THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTEEN BILLS PASSED IN ONE HOUR.

The Pension Bill in a Tornado—A Quiet Day in the House.

[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—Senate—In the Senate to-day the House bill was passed for the appointment of an assistant general superintendent, and a chief clerk of the railway mail service, with salaries of $3,000 and $2,000 respectively.

After a short executive session private bills on the calendar were taken up, and 113 bills were passed in just one hour. Among them was one giving a pension of $50 a month to Mrs. Caroline B. Stevens, daughter of Senator Batten, of Oregon, who was killed at the battle of Ball's Bluff, and one giving a pension of $100 a month to the widow of Gen. John F. Hartranft.

The House to-day passed a number of unimportant bills relating to military affairs, and listened to eulogies on the late Newton W. Nutting, of N. Y.

The House then at 4:15 p. m. adjourned.

DURHAM DOTS.

Court Cases Disposed Of—The Y. M. C. A.—Personals, &c.

DURHAM, N. C., April 5, 1890.—Ludden & Bates, piano manufacturers, of Savannah, Ga., have opened a branch house here. J. W. Beardie has charge of it.

The case of the McNeil Piping Company vs. A. H. Howland, et al., was decided to-day. The plaintiffs were awarded $17,500. On motion of the plaintiffs the verdict was set aside and a new trial granted.

The case of State vs. W. E. Young and wife for whipping children who were attending their school, has created much excitement here. It was tried before Justice W. M. Busbee, and he decided to discharge the case.

The address by Dr. A. G. Carr, in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms last evening, was enjoyed by all present. The doctor is known to be a wit of the highest order, and he proved last night that he can eloquent also. By the way, the Young Men's Christian Association is a grand organization, and is doing untold good. They have elegantly furnished rooms here, and their polite and affable secretary, Mr. Oscar Smith, is ever ready to show the courtesies of the Association.

A PROPOSITION

For the Various Orders of the City—By Which They may Have a Handsome Building—And Elegant and Convenient Halls.

The Raleigh public wants a handsome opera house—has been wanting it for some time. The Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Honor, the Knights of Pythias, the Y. M. C. A., and all other organizations want handsome and more accessible halls than they now have. They can have them. How? By a combined effort to put up a magnificent structure, which shall provide all the needed halls and features.

There are several plans by which this may be done. One is for the organizations to prevail on some moneyed corporation to put up the building, and agree to lease or rent the halls for such amount as will insure the return of a reasonable interest on the investment. One or two halls would easily serve all the Orders. The halls could be so arranged as to meet the demands of the various organizations, and depositories could be arranged for the storage of the private paraphernalia of each company or organization.

Another plan is for the companies to combine in the purchase of a lot; then mortgage the lot and building for the money to erect the building. Build it with rental features such as stores, offices &c., and ten to one it can be arranged so that the receipts from rents will not only pay the interest on the investment, but will create an annual sinking fund besides. This plan is feasible and practical, because it is in successful and satisfactory operation elsewhere. There's nothing wild or visionary about it. If desirable, a general hall could be included in the general construction, and then Raleigh would be provided with a much needed establishment.

Now let the various organizations meet and talk it over. Nothing is ever lost by considering a thing, and it is by accident only that anything is ever accomplished without consideration.

CATHOLICISM VS. AMERICANISM

Bishop Vincent Says an Open Fight is Inevitable—The Catholics in Connection With the Schools.

[By United Press.]
CHICAGO, April 5.—The Tribune this morning prints the following:

Bishop Vincent of Buffalo, N. Y., who is at the Palmer House, considers the Bennett law issue, in Wisconsin, the most important event in the year. "Before long," said the Bishop, "the Catholics and German Lutherans will condemn the compulsory education law in Illinois and other States. I have watched the progress of this issue in Wisconsin, ever since Mr. Bennett framed the law which has become famous, and I believe the issue of compulsory education will supersede, at the next presidential election, all tariff and other political interests. The great question as to whether Americans or Roman Catholics shall control this country has reached a point where an open fight is inevitable. While the Americans have been sleeping, the Roman Catholics have been laboring with untiring energy, and their efforts have not been futile. They are building up a power in this country which threatens to prove disastrous to the United States. Not only do most of the Roman Catholics put their children in parochial schools, but they place Catholic teachers in the public schools to exercise an influence over the children of other denominations.

