MINOR MATTERS CONSIDERED IN BOTH HOUSES.

A Proposition in the Senate to Nickel for Plating in the Navy—More Jobbery Business Proposed to the House.

[By United Press.]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Senate this morning the conference report on the bill to establish the Rock Creek Park in the District of Columbia was taken up and agreed to.

The House joint resolution appropriating $1,000,000 for the purchase of nickel ore and nickel matter for naval purposes was taken up.

Mr. Hale said that the result of the test of plates made by an amalgamation of steel and nickel at Annapolis recently, had been so conclusive that the Secretary of the Navy deemed it essential that he should at this time secure control of nickel enough to make an alloy for the plates now being forged.

Mr. Gorman commented on the proposition at this late day to add a million dollars to the already large appropriations as extraordinary. Now, suddenly, he said, with only a single test at Annapolis, with very remarkable results as to the plate with an amalgamation of nickel, the government was to enter into a partnership with the manufacturers of steel plate for the navy. No secretary of the navy would be able to hold his contractors responsible for the efficiency of the plates furnished by them when he supplied a part of the material.

After discussing several bills, but passing none of them, the Senate at 5:45 p. m. adjourned.

House.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The House today agreed to a resolution reported from the World's Fair committee, providing for a sub-committee of five to enquire into the progress of the details for holding the exhibition, to examine the allotment of space to government displays, etc.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, offered a resolution alleging that the House Postmaster has on the rolls, at $100 a month, an employee of the government printing office named Bradley, who pays $95 a month to the postmaster's son, who is not employed in the postoffice of the House.

During the discussion of this resolution, Mr. Enloe, and Mr. Blount, of Georgia, complained that the Speaker found Democrats out of order much more frequently than Republicans. The Speaker said that some times they were much more clearly out of order. The resolution was agreed to.

The House took a number of bills from the calendar and passed them, among them the bill to bridge the Alabama river near Selma.

The entrance of Mr. McKinley with the conference report on the tariff bill was greeted with applause from the Republican side. The report was submitted and Mr. McKinley gave notice that he would call it up for final consideration immediately after the reading of the Journal to-morrow.

Mr. McMillan expressed the hope that Mr. McKinley would not insist upon that. It was impossible to have a calm and thorough investigation of the measure within that time.

Mr. McKinley said that the points of disagreement on the principal features were well understood. He insisted upon the consideration of the report to-morrow.

Mr. McMillan then insisted that the report be read in full, and the reading had not been concluded when, at six o'clock, the House took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to private pension bills.

Don't postpone it, but go and register to-day.

A Fatal Mill Between Two Cadets.

[By United Press.]
LEXINGTON, Va., Sept. 26.—Yesterday afternoon two cadets in the Virginia Military Institute, Warren Taliaferro, of Virginia, and Frank W. McCormick, of Texas, had a fistfight, from the effects of which Taliaferro died shortly afterward. There was some point of order at stake. It is learned that McCormick was so badly injured that he has been speechless and unconscious since the fight.

Women Causing Trouble a La Helen of Troy.

[By United Press.]
LONDON, Sept. 26.—Serious disturbances are reported from Morocco. A provincial kaid or governor abducted a girl. The trouble to which the girl belonged attacked the kaid, killed him and all his women and some of his male relatives. The sultan's troops marched against the tribe, killed some and captured others, and sent the ring leaders' head to the sultan.

Women Voting and Electioneering.

[By United Press.]
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 26.—In yesterday's school election here, over five hundred women cast their ballots—the largest vote of women ever polled. Active electioneering was indulged in by many of the ladies and several leading society women voted. The good order which the attendance of women at the polls produced was generally commended.

The Lottery Company's Enterprise.

[By United Press.]
OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—The government here has learned that the Louisiana Lottery Company are about establishing a newspaper in Canada as a medium for circulating lottery information throughout the United States.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Italian government has caused a sensation, and a deal of ill-feeling by prohibiting from playing the Marseilles and di hymn.

INSTRUCTED FOR VANCE.

