

IN CITY AND COUNTY.

DAIRY HERE AND THERE BY OUR REPORTERS.

Last Week's Occurrences in City and County Narrated in Condensed Paragraphs.

Mrs. H. A. Brown is visiting friends in Yadkin county. Dirt is being removed for the foundation of the new jail. Miss Mollie Murphy, of Salisbury, is visiting Mrs. E. H. Jennings. Mr. M. B. Stevens, of Johnson City, Tenn., is in Winston, prospecting. Frost is reported to have been found in the low lands Monday morning. Miss Ella Reed, of Independence, Va., is visiting relatives and friends in Salem. The Colored District School beyond the Salem bridge, closed on the 11th inst. Mr. Hampton Bynum left on Tuesday evening for his new home at Moscow, Idaho. Lawyers Stack and King of the Danbury bar are attending court here this week. Picnics are becoming the general topic of the day among the Sunday School scholars. Mr. H. W. Foltz is having his former dwelling removed to his lot on Old Town Street. Miss Bettie Harris, of Concord, N. C., is now with Messrs. Ryttenberg Bros., as a saleslady. Miss Mamie L. Hatchett, of the Southern Woman, gave us a pleasant call one day the past week. Miss Laura Williams, of Davie county is visiting the family of Col. R. M. Payne on Seventh Street. A drummer's license was issued from the State Treasury last week to Mr. D. E. Smoak, of this city. Misses Eleanor and Maggie Webb, of Hillsboro, are visiting Mrs. Eugene E. Gray in the West End. The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church realized $185.62 from their Bazaar given last Thursday night. Mr. J. D. Paylor, late salesman with Messrs. Thompson & Franklin, has accepted a position with Mr. T. H. Pegram, Jr. Mr. H. H. Happer, auctioneer at one of the warehouses in Durham, spent several days with his family here the past week. Sixty-two convicts passed through here Saturday to join the force already at work on the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. Mr. Wm. Tate disposed of his residence on Fourth Street a few days since, and was bid off by Mr. J. C. Bessent at $3,500. Workmen are now engaged in building an addition to our depot. We learn that a passenger depot is also in contemplation at an early day. Mr. H. W. Foltz refusing to serve, Mr. J. C. Bessent was re-elected Town Constable and Tax Collector by the City Fathers last Friday night. We learn that the balance due on the new Methodist E. Church of this city, has been raised and that the dedication will take place shortly. Calvin Nudgin was arrested last Saturday morning by Chief of Police Bradford for shooting and other disorderly conduct around Farmers' warehouse. A large King snake was killed on last Saturday at Mr. C. H. Fogle's residence in Salem that measured five feet and two inches and weighed two and one-half pounds. Owing to the heavy rains the water courses are reported to be very high. The Salem creek is said to be higher at present than has been known for a number of years. Some valuable land is offered for sale in another column in Surry county by Mr. M. L. Holmes, Commissioner of Surry Court. The sale will take place July 5th, 1886. The Greensboro District Sunday School Conference will be held this year at Kernersville, on May 28th, 29th and 30th. The exercises no doubt will be both interesting and instructive. The Commencement exercises of the Kernersville High School will take place to-day (Thursday) and Friday. The literary address will be delivered by Hon. Jas. W. Reid on Friday morning. Mr. M. C. Dorsett, of Stokes, last Spring purchased of W. T. Carter & Co., two sacks of their British Mixture guano and has had the satisfaction of raising 3,084 pounds of tobacco, 35,000 hills being planted. This is a good record. Messrs. J. A. White & Son inform us that their business is steadily increasing. Only four new buggies and one phaeton rolled out from their shop the past week. They are liberal advertisers in THE SENTINEL. Among the numerous dudes who display their anatomies in the Salem Public Square Sunday afternoons, is one little dude who has "school-girt" on his brain? so strong that it is said, he carries his dinner with him to Salem on Sunday's, so as to lose no time. This is said to be a Rea(y) fact. A very sad accident occurred to Charley Kinmel, son of Theodore Kinmel, in South Fork Township, one day the past week. Young Kinmel and his brother, were out on the creek bank shooting frogs, when his brother in stepping off the bank, in some way touched the trigger of the rifle which caused the gun to fire. The ball entered Charley's skull which caused a very painful and it was thought fatal wound, but at last, apparently slowly recovering.