A DISASTROUS EXPLOSION.
Five Men Buried Alive in a Wrecked Tunnel.

[By United Press.]
SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 5.—An explosion occurred Friday morning in the Hardison & Stewart Oil Company's tunnel, near Santa Paula, where oil is being bored for. Two men were badly burned, one of whom has since died. While workmen were removing the wreckage, another explosion buried them in the collapsed tunnel. Five are known to be dead. Three names are known—Britton Hardison, brother of the head of the company, Taylor and Young.

A QUARREL AND FATAL FIGHT.

The Blue Blood of Kentucky Fights With That of an African.

[By United Press.]
SOMERSET, Ky., April 5.—Last evening James Sloan, white, and Robert Burgen, colored, engaged in an altercation over a settlement at Greenwood, when Sloan drew a revolver and tried to shoot Burgen, but the weapon would not fire. John Sloan, a brother of James, came in and followed the negro to a saloon, where both had gone. Firing began simultaneously, and both John Sloan and Burgen were killed. Sloan was a member of one of the best families in the county.

THE TOBACCO TAX.

Speaker Reed Will Have to Face a Dilemma.

[Boston Post.]
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Speaker Reed will soon face the situation which Speaker Carlisle faced in the Forty-ninth Congress, and will have to decide whether he will permit a direct vote on the repeal of the tobacco tax. Colonel Cowles, of North Carolina and young Mr. Tucker, of Virginia, have been preparing a petition to the Speaker asking him to recognize Mr. Tucker to ask a vote of the House upon a bill repealing the entire tax. They have obtained some twenty signatures, and they believe pass such a bill by a substantial majority, made up of nearly all the Republican members and thirty or forty Democratic members from the South. Mr. Carlisle, when Speaker, refused to promise recognition to a member for this purpose, and his action has been a fruitful theme for the denunciation of men like Mr. Reed and Major McKinley. Unlike Mr. Reed has changed his views on this subject as completely as he did upon the question of a quorum, he cannot refuse to recognize the demand of the members from the tobacco growing district. What he probably will do will be to recognize the petition in form but to defeat it in substance by passing the word along the Republican line to vote the bill down. In view of the frantic eagerness he displayed for a vote on this subject in the last Congress, it would seem as though he could hardly refrain from taking the floor when the proposition to repeal the tobacco tax was made and renewing his famous demand, "Why not now?"

Mendicant Germans to be Sent Back Home.

[By United Press.]

PARIS, April 5.—The government has, it is reported, ordered a census to be taken of the Germans residing in the suburbs of the city. The object of the government is said to be the return to Germany of German residents without means of subsistence.

Generous Act of a Negro.

[Laurinburg Exchange.]

His was such a kind act that we must make public mention of it. We refer to the nice suit of clothes presented by Alex Wall, colored, to a little white boy, because and in appreciation of the favors done him by the latter's father before his death. This is such a noble and unusual expression of gratitude, as that it should enshrine Alex's name in the heart of every sympathizer with the unfortunate.

One of the despatches announcing the Democratic capture of Chicago by a majority of 11,000, adds significantly that "over one more than a World's Fair to overcome that in the next presidential election."

THE TOBACCO TAX.

A MEMORIAL TO SPEAKER REED TO RECOGNIZE SOME MEMBER

That He may Present the Bill for Abolishing the Entire Tax on Tobacco—No Reply From His Mightiness Yet.

[Special to STATE CHRONICLE.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—I am indebted to Hon. W. H. Cowles for a certified copy of the following memorial, handed Speaker Reed in person by Isaac B. Hill, democratic doorkeeper of the House: "HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, U. S. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.

HON. THOS. B. REED, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, FIFTH FIRST CONGRESS: DEAR SIR: I herewith enclose a request of certain members of the House of Representatives, that one of their number be recognized on the first Monday of April, 1890, for the purpose of moving a suspension of the rules, and put upon its passage a bill abolishing the entire tax on tobacco.

Very Respectfully,
H. STG. TUCKER."

Memorial.

Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Speaker of the House of Representatives: The undersigned, members of the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first Congress, respectfully ask that one of their number, or some other member of the House of Representatives, be recognized on the first Monday in April, 1890 (that being suspension day under rule 28 for individual members), for the purpose of moving a suspension of the rules to put upon its passage a bill to repeal the internal revenue tax on tobacco.

