

A MATTER OF HONOR.

The Democratic Convention nominated an excellent ticket, and the delegates to that Convention were selected by the largest primaries ever held in the county.

Now, it is a question of honor with the voters whether they will comply with their sacred obligations. Any Democrat who "scratches" the ticket is guilty of political dishonor.

JUST LIKE UPCHURCH & CO.

"I am an old line Republican, one of the first tried sort, and am a Republican to-day; but I confess that I have never seen an hour when I thought a Southern white man could be a Republican and be decent. I was Republican for money."

The result of to-day's election in Wake county will tell whether Principle or Boodle controls. There is no doubt that, "unwaved by influence or unbribed by gain," the people will give the entire Democratic ticket a majority of not less than 500.

GLADSTONE says that "no wave on the great ocean of time, when once it has floated past us, can be recalled." When a man reflects upon the fact that he cannot recall his vote and is responsible for the consequences of his ballot, he will be certain not to vote for any of the Court House Ring.

STRAIGHT! Right dress! Forward! March! Every man who loves his home; every man who is opposed to troops at the polls; every man who is opposed to Bossism; every man who believes that there are more than one competent man in Wake county—all these men will go to the polls to-day and vote the STRAIGHT Democratic ticket.

Ir, as UPCHURCH says, he is the only man in Wake county who can fill the office of clerk, Wake county stands disgraced in the eyes of its neighbors. The CHRONICLE knows that there are hundreds who can do the work as well or better. A vote for him is a vote to put a badge of inferiority upon the people of Wake county.

THE negro who nominated CHAS. D. UPCHURCH in the County Convention was put in prison for burning CAL BRANCH'S barn in Swift Creek township. It is such negroes whom UPCHURCH prefers. He never does anything for the more respectable and sober negroes though he expects them all to vote for him.

IS THERE only one man competent to fill the office of Clerk in Wake? UPCHURCH says so. Are the people of Wake county going to admit that it is wanting in competent men by voting for the man who thus slanders hundreds of competent men?

"I will vote as I please" is the brag-gart style which some men who are traitors to party employ. Everybody does that, but no man who is honest pretends to be a Democrat and then stabs the Democracy by scratching his ticket.

A VOTE for the straight Democratic ticket to-day is a vote to kill Bossism in Wake county. UPCHURCH thinks the office he holds belongs to him and he says that nobody else can fill it. Such Bossism ought to be rebuked.

A ship at sea they say does not need assistance unless it is sinking. Wake county Radicals have imported TIM LEE to help them. Let the Democrats be true to their convictions to-day and TIM LEE & Co. will be defeated.

EVERY man has a right to vote as he pleases. There is no doubt about that. But if he pleases to say he is a Democrat, he is a traitor to Democracy if he scratches the nominees of that party.

LOOK out for the men who are afflicted with the itch. They are the "scratchers" and they have an itch for favoritism, for money or for place.

VOTE the straight Democratic ticket. If your brother is on the Radical ticket tell him: "I love you, but cannot prove false to my principles."

SCRATCH the Boodle to-day. They will "scratch" their ticket. Some of them will pretend to be Democrats.

THE man who has the "itch" will "scratch." The man who is well, politically, will not scratch.

THE man who doubts is damned in religion. The man who scratches is damned in politics.

BOSS or Democracy? Which will YOU favor to-day by your vote?

BOSS or Democracy? Which are YOU

A RADICAL LIE.

The lies the Radicals tell on the CHRONICLE are without number. The latest is—and it is TOLD FOR A PURPOSE, that we have abused the UPCHURCH family.

The CHRONICLE has never contained a word about any of the family except CHAS. D. UPCHURCH, the Radical candidate for Clerk, and W. B. UPCHURCH, the Democratic candidate for the House. We have never gotten on the narrow platform of PERSONAL POLITICS. God forbid that we should ever so far forget principles as to do so.

