

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

The Industrial parade will be a great thing. Among others who will have floats are the North Carolina Car Works and E. P. Wyatt & Son.

The King's Daughters, of which Miss Nannie Smith is president, had a pleasant time at the Litchford place last night despite the rain. Miss Nannie Anderson got the donkey prize; Miss Maggie Hill was crowned the queen; and Miss Truett letter Kruth was fortune teller. Nine dollars and fifty cents was netted. The entertainment will be repeated Friday night. The CHRONICLE returns thanks to two bright Daughters of the King, Misses Daisy Watson and Louise Mahler, for a treat of delightful cake.

COMING AND GOING.

some of the Folks You Know and Their Doings.

Mr. J. G. Hable is quite sick at his residence on North Person St.

Mr. D. B. Avera and Mr. J. C. Elington went down to Johnston county yesterday.

Mr. Geo. E. Crabtree, of Washington, N. C., one of the most popular drummers on the road is in the city.

Mrs. Mary C. Daniels, of Wilson, who has been on a visit to Raleigh, went down to the dedication of the Methodist church in Goldsboro yesterday.

Mr. P. M. Briggs, of Durham, was in Raleigh yesterday. He said that the Durhams had a big time on the occasion of the railroad celebration Friday.

Mrs. Mollie E. Nottingham, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city for two weeks, returned to her home in Columbia, S. C., yesterday.

Col. Wharton J. Green and wife, of Fayetteville, were in the city yesterday. Mrs. Green went to her home in Fayetteville and Col. Green took a northern trip.

Mrs. Julia Walford, and little daughter, Alice, of Richmond, Va., who have for the past five weeks been on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alford, returned to their home yesterday morning.

The opening of St. Mary's School is most gratifying. Young ladies arrive in every day. Four arrived yesterday—one of them from Florida. The attendance is so large that every desk in the school is occupied.

John H. Small, Esq., and wife, of Washington, N. C., are in the city. Mrs. Small is a daughter of Col. R. W. Wharton. Mr. Small is here on legal business, and tells us that the political outlook in the First District is bright.

Rev. Israel Harding, of Kingston, whose health has been feeble for some time and has been in Raleigh for treatment, was called by a telegram yesterday to go to Goldsboro to attend the funeral of Mrs. Swift Galloway.

The CHRONICLE is glad to know that our popular merchant tailor, Mr. G. N. Walters, who has been canvassing the State in the interest of his business, returned to the city yesterday with his pockets full of orders for fall suits. He says his trip was shortened by pressing demands from his home trade which shall now have his attention.

Prof. Jas. M. Pickell, Professor of the chair of Physics and Chemistry in the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Florida, is in the city the guest of Col. Holladay, President of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. He and Col. Holladay were associated together in the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical College a number of years. Prof. Pickell has been spending the summer in Western North Carolina.

The CHRONICLE was glad to greet popular and genial Hon. Chas. M. Steadman who was in Raleigh yesterday on business. He has recently returned from an extended trip through all the North-western States. He went by steamer, 1,500 miles—from Toronto to Duluth. It was said of him in that country that he was the best fisherman and the best Democrat ever seen. He represents the political outlook for the Democrats in that section to be very bright. He says that the drift of public sentiment is all towards the Democracy out there, and that those States will show a revolution in 1892 if the present appearances count for anything. Gov. Steadman looks well and is in excellent spirits about the political and material prospects for North Carolina.

FINE GRAPES.

$44,50 Netted on Fifty Vines of Delaware Grapes.

Mr. P. W. Johnson, of Wake Forest, who has a fine vineyard at that place, brought the CHRONICLE yesterday a sample of the James grapes which are the finest we have ever seen. He has made a good season this year. This Summer he shipped $100 worth from less than half an acre. He netted $39.50 from fifty Delaware vines, and got a $5.00 premium on the same grapes at the Fruit Fair, making $44.50 net profit in one year on fifty vines. Mr. Johnson believes that the James grape will bear four times as much as the scuppernong and that it would pay our farmers to cultivate the James grape.

THE VARIGATED GATHERING.

Charlie Upchurch's Black and White Convention To-morrow.

Tomorrow the good white people of Raleigh will have occasion to witness another semi-annual commingling of political tricksters with white skins, hugging, embracing and courting the greasy country nigger for his vote to elevate him to a position upon the republican ticket. To-morrow the brother in black will receive his oft repeated promises from the pale face brother to be once more deceived.