(Signed) PAUL C. EDMONDS, CHAS. O'FERRALL, JOHN A. BUCHANAN, THOS. G. SKINNER, GEORGE D. WISE, EDWARD C. VENABLE, R. G. LESTER, JOHN S. HENDERSON, B. H. BURN, W. H. F. LEE, W. H. H. COWLES, ALFRED ROWLAND."

Col. Cowles hands me the following endorsement: "I certify that I delivered in person to the Hon. Th. B. Reed, Speaker of the House of Representatives, a true copy of the within paper.

(Signed) ISAAC R. HILL, April 3rd, 1890."

Col. Cowles sent a mounted page this afternoon to inform me, over this signature, that Reed had vouchsafed no reply to Mr. Tucker up to that time.

Monday the Speaker will be forced by the delegation's refusal to, to show his true colors on the floor of the House. Reed's Republican apologists and friends are trying to make it appear that he is inclined to do all in his power to effect a repeal of the tobacco tax. Prominent among these are Mr. Bower, of North Carolina. Col. Cowles says the Republicans know they cannot afford to repeal any tax, and the same time pass their gigantic pension and other wild-cat schemes.

TUESDAY'S CONCERT

The Special Feature of the Capital Hose Company's Fair.

Among the attractions of the Capital Hose Company's Fair, which begins to-morrow evening, is a delightful concert on Tuesday night in Metropolitan hall.

The first number is a beautiful little operetta, which will be rendered by a number of sweet little girls, who have been trained carefully in both the music and the acting. The operetta is "The Waking of the Lily."

The full program for the concert is as follows: Music by orchestra. "The Waking of the Lily." Listen! the fairy bells sweetly are ringing. And soft chiming the morn over mountain and sea. And hither, while mortals are silently sleeping, Come all the young flow'rets to dance on the sea.

Then join our revels:
La, la, la, la,
The sun is asleep in the clouds of the West,
And the hearts that are lightest,
And eyes that are brightest,
Love the pale moonlight to dance by the best.

Hark! how the breeze is with melody laden!
The rose and the jasmine are met in the glade,
The lily alone, 'neath her green leaves is sleeping,
Oh! come, fairy come! and wake the sweet maid.

Thanks! thanks! gentle fairy! the Lily awakens!
All radiant and fair as a bride she is seen,
Then come sisters! come! and ere morning appeareth,
The beautiful Lily we'll choose for our queen.

THE WEEK AHEAD.

Some of the Principal Events for the Next Six Days.

This week will be quite a lively and busy one in Raleigh. Various meetings and events are booked, among which are the following:

The fair of the Capital Hose company opens to-morrow (Monday) and will continue through the week, including a grand concert at Metropolitan hall on Tuesday night.

On Tuesday there will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Col. of Agriculture and the Mechanic arts, and on Tuesday night there will be an elegant german given by the Capital club.

Tuesday night is also the regular meeting time for the Chamber of Commerce, and at this meeting some very important matters will be presented for consideration.

On Wednesday the site committee of the Baptist Female College will meet here for the purpose of selecting a site and to arrange for the beginning of work.

On Thursday night there will be a special meeting of the board of officers to consider the resolution offered by Alderman Holding at the meeting on last Friday night. This resolution proposes to repeal all special license taxes now imposed by the city, except the licenses on such businesses as fall directly under police regulations. The proposition has created considerable comment, and this meeting of the board will probably be largely attended.

On Friday night the grandest musical concert ever presented in Raleigh will be given in Metropolitan hall under the auspices of the King's Daughters of Christ Church. The program shows that the richest talent of Raleigh, Durham and Richmond will participate in the presentation.

JNO. L. SULLIVAN IS WILLING.

He Says He Will Put Corbett to Sleep in Four Rounds—If He Does Not, Corbett Gets the Money.

[By United Press.]

BOSTON, April 5.—John L. Sullivan was seen last night with regard to the published report that J. W. Corbett, the San Francisco heavy weight, was anxious to try his skill against the champion. "I am more than ready to meet Corbett," said Sullivan, "but only on one condition. If we are to box four rounds I'll contract to put him to sleep in that time. If I succeed, I am to get $1,000; if I do not, he gets the money."