Caldwell County Names a Strong Ticket.

The Caldwell county Democratic convention nominated S. L. Patterson for the Legislature, W. F. F. Palmer for Register of Deeds, A. H. Courtney for Treasurer, and H. O. Steele, for Coroner, by acclamation. J. V. McCall, a son of the old Sheriff, R. R. McCall, was nominated for Sheriff on the sixth ballot. M. E. Shell was renominated for Clerk of the Superior Court on the first ballot, the vote standing, Shell 657, Downs 588. H. L. Houck was nominated for Surveyor on the fifth ballot. A resolution was adopted endorsing Senator Vance, and Mr. Patterson in accepting the nomination pledged himself to work for Vance's re-election. The topic says it was the biggest, fullest and most enthusiastic convention that has been held in Caldwell for years.

[Mr. PATTERSON is one of the best read, most progressive and prosperous farmers of North Carolina, and his county honors itself in naming him as its representative. We need many such intelligent and wise representatives.—EDITOR.]

THIRD DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

The Negroes Triumph Over the White "Bosses."

[From Clinton Caucasian.]

WARSAW, N. C., Sept. 24.—The Republican convention of the Third District met here to-day and nominated G. C. Scurluck, a negro mechanic, of Cumberland county, for Congress by acclamation. A hard fight was made by the white "Bosses" to nominate a white man, but to no avail. Hiram Brown, colored, of Duplin county, was made permanent chairman and the secretaryship was offered to ex-Sheriff Sutton (white "Boss"), of Bladen; but the sheriff indignantly declined the honor saying he wouldn't accept any office from a convention in which so much d—d rascality had been practiced. A negro delegate replied that Sutton had dealt the cards and played both hands, and if rascality was practiced that the sheriff was responsible for it. This remark was greeted with cheers and loud guffaws. B. S. Stevens, a negro, was then made secretary.

Scurluck was then placed in nomination by ex-Governor C. H. Bregden, and was nominated in a hurry.

A Prominent Financier's Attempt at Suicide.

[By United Press.]

BALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—The city was this morning startled by the announcement that George B. Graham, a prominent business man whose wealth is estimated at near a million dollars, and who is highly connected, being a cousin of the members of the present banking firm of Alexander Brown & Sons, last evening made an attempt to commit suicide. He was found with a deep gash in his throat nearly dead.

CLEVELAND IS HEALTHY

NOTWITHSTANDING REPORTS TO THE CONTRARY,

And Says He Never Enjoyed Better Health than at Present—He Enjoyed His Vacation and Went a Fishing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A story has appeared in various papers about ex-President Cleveland's physical and mental health, in which it is stated that the ex-president was a sick man; that he spent his days in moody silence, and grew so lethargic during his vacation that his favorite pastime of fishing was relinquished, and during the day he spent most of his time in sleep. The symptoms, the story said, alarmed Mr. Cleveland's friends, and no one more than himself. Mr. Cleveland was seen by a reporter to-day in his law office in William street. On being shown the story, he read it through, and then exclaimed:

"How absurd that story is! I really have no patience to deny all these statements. They are untrue, every one of them. Don't you think I look pretty well? I never felt better in my life. I spent an excellent vacation and during the time I was in Marion I fished every day. It is rather peculiar that the story should come from Philadelphia, for some of my friends from that city accompanied me on my fishing trip. I have taken as much exercise as ever I did, and have not the slightest reason to complain of physical or mental illness. I returned to New York on Friday last, and came down to my office on Monday morning. My time has been spent since in clearing up correspondence that has accumulated on my desk, and I flatter myself that I have put in two pretty good days' work. I think I have said everything necessary to confute that story."

Mr. Cleveland looks quite well, and is evidently as vigorous as before he started on his vacation.

Every Democratic voter ought to have his name on the registration books without delay.

INSTRUCTED FOR VANCE.

[Special to STATE CHRONICLE.]

