

SPORTS

TODAY'S GAMES

TUESDAY, MAY 12.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Called in 10th—Rain.

Score: R. H. E.
 Boston 000 000 0—1 3 1
 Pittsburgh 000 000 0—1 5 1

Batteries: Rudolph and Whaling; Cooper and Gibson.

Called in tenth inning on account of rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

St. Louis, 0; Boston, 7.

R. H. E.
 St. Louis 000 000 0—0 3 4
 Boston 203 200 0—7 5 0

Batteries: Taylor, Baumgardner, Manning and Agnew; Foster and Thomas.

CHICAGO, 2; WASHINGTON, 3.

R. H. E.
 Chicago 001 100 000—2 7 2
 Washington 000 001 011—3 10 0

Batteries: Benz and Kuhn; Johnson and Henry.

DETROIT, 4; NEW YORK, 0.

R. H. E.
 Detroit 200 000 010—4 11 0
 New York 000 000 000—0 4 3

Batteries: Cavallari and Stanga; Schuk, Warhop, Cole and Sweeney.

FEDERAL LEAGUE

Positioned—Rain.
 Kansas City-Indianapolis game postponed; rain.

St. Louis-Chicago game postponed; rain.

POSTPONED—RAIN.

Baltimore at Buffalo; postponed on account of rain.

St. Louis at Chicago; postponed; rain.

WESTERN LEAGUE

Postponed—Cold.
 Lincoln at Omaha postponed; cold.

Baseball.

Standing of the Clubs
 (The averages do not include today's results.)

National League
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	35	4	.889
Brooklyn	9	6	.600
Philadelphia	9	6	.600
New York	6	6	.500
Cincinnati	10	11	.476
St. Louis	9	14	.391
Chicago	8	13	.385
Boston	7	13	.347
Detroit	2	12	.143

American League
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Detroit	16	7	.696
Philadelphia	10	7	.588
New York	10	8	.556
St. Louis	11	10	.524
Washington	9	10	.474
Chicago	10	13	.435
Boston	7	11	.389
Cleveland	7	14	.333

Federal League
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Baltimore	8	4	.667
St. Louis	13	9	.591
Indianapolis	11	8	.579
Chicago	11	10	.524
Brooklyn	7	8	.464
Buffalo	8	10	.444
Kansas City	9	14	.391
Pittsburgh	7	13	.350

Western League
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Denver	14	6	.700
Des Moines	12	8	.600
St. Joseph	10	8	.556
Lincoln	11	11	.500
Sioux City	10	11	.476
Topeka	10	11	.476
Omaha	7	12	.368
Wichita	7	14	.333

LINING 'EM OUT

Gallup is anxious to meet the D. R. E. nine. R. C. Beddow, manager of the Gallups, has offered to pay $30 toward expenses if the conquering railroaders will appear in the mining metropolis, and is willing to bring his team here for the same guarantee if the D. R. E.'s prefer to depart on their own soil.

Harry Riede and Young Duran fought at catchweights in East Las Vegas last night. Riede had about seven pounds the better of the Las Vegas batter and reports say he shaded him a bit, but the referee's decision called it a draw and the populace liked the ruling.

Larry Chappell, the $10,000 prize beauty of the Chicago White Sox, is out of the game until June with various injuries. Day, the catcher who shone in the trip around the world, and Fournier will fight it out for Chappell's place.

The Chicago American club has released Pitcher House to Omaha. Of him it may be said that he is going like a House fire.

Manager Chance, of the New Yorks, has retained just five men of the troops which he led on the field at the beginning of 1914. All the rest have been recruited since that time, and the five who constitute the old guard are Bartslett, Sweeney, Fisher, Caldwell and Warhop. In the worst of starting to build up a ball team Chicago surely made big changes in a short time.

Moeller and Foster, the first two men in the Washington batting order, make a very nice exhibition of the hit-and-run play when things break right for them. With Moeller on first and Foster at bat, it will be a good plan to conceal as long as possible which of the infielders is going to cover second, for the middle, given any sort of a change, pokes or pulls them to either side of the bag with equal facility.

Frank Chance has reached the conclusion that Roy Hatzell cannot be jettisoned at second base. Scout Irvia, after a rubber shoe trip through the west has reported that no Boston second baseman can be obtained. The Browns have a cold named Miller who cannot be bought at any price, although Branch Rickey has a star middle sacker in Del Pratt. Chance cannot see Steve Yerkes, of the Red Sox, with a telescope, while he doesn't believe the veteran John Hummel of the Superbas, could help much.

Catcher Jack Lapp, of the Athletics, is faster to arm and leg than he was a year ago. The mankum was in poor physical condition last brush, but is fit this season.

Mike Derigis, the mighty college man, has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

or run his bean against a post. Under this treatment he felt his carefully nurtured faith oozing out and decided to withdraw.