The Utopia O. K. Now.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 5.—The German steamer Utopia, from Mediterranean ports, via Gibraltar, bound to New York, arrived this noon, short of coal, after a stormy passage of nineteen days. Heavy westerly gales and high seas prevailed all the way. She has five hundred and thirteen steerage passengers, and the last bullock on board had been killed and nearly all used, and they were on the last barrel of flour when she reached here.

THE PRESIDENT FOR EAVES.

HE DOESN'T LIKE THE INTERFERENCE OF PRICE.

A Statement in Regard to the Three Important Cases of Interest to North Carolina Decided by the United States Supreme Court, &c. &c.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—Eaves was not confirmed Tuesday, but Ewart says he will be soon. I hear that Ewart went to the President, told him about Charles Price's appearance before the finance committee and that "Cousin Ben" got mad all over. He is reported to have remarked that he did not see what business one of his recently confirmed appointees had coming here trying to undermine another appointee. He is a friend to his "reliable" notwithstanding the devil collector, and the Iron Duke will have to do some "almighty smart wire pulling" if he wants Eaves now.

So is Senator Morrill, chairman of the finance committee. Now that "Cousin Ben" has come out for Reliable Eaves, I expect Mott, Price, the Greensboro Ring ET ALS will fall into line and the late scrimmage will subside into a regular love feast.

Three important cases have been decided in the Supreme court within the past three months of special interest to North Carolina. At different times the merits of each case have been outlined in this column in full, and the decisions promptly sent by letter. It may not be amiss to recapitulate, as the decision in the last case has just been announced, though it was foreshadowed in this correspondence last September when Gov. Fowle, Davidson and Donald Bain, Esq., met here in the office of Attorney General Miller and made arrangements looking to an amicable adjustment of the last case. The United States was represented by Hon. S. F. Phillips at that conference, and the full details given me by Gov. Fowle and Mr. Phillips were published in several North Carolina papers at the time. This case involved the payment of interest which had accumulated after the maturity of certain bonds, amounting to about $47,000, if I remember aright. Gov. Fowle wanted to save this $47,000 interest to the State, and managed the matter with great adroitness and ability. It was agreed at the conference above referred to, to have a friendly suit which the Supreme court has decided in favor of the State.

North Carolina was represented by Attorney General Davidson and Mr. Ryan, a lawyer of Raleigh and son-in-law of the late venerated Rev. Dr. Mason, of Christ church, Raleigh, who was admitted to the bar of the Supreme court this week. The other case, that of the State vs. A. H. Temple, involved an immense amount of money. This is what was known as the special tax bonds case, a large share of the bonds being held by Morton, Bliss & Co., and this is the case which has evidently been confused by several State papers with the more recently decided case outlined above. The special tax bonds case was decided about two months ago. It was argued here by a brilliant array of counsel, the State being most ably represented by Maj. John Graham, Richard Battle, Esq., Judge Ruffin and Attorney General Davidson. The leading counsel on the opposing side was also a distinguished North Carolina lawyer, Hon. Samuel F. Phillips. I have repeated here what I wrote at greater length last fall, because I observe some errors are abroad in some of the State papers about the suits. The first and least important decision was that of the State vs. W. E. Christian et als, which was also decided for the State.

Mr. Bower says he thinks Speaker Reed will be amenable to reason when a united effort is made to introduce a bill to repeal the internal revenue system. Col. Cowles, who is getting up a strong memorial to present to that autocratic worthy, praying for recognition, is not so sanguine. Col. Cowles has a great many signatures to this memorial and will spare no pains to make Reed come to terms.

WIFE VS. HUSBAND.

She Sues Him for Slander—And Wins a Verdict of $5,000.

[By United Press.]

CHICAGO, Ill., April 5.—Judge Anthony this morning entered judgment for $5,000 in favor of Mrs. Mary F. Williams against her husband, Aaron S. Williams, in her suit for $20,000 for slander. The action is the first in Cook county where the wife has sued her husband on such a charge, and as may be supposed, the suit is one of many outwared signs of exceedingly strained relations between the couple. Mr. Williams is a retired capitalist, who lives on the west side, and is said to have an income of $4,500 or $5,000 a year. Mrs. Williams is a handsome and cultivated lady, about thirty years of age, a grandmother, and a leading member of a fashionable West side church.
