

TOWN & COUNTY NEWS.

DALLAS, SATURDAY, OCT. 1, 1870.

Too Late.—Our Hillsboro correspondence is too late for this issue.

Corn Meal.—Mr. J. C. Bell has just received a nice lot of fresh ground corn meal.

More Drugs.—Mr. E. F. Nichols has gone below after a new stock of drugs and medicines.

County Court.—The October term of the County Court meets on Monday next.

New Store.—Messrs. L. W. Laughary and Frank Collins will shortly open a grocery store in the building next door south of Messrs. Crawford & Newman's tin shop.

New Ad.—Owing to many hindering causes we are not able to present to our readers the new ad. of Messrs. N. & J. D. Lee, but assure our readers this firm can exhibit a fine stock of new goods.

Short Paper.—On account of sickness, we are compelled to give our readers a short paper this week. We hope that with the aid of a new printer (our former news) next week to present our usual amount of reading matter.

Hotel.—The Dallas hotel is being refitted and improved in many particulars preparatory to being occupied. Mr. L. A. Robb will lease it again, and we think that in the future we will not have it thrown up to us, when abroad, that our town has no hotel.

Improving.—The physicians tell us that there is a marked improvement in the general health of the community within the past two weeks. A good rain, lasting a week, would be as advantageous to the sick as two or three drug stores. Rain is what we need.

English Fox Hounds.—Mr. Thos. G. Richmond, of this place, has succeeded in getting two pups of the celebrated English fox hound breed of dogs. Mr. R.'s pets are thoroughbred, and there are no finer blooded animals in the state except the family to which these belong.

Loss.—Mr. Wells, son of Hon. Giles Wells of Jackson county, met with quite a loss here this week. He had rid his horse from McMinnville, intending to drive him back with his new buggy the next day, but before that time came the horse died of bots, compelling Mr. W. to sell his buggy at a sacrifice and ride home in the stage.

Good East.—Dr. J. R. Jessup, so long and favorably known in this neighborhood, both as a gentleman and a successful practitioner, left Oregon a few days since, with his family, for New York city, where he will attend medical lectures this winter. Dr. J. has the commendable ambition to be at the head of his profession or not to be a professional man.

For Favours.—We take this opportunity to acknowledge our indebtedness to the citizens of this place and to thank them for the many acts of kindness they have extended to us in our late affliction. In no place that we have yet resided, has such universal good will and sympathy been exhibited. Again we thank our neighbors for their kind services.

Will Take Pictures.—Our townsman, W. H. Catterlin, has built a picture gallery here this summer and raised it on wheels. His intention is to take it to the State Fair, where he will make pictures of all who may patronize him. In this connection we will mention the fine group pictures on ambrotype plates that are on exhibition at his gallery. They are the finest we have seen.

Visiting.—Capt. Sutton, formerly of this place but latterly of Jackson county, is visiting his children in this neighborhood. The old gentleman is enjoying excellent health. His son, J. M. Sutton, late of Jacksonville, is also here. Jim looks natural, as do his oil paintings of Table Rock and the Falls of Rogo River that a few of his friends have been permitted to see.

Bold Marauder.—One day this week, a wolf made his appearance among Mr. How's sheep, grazing a mile from town and within one hundred yards of the road. Notwithstanding the wolf was driven away, it went back to the flock, killed a mutton and was leisurely taking his dinner when Mr. How with his gun arrived. He got a shot, but missed owing to nervousness induced by his long and rapid walk.

Lamb Calf.—Mr. D. B. Crawford, living near McMinnville, is the owner of a calf that is a monster and for size surpasses any bovine of which we have any account. At the age of nine months the calf weighed 1,000 pounds, and measured six feet about the girth, and six feet seven inches about the back from head to tail. The young animal is of the Durham stock. Mr. C. intends to have him on the grounds of the State Agricultural Society during the fair.

Circus.—The people of Dallas were entertained on Wednesday night last by Dan Costello's Circus. The company has the best stand of trained horses we have seen on this coast, also a large number of first class tumblers and acrobats. The equestrianism was excellent, as was also Prof. Crocker's performance with the African lions. But the main object of attraction for the little folks was Jule Kent with his little "horse" January. As a whole we pronounce the performance the best of the kind we have ever witnessed in Oregon. The company will perform at the State Fair this month, and those who enjoy circus going can be relieved, for a short time, of the usual monotony of the place as well as a dollar of their spare cash by calling in at circus.

Alarming symptoms of suffrage fever. Little Girl.—"There dolly, you must lie still and sleep all day, because I've dot to do and vote."

Supreme Court Proceedings.

MONDAY, Sept. 17th.

