APPOINTMENTS

—FOR—

FARMERS' MEETINGS.

L. L. Polk, editor of THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, will address the farmers at the following times and places:
 Wake Forest College, Saturday, Dec. 4th.
 Henderson, Vance County, Monday, Dec. 6th.
 Wilton, Granville County, Tuesday, Dec. 7th.
 Merry Oaks, Chatham County, Wednesday, Dec. 8th.
 Pocket, Moore County, Thursday, Dec. 9th.
 Lillington, Harnett County, Friday, Dec. 10th.
 Topics relating to the industrial and educational interests of the State will be discussed. Every-body invited.

—Mrs. N. J. Terry's boarding house will in future be located in second story of the new Starbuck block.

Messrs. Buxton & Watson also advertise for sale, at public auction, a farm, near Winston, on the 16th.

—The Moravian church at Centerville was dedicated last Sunday, in the presence of a large congregation from the surrounding country and from Salem.

—Tobacco has been coming in lively for several days and business has been brisk in the warehouses. Much of the leaf is of low grade, but some of it of fine quality.

—The fair of the Forsyth Riflemen, which has been in progress for several days has, we are glad to learn, proved a success financially and otherwise. The net proceeds so far amount to about $2,000.

—Mr. R. A. Wommack, of this city, has accepted a position as travelling salesman for the Eagle Shoe Company, of Fredericksburg, Va. He will devote his attention especially to North Carolina.

—Magnificent Bridal Presents, Engagement Presents and Christmas Presents, in beautiful Diamond Rings, Ear Rings, &c., at E. J. Allen's Jewelry Store. A full line of Jewelry. He will tell you all about it next week.

—Dr. Bahnson has more demand for milk from his dairy than he can supply without increasing his stock of Jerseys and Guernseys, which we trust he will proceed to do. We note the success of such enterprises with special pleasure.

—We have received a letter from Hickory, which we would publish with pleasure but for the fact that the writer failed to give us his name. It is an invariable rule of this office that communications must be accompanied by the name of the author. The writer may use any signature he chooses, but we must know who writes to us.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Messrs. Buxton and Gray, Assignees of Pfohl & Stockton, advertise a sale of property on the 16th of December, embracing some fine property in the country and in Winston. The Central Hotel, and the Merchants Hotel, and the store in which the firm did business, are centrally located and ought to bring a good price. In addition, there is a considerable amount of personal property, stock, vehicles, household furniture, etc., to be sold.

A Rare Opportunity
—FOR—
INVESTORS.

A FEW THOUSAND DOLLARS will secure an interest in a business which can be brought up to an immense thing in a short time.

NO VISIONARY SCHEME. NO HUMBUG!

In universal demand and the only thing of the kind in the world. Exclusive ownership secured and protected by law. In good shape to begin to realize from at once and to prosecute to its fullest capacity.

The fullest and most thorough investigation solicited, for it will at once commend itself to men of business sagacity.

Co-partnership or Joint Stock Company—the latter preferred.

Don't trouble to write unless you can command money and want to make money and mean business.

Address,
L. L. POLK,
WINSTON, N. C.