We have insisted that Democrats be true to their principles. We shall die preaching the same glorious truth. If it offends any, let it offend. If any of Mr. C. D. UPCHURCH's Democratic kin expect to vote for him, they have a right to do it by deserting the Democratic party. But they cannot do it and be Democrats. This is a truth we have preached impersonally. We do not make it personal now. We refer only to it to give the lie to the Radical report which is being circulated with the attempt to misrepresent this paper and work up sympathy for C. D. UPCHURCH.

LET US HAVE QUIET AND ORDER.

The election to-day will be marked by a feeling of profound interest. There will be wide differences of opinion, and party feeling will run high. The CHRONICLE hopes that all men of all parties will remember that he is a committee of one to keep the peace, and act so as to preserve quiet and order. Every man ought to be interested in the success of his party, but he ought above party to be deeply interested to secure a peaceable, fair and quiet election.

A NEW DODGE.

UPCHURCH's friends are sending through the mail to Democrats a Democratic ticket with UPCHURCH's name on it.

This is an insult to every Democrat to whom it is sent. It is a reflection upon his political integrity which every true Democrat will resent.

THERE was a Radical pow-wow at the Court House last night and speeches were made by some of the candidates and others. The chief topic was the retailing of billingsgate against the STATE CHRONICLE. "It's the bit dog that hollers." If such fellows didn't hate the CHRONICLE we would be derelict in performing our duty. We are proud of their denunciation. The people love the CHRONICLE for the enemies it has made.

THAT was a tough Radical crowd in front of the postoffice last night. Radical that he is, even Postmaster SHAFER couldn't stand it, and he ordered "the drunken mob" away. And yet some so-called Democrats are going to join in with them to Boss Wake county. Shame on any of them!

THE RINGSTER'S POW-WOW.

Radical P. M. Shaffer Drives the "Drunken Mob Away."

Last night the court house Ringster's and their crowd had a pow-wow on Fayetteville street. LOGAN HARRIS, surnamed "The Coon," harangued the rabble and then J. EARL BURNETT gave the white sample of his choicest billingsgate, and they whooped and hollered in true Ringster style.

After they had finished Dave Lane, the colored Independent Republican candidate for Clerk, arose to speak. At a signal from the Bosses the mob set up a yell that lasted half an hour. They would not so much as give Lane a hearing. The white Bosses had paid them to prevent his speaking and they did their work well. Lane was forced to leave the stump.

That's the way the Bosses run the thing. They get the "turkey," make all the negroes drunk whom they can, and give the negro the "buzzard." Let every respectable voter in Raleigh vote against the whole Court House Ring and forever bury them.

"A Drunken Mob." After the hollering had continued for a long time Postmaster SHAFER came out of the post-office and ordered the crowd away saying that he couldn't stand such "a drunken mob."

A gentleman, who stood on the corner, turned away saying: "If I had ever been a Republican, I would leave the party after such a disgusting sight."

Later—Lane Speaks. After Postmaster Shaffer had driven away "the drunken mob" and the white bosses had dispersed, Lane did speak to a large crowd of colored people and urged them not longer to be led by the nose by designing white Bosses who had no use for them except to get their votes. Lane carried off three-fourths of the negroes—and most of the sober ones. Left to themselves, the sober negroes heard him. The Bosses and "the drunken mob" could hear of nothing but continued Boss Rule.

VANCE IN MECKLENBURG.

The Campaign Closed—A Great Speech to a Great Crowd.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Nov. 8.—A large and enthusiastic audience of farmers and town folks greeted Senator Vance here to-day. He made his last speech of the campaign in the court house and many were unable to get inside the building. Senator Vance says the country is safe and to-morrow Democracy will get on top.

The last gun was fired on Independence Square to-night by R. H. Morse, the Prohibition agitator of Charlotte.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER, & CO. Ladies' and Children's Underwear.

The largest stock, the greatest variety, Ribbed and Plain, in Cotton, Merino and All-wool. Dr. Jeger's Sanitary Underwear. Sizes and prices right for all.