Smith & Davis, appellants, vs Ellen-dale Woolen Mills, respondents, appeal from Marion county. Motion to dismiss appeal argued and submitted, and the case argued on the merits and submitted.

Anderson respondent, vs Bolter, appellant; appeal from Polk county, argued and submitted.

Longworth, et al., respondent, vs Adams, appellants; appeal from Marion county. Motion to dismiss the appeal argued and submitted.

TUESDAY, Sept. 20th.

The motion to dismiss the appeal in the case of Longworth vs. Adams, et al was overruled, and the case was argued on the merits and submitted.

Court adjourned to Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 21st.

Judge Upton announced the decision of the Court in the case of Fulton, appellant, vs Administrator of the estate of Huntington, respondent.

When the complaint alleges that the defendant contracted to pay; and the proof is, that the contract was by the defendant and other, the evidence is fatal. Judgment affirmed. Bonham and Lawson for appellant; Williams and Willis for respondent.

Thayer, J., announced the decision of the Court in the case of McDonald, appellant, vs Evans, respondent; appeal from Douglas.

When the plaintiff recovers in part and obtains costs, the defendant cannot be entitled to costs; judgment reversed. Watson for appellant, W. R. Willis and Kelsay for respondent.

The Wasco county contested cases were taken up, and the argument continued, pending which the Court adjourned to Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

MONDAY, Sept 27th, 1870.

O'Riley and wife, vs Wilson, action for injury received by Mrs. O'Riley from the breaking down of the seats at defendant's circus; negligence in constructing the seats. Answer sets up accord and satisfaction. The reply undertakes to deny the payment of $75 and the surgeons' bill, but does not, it is claimed, deny such accord and satisfaction in the proper manner. The verdict of the jury it is held, cures all defects, except of jurisdiction and sufficiency of the complaint. Our statute does not require the peculiar technical pleading that has formerly obtained. We think the reply was sufficient denial, and judgment should not have been denied. Cause reversed and remanded. Hulcat for appellant, McCowen for respondent.

Briney, vs Starr; notice of appeal was filed July 2d, 1870, but it had no endorsement of service thereon. On the 3d day Sept, 61 days after such filing, Starr's attorney made and filed affidavit of service and attached it to that notice; held that such act could in no event be done without direction of the court below. In this case no such leave had been obtained, nor was any proof of service it the court below at the expiration of 60 days, within which an appeal must be taken. The statute requires that when the notice of appeal is filed, it must have the proof of service indorsed thereon. Appeal dismissed. Logan and Thayer for appellant, Wilson and Moreland for respondents.

Watts vs Hoyt, service of notice of appeal. When a party resides in the county where action is pending service of notice must be made upon his attorney, if there be one in that county. In this case, the action was tried in Columbia county, respondent lived in that county, and notice of appeal was served upon his attorney in Multnomah county. Held to be improper and cause dismissed. See Lindly Wallis, decided at the 1868 term of the Supreme Court.

In the comments upon an editorial appearing in the Mercury, in our last issue, the word used as applicable to the editor of the Mercury was not intended, and was not discovered by us until it was too late to correct. We have no occasion for its use, and no desire to use it.

China now has fully thirty thousand guns.

Russia possesses at present 509,323 needle guns.

STATE ITEMS

Almost every day, says the Roseburg Esign, strange faces may be met on our streets. They are mostly persons from Eastern States, wealthy, and on the lookout for farms and business localities. They all seem to be highly pleased with the appearance of our fertile country.

From the Roseburg Esign: Col. R. S. Williamson, U. S. Engineer, and Wm. Heur, of the U. S. army, have just visited Roseburg, and after a careful examination of the Umpqua river from the lower rapids to this place, have decided that it can, and with no enormous expense, be made navigable.

From the Eugene Guard: Wilson, with his imported Cotswold sheep is attending the California Fairs. At the Sacramento Fair he took as premiums $70 in coin and silver cup worth $30. He also sold twenty head, at prices ranging from $150 to $350, and could have sold more at the latter figure by allowing the parties desiring to purchase the choice of the flock, which he would not allow, desiring to bring his finest sheep to this State. He will be at the State Fair.

The Statesman demands a steam fire Engine for Salem.

Milkmen deliver milk at Salem for 30 cents per gallon.

Those burned out by the recent fire at Salem are preparing to rebuild at once.

The Washington County Agricultural Fair will be held on the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th October.

The Linn County Fair was held last week, and was very successful. The receipts at the gates for the first three days amounted to $1,215.

From the Albany Democrat: Mr. Martin Luder, agent of the Willamette Military Road Co., left yesterday, with working party of ten men, for Camp Harney, to complete the extension of the road from that point to the eastern boundary of the State—a distance of 80 miles. Camp Harney is 200 miles east of Albany.

