THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

THE VIRGINIA NEGRO SEATED IN THE SENATE.

The Senate today seated the Reckless and Radical Negroes. And they called for another case. Then another Radical from South Carolina is seated.

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—In the Senate today Mr. Plumb's resolution to investigate the charges made in the memorial of the Woman's Industrial League concerning the treatment of women and children in mills and factories was discussed at some length, and Mr. Hoar and Mr. Platt denied the charges in the memorial so far as they referred to Massachusetts and Connecticut.

The resolution was referred to the committee on education and labor.

The Senate then went into executive session.

At 4:20 the doors were re-opened and legislative business was proceeded with—consideration of bills on the calendar unobjectionally, several being passed.

The House bill with Senate amendments on a division of courts in the United States was taken up, the pending question being on amendment to substitute Baltimore for Richmond as the place for holding court in the fourth circuit.

Mr. Barbour argued against the amendment, but as no quorum voted upon it, the bill went over without action and the Senate at 5:40 adjourned till tomorrow at noon.

House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, was the only Democrat present when the House met this morning. The clerk immediately began to call the roll on the approval of Friday's journal.

The clerk having called the roll announced the pairs. The Speaker hesitated before he announced the result, there being but two lacking a quorum.

Mr. O'Ferrall demanded that the result should be announced.

In order to delay the announcement, Republican after Republican arose and requested to know how they were recorded.

The vote was then announced—yeas 155; nays 1. No quorum, and a call of the House was ordered.

Just as the clerk began calling the roll, Mr. Sweeney, of Iowa, one of the Republican absentees, arrived, and was received by his colleagues with applause.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Mudd, of Maryland, made his appearance, and received a reception of mingled cheers and hisses.

One hundred and sixty-four members responded to their names, and without any announcement of the result, further proceedings were dispensed with, and the vote again recurred on the approval of Friday's journal.

While this roll call was in progress, applause and hisses were given when Mr. Milliken entered the hall.

For a time Mr. Cheadle, of Indiana, who is opposed to Langston, joined the absentees, and located himself on a lounge in the lobby, declining to enter the chamber. But the requests and supplications of his party were too strong, and on this vote he recorded his name in the affirmative. The vote was—yeas 160, nays 0, the clerk noting a quorum.

The question then recurred upon the first of the majority resolutions to unseat Venable. It was agreed to, yeas 151, nays 1, (Mr. Cheadle), the clerk noting a quorum.

Then came the question on the seating of Langston and it was carried on a division, Cheadle alone voting in the negative. Mr. Haugen escorted Langston to the bar of the House, while the Republican side and the galleries broke into loud applause.

Republicans present and not voting were Morris, Bliss, Copper, of Ohio, Dehaven, Frank, McCord, McKenna, Stockbridge, Waddill, Wade, Wright, Yardley and the speaker.

Then came a chorus from the Republican side: "Call up another case!" and in response to the chorus, Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, called up the South Carolina case of Miller against Elliot. Mr. O'Ferrall raised the question of consideration, and on a viva voce vote the Speaker stated that the House had determined to consider the election case.

Mr. O'Ferrall made the point that there was no quorum present. The Speaker declined to entertain the point, stating that the last vote had shown a quorum, and that since that several Democrats had entered the hall.

The previous question was ordered and despite a protest from Mr. Kerr, of Iowa, that some reason for its adoption should be given, the resolution unseating Elliott and seating Miller, was agreed to without division.

Then on motion of Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, in the chair on the Senate amendments to the deficiency bill.

Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, who, with a number of other Democrats, entered the chamber at this moment, inquired what bill was under consideration.

Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, in reply said that he did not blame the gentleman for being a little behind on general legislation, and Mr. Caswell, of Wisconsin, sarcastically suggested that the gentleman from Kentucky be sworn in as a member of the House.

The afternoon was consumed in a discussion of the French spoliation claims, the debate being participated in by Messrs. Cogswell, Dibble and Vaux in favor of the Senate amendment, and by Messrs. Buckalew, Cannon and Sayers in opposition.

Without action the committee rose, and the House at 5:50 adjourned.

A CORDIAL WELCOME.

Raleigh—all of Raleigh—including the women and children—tender a cordial and pressing welcome to the delegates to the State Convention of Democratic Clubs which meets here to-day.

They are here from town and country—earnest, enthusiastic, determined Democrats. Some are young and some are old—all are young and enthusiastic in the love of Democratic principles and in the belief in the triumph of those principles.

It is everywhere regretted that owing to the failure of Congress to adjourn on the 19th, as was expected, SENATOR DANIEL, of Virginia, and Representatives WILSON, of W. Virginia, and BRECKENRIDGE, of Kentucky, will not be with us and make speeches. Our own RANSOM and VANCE and BUNN and WILLIAMS and other North Carolina Congressmen will speak to the people, and all the people will hear them gladly.

This morning the Club Convention will be called to order at 11 o'clock in Metropolitan Hall by President J. S. Carr.

The call for the meeting of the convention will be read by the secretary, B. C. Beckwith.

The address of welcome will follow by Gov. Fowle, and will be responded to by one of the leading young lawyers of the State.

A temporary chairman will then be called to the chair and the convention will be ready for business.

The delegates from the several Congressional districts will meet at the following places for the purpose of selecting a Vice-President from each Congressional district, and one member on each of the following committees:

Permanent organization, credentials, and resolutions:

First and Ninth districts, in rooms in rear of stage in Metropolitan Hall.

Third, Fourth and Fifth districts, in the body of the hall.

Second and Sixth in Mayor's office.

The Seventh, in the left gallery of the hall.

