

Longman

THE HERALD SOCIETY EDITOR'S PHONE IS 1011.

W HAT with special musical attention to musical style, such as the concert on Monday night by Miss Suzanne Reynolds and her company from the National Grand Opera company, the appearance here of Marie White Longman, the celebrated contralto, and with the forthcoming graduation of the university, the high school, St. Vincent academy and other schools, with their extended musical seasons, Albuquerque is to have a feast of music during the next few weeks. The appearance of Miss Reynolds and her company in the city which is scheduled for Monday night, is of course of great importance. The advance sale of seats is large and while the sale will be limited to the number of seats in the auditorium, it is safe to guess that every seat will be filled. The efficient management which has been given Miss Reynolds' appearance in Albuquerque would have secured a gratifying and successful audience for a much less distinguished attraction. Miss Adela C. Holmquist who is in charge of the making of the National Grand Opera quartette here today made public the program which Miss Reynolds, Miss Jarman, Mr. Puchi and Mr. Rodolf will give. It seems quite assured to say such more as to the standing of the four artists, or of the great success they have achieved on the coast. And to every lover of great music the program will be a guarantee of an evening of delight. It follows:

CALENDAR OF EVENTS FOR COMING WEEK

- Monday, April 19.—Evening by Suzanne Reynolds and her company from the National Grand Opera company.
- Tuesday, April 20.—Evening by Music club, Mrs. R. R. Pollock.
- Wednesday, April 21.—Miscellaneous club, Mrs. Schmitz.
- Friday, April 23.—Women's club.
- Friday, April 23.—Track meet, Tracton park.
- Saturday, April 24.—Track meet, continued.

Program follows:
Sunday, May 9, at 4 p. m., Rodey hall, university campus, Baccalaureate service, Dr. Moise Bergman, Special music by the university department of music.

Monday, May 10, at 2 p. m., Tracton park, dual track meet, University of New Mexico vs. New Mexico Agricultural college.

Monday, May 10, at 8 p. m., Rodey hall, university campus, concert by university department of music under direction of Prof. E. Stanley Seider.

Tuesday, May 11, at 2 p. m., Tracton park, base ball game, University of New Mexico vs. New Mexico Agricultural college.

Tuesday, May 11, at 5:20 p. m., Crystal theater, annual play by the University of New Mexico Dramatic club, for the benefit of the Athletic association. Play entitled "Going Home."

Wednesday, May 12, at 10 a. m., Rodey hall, university campus, commencement address by Hon. Felix Martinez of El Paso. Conferring of degrees.

The following is the special program for the Baccalaureate services, Sunday, May 9, at 4 p. m.:
Prælude (a) "Swedish Festival"
March
(b) "Statu d'Armour"
Albuquerque Philharmonic Orchestra.

Invention.....Rev. C. L. Dean
Music—"Unfold Ye Portals"
University Festive Chorus.
Scripture Reading—Mr. W. H. Day,
Secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, Albuquerque, N. M.
Music—"Quintet," "An Evening Hymn"
Mrs. Katherine Glimmer Bailey, Miss Louise Thorne, E. Stanley Seider, Robert T. Sewell.
Solo—"Lord God of Abraham" (Eli-Jah)
John D. Falkenberg.
Baccalaureate Sermon.....
Dr. Moise Bergman
"Salutatio"
Gounod
Benediction.....Rev. Archie Toothaker
Prælude—"Swedish Coronation March"
Albuquerque Philharmonic Orchestra.
Head usher: Mr. Ernest Hall.

The third in a series of Wednesday musicals which are being given in St. Vincent academy, occurred in Rodey hall April 14th and proved, if possible, more enjoyable than these entertainments usually are. A medal was awarded Miss Lois Hicks for excellence in technique and interpretation. The program gives follows:
On Lake Chiem.....Heinz Elmer Goff.
Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana (Trax)
Spaulding
Viola, Margaret Durkin; piano,
Dorothy Blaine;
Schottische.....Lindsay Malba Kilpatrick.
Evening Party.....Wachs
Josephine Micra.
(a) Spring Song (Trans.) Spaulding
(b) Home Sweet Home (Podal Study)
Dorothy Blaine.
Silver Nymphs.....Heinz Elmer Goff.
Doll's Dream.....Gesteh
Jane Campbell.
Twilight.....Virgil Edna Spencer.
Our Gallant Defenders (Duet).....Person
Lillian and Rose Abousteiman.
Waltz Caprice.....Lack
Pauline Armijo.
Le Desin.....Cramer
Lois Hicks.
Snowy of Stars.....Wachs
Lucia Soups.
Spring's Awakening.....Espen
Elizabeth Reinartz.

