Thanksgiving, 1910.

Thanksgiving Day! And 'round the board That all the joys of life afford; With loved ones at our side; With memories of a pious year, And hearts that brim with love and cheer— Let come whatever betide! For all the loving Lord has shared, For loved ones one more cycle spared, We humbly kneel with bowed heads bared, And homage pay To God alway This glorious Thanksgiving Day!

SET APART FOR GRATITUDE.

Thanksgiving the Day of all Days to Remember Our Blessings. On Thanksgiving day most of us, will deliberate intention and perhaps no little effort, close the door by which grumbles enter and open wide the other door that lets in praise. For one gratitude has the right of way and we are just a little bit ashamed to be found in the dull company of complaint.

His Smartness Hereditary.

From the postoffice steps Freeman Davis watched Professor Lane cross the road and enter the wheelwright's shop on the opposite side. "Goes in an' out free as you or me," Mr. Davis remarked to Jabez Sewall, "an' nobody knows how many letters he's entitled to write after his name."

CHILDREN

In disorders and diseases of children drugs seldom do good and often do harm. Careful feeding and bathing are the babies' remedies.

Scott's Emulsion is the food-medicine that not only nourishes them most, but also regulates their digestion. It is a wonderful tonic for children of all ages. They rapidly gain weight and health on small doses.

WITH OUR OWN HEARTS.

Annual Season of Praise and Prayer Belongs to Each of Us. The president and the governors of states appoint Thanksgiving day; but each person makes it for himself. It cannot be made in haste. The choicest things of the year must be gathered together in thought and put into it.

DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

Governor W. W. Kitchin issued the following Thanksgiving Proclamation Saturday: "During the past year peace and order have prevailed in our State and we have had bountiful harvests and great material progress, for all of which we should be duly thankful. A state no more than an individual, should live by bread alone, and we should likewise be thankful for the spread of knowledge and the quickening of the public conscience which has been vouchsafed to us."

A TRANSCENDENT MILITARY GENIUS.

The Immortal Stonewall Deserves a Niche in Nation's Capitol. The statue of Stonewall Jackson placed in the State House grounds at Charleston by the women of West Virginia is the work of the famous sculptor, Sir Moses Ezekiel. With Sir Moses its modeling was a labor of love, as he himself was a cadet at the Virginia Military Institute when Jackson was an instructor there, and the sculptor fought in the Confederate army and shared the intense admiration that the brilliant exploits of "Stonewall" aroused in the men who followed him.

Pistol Toting.

The worst respectable criminal that a person can think of is the pistol-toter. His crime is wholly indefensible and without provocation. Why a fellow should have any desire to weight down the rear end of his pants with the popular "32-calibre Smith and Wesson" pistol, while living in a civilized country among enlightened people, is hard to understand.

"What's the good of having friends if you can't ask favors of them?" "That's right. But I've noticed that the man who has the most friends is the one who asks the fewest favors."—Cleveland Leader.

"How do you get along with your husband?" was asked of a Kansas woman. "Easy," she replied. "I feed him well and forgive him."—Kansas City Journal.
