COMPLIMENTARY PRESENTATION

A great statesman said:

"No library is complete without two certain books—the Bible and Shakespeare. Hardly a quotation in literature that is not taken from one of these books."

Every home needs a Bible and one of convenient form. To appreciate the great book it does not necessarily mean that one must be a church member or a religious man or woman, but it should be available for every one and often read here and there as the most interesting of all books, as the book under the teachings of which the wonderful development of civilization has been accomplished. No matter how many Bibles you may have, you will need this Illustrated Bible which illuminates, i. e. "throws light upon," the particular text selected for illustration, and is beyond a doubt the most beautiful edition of the Bible that has ever been published.

Everybody in Albuquerque will be benefited by the exceptional educational presentation undertaken by The Evening Herald. Here is an opportunity for every reader of the Herald to possess this ILLUSTRATED BIBLE (Protestant or Catholic) with practically no effort.

For Every Reader of the Evening Herald

Heretofore the word "illustrated" as applied to a Bible, meant merely a few allegorical "pictures" of Biblical events taken from any source, and conveniently placed in any part of the book, merely as embellishment inserts, but not directly alongside and explanatory of the verse intended to typify or make plain; but our publishers, at an outlay of $50,000, prepared accurate illustrations DESCRIPTIVE of the VERSE which they accompany, and placed directly next to the verse of the scene described—the only place it can be looked for or found quickly, the only place the illustration is a help to you—making this the FIRST and ONLY complete ILLUSTRATED Bible.

Comparison is Impossible

FOR OUR NEW BIBLE STANDS ALONE—THERE IS NO OTHER OF ITS KIND. THEREFORE, PRAISE OF THIS SUPERB NEW BOOK MEANS NO DISPARAGEMENT OF THE MANY EXCELLENT EDITIONS PUBLISHED HERETOFORE.

Events that have been imperfectly comprehended become invested with the charm of living reality, and places that have seemed far off are made familiar, as though we ourselves had trod the hills and valleys of these historic lands. It may be truthfully said that this really superb edition of the book of books has an important mission to perform, in illuminating and vivifying the Bible narrative and giving, as never before, a present, living, human interest.

One Hundred of the World's Greatest Artists

Working under the advice of archaeologists and historians of wide renown, have contributed the choicest products of their skill and genius to produce this grand triumph of artistic beauty and perfection in historical detail. These pictures are not mere reproductions of mediæval frescoes and more or less familiar modern photographs, inserted at random; they have been especially made, in the light of twentieth century knowledge, to illustrate selected texts in accordance with the matured beliefs of the greatest living theologians.
