

WHERE DO YOU STAND?

The county candidates are taking several days of holiday during the Fair. The speaking at Morrisville badly hacked the Radical candidates and there was every evidence that that township will give an increased Democratic majority.

The Radicals who are catering for Democratic support found little comfort at Morrisville. The negroes will vote for them and few besides. Upchurch & Co. had the money but the people of Morrisville are not for sale.

White men are becoming aroused. They understand that UPCHURCH MUST BE DEFEATED if they desire EVER to make Wake a Democratic county. They are crying everywhere: "Let's take a look at the books."

UPCHURCH's negro friend, who spoke in the Second Ward Monday night said: "I am for Charley Upchurch because he HAS TURNED FROM HIS OWN AND COME OVER TO US."

That negro told the truth. He has "TURNED FROM HIS OWN," and is the candidate of Clements, who was convicted of burning a barn in Rhamkatte during the Kirk war.

Any man who votes for Upchurch does two things:

1. Says that the negro barn-burner, CLEMENTS, is more competent to name a Clerk of the Court for Wake county than the large Convention of respectable white men who nominated THOMPSON.

2. That a Radical who votes for negroes and debauches them is the only man fit to be Clerk of the Court of the great county of Wake.

That is the issue. Where do you stand?

REV. DIRTY PARSON MEACHAM, who devotes much time to telling dirty jokes, is getting down mighty low since joining the Radicals.

In a conversation yesterday with Mr. A. M. SAUNDERS, of Johnston county, he said that he had rather vote for HOOVER (col.) than A. C. GREEN, and that HOOVER (col.) was a better man than GREEN.

That's Radicalism for you! Decent white men will repudiate all such men as MEACHAM and UPCHURCH.

UPCHURCH went out into east Raleigh Wednesday and told a gentleman that he was going to register 200 negroes. Isn't that a nice candidate for white men to vote for?

We are Ready For You.

Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Job P. Wyatt was held from the residence on North Dawson street yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. The services were impressively conducted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, assisted by Rev. Dr. H. H. Cordon.

Mrs. Wyatt was a true type of noble, womanly character. She was charming in society, was the light and life of a sweet and delightful home and was a loving and faithful mother.

Her sympathies were broad, tender and noble, and her greatest happiness was in relieving the woe or promoting the happiness of others. Her illness was not of long duration, and it was with pain and keen anxiety that hosts of friends learned that it had become serious.

The announcement of her death brought gloom to more than her own household; for there were other homes that knew of her sweet, sunny disposition and had felt the charm of her visits and presence.

A true, noble woman rests from labors that made others happy, and four little children are sadly bereft of a tender influence which to them is irreplaceable.

A large number of friends and acquaintances attended the last sad services for a lost loved one, and followed them to their last resting place in Oakwood cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. H. Alford, B. H. Woodell, H. H. Powell, C. G. Latta, D. H. Allen, J. A. Briggs, Phil. Taylor and Henry Horton.

A. and M. College Exhibit.

In addition to the superb agricultural exhibit made at the fair by the A. and M. College, there is a mechanical exhibit which is attracting much attention and causing much interest.

In fact there is nothing shown which interests the farmers more, for the A. and M. College is practically their institution; but others stop and admire and study the exhibit.

It shows the method of instruction in mechanics from the first drawing on paper to working out the design in wood. Some very fine specimens of intricate wood working are shown, and when examined, people wonder how the work could be done as it appears.

The exhibit was arranged by Prof. Weatherly, of the college, and is an interesting feature of the fair.

Supreme Court.

Proceedings on yesterday:

Clafin vs. Harrison, order of dismissal stricken out and case continued by consent.

Bobbitt vs. Jones, from Franklin, argued by F. S. Spruill, for plaintiff; Chas. M. Cooke, for defendant.

Ferrell vs. Thompson, from Nash, argued by Bunn & Battle, by brief, for plaintiff; F. A. Woodard for defendant.

Holden vs. Purifoy, argued by C. M. Cooke, T. M. Pittman and Batchelor & Devereux for the contesting defendants.

Coffee.

The buying of coffees already roasted has become so common that more than half the people in every large town use them. It saves a lot of trouble, and is fully as economical.

We give special attention to roasted coffees, to have them always fresh and of perfect quality. Java, Maracibo, Arbuclle's Arisosa, &c., &c., always in stock. Also a full line of green coffees, from Rio to Mocha.

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

The marshals' ball will be given in Henry Hall to-night.

The circus is coming. The gorgeous bills for it were being put up yesterday.

The cotton compresses is running night and day, and still it can't keep up with its business.

They all came yesterday regardless of the rain. There never was such a time at the State fair before.

A little colored boy was run over on Fayetteville street yesterday by a wagon. One of his legs was badly crushed.

The parade of stock could not be made at the fair yesterday on account of bad weather. It will be a feature of to-day at the State fair before.

The buildings at the colored fair grounds will be rented out on Saturday at 3:30 p. m. All parties will please take notice.

The Raleigh and Gaston train which came in last night was loaded down with people. They will attend the fair to-day.

There will be too balloon ascensions at the fair to-day—one between 10 and 12 o'clock a. m. and one between 2 and 4 p. m. if the weather be favorable.