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

The biggest excitement after to-day will be the circus. Rose Osborne will play "Satan" in Metropolitan hall to-night.

The Henry's minstrels will hold the books in the opera house next Friday night.

Some very good work has been done in the way of improving East Hargett street.

You couldn't get a man to look at yesterday unless you wanted to talk politics to him.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and transacted regular routine business.

No business to-day. Let everybody turn out and work for Democracy and good government.

At Gray's store yesterday morning, Miss Peri Candler was married to Mr. Matthew Robbins, Furman Gully, Esq., officiating.

The Henry building is being very handsomely remodelled and fitted up in the interior as new quarters for the Capital club.

Next Friday night is the time for the regular meeting of the city board of aldermen. How about extending Morgan street, westward, gentlemen?

The agony will be over in a day or two. Then there will be space and time for work on many matters relative to Raleigh's material prosperity.

The Superior Court was adjourned until Wednesday morning next and eighteen persons have been ordered to be drawn for the balance of the week.

Applications are already being made for seats on the occasion of the appearance here of the famous Thirteenth Regiment Band of New York on November 20th.

Just look out for next Sunday's CHRONICLE. It will have an announcement which will show how you can get a splendid and beautiful building lot at small cost and on easy terms.

It is said that the building of a railroad from Ridgeway, N. C., to Petersburg, Va., is a certainty. This would be an most important feature for Raleigh, inasmuch as it would place this city within three and a half miles of Richmond.

There is quite a good business going on in horses in this section. A very interesting feature of this business will be an auction sale of very fine trotting bred horses at Fairview stock farm on November 20th. Some beautiful animals will be sold at auction without reserve.

There was never such a political boom and buzz in political matters in this town as was seen on the streets yesterday. Candidates, their friends, and people who were interested rushed to and fro, worked and schemed and frowned and calculated without limit and without end. This business was kept up way into the night. The like was never seen before. The fight to-day will be one of the strongest and most intense political contests ever witnessed in this county.

COMING AND GOING.

Some of The Folks You Know and Their Doings.

Miss Fannie Green, of Franklin county, is visiting Miss S. B. Norris.

Mr. Clarence Busbee, of Buena Vista, Va., is in the city for a few days.

Mr. E. C. Baddingfield returned to the city on Saturday from a campaign tour.

Dr. G. W. Santerlin has returned to the city from an extended campaign tour.

Mr. H. R. Kinlaw, of the Rocky Mount Phoenix, is in the city on business for his paper.

Miss Lizzie Pasco, of Monticello, Fla., who has been spending a few weeks with friends here, will return to her home to-day.

Col. L. L. Polk is in the city, having just returned from a great speaking tour of the West and North west. He will vote this morning and then leave on Alliance business.

The Raleigh party which went to Atlanta and Chattanooga, the guests of the "City of Florence," returned home Sunday. They report a great time. The following composed the party: Mrs. Joseph Daniels, Misses Carrie and Lonnie Polk, Eliza Skinner, Eliza Marshall, Mildred Badger and Ethel Bagley.

Rev. U. S. Jones returned yesterday from Kingston, where he attended the meeting of the Atlantic Association. It is one of the youngest and liveliest associations. Rev. S. T. Albritton, of Mt. Olive, was elected moderator. Nearly all the churches in that association are mission points, and yet they pledged $100 for State and associational missions for the coming year, and responded liberally to the other objects of the work.

Rev. C. E. Taylor, President of Wake Forest College, made a good speech on the college and will get $1,000 for the endowment fund which he is raising.

Supreme Court.

Appeals from the Seventh district will be called next Monday as follows: State vs. Alexander, State vs. Moore, State vs. Brady, Worth vs. Brady, Worth vs. Gilliam, Everett vs. Williamson, Guthrie vs. Bacon, Roberts vs. Lewis, Wadsworth vs. Atkinson, McMillan vs. School Committee, Tomlinson vs. Railroad, Vanostery vs. Lambert, Baio vs. Scott, Maxton vs. Robeson Co.

