ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1913. TEN PAGES TODAY

WASHINGTON TO KNOW MONDAY WHETHER OR NOT MESSENGER OF PEACE TO MEXICO IS UNDESIRABLE VISITOR

Big Battleship Which Will Land John Lind at Vera Cruz Tonight Steams Slowly Through Gulf to Afford President Huerta Time to Recover His Temper; Administration Is Confident Unofficial Ambassador Will Be Well Received When Message of Wilson Is Known.

HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION NOT IN EVIDENCE AT VERA CRUZ; LIND WILL ACT VERY CAREFULLY

Mexico City, Aug. 9.—No impediment will be placed in the way of John Lind on his arrival here, and he will be given every guarantee for his safety and freedom from molestation. This was the assurance given on today by the Mexican foreign minister, Manuel Garsa Aldape.

Lind at Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, Aug. 9.—John Lind arrived here on board the battleship New Hampshire at 1 o'clock. He at once transferred to the battleship Louisiana.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Aug. 9.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal envoy to Mexico, will arrive off Vera Cruz on the battleship New Hampshire before night. He probably will not be in Mexico City before Monday and the diplomatic crisis between the United States and Mexico is not expected to culminate before that time.

The next development in the situation is expected when Mr. Lind, through Charge O'Shaughnessy, presents to Provisional President Huerta, President Wilson's proposals to bring peace. These will be published simultaneously in Washington and Mexico City and at the same time will be transmitted as a matter of information to the press of the world.

Whether Mr. Lind's presence in Mexico will be "undesirable" as has been stated by the Mexican minister of foreign affairs will then actually become known.

Administration officials here are reluctant to believe that will be Huerta's attitude after he officially knows the purposes of Lind's visit. They take the view that the attitude of hostility has been aroused by unofficial misinterpretation of the purposes of the mission.

Though there is no official confirmation of the statement, it is said that the passage of New Hampshire has been a slow one purposely to give the Mexican government opportunity to digest the situation. The big ship could have made the passage in 24 hours and reached Vera Cruz yesterday afternoon. There are, however, some physical obstacles which will naturally delay Mr. Lind's arrival in Mexico City today until Monday.

Because of her heavy draught the New Hampshire will be obliged to anchor five or six miles off Vera Cruz and many officials doubt if any effort will be made to land the envoy today. The trip from Vera Cruz up to Mexico City ordinarily takes twelve hours. Before Mr. Lind arrives Charge O'Shaughnessy is expected to explain to the Mexican foreign office that Mr. Lind comes only as a private Mexican ambassador, and is not in Mexican politics on a "peaceful" mission. The administration maintains its confidence that when Huerta understands the facts there will be no obstruction to Governor Lind's mission and that he will be allowed to discharge his duties as advisor to the American embassy without molestation.

That understanding is based on the belief that Mr. Lind will scrupulously observe the etiquette of diplomacy and will not undertake to raise an issue as to his status by addressing directly General Huerta or the Mexican foreign office, availing himself of the services of Charge O'Shaughnessy as an intermediary and mouthpiece for anything that he may care to say.

Secretary Bryan said today that Mr. Lind would find instructions awaiting him at Vera Cruz. Their nature he declined to disclose and refused to say whether Mr. Lind was to proceed at once to the Mexican capital or wait at Vera Cruz.

One unofficial view of that phase of the situation was that inasmuch as the Washington government is anxious to avoid any anti-American demonstration against Mr. Lind or to see any breach committed before the envoy has an opportunity actually to communicate President Wilson's proposals to Huerta, Mr. Lind might wait on the New Hampshire at Vera Cruz while Charge O'Shaughnessy transmitted the proposals to Mexico City. Diplomats not in accord with this view pointed out that inasmuch as the original plan, known to the Mexican government was for Lind to proceed to Mexico City direct, any alteration at this time would not strengthen the administration's position and that the Washington government could, under no circumstances recede from its right to send an adviser to its embassy in Mexico City. The view of the observers was that any instructions to Mr. Lind at Vera Cruz probably would co-ordinate with the policy of correcting misinterpretations of his mission before he goes to Mexico City.

OPERATORS CLAIM STREETS OF DENVER FEDERATION HAS BEEN UTTERLY DEFEATED

Thousand Men at Calumet and Hecla Return to Work Today While Thousand More Signify Intention.

8-HOUR DAY AND WAGE INCREASE EXPECTED

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Calumet, Mich., Aug. 9.—Copper mine operators today claim the complete rout of the Western Federation of Miners in its strike here for higher wages, an eight-hour day, abolition of the one man drill and recognition of the union. One thousand men returned to work today, while 1,000 have signed lists asking that the company resume mining operations and give them protection.

Last night, 2,000 men were at work. No demands for changes in working conditions were made by the men returning today but it is said from a high authority that mining companies will raise the wage scale and probably give the men the eight-hour day shortly after the strike finally is settled. Late today at the offices of the mining companies many miners congregated and offered to go to work. They were given positions as fast as they could be assigned.