Another event of unusual interest was held in Rodey hall of St. Vincent academy Thursday, April 15th, in the historical context, which was a splendid demonstration of the work done by members of the elocution class. Four young ladies were entered in the contest and the result was the awarding of the medal to Miss Kathryn Keicher. The readers were assisted by members of the senior music and vocal classes. Miss Grace Baxter was second honors and Miss Rozita Armijo third. The program follows:
Duet: "Columbia's Pride".....Spons
Irma Liz, Mary Stewart.
Reading: "Bliss to the Romans".....Stella Armijo.
Vocal Selection: "I Dream of Thee".....Mary Stewart.
Piano: "Song Without Words".....

Headed by the "Seminole's Reply".....Grace Baxter.
Piano: "Believe Me If These Endearing Charms".....Kunkle
Margaret McCann.
Vocal: "Sing Sir Dena Lied".....Green
Elizabeth Reinartz.
Viola: Eleanor Lynch.
Piano: Miss Cecelia Murphy.
Intermezzo.....Virgil
Benjo Mirabel.
Reading: "Curse of Rosalind".....Marie Bailing.
Piano: Spring Song.....Kronman
Florida Thais.
Vocal: "Little Pink Rose".....Jacobs-Bond
Miss Pina.
Reading: "The Gladiator".....Kathryn Keicher.
Piano: Two Flowers.....Koelling
Beatrice Hauke.
Vocal: "Just a Wazrin for You".....Jacobs-Bond
Rebecca Casaus.
Duet: "Banner of Victory".....Von Pien
Emma Gilbert, Louise Allen.

Cards were received in the city yesterday announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Lottie Nymanski to Frank Lacy Gordon at high noon on Wednesday, April the twenty-eighth at St. John's Episcopal church. Miss Nymanski has a host of friends both in social and business circles of Albuquerque and is one of the most popular young business women in this part of the state. Everyone who knows Albuquerque, knows "Miss Lottie." She has been with the Evening Herald since its foundation, and her ability and zeal has won for her a foremost place on the paper and the friendship and admiration of her co-workers.

Mr. Gordon came here from Texarkana, Ark. where he had been with the Texarkana for a number of years. He has been with the Herald since the present management, and thus the romance began. Mr. Gordon is an exemplary young man of highest standards and sterling worth. Congratulations are already pouring in from outside the city, and a host of friends in Albuquerque will join in wishing them all happiness.

On Monday afternoon the children of St. John's Rodey school enjoyed the promised egg hunt which had been postponed from Easter Monday on account of the rain. At 4:15 the children and their teachers met at Robinson park and went from there to the grove on South Fourteenth street after a wildly exciting search for the eggs that the bunnies had laid in the queerest places. The youngsters were served ice cream in cones, and the candy of choice of the boys was truly amazing even to folks who know what boys' appetites are. Following this was a closely contested game of base ball, and, of course, the boys needed more "refreshments" after this. The children of the primary department finished off their afternoon with games.

The Tuesday club met this week with Mrs. H. E. Henning. A very interesting program was carried out. Mrs. Hope gave "Current Events." Following this were papers pertaining to the subject of a "City Beautiful." Mrs. A. E. Walker read a very good paper on "Parks." Mrs. D. R. Boyd gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Trees," which raised so much enthusiasm that the members declared themselves ready to go out at once to plant trees. If the enthusiasm for which Mrs. Boyd is responsible, Albuquerque is in a fair way to become a "forest primeval." Mrs. Nordhaus, who was scheduled to appear on this program—her subject being "Playgrounds"—had arranged some time ago to have Mr. Weir discuss this subject in public as has already been done. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. B. Strout, president of the club.