The executive committee of the State Dental Society met here yesterday and decided to hold the next Dental Convention at Morehead on August 11th.

The receipts from the Confederate concert on Wednesday night amounted to $314.60. The concert was greatly enjoyed and will net over $300 for the home.

There is a representative gathering of the State police in the city. They held a meeting in the mayor's office last night to consider various matters and measures.

The German given by the Monogram club last night was an affair of delight. A large number of couples participated, representing the grace of and gallantry of several States.

A negro man was brought in from the country yesterday and jailed for house-breaking. He was a tough character, for he was vicious, bareheaded and had to be handcuffed to be controlled.

All the State fair marshals are requested to meet in the office of marshal R. H. Brooks, 128 Fayetteville street, this morning at 9 o'clock. There is something interesting to consider.

Nearly every available place has been used as a sleeping apartment for the past two days. The Union Mission building has been utilized for that purpose for the past two nights.

This week has very forcibly shown Raleigh's need of additional hotel facilities. It has also shown that a new union depot is badly wanted and that there is an immense need of sidewalk improvement. Now gentlemen, to work.

Raleigh has done some lively cotton shipping during the past week. Direct shipments have been made to France, Germany, Russia and the United Kingdom. This is just about as wide spreading and far reaching a cotton business as any cotton market can boast of.

To-day will be school day at the fair. All schools attending in a body will have the benefit of reduced admission rates. Children under twelve years of age will be admitted for ten cents; all over twelve and adults will be admitted for twenty-five cents.

Sheriff Grant of Wayne, assisted by Benj. Vincent and Henry King, arrived here yesterday with four convicts for the penitentiary. They were Robt. Smith, alias Schwab, and Willie Smith both for larceny, five years; Henry Ashfort, (col.) larceny, three years; George Boyd, (col.) two years.

Schools at the Fair Yesterday.

There was a notable attendance of schools at the fair yesterday.

Peace Institute was out about fifty strong. Greensboro Female College sent down a delegation of about fifty, in charge of Dr. B. F. Dixon, the very popular president of the college.

Prof. L. D. Bagley, of Louisburg Female College, was there with twenty seven of his pupils.

Holly Springs Institute, Capt. C. F. Siler, principal, was represented by a delegation one hundred strong.

The younger male element who were on the grounds yesterday were most unanimously of the opinion that these delegations constituted all the delightful charm of the day.

Funeral.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Miss Susan Helen Litchford were held from the First Baptist church yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. S. Watkins and Rev. Dr. Thos. E. Skinner.

She was a woman beloved for many amiable qualities, and sad friends followed the remains to their final resting place in the city cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. C. B. Root, J. R. Williams, G. M. Allen, J. G. Brown, Andrew J. Jones, P. C. Ennis and T. H. Briggs.

Mr. B. L. Bingham, a lumber commission merchant of Norfolk, Va., is in the city. He showed us a copy of the Ulster, (N. Y.) Gazette, published Saturday, June 4th, 1890. The paper contains an advertisement of a "saw mill, pine wood, and a stout negro wench for sale" in that county.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Agnes Green, daughter of Capt. T. J. Green, of Fayetteville, to Mr. William G. McLaughlin. The ceremony will occur in Hay Street Methodist church, Fayetteville, on Wednesday evening, October 22nd at 8:30 o'clock p. m.

Among the visitors to the fair whom the CHRONICLE has been pleased to grasp by the hand is Mr. Wm. H. Oliver, of New Bern. He has been a thorough student of our financial system, and more than five years ago wrote valuable essays showing that the great need of the people was to secure the free coinage of silver. He rejoices now to see that all the people of the State are earnestly seeking to secure free coinage. He was a pioneer in this reform in North Carolina.

Among the many visitors to the fair yesterday, the CHRONICLE notes the following: W. N. Hunter, Kinston; O. G. Gregory, Oxford; P. J. Mazon, Warrenton; J. W. Wadsworth, Charlotte; Dr. Foster, Louisburg; Dr. Wyche, Oxford; J. M. Morehead, Durham; S. J. Jones and lady, Oxford; J. H. Sneed, H. A. Reams, Jr., M. F. Markham, Durham; W. E. Massey, B. F. Through Mud

And slush the thousands of visitors come all day yesterday to Swindell's in search of umbrellas, rubber coats and rubber shoes. In all the history of our business we never saw so many people who wanted umbrellas. All wanted to go to the fair, and those who could not get an umbrella could not go home. There were thousands who did not go, (every umbrella gone by twelve) and those who did not go to the fair set in on our dress goods and clothing, and we sold dress goods and clothing until we were fully satisfied with the day's business; and we were happy and the customers were happy. Did we go to the fair? No, indeed; we could not go to dinner. Regardless of the rain, yesterday was a big day for

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of some place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine; made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle, at John Y. MacRo's Drug Store.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, October 16.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-night say: "The failure of the bank of England to advance discount rate to day has resulted in a decidedly more confident feeling in financial circles, both here and abroad, and has left the cotton market more or less entirely dependent on the influences directly bearing upon it. They have been almost exclusive of a bullish character and a substantial advance, both here and abroad has been secured."