"He that is strong shall flee away," quotes Mr. Dorias. "That's me. I find that Jacob wrestled with his hip out of joint, but I don't like that kind of stuff."

"Joe" Oeschner, a St. Mary's college pitcher, with the Quakers, refused to quit school until he had signed a contract guaranteeing a year's salary at a fat figure, whether he makes good or not. Oeschner is counted a good investment to date.

Flight, instilled by Frank Chance, and power given the line-up by Jimmy Walsh is credited with the rejuvenation of the Yankees. Good pitching has helped a lot, but the White Sox have shown that even the best pitching will not help without scoring ability.

Walsh's first and most prominent stunt was to beat the Athletics, the team from which Chance obtained him. Philadelphia gave Walsh credit for three victories in a five-game series.

In this series he batted .352. He made 23 trips to the plate, drew six passes, made six hits for seven bases and scored seven runs. He proved himself a better and faster runner than those who have been watching him believe he will make a name for himself.

Larry Chappell, the $10,000 prize beauty of the Chicago White Sox, is out of the game until June with various injuries. Day, the catcher who shone in the trip around the world, and Fournier will fight it out for Chappell's place.

The Chicago American club has released Pitcher House to Omaha. Of him it may be said that he is going like a House fire.

Manager Chance, of the New Yorks, has retained just five men of the troops which he led on the field at the beginning of 1914. All the rest have been recruited since that time, and the five who constitute the old guard are Bartslett, Sweeney, Fisher, Caldwell and Warhop. In the worst of starting to build up a ball team Chicago surely made big changes in a short time.

Moeller and Foster, the first two men in the Washington batting order, make a very nice exhibition of the hit-and-run play when things break right for them. With Moeller on first and Foster at bat, it will be a good plan to conceal as long as possible which of the infielders is going to cover second, for the middle, given any sort of a change, pokes or pulls them to either side of the bag with equal facility.

Frank Chance has reached the conclusion that Roy Hatzell cannot be jettisoned at second base. Scout Irvia, after a rubber shoe trip through the west has reported that no Boston second baseman can be obtained. The Browns have a cold named Miller who cannot be bought at any price, although Branch Rickey has a star middle sacker in Del Pratt. Chance cannot see Steve Yerkes, of the Red Sox, with a telescope, while he doesn't believe the veteran John Hummel of the Superbas, could help much.

Catcher Jack Lapp, of the Athletics, is faster to arm and leg than he was a year ago. The mankum was in poor physical condition last brush, but is fit this season.

Mike Derigis, the mighty college man, has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

Mr. Dorias is a Christian and he finds it difficult to maintain a Christian attitude toward a brother from another college at such times as the said brother is kicking him in the face and trying to break his neck. He could make allowances, he maintains, even if they would abide by the rules of wrestling as laid down in the old testament. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth is all right," he claims, but there is nowhere any mention of a nose for a nose, and when an Annapolis graduate deliberately busted his nose, Mr. Dorias decided that wrestling was clear outside of the scriptural reservation.

"They shall deride every strong-hold," it was written; but Mr. Dorias claims that the dear old college boys in the land of the free have a system of fulfilling this prophecy and contemplated at the time the original plan was laid down. He says their idea of deriding his strong holds was to knee him in the solar plexus of the stomach. Mr. Dorias has decided to abandon wrestling on the ground that it interferes with his religion.

ANOTHER ARREST IN DEASON CASE IS LIKELY TODAY

Santa Fe Police Expect to Capture Thief who Stole Railroad Pass. Couple Held for Arraignment.

The Santa Fe police expect today to make another arrest in the case of A. R. Deason and Della M. Deason, who were committed to the county jail yesterday by Justice George R. Craig to await arraignment on a charge of using a railroad pass to which they are alleged to have had no right. There is a special statute against getting transportation by deception. The Santa Fe authorities say that the pass, on which the couple were traveling to Pueblo, Colo., was stolen from the Santa Fe office here. They expect to arrest the thief who took the pass before nightfall.

The Deasons were arrested yesterday morning by Special Agent George H. Thomas of the Santa Fe service. Thomas is the man appointed by Mayor Boatright to take the place of Chief of Police McMillin.

PYTHIANS TO HOLD A MEETING SOON ON SANITARIUM

Representatives to Supreme Lodge Gathering at Winnipeg to be Named. Part of Systematic Campaign.

In line with the systematic campaign recently launched, Mineral Lodge No. 4, K. of P., will hold a special sanitarium meeting May 25, at which plans will be laid for sending a delegation from the lodge to the meeting of the Grand lodge at Winnipeg next August, at which time it is expected that the question of locating a sanitarium will come before the order.

Mineral lodge has received much encouragement from prominent Pythians in its effort to insure the establishment of the sanitarium here. The lodge will ask the commercial club to name a committee to represent the city at large in presenting the site matter before the Grand lodge.

