

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short It is of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

Any one having confederate music and willing to loan it to the Soldiers Home Fair, will please send the same to W. C. Stronach.

A regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge of Masons will assemble at 8:15 p. m. on to-morrow (Monday). Visiting brethren invited.

The fourth of July committee have received advice from New York of the concluding of the contract for the largest assortment of fireworks ever brought to the State.

The catalogue of Wake Forest College for 1889-'90, is just out. It has several engravings of the buildings and grounds, and is the handsomest thing of the kind ever gotten out by this institution.

There are a great many residences in the city, built within the last year or two, that are not numbered. This is a great inconvenience. Every landlord and house-owner should see that his house is numbered. Is your house numbered? If not, have it done.

Peace Institute is undergoing preparations preparatory for the fall session. Prof. A. Dinwiddie, the newly elected principal, is thorough-going, energetic and believes in taking time by the forelock. Not only the building, but the grounds are being put in thorough condition.

The capital square is one of the favorite places of resort these warm nights. Did you ever see a prettier spot? Well, no, not in this country. All it needs is a fountain or two to make it perfect. Can't the board be persuaded to add these? The cost will not be very great and the improvement would be duly appreciated by the public.

Mr. P. C. Ennis, Business Manager of the Southern Farmer, is busy at work on a special trade issue of 10,000 copies of that paper. It will contain only information about Raleigh. It will be issued August 14th, and he proposes to make it a boomer for fall trade, as well as showing up the city in all its commercial, industrial, educational, and other advantages. It will indeed be of great benefit to Raleigh and should be liberally patronized by our people.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Forecast for Virginia, North Carolina and West Virginia, fair, preceded by showers in West Virginia and Virginia; continued high temperature, except slightly warmer on the North Carolina coast; southerly winds.

Raleigh yesterday: Maximum temperature 88; minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.00 inches.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity for to-day: Fair weather; warmer southwest winds, followed late in afternoon by thunderstorm; same for Monday.

W. Terrell, David Dizor, G. E. Gill, J. C. Harris, W. C. Brewer, J. C. Fort, C. M. Walters, Maj. J. M. Crownshaw, J. W. Jones and J. R. Holland. Had a quiet, harmonious meeting.

W. B. SMITH, Sec'y.

Death of the Wife of Rev. G. P. Bostick.

The sad tidings reached here yesterday that the wife of Rev. G. P. Bostick died at Shanghai, in far off China, on May 8th. Mr. Bostick went to China as a missionary a few years since, and we learn that during one of his visitations, some distance from the mission, his wife was taken sick with small pox, and when he returned he found her dead and buried. His little boy has been sent back to America, and is now on his way home. Mr. Bostick will be remembered as the pastor at one time of Trinity M. E. church, Durham, and has many friends in this section, whose hearts will go out to him in this hour of affliction.

Excursion to Winston.

An excursion train will leave here for Winston-Salem on July 15th. Schedules and rates will be published in a few days. Special cars will be provided for ladies and their attendants. The train will be in charge of experienced and competent railroad men and a pleasant trip is assured to all who may go.

Fireworks for the Fourth—An Expert to Manage Them.

The committee who have in charge the management of the Fourth of July celebration are literally going to "do the thing up brown." They are working hard and deserve great praise for the interest they are taking in the matter. An expert has been employed to manage the pyrotechnic display. He will "send off" all the fireworks, and no trouble and expense will be spared to make a good old-fashioned "Fourth."

Stay Home and Have Fun.

Let EVERYBODY stay in Raleigh on the fourth of July, and don't go off to see fun when you can have good, solid, old-fashioned fun right here. It will be the biggest celebration of the Fourth in the history of the city. There will be people here from all the surrounding counties and from the neighboring towns. Be here and see these people and show them what a fine place Raleigh is. Stay and see the celebration and you won't regret it.

Marrriages.

Mr. Charlie Woodall and bride arrived in the city yesterday from Staunton Va., where he was married Wednesday.

Mr. Woodall is a former Raleighite and brother of Officer Woodall, of the police force.

We extend them a hearty welcome to the City of Oaks.

Deaths.