Weather Report.

Raleigh yesterday: Maximum temperature 88; minimum temperature 40; rainfall, Trace.

THE GREATEST ON EARTH.

A Glorious Holiday with Barnum On Thursday Nov. 6.

The Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will positively visit Raleigh, Thursday Nov. 6 h, bringing the whole of the $2,500,000 worth of zoological, arenic and spectacular magnificence which took London and Great Britain by storm, and was the wonder of Europe. Besides the hundreds of living lessons, strange and witching supernatural illusions, superb Olympia Hippodrome, stupendous, museums, aquariums and trained caravans, World's Horse Fair, three rings, two elevated stages, three hundred famous performers, one hundred brilliant acts and many other most novel and notable feature attractions, there will also be presented, in overwhelming magnitude and splendor, Irene Kiraly's incomparable historic spectacle of "Nero; or, the Destruction of Rome," which the London Times bears witness "is organized upon a grander scale than anything of the kind that has ever been seen." It is evidently impossible sible satisfactorily describe a historic and classic innovation requiring for its successful presentation specially constructed tents, of much greater capacity than the immense ones heretofore used; a stage nearly five hundred feet long, and a spacious Hippodrome course; railway and powerful mechanical appliances to move its vast expense of realistic scenery; twelve hundred Roman characters, wild beasts and horses; two thousand elaborately elegant costumes, and shining armor, trappings and devices, the exact fac-similes of those used in Rome two thousand years ago; besides the services of the world's best musical composers, scenic artists, costumers, and stage, terpsichorean and orchestral directors. Its splendid pageants, imposing spectacles, gorgeous dances, furious races, war-like evolutions and combats, and dazzling scenes of revelry, prodigality and ancient city life and customs were the wonder of the Old World, and will equally astonish and entrance the New. Grandfather Barnum has also specially distinguished the eightieth year of his busy life by extraordinary efforts to instruct and amuse his millions of little friends. He says that he "would rather be called the Children's Friend than the World's King." He has his wish and richly deserves it.

EBERHARDT & PESCU.

Sitting Room Social Chat. A party of ladies who were gathered in one of the cozy sitting rooms of Raleigh one night recently amused themselves very pleasantly as well as beneficially by discussing the various merits and demerits of Swindell's business and its wonderful progress during the two years he has been in Raleigh.

The conversation began because of the new dress Mrs. N. had on. Mrs. B. asked her where the goods came from, at the same time remarking that it was so beautiful, stating that she saw the same goods at a store and the price was 72c. per yard. "Well," said Mrs. N., "this dress is lovely and I gave 55c. per yard for it at Swindell's." Then the ball was open and all had their say about Swindell's. One remarked that the progress of Swindell's business was a wonder, having now become one of the most important dry goods houses in the State.

Another remarked: "When Swindell first came here I thought he would last about six months; but, instead of drying up, I believe it the most progressive business house I ever saw." Another said: "When he first came here I noticed the immediate change in the dry goods prices, and they have been getting cheaper all the time. Why, I never thought of buying dry goods off Main street before Swindell came; now I buy nearly all I use from Swindell's." Another remarked: "I used to look for that big store and laugh, to think how soon it would close; thought the business mushroom. It looks like he has come to stay." See the clothing and carpets at SWINDELL'S.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, November 3.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-night say: "Spot cotton was reported as pressed for sale in Liverpool this morning, and futures were 2 to 3/4 lower, closing at nearly the bottom. On heavy selling the market at the opening broke at nearly 10 points, the lowest price of the season being recorded. From this there was a sharp reaction to the closing prices of Saturday, and subsequent decline to within about three points of the opening." Receipts at the ports estimated at 64,000 bales, against 72,082 bales last week, and 53,095 bales last year.