The session of the Women's club was well attended yesterday in spite of the downpour of rain which fell at the hour for the meeting. A vocal solo, "Springtime," by Mrs. McGreif, and a piano solo, "Tarentelle," by Mrs. Geo. Everett were both enjoyed. The paper by Miss Margaret Gleason and Mrs. C. May, dealing with domestic science were particularly interesting, being both practical and helpful. This is a subject that can usually be written about beautifully, but these papers contained practical suggestions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bebeck, Mrs. Benjamin, Mrs. Stroms, Mrs. Horner and Mrs. Hall.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. W. W. 513 West Marquette, her dining class of expression, assisted by Freeda Pearson, will give a recital. The public is invited. The program follows:
Duet Song.....A. Wilson
Class.
(a) Williams Jenkins.....Bryan Snow
(b) Stella de Banna.
Bertram Bacc.
Shepherd Divine.....Fredie Jerome
Freda Pearson.
(c) Elocution.....Bon King
(d) I Am Artistic.....Mary C. Monroe
Jessie Wolf.
Somewhere.....A. Yale
Raggy Man, James Whitcomb Riley
Thelma Farr.
As the Moon Rose.....Pauline Phelps
Freda Pearson.
Pantomime: "Goldfish"
Thelma Farr, Louise Doster,
Jessie Wolf.

Yesterday was the eleventh birthday of Ralph Marron, son of O. M. Marron, and last evening he entertained in celebration of the event. His guests were Craig Hill, Fernon Herbold, Francis Lench, Louis Connelly, William Vaughn and Clark Carr. Owen Marron was very much in the party, too, of course.

The boys had a truly scrumptious feast, and they played games, and the evening was topped off with a theater party at the Crystal.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of the immaculate Conception church is giving a tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wallace Hesselitt, 1211 West Roma avenue. The attendance is large and the cause a good one.

The Buckner Dixie Jubilee concert company which gave such a creditable concert in the high school auditorium Friday night are Sundaying in the city. They will give a sacred concert in the First Methodist church tomorrow night at the regular 7:30 o'clock service. This is a rare opportunity for music lovers to hear these noted singers in sacred work. Mr. W. C. Buckner, manager of the company, and bass, will sing at the morning service, his selection being "Thou Faithless Man," by Healey.

The program for a Spanish play and entertainment which is to be given in the high school auditorium tonight is announced as follows:
La Galandrina—High school orchestra.
Highland Fling—Physical Training club.
La Bandera—Chorus and second ward children.
Recitation—"Mi Bandera," Emigdio Yrestra, first ward.
Victrola selections.
Indian Club Drill—Physical Training club.
Spanish play—"La Muela del Juicio," high school pupils.

The cast of characters for the play follows:
Don Atillano, Enrique Chavez; Rafo, Pedro Osuna; Francisco, Gilbert Espinosa; Un Caballero, Ralph Hernandez; Rocio, Anita Osuna; Pezuela, James Harwood; Lolis, Amado Chavez; Inocencia, Bertha Bassett; El Garipio, Ernesto Chavez; Isidra, Augustina Armijo; Caballeros y señoras.

The second bi-annual state convention of the Woodmen Circle held in this city, culminated a three-day session, in an elaborate banquet Thursday evening. The Woodmen hall was lavishly decorated in potted palms, greens, and festooning of the order. The dozens of tables were placed about the hall in the form of a monster "U," and beautified with vases and lilies, checker roses and amaranth. Proceeding the banquet a pleasing program was presented that included:

Address by State Delegate to the Supreme Lodge Mrs. Julia Sharp, of Carlsbad.
Reading—"Archie Dean," Miss Nellie Crawford.
Tenor Solo—"A Perfect Day," Mr. Barker.
Solo—"State Officer Bernstein," "Rose Mazurka"—Beatrice Hill and Margaret Strumquist.
Bridal march illustrating the parable of the "Ten Virgins."

