operation necessitated. He heard with interest that fight followers were not to be entirely without pugilistic entertainment today, as Promoter Tom McCarney had engaged Willie Ritchie, training partner for Paaky McFarland, to enter the ring with Welsh. Welsh declared he would defend the title of lightweight champion until Wolgast was able to re-enter the ring and that he then would meet Wolgast for it.

MAYOR GOES INTO TURKEY DEAL

In Order to Cut Down Cost of Festive Birds Today, Executive of Indianapolis Sells Them at Cost.

Indianapolis, Nov. 30.—In his fight on the high cost of poultry, Mayor Shank has on sale at the city market today hundreds of chickens, turkeys, geese and ducks, all of which are sold direct from the producer to the consumer at cost. As a result of his fight the bottom of the poultry market in this city has fallen out and all dealers are being forced to sell at a very small profit.

The mayor expects to have enough birds to supply the demand, and incidentally will have a little turkey parade for this afternoon as a demonstration of the fight he is conducting against the high cost of living.

Turkeys left after the market closes at noon, the mayor proposes to load in cages on motor trucks and parade through the downtown streets. There were plenty of turkeys and dressed chickens for the all day market Wednesday at the mayor's poultry stand.

In addition to live turkeys and dressed chickens, the mayor has a number of dressed turkeys on sale at twenty-two cents a pound, or about three cents below the minimum price that is being asked for dressed turkeys elsewhere. Live turkeys sell at eight and nine cents a pound.

Dressed chickens sell at fourteen to nineteen cents a pound. There are also a number of live ducks and geese on sale at low prices. The mayor did not know just what price to charge for these, but the price will be considerably below the usual retail price. The sale of poultry last Saturday was so successful that the supply from Grand county was exhausted several hours before market closed.

Their dinner came in mid-afternoon at the private rooms where their meals are served. This evening they will attend a theater.

BRUTAL FOOTBALL DAYS WILL ONCE MORE BE SEEN

Dr. Charles McCarthy Former All American Half Back Believes That Big Colleges Want Brute Strength Only

(By Evening Herald A. P. Lensed Wire) Madison, Wis., Nov. 30.—Return to the old days of brutalized football and an unfair advantage on the side of the heavier team, is predicted by Dr. Charles McCarthy of this city, former all-American half-back of Brown university, if the present plans of big colleges and universities go through.

Dr. McCarthy believes that the last season has shown the big colleges that under the present rules they do not have the advantage given them by former rules and he sees a movement to nullify the regulations now in effect. Mr. McCarthy points to numerous defeats and ties of large teams east and west as proof of the fact that the present rules tend to equalize playing conditions and conduce to fairness.

The big colleges have begun the agitation to cut down the distance to be gained on "three downs," said Dr. McCarthy. "I thought this would be beaten so repeatedly lately that they wish to return to old conditions. I called attention last year to this movement. They did succeed in making the forward pass by unfair legislation.

"I warn the colleges that if the plans of the big colleges go through, football will become more dangerous. The way to make it more interesting without being made more dangerous is to take some of the restrictions away from the forward pass. With the present representation on the rules committee the situation is mighty dangerous."

Dr. McCarthy declared the reduced list of accidents this year is commendatory enough in favor of leaving the rules as they are.

ROCKEFELLER HAS A NEW WELL

John D. Declares That Every Little Bit Helps and That Plenty of Water is Not a Bad Thing on a Dry Year.

Tarrytown, N., Nov. 30.—John D. Rockefeller is thankful this year for a new well, just sunk on his estate at Pocantico hills. The well which promises to yield a fine supply of clear, cold water, is particularly welcomed by Mr. Rockefeller because of the recent failure of the supply furnished by the small lake on the estate. The lake has been drying up for several months and during the past week has disappeared entirely.

"All's well that ends well," said Mr. Rockefeller when informed that the new source of supply was adequate. "We can't have too much water in sight in these days of thirst spells."

A large family party is at the Rockefeller mansion at Pocantico hills for the annual Thanksgiving festivities.