The Eighth, in the right gallery.

To-morrow will be the great day. At Brookside Park a big barbecue will be served, and every Democrat in the State is invited to be the guest of the citizens of Raleigh. Senators RANSOM and VANCE, Hon. B. H. BUNN, Capt. A. H. A. WILLIAMS and other distinguished Democrats will speak.

Raleigh opens its home and its hearts to its visitors. They are welcome to all we have and the best we have. The CHRONICLE, in the name of all the people, extends them a true Jeffersonian and Jacksonian welcome.

Don't postpone it, but go and register to-day.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

The "Old Reliable" Turner's N. C. Almanac said yesterday "fair," and sure enough it was. It was the only almanac that predicted the wet spell last July. The secretary of the New Berne Oyster, Fish and Game Fair wrote a day or two ago to the publisher, Mr. James H. Ennis, of this city, for a copy for 1891, in order that he might arrange dates for their fair that which he held next February. Hence it is called reliable because of its accuracy. The edition for 1891 is now in press, and will be ready in October.

Mr. Kuba came to Raleigh two months ago in destitute circumstances, and was given employment at Messrs. Ellington, Royster & Co.'s shops. He was a German, and suffered from paralysis, but was quite a good workman. It is not known whether he had any relatives in this country or not.

A gentleman who employs many laborers was seen standing on a street corner yesterday in a brown study. It was found that he was grumbling because he couldn't find anybody to do a certain piece of work. He remarked that if there was a man in Raleigh doing nothing it was that man's fault; that he had been trying all day to get some laborers, and was offering a dollar per day, but he could not find a single one who was unemployed. That's the kind of a boom Raleigh is always on. There is no hollow sound about Raleigh's boom. It is absolute, sound and sure. It has passed the "sounding" period.

A Conference Yesterday—The Contract Not Given out, But Work to Begin at Once.

There was a conference of railroad men here yesterday with reference to the new Union depot.

The conference was a long and careful one.

Owing to the want of some necessary information, it was decided not to award the contract just yet, but matters were left in such a condition, that it can be given out as soon as the needed information can be had.

Maj. Randolph who returned to Richmond, is expected to telegraph to Maj. Winder the information wanted to-morrow or next day, and then the matter will be finally settled.

In the meantime Maj. Winder will write to the architect instructing him to come on here and stake off the building, and as soon as this is done, the work of digging out the foundation will begin.

Maj. Winder in speaking of the new building yesterday remarked that it would be one of the finest, if not the finest and handsomest depot building in all the Southern country.

HETTIE BERNARD CHASE.

Successful Presentation of "Uncle's Darling" at Staub's Theatre.

Hettie Bernard Chase will appear in Metropolitan Hall to-night. She delighted the Knoxville people, and the Herald of that town says:

One of the most charming women on the American stage is Hettie Bernard Chase. She has fine talent and though very young has already been remarkably successful. The people of Knoxville are delighted with her as evidenced by the cordial reception extended to her last night at Staub's theatre. She appeared last night as "Little Dar," in "Uncle's Darling," the play written expressly for her by Chas. W. Chase. Had her reputation not already been established, her successful appearance in this drama would have placed her in the front rank. She is as full of life as a cricket and this fine character affords opportunity for the display of those traits of character which makes a beautiful woman appear lovely. Though it is only acting her heart and soul seem to shine through it. Her songs, dances and banjo playing captivated the audience.

A Pretty Home Marriage.

The attendants were Miss Dora Freeman and Dr. Strickland; Miss Martha Davis and Mr. George Bunn; Miss Mammie Lougee and Mr. Charles Exam. There were very many beautiful presents from friends from many sections. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bridges left on the 1 o'clock train for Dunn, Harnett county, the home of the groom, where a reception was held last evening. This morning they will leave for Baltimore and New York, and other Northern cities.

FIFE'S MEETINGS IN MORGANTON.

Immense Crowds Hear the Earnest, Pleading Words of the Drummer Evangelist.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

MORGANTON, N. C., Sept. 23.—On Sunday, the 17th inst., W. P. Fife began a series of meetings in Morganton. The Y. M. C. Association had secured a tent, with a seating capacity of 2,000. At the first service the crowd was estimated at 1,200. Day by day it increased, till the last day, when between 3,000 and 3,500 people were under and around the tent. It was predicted that Morganton could not be stirred. It was feared by the most sanguine that no evangelist could awaken the people; but they were sorely mistaken. The glorious results showed it. Mr. Fife, as an instrument in the hands of God, gathered a grand harvest of souls for the Master. Through the influence of the Holy Spirit he has filled the whole atmosphere with a feeling of brotherly love and religious zeal. New warmth and new life have been imparted to all the churches, old feuds healed; bitter enemies have clasped hands and have praised God in unison. Restaurant men voluntarily, and without reward, poured many kegs of cider in the streets. Men and women promised to quit the dance, wine parties, progressive eucher and the like. Drunkards, gamblers, distillers, and bar-room keepers—shook the coils of hell from their hearts and gave them to God.

He has intense sympathy for fallen man, is full of love for them and full of the Holy Spirit himself.

He presents the "whole counsel of God," and does it with such great earnestness, such pathetic tenderness that it always wins. The truth, as he presents it, is like an Ionian column—it sustains with its strength and charms with its simplicity. He consults alike the welfare of man and the glory of God, and is burningly occupied with one grand, intense interest in the salvation of souls.

There were at least eight hundred conversions. After paying all the expenses, the good people of Morganton and the surrounding county gave Mr. Fife $900 in cash, and on Sunday night Mr. Fife raised $4,800 for the purpose of
