Give to the Orphanage of Your Choice

Whereas, our kind Father above has blessed us with peace and plenty, and in recognition of this, the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina have set apart Thursday, November 25th, 1915, as a National Thanksgiving Day; I, Zadok Paris, President of the North Carolina Orphans' Association, do respectfully ask every citizen of North Carolina, irrespective of color, politics or religion, to set apart one day's earnings to be sent on Thanksgiving Day, to the Orphanage of his choice, or some needy orphan in his community.

Z. PARIS, President. Lincolnton, N. C.

Cotton Ginned

According to a report by the bureau of census, United States department of Commerce, Halifax county ginned prior to November 1, 1915, 11,678 bales of the 1915 crop. In 1914, to the same period, there were ginned 12,588 bales. The state has ginned a total of 408,298 bales as against 427,949 in 1914.

The Contest

The Commonwealth's Contest is going on with less than a dozen contestants at work. Somebody is going to win these useful premiums for a little work. Why not let it be you. There can be no fairer contest conducted by any newspaper. The proposition is very simple indeed. To the person who returns us the largest number of subscriptions before December 31 will receive first premium, and so on. It is not too late for you to get in the race. Send us your name and address on a postal card and we will send you a receipt book with full instructions. Then work like the dickens to get all the names you can. Don't let the opportunity slip by. You can if you will.

"Exploits of Elaine"

The Palace Theatre is now running three serial pictures a week instead of one. On Monday and Wednesday nights two episodes each of the popular Pathe Masterpiece, "Exploits of Elaine" are shown, while on Friday nights as usual the "Diamond from the Sky" draws the crowd. Everyone knows that the "Diamond from the Sky" is one of the best pictures ever shown here. The management of the Palace wishes to inform the public that the "Exploits of Elaine" is also good. A fair-sized crowd was out Monday night to see the first two acts, and again on Wednesday. The theatre is warm and cozy these cold nights. Admission the same 10 cents.

Marriage in Littleton.

Littleton, Nov. 15.—A surprise marriage of interest to many friends, occurred at high noon Sunday the 13th, when Miss Lucy Ed Daniel, of Airlie, became the bride of Junius Egerton, of Louisville. They were married at the home of the bride's uncle, W. D. Daniel, of Littleton, another uncle W. T. Nicholson, of Airlie, officiating. Little Winifred Clarke, niece of the bride's was ring bearer. Only the immediate family and near relatives were present. The bride was attired in a handsome going away gown of brown cloth. They left on No. 11 for Petersburg, where they will be at home after the 24th of month.

Politics And Health

The higher ethical standards and the broad humanitarianism which have developed among large masses of the people in these recent years imperatively demand that the health and service activities of the government shall be absolutely divorced from politics.—Hon. Chas. S. Whitman, Governor of New York, in his address at the meeting of the American Public Health Association, September 8, 1915, Rochester, N. Y.

A Logical Lunatic.

"Lunatics frequently return a amusing answers," says the superintendent of a great insane asylum. "One day a keeper was out walking with a number of harmless inmates, and the party met a pedestrian not far from the railway tracks. With a nod toward the tracks the traveler asked the lunatics:

"Where does this railroad go to?" "The lunatic surveyed him scornfully for a moment and then replied.

"Nowhere. We keep it here to run trains on."—The Youth's Companion.

Mr. E. M. Lowe returned to the Sarah Leigh Hospital, Norfolk, Va., last Tuesday.