SHARP DIVISION ON QUICK ELECTION OF ALABAMA SENATOR

Contest Expected If New Member Appears Chosen in Accordance With Announcement of Governor.

WILL BE PRECEDENT FOR MARYLAND CASE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Aug. 9.—Sharp division of opinion exists among senators over Governor O'Neal's announcement that he will call a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the sudden death here of Senator Johnston of Alabama.

A contest is expected if a senator presents himself elected at such election as Governor O'Neal proposes. The Alabama case probably will set a precedent for the Maryland election, where the governor has issued a call for a special election without the legislature having authorized him to do so since the enactment of the seventeenth amendment.

Attorney General McReynolds said today he had not advised the Alabama authorities that the governor was empowered to appoint a successor to the late Senator Johnston.

Mr. McReynolds said that in forwarding a copy of the seventeenth amendment to the attorney general of Alabama at the latter's request he expressed the view that apparently Governor O'Neal had no power to appoint a successor but that a special session of the legislature could empower him to do so and added that the governor could call a special session for that purpose.

WAR TALK IN U. S. SENATE SQUELCHED PROMPTLY TODAY

Republicans and Democrats Join in Wet-Blanketing Threatened Hostile Outburst Over Situation in Mexican Republic.

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO CAUSE WAR ALLEGED

Charge Made on Other Hand That Constitutionalist Junta Has Ear of Administration and Caused Recall of Ambassador Wilson.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Aug. 9.—Another threatened outburst in the senate over the Mexican situation today was squelched by emphatic disapproval from republicans and democrats who joined in declaring that the senate should not by discussion lend weight to any efforts to intensify feeling in Mexico.

After Senator Smith of Michigan had opened the subject by declaring that the constitutional junta here had the ear of the state department and was influential in bringing about the resignation of Ambassador Wilson, Senator Williams of Mississippi replied with the charge that there was an "organized and syndicated effort" to bring about war with Mexico. He declared "there was money behind it and not all Mexican money."

"Senators must hold themselves in check," said Senator Williams. "As we read many of the newspaper papers there is a surmounting of statement, expression and opinion in certain of them that shows a syndicated money effort behind it. It is time we should pause. I don't feel brave when talking about war with Mexico, a country corrupted, broken and torn with dissension. This question is too important to be discussed here for any personal advantage; for any small advantage to any person."

Senator Smith, after announcing he would make to the Senate Monday a report from the special committee which worked along the Mexican border last year, yielded to expressions of disapproval and agreed to submit the report first to the foreign relations committee.

Senators Crawford and Kenyon joined demands in declaring the senate should not by its discussion lend weight to his efforts to intensify the Mexican feeling.

Senator Crawford expressed the highest confidence in President Wilson and the state department, saying that they were entitled to the senate's united, sympathetic, loyal and complete support.

"I regret to observe any disposition or evidence of a desire in the senate to make more difficult the work of the foreign relations committee," said he. "The administration may commit error; probably it will. It will have to be subjected to criticism; that is inevitable. But 'as senate, a body which must participate in the settlement of international questions, has a duty that should compel it to rise above partisan criticism."

Senator Williams declared Senator Crawford's "cool, impassive statement" would be "appreciated by all America."

Senator Smith in opening the debate said that S. O. Hopkins, a Washington lawyer, an representative of the constitutional junta, "had the ear of the state department" and "had much to do with the removal of Ambassador Wilson."

Senator Smith's statements were part of a general charge that the constitutionalists with an 8,000,000 man army in Washington were conducting propaganda to influence government action.

After Senator Smith's speech there was an apparent attempt by Democratic leaders to shut off discussion. Senator Kenyon, however, coming straight from a meeting of the foreign relations committee of which both were members and making charges that had never been laid before the committee. Senator Smith drew a distinction

The attack was made as a protest against the treatment on the jail of Miss May Richardson under a sentence of three months for breaking windows. GERMANY UNAWARE OF TEST OF WILSON MESSAGE

Berlin, Aug. 9.—Reports from Washington that President Wilson's message to Provisional President Huerta had been sent also on behalf of other interested nations are incorrect insofar as Germany is concerned. The German foreign office today declared that it did not know the contents of President Wilson's message. Officials here avoid carefully any suggestion of any attempt to influence President Wilson's policy in regard to Mexico but it is apparent that recognition of the government headed by Huerta is favored here. Many references are made by officials to the recommendation of diplomats in Mexico including the German minister there in favor of recognition which Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States, unofficially brought to the attention of the United States government at Washington some time ago.

GUNS AND AMMUNITION FOR FOREIGNERS IN MEXICO CITY

Washington, Aug. 9.—On representations that should the light and water power supply of Mexico City be damaged, all the foreigners in the city would suffer, President Wilson has granted a permit for the shipment of three rapid fire guns and fifty thousand rounds of ammunition to the Mexican Light and Power company.
