Landing-Edwards

Mr. Carey Lanoung, formerly of Whitakers, but now of Roseneath township, and Miss Nellie Edwards, daughter of Mr. J. T. Edwards, drove to Tarboro Wednesday evening and were married, and announced the fact on their return much to the surprise of all their friends. They will live with the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edwards for a while. Mr. Landing is the son of the late Charles Landing, of Whitakers, but who enlisted in the army some years ago and was sent down to Panama. Some time later he bought himself out of the army and obtained an exemption which has still eighteen months to run. He then became a farmer in this section, settling at Roseneath, and has made good, so that his prospects are bright. The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. T. Edwards, who is quite well known here, and is a young lady very popular in her community.

MERCHANTS WIFE GREW DESPONDENT

"Tanlac Has Made A Well Woman Of Me". She Says-Gained Twelve Pounds.

"After I had spend hundreds of dollars for treatments and medicine, and had gone down the hill for three years until I had hardly enough strength to stand alone, I began taking Tanlac and have gained twelve pounds and feel like a new woman", is the statement made sometime ago by Mrs. Leona Perkins, wife of a leading grocery merchant living at 2700 Bowmar Avenue, Vicksburg Mississippi.

"Indigestion, rheumatism and other troubles had preyed on my system until I was stripped of about all my vitality and strength. My stomach was so weak I couldn't digest anything, the rheumatic pains were so severe that it seemed like torture, I was terribly despondent over my condition and was so nervous I couldn't sleep.

"Tanlac has made a well woman of me. I began to feel better right from the start. I have taken three bottles, am twelve pounds heavier, can eat anything I want, the rheumatism is entirely gone, I sleep like a log and get up feeling fine. I can do my housework when I want to and even help some in the store."

Tanlac is sold by E. T. Whitehead Co.

Word has come to hand that Mr. J. R. Allsbrook, whose life was at one time despaired of, is getting better quickly, and his doctor thinks he will be able to get out within the next ten days.

Capt. and Mrs. Vinson, of Suffolk, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Josey for a few days. Mrs. Vinson has not been well since her coming here but is reported better today.

Word has just reached Scotland Neck that Lieutenant Marvin W. Hardy has just reached France with the American Expeditionary forces. People from Scotland Neck will remember Mr. Hardy as the son of Ex-Editor of the Commonwealth, J. C. Hardy.