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Sept. 26.—Yesterday's CHRONICLE gave the nominees from Jones county, but you failed to print the most significant item: The nominee for the Legislature was instructed to vote for Vance for the U. S. Senate.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

In giving the names of the Wayne county nominees we failed to state that Capt. A. J. Brown was unanimously renominated for Register of Deeds. He is a good officer and a fine Democrat.

The Democrats of Wake county are all falling into line. The little differences in this county are all being fixed up, and the full strength of the party will be polled. That means the election of Wilcox and Currie.—Jonesboro Leader.

W. C. T. U.

The Ladies Desire a Large Membership Here.

SATURDAY, Sept. 27.—To-day is appointed by the W. C. T. U. as "Membership Day." The ladies of this organization here are desirous of enlisting as many of the people of this community as possible in the work. Perhaps little is known of what is being done in our midst by the present organization. Homes have been secured for several destitute orphan children; the sick have been visited and assisted as much as possible. The work is strictly Christian work and commends itself to every lover of humanity, but especially to Christians.

The ladies of this Union will meet at ten o'clock to-day in the Edenton street Sunday school room, and any who are interested in Temperance and Christian work are invited to meet with them.

Fun and Laughter.

The Tennyson and Dawson Grand Gift Carnival and Refined Specialty Company will begin their one week's engagement at the Metropolitan opera house, on Monday, the 29th inst.

The Richmond Dispatch says: A good audience witnessed the performance of the Tennyson & Dawson Specialty Company at the theatre last night. This entertainment is a very clever one, and unlike most others of its kind, is not dependent on the gifts for its success or popularity. The specialties are all good, especially the Morphets. Their performance will compare favorably with any that has visited Richmond.

The whole show was good and greatly pleased the audience. At the conclusion a large number of useful and ornamental presents were given the fortunate ones. The company will continue the balance of the week, with a matinee on Saturday.

The presents given away will be on exhibition in front of the hall on theatre day.

Died.

About sunset, Sept. 24th, at her home in Wilson, after a protracted illness, Mrs. Sadie W. Clark, in the 36th year of her age. Mrs. Clark was the wife of our esteemed kinsman, James E. Clark, whose home she leaves desolate. A devoted wife, a true friend, a most excellent mother—her place cannot be filled.—Wilson Advance.

We regret to see that Mr. E. M. Foscoe, who represented Jones county in the last Legislature, died on Monday in this week. He was a member of the Episcopal church, a prosperous farmer, and a kind-hearted man.

In Jonesboro, September 24th, Mr. John J. Partridge, aged 34 years. He was greatly loved and respected.

LISBON, Sept. 26.—It is reported that there was a serious conflict at Goimbra yesterday between students and police, and that some were killed and several wounded.

WINSTON-SALEM.

Carrying the War Into Africa—Prominent Prospectors Looking Around—Other Notes.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 26.—To-night some negro eloquence will be heard in Winston that will "carry the war into Africa." C. H. Moore, the colored man's candidate for Congress in this district, will address the negroes and give his reasons for running against Brower. Prof. Granderson, one of the teachers in the Bennett Seminary in Greensboro, will also make a speech endorsing Moore. Moore was once a citizen of this place, and the colored people know him well, and many of them will honor him with their votes.

Several men of prominence have been in Winston the past few days prospecting. Messrs. W. Duke and son, of Durham, left yesterday morning for Mount Airy after taking a drive over the city. Yesterday afternoon Ex-Congressman F. M. Simmons, and P. H. Pelletier, Esq., of New Berne, came up on the train and were engaged all the afternoon looking over the West End of the city. They were well pleased with Winston's grand prospects.

The time for the opening of the Davis Military School is drawing nigh. Last night three young men from Florida came up to attend the next session and by next week they will pour in from all directions.

Cards are out for the marriage of one of our most popular and successful young grocers, Mr. F. B. Eford to Miss Minnie Ogburn, a talented young lady. The marriage will take place on Thursday evening, the 2d of October.

The first gun of the Forsyth campaign will be fired at Clinard's Stand on next Thursday. It will be one of the hottest ever seen in the county.