The Wake County Republican Convention will assemble in this city at 12 o'clock to-morrow to put in nomination a legislative and a county ticket. Composed, as all republican conventions are, a majority of negroes, who, not like those who constituted the colored State convention, have manhood sufficient to demand their rights within the republican party of which they constitute six-sevenths of its voting strength, the scene will be one of the poor negro being again led to the slaughter, and the usual campaign promises will be made by Upchurch, Rogers, Adams & Co., and the colored voters of Wake county whipped into line to obey the orders of their masters on the 4th day of November, but to then be cast aside for another two years with the old saying: "Stand aside, Cuffy, till we need you again to vote."

Look at the make up of variegated patch-work which Raleigh township adds to the Republican Dolly Varden quilt in her collection of delegates:

- First Ward. Henry Hable, white. Wm. M. Brown, Jr., white Mail-carrier. Wm. Snow, colored. Second Ward. Stewart Ellison, colored, Government Employee. James H. Young, colored, U. S. Service. Chas. W. Hoover, colored, Barkeeper. Fourth Ward. Wm. S. Mitchell, colored, Deputy Sheriff. E. A. Johnson, colored, Politician. B. J. Robinson, colored, Barkeeper. Fifth Ward. J. D. Newsome, white, Deputy Sheriff. N. B. Blount, colored. C. I. Proctor, colored.

Outside East. Chas. H. Biene, white, Merchant. Chas. Lane, colored, Politician. Ed Smith, colored.

Outside West. J. C. L. Harris, white, politician and lawyer. Seth Nowell, colored. J. Hogan, colored.

White men of Raleigh, do you want such delegates as these to select men for you to vote for to fill the offices of the county and represent you in the Legislature of the State?

White and Colored delegates will represent Raleigh in the Republican County Convention. Surely the negroes are right when they say "we are the Republican party."

The delegation stand: Negroes 13, whites 5. This is a negro delegation and shows that so far as Raleigh is concerned, the negroes will nominate the ticket. The nominees may be white, but they will color their nomination absolutely to the colored brother. Every self respecting white man will hurray and vote against any man nominated by this crowd of negroes and office holders!

Raleigh certainly is most fortunate in having her theatrical season opened by so deservedly popular a company as the Frank McNish Comedy Comedy. The entire press throughout the country speaks in loudest praise of both the company and the manner in which they render that splendid comedy, "Out of Sight."

The CHRONICLE reporter knows Mr. McNish well and the reputation he so justly won as a comedian while one of the great minstrel trio McNish, Johnson & Slavin, follows him upon the stage to-day. His support is the best the comedy profession furnishes and on Tuesday night at Metropolitan Hall our people will enjoy the first and richest treat of the amusement season. Reserved seats on sale at MacRee's Drug store, at 75 cents. General admission 25 and 50 cents.

The Date is Friday, Sept. 26th.

There has been some confusion as to the date when the examination for West Point cadet will be held. It is FRIDAY, SEPT. 26TH, AT RALEIGH.

We wish to state that the differences recently reported between our mills in the Raleigh papers have been amicably adjusted.

Died.

The CHRONICLE learns with profound regret of the death of Mrs. Swift Galloway, at her home in Goldsboro, yesterday. She was a native of Beaufort, and before marriage was Miss Clark. We have no particulars of her death. She had been sick a long time. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

The First of the Season.

Mr. J. Schwartz yesterday paraded upon the streets ten of the finest beef cattle ever brought to this market. These cattle will be butchered as the demands of the market require, and will be served to his customers at from 8, 10 to 12 cents per pound at his establishment on Fayetteville street, opposite Tucker's. Mr. Schwartz has also a fine lot of Southdown mutton which he will serve at from 8 to 12 cents per pound. Give him a call. sept 12-1f

Have You Seen

Our new dress trimmings yet? We suppose that you have not, as they have only been in for a day or two. You must come down and see them. We heard one lady say who was present when we opened them that they were exquisite, lovely and superb. We have all kinds of trimming of fall and winter styles, but the ones we allude to above are silver braids, perhaps the most popular trimming to be used this season. We have in addition to the trimmings one of the finest selections of dress goods to match them in the city. You could hardly go amiss in selecting a dress from us, as our selections in all lines are the latest productions. We have perhaps the most complete line of the new colors in the medium and higher priced fabrics as well as the lower grades to be found in any store without counting. We suppose we have in the neighborhood of seventy-five different shades of dress goods for you to make a selection from.