A POINT WORTH CONSIDERING.

By Business Men Who Fall to See the Good in Advertising.

The following from the Mt. Airy News will apply with almost equal force to Winston: We receive from five to twenty-five requests for sample copies of this paper every week. These parties speak of locating in some live North Carolina town, and of course a man in Lynchburg can tell all about the number of warehouses, factories, stores, shops, &c., by examining our advertising columns. That it pays to advertise, is apparent in more ways than one. Take for example the following lines of trade, viz: Millinery, bakery, harness, blacksmithing, grain and feed, neither of which are at present represented in THE SENTINEL'S advertising columns. Now suppose a man engaged in either of these occupations, and having made up his mind to change his present location to a more thrifty place, should happen to get hold of a copy of this paper; naturally enough, he would examine it throughout to see if any one in his business advertised. When he finds no advertisement, ask yourself, business reader, if it is not only natural for him to say to himself something like this, "Now, if I go to that place and advertise extensively, and push my business, it seems to me that I can make it successful," and in nine cases out of ten, it is successful. A FANCY DRESS PARTY. A Very Enjoyable Entertainment in Salem. A fancy dress party was given to the young folks of Salem, on last Friday night, at the residence of Dr. Swift. A pleasant evening was spent in parlor games, promenade, and other amusements. Ice cream, strawberries and other refreshments were served. The characters represented by the young ladies were as follows: Misses Ella Reed, "Sunshine"; Hattie Swift, "The Daughter of the Regiment"; Lonnie Fisher, "Fairy"; Agnes Hauser, "Gypsy"; Gertrude Jenkins, "Japanese"; Claude Winkler, "Cinderella"; Mary Lineback, "Swiss Girl"; Carrie Crist, "Old Fashioned Girl"; Maggie Brietz, "Night"; Emma Fisher, "Morning"; Mattie Winkler, "Snow and Ice"; Lula Ackerman, "Lady Washington"; Miss Agnes Wall, as "Spanish Lady"; Miss Ella Shore, as "Pleasant Thoughts"; Miss Ella Ackerman, as "Folly"; Miss Mamie Thomas, as "Daisy"; Mrs. Frank Vogler, as "Queen of Hearts"; Miss Lily Crosland, as "Scotch Lassie"; Miss Minnie Winkler, as "Little Bo-Peep". The Senior Class of the S. F. A. The following names (twenty-six in number) compose the Sem or Graduating Class of the Salem Female Academy, for 1886. Misses Sallie E. Barber, Fort Mills, N. C.; Otella Barrow, Salem, N. C.; Delia E. Blackburn, Winston, N. C.; M. Fant, Brown, Winston, N. C.; Annie M. Fant, Anderson, N. C.; Mary Gorrell, Winston, N. C.; Dora A. Harris, Winston, N. C.; Eddie P. Hunnicutt, Atlanta Ga.; Hallie L. Jones, High Point, N. C.; Lizzie B. Johnson, Ruffin, N. C.; Florence McCann, Winston, N. C.; Flora McKay, Lone Home, S. C.; Emma J. McKee, Laurinburg, N. C.; Mary S. Motley, Reidsville, N. C.; Mollie Motley, Lawsonville, N. C.; Helen Daby Murphy, Company Shops, N. C.; Studie Nelson, Winston, N. C.; Mary A. Peterson, Salem, N. C.; C. Elizabeth Pfohl, Salem, N. C.; Annie L. Stokes, Danville, Va.; Maggie A. Spencer, Spencer's Store, Va.; Minnie C. Thompson, Winston, N. C.; Mollie E. Tucker, Killgore, Texas; Julia A. Walker, Charlotte, N. C.; Jennie W. Williamson, Asheville, N. C.; and Lulu McIntire, Texas. Out of the Depths: Mr. M. N. Williamson, a few days ago showed a SENTINEL reporter a letter, which had left England in the ill fated steamer, Oregon. The envelope had come to pieces and the stamps were washed off, but the writing was perfectly legible. It was forwarded from New York in an official envelope with a with a printed slip enclosed as follows: "P. O. New York, April 20th, 1886." This piece is a portion of the mail forwarded from Queenstown, Ireland, per steamer Oregon, on March 7th, and damaged by the sinking of that vessel off Fire Island on March 14th. N. Y. P. O., print, Henry J. Pearson, postmaster. At the Opera House. Zera Semon together with Bell's Original Royal Marionettes, giving Minstrels and Humpty Dumpty pantomime, begin a series of entertainments at the Opera House, Thursday 20th. Elegant and valuable presents are to be given away each night, and the admission price has been placed within the reach of all, namely 25 and 35 cts, no extra charge for reserved seats, which may be marked off at Smith & Brown's. This company comes well recommended and we do not doubt but will sustain their reputation here. Forsyth Superior Court. Judge Montgomery arrived on the noon train Monday and early in the afternoon opened court. His charge to the grand jury, was very plain and practical and has elicited no little comment. He is dispatching business with the greatest rapidity, but up to the hour of going to press very few cases of any importance have been disposed of, therefore we will wait until next week, when full proceedings will be given. A smart energetic boy of about fourteen who desires to learn the printing business can find employment at THE SENTINEL office. Only industrious boys need apply. No idlers wanted. May 20-ly.