It is reported on good authority that the Republican candidate for Sheriff, Milton E. Teague, is getting badly in the soup from the fact that the negroes of the county have addressed a letter to him demanding that he show his intention of appointing as a deputy one of their number. It is said that Teague does not know what to do. If he promises to appoint a negro deputy the white people will leave him, and if otherwise the negroes will be far from him and he will have to go away empty handed.

Mr. H. R. Cheers, of Reidsville, one of the deservedly popular young druggists of the State and Vice-President of the N. C. Pharmaceutical Association, was in our city yesterday prospecting. He goes to the Baltimore College of Pharmacy this winter and will return in the spring and probably locate here.

Last night forty-two delegates were elected by the Winston-Salem Y. M. C. A. to attend the District Y. M. C. A. convention, which convenes at Reidsville on October 15-18. Of course all of these will not attend, yet our association will be handsomely represented.

Mr. A. Dughi, of Raleigh, the bird fancier, has been exhibiting his birds here for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A., and to-morrow night the regular monthly meeting will be held, refreshments served, and a good time generally had.

POLITICS IN ASHE.

The Democrats endorse The Alliance Ticket. (Wilkesboro Chronicle.)

Politics are getting a little breezy and interesting over in Ashe. They have had three conventions. On Saturday, the 13th, the Republicans held their convention and nominated a full ticket.

On Monday following the Alliance met in convention and made a full list of nominations for all the offices, except they made no nomination for State Senator. They divided the ticket between the two parties. The following is the ticket.

Legislature—M. M. Blevins, Democrat. Clerk—C. Graybeal, Republican. Sheriff—T. W. Colvard, Democrat. Register—M. F. Smith, Republican. The Surveyor and Coroner are both Republicans.

On the next day the Democrats held their convention and decided to make no nominations, except for State Senator, for which position B. P. Grigsby received the nomination.

Mr. Smith, for Register, did not accept, and an Independent will take his place.

It is understood that the Democrats will support the Alliance nominees, and in that event that ticket will be elected. [Ashe is a Republican county.—EDITOR.]

INSTRUCTED FOR VANCE.

The Martin County Democratic Convention.

WILLIAMSTON, N. C., Sept. 25.—The Martin County Democrats nominated the following ticket:

For Clerk—W. T. CRAWFORD. For Sheriff—W. J. HARDISON. For Register—J. A. TEL. For Surveyor—J. T. GRIMES. For Coroner—T. L. WHITLEY. For the House of Representatives—J. B. COFFIELD.

A resolution instructing the member of the Legislature to vote for Vance was adopted.

CAPTAIN COFFIELD was a member of the last House of Representatives, and made a good reputation as a safe, conscientious, wise and useful member.

President S. B. Orwin of the Farmers Alliance of Kentucky, and editor of the official organ, the Kentucky State Union, published there, has come out boldly against the sub-treasury scheme, and has created much comment by so doing.

THE TARIFF BILL.

SOME OF THE FEATURES OF THE CONFERENCE REPORT.

[By United Press.]

Farmers to Furnish Statements of Tobacco Sales to any Revenue Officer—$500 Fine for Failure to Do So—The Sugar Schedule, &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—The conference report on the tariff bill completed to-day, provides that the new law shall go into effect October 6, 1890.

The Senate reciprocity feature is preserved in the bill, but the date for it to go into effect has been changed from July 1, 1891 to January 1, 1892.

The duty on binding twine of all kinds is put at seven-tenths of a cent per pound, and the provision for this article is made to apply to binding twine made in part from lisle or Tampico fibre, Manila, sisal grass or surine.

The sugar schedule provides that all sugars not above No. 16, Dutch standard, all tank bottom, all sugar drainings and sugar sweepings, syrups of cane juice, melada, concentrated melada and concentrated molasses, shall be placed on the free list.

This is the House provision subject, however, to the restrictions of the reciprocity feature, which empowers the President to suspend the free admission of sugar, molasses, coffee, tea and hides under certain conditions.