We are pained to learn of the death of Mr. Numa Reid Atwater, of Chatham county. He was a son of Mr. John Atwater. He had just gotten home from Oak Ridge, where he had been at school for the past two years. He was an excellent young man and was much loved and respected by all who knew him.

Elie Lee, infant daughter of Mr. J. O. Ruth, died yesterday at 1 p. m. The funeral services will be held from the residence, No. 518 North Salisbury street, at 5 o'clock this evening. Friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend.

Died in Wilson yesterday, after a prolonged sickness, Mrs. Barden, wife of Jeff Barden, Esq. She was a native of Morganton, N. C., and had been married but a few years. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and died in the triumphs of the Christian faith. To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy and commend them to the love of Him who orders all things for the good of those whose souls are stayed on Him.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Bargains at Waitt's.

There are several good bargains at Waitt's in the way of clothing, gent's furnishings, &c., which have not been taken advantage of. They are still going at greatly reduced prices, and must be sold regardless of cost. We must close the business. Wonderful bargains in seasonable goods!

J. S. WYNNE, Trustee.

New Arrivals in Artistic Furniture.

We opened Saturday some particularly desirable styles, in Parlor and Sitting room Rockers and upright chairs. In this department there have also been late additions in the line of Bric-a-Brac, &c. We show many new things in China-ware, and the most moderate prices prevail throughout.

To those wishing to give Wedding or Birthday presents, we cordially ask an inspection.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co. Don't Be Too Persistent.

We don't want to be too persistent in urging any thing on our friends, but when we have a real good thing, a big bargain, we always want as many to share in it as possible. You see if we have a real big thing, and one or two persons got the whole, the advertisement is not so great as it would be if several hundred had received a part of it. This is why we are now so anxious for all the ladies to see our great bargains in muslin underwear. We know this is something that all the ladies will appreciate and acknowledge to be the very cheapest goods they have ever seen in this line. We have quite a large lot of these garments and we expect for the low prices on them to pay us handsomely in convincing the people that to secure the greatest bargains in first class goods at all times they will have to go direct to head quarters. We shall have special prices on some other lines of goods in a few days. Remember the lowest prices are only to be found at

SWINDLELLS.

Soda Fountain For Sale.

Nice pattern, nearly new and in perfect order. Three waters, eight syrups. Four six gallon copper fountains with it.

Apply to A. W. FRAPS, Raleigh, N. C. Jun 18 3t eod.

Oxford the Coming Town.

What four great crops paid best last year? Tobacco, cotton, sugar and rice.

What paid largest profits of these four? The golden tobacco of North Carolina.

What did it pay? From $100 to $500 per acre. Thousands of farmers made this. What can these farms be bought for? From $20 to $30 per acre.

What is the great market town of this tobacco? Oxford, Oxford, Oxford. Is it growing? Has doubled its population in three years.

Is property high there? Conservative men have kept it reasonable.

Can it be bought? Fifty by one hundred feet lots in the most desirable localities sell at $100 to $300, and you get also two shares of stock in the Oxford Improvement Company, for which you pay twenty dollars, and the balance in eight equal installments on call of directors.

What will make the stock worth par? The proceeds of sales of other properties owned by the company, bought at very moderate prices first hand, and worth large advances; the enhanced value of its town property; the development of its property by new railroads to go through it; the new warehouses building; the increase on 10,000,000 lbs. annual sale of yellow tobacco; its steady, rapid growth, new factories and good management.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, June 21.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Co. in their cotton circular to-night say: Greatly to the surprise of the market, foreign advices were disappointing this morning in the face of our advance last evening, and spinners continue their "hand to mouth" policy abroad, taking to-day only 4,000 bales, the smallest sales in several months. Our market opened lower and declined steadily, closing at the lowest quotations of the day.

Receipts at our ports to-day estimated at 500 bales, against 231 bales last week.

The spot market is quiet; middling uplands 12 1-8; sales 139 bales.

Transactions in futures 34,500 bales. Futures closed 1 to 2 points lower as follows:

Table with columns: Month, Price, Change. Rows: June, July, August, September, October, November, December, January, February.

In Liverpool the spot cotton closed steady; middlings 6 7-16; sales 4,000 bales.