This last number was a classic in the way of living pictures, pantomime and vocal interpretation. Participants were: Bride, Miss Neva Blake; bridesmaids (bearing lilies), Misses Rhoda Swayne, Olive Gibson and Fay Stearns; Ida Spangill, Nellie Crawford, May Allen, Dorothy Dean; angels, Helen Seibert, Nile Strumquist; flower carrier, Carmen Morell; vocalists, Messrs. Barker and Spaulding; "Pax Under the Rod," "Too Late" and "Lead Kindly Light." This last number was expressed in graceful pantomime by Misses Nellie Crawford and Ida Spangill. A notable number in the program was Mr. Barker's rendition of Carrie Jacobs Bond "Perfect Day" that charmed his large audience and elicited an encore, "Dear Heart." Mrs. Barker was the accompanist for the songs. Irene and Harold Partch provided the music for the Mendelssohn Wedding March. During the banquet, when 250 guests were seated at the tables, the music was most pleasing for each selection. Mr. D. E. Phillips, supreme delegate of the Woodmen of the World at the last convention, and organizer of the local circle, of Cottonwood Grove, presided at the banquet as a capable toastmaster. State Manager Sharp was the recipient of many honors in speeches, and in floral offerings, responding to a call from the toastmaster. Mrs. Sharp expressed appreciation for the many courtesies to the delegates by the local lodge and the Woodmen of the city; and gave cordial invitation to every one present to attend the next biennial meet in Roswell in "apple blossom season," 1917. Supreme Manager Taylor was the honored guest of the convention, and won all hearts by her charming personality. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Gladys Merrifield twice presented with bouquets during the convention on the opening day by the Circle and at the ball Wednesday night when the Woodmen of the World were hosts to the grand officers and delegates.

At many of the sessions and social affairs there were more than 250 persons, and the business sessions also brought out an attendance above the one hundred mark.

A Santa Fe attraction is announced for tonight at the Presbyterian church, the high school auditorium being engaged. This is the Brahms quartet, and promises to be one of the best entertainments given. The personnel is Mr. Frank Farnum, manager, character songs; Mrs. Frank Farnum soprano; Miss Alta Burton, contralto; Mr. Tom McGrath, tenor; Mr. Dean De Batts, bass; Mr. Harry Simpson, pianist and accompanist.

The banquet given by the business men for Mr. Fred B. Smith was one of the largest and best attended given by this association. In the language of one of the members "It certainly was swell." Covers were laid for more than one hundred men. Mr. Smith was the chief speaker, his subject being "The Business Man's Era." His talk, while earnest throughout, was spiced with humor.

Mr. Lithgow was toastmaster. Yesterday was the eleventh birth-

UNIVERSITY NEWS.

Last Thursday morning at assembly the university had the privilege of hearing Judge E. A. Mann, who gave an extremely instructive address on the subject "How Our Laws Are Made."

On Wednesday morning Fred B. Smith gave an excellent address before the student body. His subject was "America's Greatest Sin." He gave so humorous and fascinating a talk for twenty minutes that it seemed that he had forgotten his theme. Soon, however, it became clear to all that he was but preparing his audience for the purview of his message, which in brief was as follows:

He warned young people against all dissipation, particularly the use of liquor and cigarettes; he congratulated us upon our being in college; he urged us to hold our heads high and to let nothing prevent us from finishing our college course.

The signal event of the athletic season will be the third annual inter-scholastic track meet, to be held in Albuquerque April 23 and 24. Preparations are being made to entertain about a hundred athletic representatives of high schools in the state.

The preliminaries will take place at Tracton park, beginning at 8 o'clock on Friday, and the final events will be held at the same place and hour on Saturday. Saturday evening the university students plan to entertain the visitors with a dance in Rodey hall.

Following the Tuesday assembly a student body meeting was held in Rodey hall. In a close election Lee Walker was voted to be editor for the university "Weekly" for next year, and Floyd Lee was elected manager.

Another meeting is planned for next week to elect the manager and editor for next year's edition of the "Mirror."

The preliminary rounds for the tennis tournaments are in full swing on the three tennis courts at the university campus. It is expected that the preliminaries will be completed by Wednesday, the 21st, when the final will be begun.