MERRY MARRIAGE BELLS.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING IN THE MORNING.

Tasty Floral Decorations—Beautiful Cakes—Husband and Wife—The Participants. There were many anxious looks and outspoken regrets yesterday, for the oldest inhabitant had never seen so disagreeable a day in May—and every one felt that only the brightest of days and the loveliest of moonlight nights would be appropriate for the wedding of one of Salem's most popular young ladies. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large crowd gathered to assemble at the Moravian Church, about eight o'clock Tuesday evening being comfortably seated by four handsome young ushers, Messrs. Will Shaffner, Sam and Dugw Patterson, and Howard Rondthaler; they had leisure to observe the beautiful decorations—the work of the Jolly Sister's Club. In front of the pulpit was a mound of exquisite hot-house plants; on each side of the pulpit, pots of gorgeous cacti. At a quarter before nine, the organ pealed forth the wedding march, and the bridal party entered. First came the ushers, followed by attendants: Miss Delphine Hall, of Salem, and Rev. E. W. Smith, of Greensboro; Miss Aggie Wolfe, of Salem, and Rev. J. J. Vance, Wytheville, Va.; Miss Cora Williamson, Ruffin, N. C., and Rev. E. R. Caldwell, Frankfort, Ky.; Miss Janet Wilson, Raleigh, and Rev. S. T. Mosby, Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Minnie Vogler, Salem, and Dr. C. L. Alexander, Charlotte; Miss Ida Moore, Salem, and Mr. W. B. Williamson, Winston; Miss Anna DeSchweinitz, Salem, and Mr. George Bryan, Richmond, Va. Then came two tiny blue and pink beauties bearing the all important ring—Misses Carro Buxton and Carrie Bahnon. Immediately behind them were the bride and groom—Miss Lula Fries, of Salem, Rev. Walter W. Moore, of Hampden Sidney College, Va. Miss Fries is too well and favorably known in the "Old North State" to need any compliments from us; and though Dr. Moore lives in Virginia, North Carolina is proud to claim him as her son, the youngest D. D. in the Presbyterian Church. It would require a lady's appreciative eye and pen to do justice to the bride's costume, at any rate there was a shimmer of white satin which extended some two yards behind the small satin slippers, and white flowers, lace, and the gleam of diamonds were omnipresent. But all the ladies said the loveliest thing imaginable was the veil, which half hid the flushed cheeks; "so elegant," "point lace," "isn't it beautiful," &c., were the comments. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Rondthaler, assisted by Rev. Dr. Johnson, of the Winston Presbyterian Church. After the blessings had been pronounced, the bridal party and numerous friends adjourned to the residence of Mrs. L. M. Fries, where good wishes were offered, an elegant collation enjoyed, and happiness reigned supreme for several hours. Wednesday morning, Dr. and Mrs. Moore accompanied by several of their attendants and other friends, left on the early train for an extended tour, which will include Hampden, Doney, Washington, Niagara Falls, New York, Philadelphia, &c. They take with them the warm regard and sincere good wishes of hosts of friends, who predict for their life of usefulness, and who will all ways be rejoiced to welcome them back to their native State. The wedding party embracing many gifts and handsones, as desired, could not be represented on the happy occasion. Without resorting to the happy saying, "that among the display we noticed a diamond pin from the groom, also a silver tea set, silver sets and stands, clocks and brown, home-made glass table ware, Dresden and some painted china, & number of hats, useful and ornamental pieces of fancy work." The number and character of these presents testified unmistakably to the popularity of the bride and groom, and the fact that many friends were in hearty sympathy with their successful start in life. Messrs. Tyson & Jones. This well known carriage house located at Charlotte, has already become one of the representative manufacturing concerns of State, and the people of North Carolina who need a good, honest, home-made vehicle that is superior in make and equal in style and finish to any of the Northern and Western vehicles, owe it to themselves to give Messrs. Tyson & Jones a trial before buying. They have agents all over the State. Messrs. Brown, Rodgers, & Co., are the firms representatives in Winston and these gentlemen will be glad to talk carriages to anybody half way in the notion of buying. We are having frequent complaints from city subscribers that they do not get their copies of THE SENTINEL, which we know, beyond doubt, are carefully directed and mailed. We earnestly ask that subscribers not getting their papers this week and hereafter report same to this office at once. The working men continue to complain about the Postoffice being closed so early in the evening. They tell us that often they have to wait until Saturday evening before they can get their mail, which has been in the office several days. THE SENTINEL thinks, for the convenience of the laboring class, the office should remain open until 7 o'clock p. m. An Import. When you visit or leave New York City save Baggage Express and Carriage Hire and stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. Elegant rooms fitted up at a cost of one million dollars, reduced to $1.00 and upwards per day. European plan. Elevator Restaurant supplied with the best. Horse car stages and elevated railroad to all depots. Families can live better for less money at the Grand Union Hotel than any other first-class hotel in the city. May 20-ly.

MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT.

The Latest Vendors of an Enticing Establishment.

Messrs. Ryttenberg Bros., ever enterprising and progressive, contemplate establishing a mail order department at an early day. They have in great part been persuaded into this by the frequent letters they have received from a distance, asking for samples and prices, the writers saying they had seen firm's advertisement in THE SENTINEL. Mr. Abe Ryttenberg dropped into our office one day last week to show us a couple of letters he had just received, one from Barclayville, in Harriet county, and the other from Troutman's, in Iredell county asking for prices of certain lines of goods. Both of the writers are subscribers to THE SENTINEL. An Aid to Bone Scraping. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and at a special price of $2.50 per box by V. O. Thompson. DIED.

In this city, May 9th, Mrs. Wade Bynum, of consumption, aged 33 years. In Winston on last Sunday, the 15th inst., Mr. Joseph Nading, aged 24 years.

IN MEMORIAM.

Intelligence having reached us of the death, at his home in Salem, of LOUIS MORRIS PATTERSON, at a meeting of the Faculty of the Goldsboro Grad School, it was Resolved:

1. That though life and death are at the disposal of the Great God, "who woundeth and whose hands make whole," and though there is naught we can do, save to mourn; yet we desire to publish to the world our impressions of one who labored with us, and who, scarcely touching the limits of life, has fallen on sleep.

2. That we desire that all know as we know: that this kindly gentleman bore as patient, tranquil, lofty and virtuous a spirit as any that ever wore earth about them.

3. That this was a man whose heart was pure whose mind was virile, whose conscience was his strong strength, whose purposes and influences were for good, and through whose modest life there ran, like a thread of gold, the beauty of holiness and the holiness of beauty.

4. That we believe his death comes to his possession and to his State, and that to those nearest him by ties of blood we offer that sympathy which proceeds from a common affliction.

5. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and to the Messenger, the Goldsboro Daily August and Winston Sentinel for publication. E. A. ALDERMAN, M. M. CARROW, M. O. HUMPHREY, A. G. CHAYTON, JENNIE ROYALL, Goldsboro, May 14, '86. Com. of Faculty
