Tobacco, peanuts, and cotton are the paying products of this section.

Miss DeWilde Hilliard, of Nash county, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. J. A. Higgs, representing Hurst, Purnell & Co., was in town this week.

Messrs. Walter Staton and—Bridgers, of Tarboro, spent Sunday in town.

Isn't that well in front of E. B. Higgs & Co's a horrid looking thing?

We were glad to see Mr. G. W. Livermon, of Roxabel, in town Monday.

Hominy, Grits, Oat-meal, and Buckwheat at A. C. Peterson's & Co's.

Poets are on the increase. Two poetic advertisements in these columns now.

Miss Ella Sherrod, who has been quite sick, is again well, we learn with pleasure.

Mr. Farrington, of Massachusetts, is spending some time in this place for recreation in hunting.

Mrs. M. D. Alsbrook is very low we regret to learn. She was taken suddenly ill Tuesday morning.

A lot of visiting gentlemen with the best of guns and best and prettiest birds are making the fields and woods around here sound like Xmas times.

Mr. Elias Peysers, formerly of this place, now of Petersburg, Va., was in town last week and the first days of this week. We were glad to see him here.

Talking about large garden products—Mr. W. J. Shields dug a potato from his patch that weighed 10 lbs; all who saw it pronounced it the largest they ever saw.

Judge Beck with the 6th Judicial District, called at week at his home in Clinton a week ago in his neck. He was a good lawyer and was highly esteemed and respected by his many friends.

If you would pass an evening of rare pleasure and thereby contribute to a worthy institution, don't fail to attend the orphan entertainment at Edmondson Hall, this place, Monday night. Let everybody go who can.

Prof. E. E. Hilliard left Tuesday morning for Wake Forest where he was yesterday joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary, the accomplished daughter of Dr. Montague. The best wishes of the DEMOCRAT for a long and happy life attend the happy couple.

We hope to give a report of the ceremony.

Just before going to press we learn that Mr. Joe Henry Bell, living about four miles from Scotland Neck, had the misfortune to lose his gin house together with a small lot of cotton by fire Tuesday night. It is supposed to have caught from the engine. This gentleman had a similar misfortune two years ago.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT F. STERN'S.—Last night in the absence of the proprietor two men stole into his store and owing to hard times and scarcity of money marked the entire stock down 20 per cent less than sold heretofore. After a thorough examination they proved to be two clerks in the employ of F. Stern, and owing to above facts all goods will be sold hereafter at above deduction.

The Scotland Neck Literary Society met Tuesday night. There was a good attendance but nearly all of those who were on for debate were absent. The question "Should immigration be limited?" was discussed by Messrs. W. H. Kitchen and T. M. Huffman and decided in the negative.

The next meeting will not be public, but the doors are open to receive new members.

A committee was appointed to arrange for having an entertainment for Xmas. More of that later, however.

Died. At the home of her son-in-law, Mr. L. L. Kitchen on Tuesday night at eleven o'clock Mrs. D. S. Smith departed this life. She had attained the age of 63 years and had for many years been a member of the Baptist church. She leaves many relatives in this place, in Petersburg and elsewhere, who with friends mourn her loss. Her body is carried this morning to Petersburg to be interred.

In Memoriam. Died at his son's residence, in Opelika, Sept. 18, 85, Mr. Absolom Benton, born in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, March 25, 1805.

Mr. Benton lived a long life devoted to the culture of the highest qualities of our nature. I knew him when he lived below Fort Mitchell. In him I recognized the kind neighbor, the upright man, the indulgent father, the valuable citizen, and a man who amid all the vicissitudes of life stood unwavering by integrity and christian principles. He has left to his descendants the richest heritage of all—a character upon which there is no blemish. His church received his remains at Troy, Ala., in a manner that betokened the estimate in which he was held as a christian. He was gentle in spirit, but firm in purpose.

J. J. ABERCROMBIE.

The Weldon Fair. "Well, what do you think of the Fair?" We cannot give the names of those who received premiums. We do not propose to go in to details, or to particularize the various displays, but we merely give a general summary of our thoughts on the Fair as a whole.

Floral Hall contained by far the best displays at the Fair, both for quality, and quantity. Its beauty was hard to beat. We will only say that in our opinion the display, in this department, of Mrs. H. H. White deserves special mention on account of its size, elegance, and taste. Needle-work by Mrs. J. N. Smith was not surpassed by any. Her exhibit added no little to the excellence of this department.

Miss Lawrence, of Edgecombe, also had an extraordinary display of fancy work in this department. There were many others who deserve special credit but it is not our intention to speak of individual exhibits but of the Fair as a fair. This department was very good and in it you might see besides numerous pretty g-ils, drawings, paintings, stuffed birds, shell work, needle work of all kinds such as crazy quilts, baby sacques, shawls, etc., etc.

In the Agricultural Hall were pianos and organs (with a railing around them however), corn, all kinds of grass seeds, ternpkins and pumpkins of course, (biggest turnips we ever saw) beets and pumpkins, and gourds and pumpkins. Also, jellies, wines, brandies, butter, cotton, wheat, potatoes, etc. This department was also good. In the building were jewelry and hardware exhibits, which were good. There was not a steam engine on the Fair grounds. Mr. B. O. Savage's pea and rice gatherer was the best thing in the machinery corner, though there were many plows, buggies, cartbodies, corn-shellers, complanters, garden plows, rakes and so forth.