Letters have been sent to all the grand domains in the order, urging the representatives to the Grand lodge to consider Albuquerque's matchless advantages as a sanitarium site. Ministers will be invited to stone returned between now and the time of the big meeting to present Albuquerque's claim forcefully and effectively.

C. O. Cushman of Mineral lodge is now in Atlanta, attending the Shrine gathering, and while in Georgia he is expected to meet the supreme chancellor of the Pythians and discuss with him the sanitarium question.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaker, then you suffer with dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side, headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize those irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act like new. This famous salt is made from the solid of sodium and lemon juice, combined with Bilex, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

MAY SEEK TO INTEREST THE POPE IN AFFAIRS IN TROUBLED MEXICO

[By Lensed Wire to Evening Herald.] Vera Cruz, May 12.—The Rev. Jose Moreno del Rio, archbishop of Mexico, and the Rev. Jesus Maria Escobar, bishop of Santhito, arrived here today on their way to Rome.

It was said the archbishop was going to Italy for a vacation, but those familiar with his efforts for peace in the federal capital regard his trip as of more significance, saying they believe he hopes to secure the active interest of the pope in Mexican affairs.

THERE are very few people in Albuquerque who have not taken advantage of our great New Management Sale. We have bargains yet and plenty of them. You should not fail to come in and see for your self.

Bed Spreads

Regular price	$1.50	2.25	3.50
Sale price	.95	1.35	2.35
Regular price	$4.50	7.50	9.00
Sale Price	$3.35	5.35	6.35

A very choice line of white and tan dresses.

Regular price	$10.00
Sale price	$4.75

You should not fail to see them to appreciate their great value.

Embroidery Flouncing

27 to 45 inches wide.

Regular price	25c to $1.50
Sale price	12c to 75c

A great selection of towels from 4c up

THE MODEL DRY GOODS CO.

A. D. CAMPBELL, Manager.

CORNER FOURTH and CENTRAL.

AIR COLLISION

TWO ENGLISH AIR MEN MEET DEATH

[By Lensed Wire to Evening Herald.] London, May 12.—Two army air-men, Captain P. D. Anderson and a mechanic named Carter, were instantly killed, and Lieutenant C. W. Wilson was gravely injured when two biplanes collided in the air at Alder shot this evening.

GROSE NAMED AS PUBLICITY MAN FOR THIS CITY

Good Roads Man to Boost Cause of Highways as They are to be Exploited at Mountainair Chautauqua.

MALLOY'S

Tomorrow We Expect to Have:

Strawberries, box	15c
Raspberries, box	15c
Blackberries, box	15c
Telephone Pops, lb.	15c
Green Beans, lb.	17 1/2c
Wax Beans, lb.	17 1/2c
Cucumbers, each	15c
Pancy Tomatoes, lb.	20c
Large Native Lettuce, 2 for	3c
Summer Squash, lb.	15c

RIPE OLIVES.

Arizona, 25c, 35c & 65c cans
California, quarts .50c and 60c
Galibons $1.65 and $1.85
Fancy Dried Peaches, lb.	12 1/2c
Large Cooking Flgs, lb.	12 1/2c

CHASE AND SANBORN COFFEES.

30c, 35c, 40c and 45c pound.

A. J. MALLOY

Phone 172.

Albuquerque Foundry and Machine Works.

Engineers Founders Machinists
 Castings in Iron, Brass, Bronze, Aluminum, Structural Steel for Bridges and Buildings
 Works and Offices—Albuquerque, N. M.

Fresh ranch butter 25c

Good size Sweet Oranges	25c
4 lbs. large New Potatoes	25c
20c. Hopless Cabbages	15c
Large cans of Colton Tomatoes	15c
3 cans Sweet Corn	25c
3 Glass Tomblers	10c
2-quart Eumalee Stew Pans	10c
Girls' $1.50 Oxfords	$1.00
Men's Straw Hats	20c and up
Boys' Straw Hats	10c and up
Girls' 50c Straw Hats	35c
Girls' 75c Straw Hats	50c

AT DOLDE'S YOUR DOLLAR BUYS MORE.

DOLDE'S

210-212 South Second Street. Phone 661.

ALL GOODS DELIVERED.

Every Soul A Mystery Play and Musical Drama

Given by Pupils of ST. VINCENT ACADEMY At Elks' Opera House

Wednesday, June 10, '14 at 3 p. m.

Tickets 50c; on sale at Matson's

BASEBALL

SCORES hot off the wire.
 MECCA BILLIARD PARLOR

J. L. GOBER
 General Auctioneer
 Household Goods a Specialty.
 Phone 422. P. O. Box 324.

Highest Honors Again.
 5 HARLEY DAVIDSON
 Won Perfect Scores in the Ft. Wayne 172-mile Endurance Contest April 19th.<