Thursday evening the Dramatic club had their "try-out" for the play. They have secured R. W. Wiley as coach, and the play selected is "Going Home." Being a breezy story of the western plains, nobody wants to miss it, so remember the date, May 11, and the place, Crystal theater.

Miss Nellie Hart from New Orleans, the national president of the Phi Mu Fraternity, has been the guest of the Phi Mu chapter of Phi Mu this past week.

The Phi Mu fraternity entertained at dinner in her honor two times during the week at the Alvarado, and Wednesday evening the Sigma Tau fraternity entertained the Phi Mu chapter at a meal party in Miss Hart's honor.

Dr. David Ross Boyd has returned from a trip out of the city and will address the students at assembly Tuesday morning.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the graduating class of the normal department visited the first, third and fourth ward schools with Professor C. E. Hodgkin, head of the normal department.

Last night, in spite of the inclement weather, the junior class delightfully entertained the student body in Rodey hall, with the first "Junior Prom" in the history of the university. Let us hope that future Juniors will follow the fine example set by the class of 1915, and make the "Junior Prom" an annual event of the university.

Rabbi Bergman, of this city, is to deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May the ninth.

Businesslike rehearsals have commenced on the baccalaureate and commencement music, and his things are expected.

The Honorable Felix Martinez of El Paso will deliver the commencement address May the twelfth.

There was no time to be lost. Helen realized that if she desired to help her with the mail contract she must act immediately. Commandeering the electric speeder which Billy, the line-man, had left on the siding, Helen ordered the mail clerk to throw his bags on the car and hop aboard.

Two minutes later the speeder was derailed in the rear of the train. A startled cry caused the girl telegrapher to open her eyes. She had beaten the train by the merest fraction of a second.

But as fast as the speeder had traveled, it had been beaten by Sharky's machine. Hounding the Lima bridge, Sharky and his men leaped from the auto, knocked the tender senseless and raised the draw. Helen saw what was taking place. Picking up a number of track-men, she cried them to the scene on the speeder. A wild fight ensued.

While Sharky's men were busily engaged in fighting the trackmen Helen rushed into the bridge house and lowered the draw. Leaping aboard the car, she ran on the bridge. At the same instant Sharky pulled the raising lever open. Helen just reached the center of the bridge when the structure swung up. Don't miss what followed. It is shown in "A Race For a Crossing," an episode of Kalem's thrilling Hazards of Helen Railroad Series. Holza Holmes' work in this story is simply death defying!

There was no time to be lost. Helen realized that if she desired to help her with the mail contract she must act immediately. Commandeering the electric speeder which Billy, the line-man, had left on the siding, Helen ordered the mail clerk to throw his bags on the car and hop aboard.

Two minutes later the speeder was derailed in the rear of the train. A startled cry caused the girl telegrapher to open her eyes. She had beaten the train by the merest fraction of a second.

But as fast as the speeder had traveled, it had been beaten by Sharky's machine. Hounding the Lima bridge, Sharky and his men leaped from the auto, knocked the tender senseless and raised the draw. Helen saw what was taking place. Picking up a number of track-men, she cried them to the scene on the speeder. A wild fight ensued.

While Sharky's men were busily engaged in fighting the trackmen Helen rushed into the bridge house and lowered the draw. Leaping aboard the car, she ran on the bridge. At the same instant Sharky pulled the raising lever open. Helen just reached the center of the bridge when the structure swung up. Don't miss what followed. It is shown in "A Race For a Crossing," an episode of Kalem's thrilling Hazards of Helen Railroad Series. Holza Holmes' work in this story is simply death defying!

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Champion left yesterday for Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Champion will undergo an operation at the Mayo Brothers in-stitute. Later the Champions will visit relatives in Ohio, returning to Albuquerque in the late summer or autumn.

Mrs. N. P. Cree and her grandson will leave shortly for Portland, Ore.

A RENE OF SEADY IS A JOY FOREVER
DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM
OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on Beauty and its detection. It has stood the test of 16 years, and is so harmless we testify it to be as it is properly made. Agents not connected with similar names.