Heddom was very poorly represented and the bovine stock was not so good as the swine. Sheep and goats were there but we couldn't stand the goats. The poultry was very good but a very small exhibit. Of course there are one or two exceptions, but the cattle ad less than nothing to the Fair.

The re was one fine pig there. The racing was very good and exciting and added much to the pleasure of all visitors.

There was a large crowd there Thursday and a good part of it was from Scotland Neck.

The general opinion is that the Fair was good, especially when we consider the success of other fairs this year. Another general opinion is that there was the prettiest set of ladies that ever attended a fair.

The Goldsboro band furnished the music. The Davis Cadets were a big part of the Fair. There were balloons, and "squadunks" in excessive numbers, and many wheels-of-fortune, ring-pitching, places, shooting galleries, eating places, and dice throwing places, and also a photograph gallery, and flying jennies. And outside there was cluck-up and the walnut-hull trick, and merchants. Police officers kept a look out for the gambling and the gamblers kept a look-out for police.

As it was, the Weldon Fair was far from a failure. The Rocky Mt. Fair was going on at the same time and no doubt each of these fairs was injured by the other. Everybody had a big time all the same. We believe there are too many fairs in this section. There are four fairs within a radius of 30 miles of this place—Woodland, Weldon, Tarboro and Rocky Mt.

Boys, carry dogs when you hunt' possums.

Mr. C. M. Muesow has perhaps the prettiest horse in the county.

Mr. Rodman left town yesterday morning, but he will be back soon.

For the week ending Nov. 14, 1885: Highest Thermometer 71; Lowest thermometer 32. Amount of Rain fall .70 inches.

Messrs. Bullock, of Wilmington, and McGuire, of Oxford, and Drs. Ives of Conn. and Pugh, of Baltimore, are in town with guns and dogs. We hope these gentlemen will all have a big time and find plenty of deer, turkeys and partridges.

Mr. Oppenheimer, of Tarboro, came to town Sunday on account of the sickness of his grandson, Dave Hoff man, who has for some time been on the point of death but who, we are glad to say, is much improved now. Mrs. Oppenheimer has been for several weeks at the bedside of her sick grandson.

Castello Bros' big show will be in town next Monday, the 23rd, and will exhibit both in the afternoon and at night—twenty five cents is the price of admission. Wonderful wire walking, clowns, and midair performance. This show has had great success this season and no doubt it will be worth seeing. It is highly commended, and will be largely attended here next Monday.

The Best Quilt. Of all the quilts at the Weldon Fair, (And there were many patterns there) There was not one to compare with that made by Mrs. J. N. Smith. For beauty, design, and needle work rare. And exquisite taste, none could compare.

And I have been truthfully told That the lady is sixty five years old.

GREENWOOD.

(For the Democrat)

"THE MOTHER WHO HATH A CHILD AT SEA."

There's a cheek that is growing sadly white; As the tokens of storm come on with the night. There's a form that is fixed at the lattice pane, To mark how the gloom gathers over the main.

While the angry billows dash the shore, With loftier sweep and wilder roar. That cheek, that form, Oh! whose can it be, But a mother who hath a child at sea.

The rushing whistle chills her blood, As the north wind hurries to surge the flood. An icy shiver spreads over her heart, As the first red lines of lightning start. The ocean boils, all mute she stands, With parted lips and light clasp'd hands. Oh! marvel not at her fear, for she is one who hath a child at sea.

She presses her brow, she sinks and kneels, While the storm howls on; and the thunder peals. She breathes not a word for her passion— Is too fervent and deep for the lips to bear.

It is poured in the deep convulsive sigh, In the straining glance of an upturned eye. And a holier off'ring cannot be, Than a mother's prayer for her child at sea.

Don Arturo.

Notice. My friends who owe me will please take notice that I am compelled to have what is due me this winter. All that do not pay me by the first day of Jan., 1885, will find their claims in the hands of a lawyer. I am compelled to make this announcement and shall carry it out without fail.

1858 SAVAGE'S SHOP. 1885

The Oldest Establishment in Town. ALWAYS RELIABLE.

Still stands where for a quarter of a century, or more, Work of every kind has been done. Pro Bono Publico. When Still for a fair and reasonable price. You can have any thing you want done in a Trice. We do not propose to compete with a Botch. Our aim is to reach up to a higher notch.

And for fair charges, good work we give. As our Motto has always been to "live and let live" Vehicles of all kinds known to the trade, On hand, Ordered, or to Special Order made, Nice painting, is a specialty in our line. Will paint you a wagon, a buggy, or a sign, Horse shoeing, correctly done and with dispatch, By G. W. Bracy, who for such work, has no match. Other workmen may come and others may go, Other shops may rise, and others may fall, But Savage's Shop, still holds the fort, And for first class work beats them all.

Just give us a trial and see for your self. That we lay all others on the shelf. That which other workmen may fail to do We promise surely to put it through. And "in view of the fact" that in this town No regular undertaking Establishment" is found We will still continue to make as heretofore, Nice Coffins, as we have done, for 30 years or more, We keep no Metallic cases, (verbum sap) you know. But just go to the establishment of N. B. Josey, and Co. Where you can get them, both costly and fine, Or anything else in the undertaking line. It is a new feature recently added to their store And all as you will find, "Pro Bono Publico." And in case, with a case you want a Headstone Just apply to the "power behind the throne" To friend Biggs I refer, you will find him very kind, And he will supply, your wants in the Headstone line. I've said my say, and now I'll take my go I mean no offense to either friend or foe. I merely wish that my friends, and others may know That all I have said, I can prove to be so.
