THE TEN NONS. The Ten Nons enjoyed a very pleasant meeting this week with Mr. A. B. Stroup. After a fine dinner a paper, "Our Relation with Japan," was read by Superintendent Hachen Ferry of the United States Indian school, and a lively discussion followed. Mr. W. H. Barney and Mr. E. A. Stroup, brother of the host, were guests of the Nons. The next meeting will take place the seventeenth of February. The Nons will entertain their wives at dinner at the Alvarado, after which they will go by automobile to the Indian school to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Perry at a Valentine party. There is no special program being arranged for that evening, but a jolly good time is being planned.

The Grants Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grant of Los Angeles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Macpherson for several days during the past week and a number of small affairs were given in their honor.

University Doings

The Student Body met Monday and held an election of officers for the ensuing year. The outgoing officers were Miss Florence Sedet, acting vice president, and Frank Gouin, secretary-treasurer. Those who were elected are John J. Emma, president; Mary Cooper, vice president, and Ernest Hall, secretary-treasurer.

The Policewoman Discussed

The Woman's club enjoyed a very instructive meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. T. Patch of Phoenix, Ariz., gave a highly interesting talk on the subject "Should Albuquerque Have a Policewoman?" and told what the duties of such a position are.