The conference changes the time for the bonded period to go into effect to Feb. 1, 1891.

The provision relative to the bonded period allows merchandise, deposited prior to October 1, 1890, to be withdrawn at the present rates of duty before the time the period goes into effect.

It is also provided that when duties are based upon the weight of merchandise deposited prior to October 1, the duties shall be levied upon the weight of the merchandise at the time of its withdrawal.

In the internal revenue features of the bill, nearly all the House provisions of the bill are restored. The provisions removing all restrictions on farmers and growers of tobacco in regard to the sales of leaf tobacco are removed, and a proviso added that the farmers shall furnish on demand of any internal revenue officer a statement of his sales, &c.

A fine of $500 is provided for violation of this provision.

The most important action of the conference committee on the internal revenue sections was in striking out all the Senate amendments providing for the creation of a tariff commission, and prescribing its duties.

The taxes on smoking and manufactured tobacco and on snuff is placed at six cents per pound.

The sugar schedule, as agreed upon by the conference, provides that from July 1st, 1891, to July 1st, 1895, there shall be paid to the producer of sugar less than 30 degrees by the polariscope from beets, sorghum or sugar cane, grown within the United States, or from maple produced within the United States, a bounty of two cents per pound, and on sugar between eighty and ninety degrees, a bounty of one and three-fourth cents per pound.

The Senate amendment providing that no bounty shall be paid to any person upon any quantity of sugar less than 300 pounds is retained.

Sugars above No. 26 D. S. are made dutiable at 5-10 of a cent a pound, in addition to the rate of 1-10 exported from or the product of any country that shall pay a bounty on the exportation of such sugar. It is provided that all machinery for the manufacture of sugars from beets shall be admitted free until July 1, 1892.

The sugar schedule is made to take effect on April 1, 1891, with a proviso that during the month of March, sugars may be refined in bond without payment of duty, and transported in bond and sold in bonded warehouses under the provisions of the existing laws.

The schedule covering imported tobacco and manufacturers of tobacco is left as it passed the Senate.

A RAILROAD CENTRE.

A Town With a Particularly Bright Future.

[Staff Cor. of THE CHRONICLE.]

MADISON, N. C., Sept. 25.—Madison for a number of years was almost unknown except to the citizens of the immediate vicinity, but railroads and the telegraph have changed all this; and instead of the sleepy little village nodding on the banks of the Dan, she is a busy, bustling, hustling town throbbing with life and energy. The scream of the horse of steel and steam waked her up about two years ago, and she is the wisest awake you ever saw.

Situated in a fertile region, and having unsurpassed water-power, she must become a town of importance. The chief article of value here is tobacco. She has two factories and two warehouses. One of these warehouses is new, and one of the largest in the State. A spoke and handle factory is consuming large quantities of hard wood. More new residences, and better ones, are going up than ever before. New stores are being built also, and of fine appearance. Apple & Nelson's new brick storehouse would do credit to a city.

It is certain that Madison will in a short time be one of the important towns of this section.

Johnnie Brower is doomed. The people in this part of the Fifth district say "Baldy" Williams will put the little man in a deep, deep grave.

Electric Street Railway.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

I hear that some of our business men with push, energy and money to back them are contemplating building an electric street railway here. To these, and whoever else it may concern, I address this correspondence.

I have had some experience with electric roads, and know that they are in every respect better than the "Old Horse Cars." They can be run with less expense, are more reliable, will carry heavier loads up or down hills as well as on level ground, run smoother and faster; as many cars as desired can be run on the same line.

They are more attractive and city-like and would add greatly to the already beautiful and city-like appearance of Raleigh; they are more profitable because people will ride on these nine times to one on the "Old Horse Cars." These statements I can prove by facts.

The papers in Erie, Pa., in speaking of the electric road there said: "It has done more for Erie in the short time it has been here than anything else has in ten years. It paid for itself in less than two years."

I will take pleasure in getting estimates for any one who is interested and will address me care of the CHRONICLE office, and will also take pleasure in seeing them and talking with them on the subject.