Dr. E. A. Sayre said to a lady of his acquaintance: "As you ladies will see, I recommend your skin to be the least harmed of all the skin preparations." At drugists and Department Stores.

Dr. T. Felix & Son, Props., 27 Grand Jump St. A. T. C.

Electric Grill Stove

Regular price $5.00
On Sale During Hotpoint Week Only, May 3-8, at $3.35

See it advertised in the May 1 Saturday Evening Post and May Ladies' Home Journal.

El Grifstovo boils, fries, toasts, and broils, both above and below its glowing coils. Operates from any lamp socket. Performs two cooking operations at the same time, at cost of one.

El Grifstovo is the handiest, all 'round convenient electric appliance ever offered at the price.

See this display in our Window—Come in—we'll be glad to show you El Grifstovo.

Remember 1-3 Off

Albuquerque Gas, Electric Light & Power Company

Mrs. Creel will make her home there.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hammer have returned to their home in Oklahoma. They have been living in Albuquerque for two years. Mr. Hammer was a clerk at the Owl Drug store.

Miss Lela Armijo left yesterday morning for the coast. Miss Armijo will remain away all summer and will not return until the fall.

Mr. John K. Barnes left Sunday afternoon for an extended visit. She will visit Santa Fe for a few days, going from there to the coast.

Quite a compliment was recently paid to one of Albuquerque's "sweet dames" when Mrs. Katherine Grimmer Bailey was urged by Dr. Home who has lately given a series of lectures at the Congregational church to accompany him as a singer on his tour of the west.

Mrs. Childers entertained with an informal tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Carr of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. E. L. McEwen was hostess yesterday afternoon to a small party of friends.

Any skin itching is a tender tender. The more you scratch the worse it itches. Don't's Ointment is for piles, eczema—any skin itching. See at all drug stores.

"A Race For a Crossing"

SCENE FROM "A RACE FOR A CROSSING"

There was no time to be lost. Helen realized that if she desired to help her with the mail contract she must act immediately. Commandeering the electric speeder which Billy, the line-man, had left on the siding, Helen ordered the mail clerk to throw his bags on the car and hop aboard.

Two minutes later the speeder was derailed in the rear of the train. A startled cry caused the girl telegrapher to open her eyes. She had beaten the train by the merest fraction of a second.

But as fast as the speeder had traveled, it had been beaten by Sharky's machine. Hounding the Lima bridge, Sharky and his men leaped from the auto, knocked the tender senseless and raised the draw. Helen saw what was taking place. Picking up a number of track-men, she cried them to the scene on the speeder. A wild fight ensued.

While Sharky's men were busily engaged in fighting the trackmen Helen rushed into the bridge house and lowered the draw. Leaping aboard the car, she ran on the bridge. At the same instant Sharky pulled the raising lever open. Helen just reached the center of the bridge when the structure swung up. Don't miss what followed. It is shown in "A Race For a Crossing," an episode of Kalem's thrilling Hazards of Helen Railroad Series. Holza Holmes' work in this story is simply death defying!

There was no time to be lost. Helen realized that if she desired to help her with the mail contract she must act immediately. Commandeering the electric speeder which Billy, the line-man, had left on the siding, Helen ordered the mail clerk to throw his bags on the car and hop aboard.

Two minutes later the speeder was derailed in the rear of the train. A startled cry caused the girl telegrapher to open her eyes. She had beaten the train by the merest fraction of a second.

But as fast as the speeder had traveled, it had been beaten by Sharky's machine. Hounding the Lima bridge, Sharky and his men leaped from the auto, knocked the tender senseless and raised the draw. Helen saw what was taking place. Picking up a number of track-men, she cried them to the scene on the speeder. A wild fight ensued.

While Sharky's men were busily engaged in fighting the trackmen Helen rushed into the bridge house and lowered the draw. Leaping aboard the car, she ran on the bridge. At the same instant Sharky pulled the raising lever open. Helen just reached the center of the bridge when the structure swung up. Don't miss what followed. It is shown in "A Race For a Crossing," an episode of Kalem's thrilling Hazards of Helen Railroad Series. Holza Holmes' work in this story is simply death defying!