Telegraphic Summary.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Telegrams from Tours state that the excitement of governing classes overwhelming when they received intelligence of the revolutionary uprising of Reds of Paris, and the seizure of the Hotel de Ville and government stores and arsenals. It appears that detachment of the regular army, comprising fugitives from McMahon's army, made up for most part of Zouaves and Tareos, joined the mob in the streets of Paris and commenced revolutionary depredation. Trochu and Vinoy, with a large force from outside of the fortifications, entered the city for purpose of quelling the disturbance, and these troops immediately came in contact with the revolutionists and severe fighting the streets ensued. Results unknown. The environs of Paris are now in ruins from the gates of Feuille to Les Terriers.

The government has resolved to defend the Loire, and troops have been dispatched to Orleans and Blois.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 24.—Toul has capitulated, and was not carried by storm as at first reported.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Bismarck says the question of peace has been reduced to that of the possession of Metz and Strasbourg. He will treat to no other terms.

Fighting all day Friday near Paris, is reported from Tours, but accounts are so contradictory that the London press refuse to publish them.

AMIENS, Sept. 26.—The Prefect of this Department has issued an address, stating that there is but one duty of Frenchmen, "war to the knife."

The Prussians are hastening the reconstruction of the fortress at Laon.

All hope of settlement between Prussia and France has been abandoned. The refusal of Bismarck's proposal by France will place that country in a worse condition than ever.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 26.—Travelers who escaped from Paris, state that guns are firing day and night.

It is reported that the police at Calais were instructed yesterday to allow no Frenchmen to embark on outward-bound vessels, whether having passports or not.

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—Favre did not see the King. There is nothing new from Paris.

The headquarters of the Crown Prince of Saxony, with the 4th army corps, are at Grand Tremblant, ten miles north of Paris.

from Paris, dated Sept 23: The division of Gen. Mordhay, yesterday attacked the heights at Ville Janf, south of Paris, which were occupied by the Prussians. Battle begun at 3 o'clock a. m.; after sustaining a sharp Prussian fire some time, our troops captured the redoubts of Mauling. We occupy them now. The Garde Mobile behaved well. The enemy's loss is great.

The same day a considerable force of French made a reconnoiter, and drove the enemy from the village of Droucy.

The same day Gen. Balmere, commander of St. Dennis, attacked the village of Pierrefeth, one mile north of St. Dennis, which the Prussians had occupied in considerable force. The enemy was driven out of the village, and French troops returned to St. Dennis unmolested.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—A breach broad enough to warrant an assault, has been made at Strasbourg.

Tours, Sept. 27.—The following dispatch from the prefect of the department of Loire, dated Orleans to-day, has just been received by the minister of war: The generals here, seeing they cannot resist the overwhelming forces of the enemy, commanded by Prince Albert, have just evacuated Orleans, in good order.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Brazine, repudiating the republic, demands orders of the Emperor or Empress to surrender. It is now said that Brazine has not offered to surrender Metz on any terms whatever.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A special telegram from Berlin of the 27th says: A report is current in this city in well informed circles that the Emperor has revoked the decree which he issued on the surrender of Sedan creating a regency in his place as Emperor. He has there fore sent an envoy to Metz to consult Marshal Bazaine in regard to the terms of peace. This confirms the statement made by Bazaine that he should only treat with the Emperor in reference to peace negotiation.

A special telegram from Marseilles of the 26th says: Garibaldians to the number 500 have risen in favor of the Republic and marched to the seat of Government at Tours.

Many Suffer rather than take nauseous medicine. All such, who suffer from coughs, colds, irritation of the bronchial tubes, and tendency to consumption, have in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease.

Let not Prejudice usurp your Reason.

It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called patent medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS? Physicians prescribe it; why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have used and do use it in their families; why should you reject it? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason to the everlasting injury of your health. If you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

When the bodily energies are worn out by anxiety and need a stimulant, this is the best that can be taken. It is tempered and modified by hygienic herbs and roots, which prevent it from fevering the blood; and hence it does not produce a mere temporary excitement, but communicates a permanent potency to the entire vital organization. Some of its herbal constituents are slightly astringent, so that in cases where sleeplessness is one of the accompaniments of nervous disease, a dose of it taken, toward bedtime will tend to produce quiet and refreshing slumber. For Palpitation of heart, tremors, hysterics, fainting fits, general restlessness and the countless fears and distressing and fanciful to which ladies are especially subjected under certain morbid conditions of mind and body peculiar to their sex, the Bitters will be found the most agreeable and certain of all counter-irritants.

The constitutionally nervous may readily keep their infirmity in constant check by the daily use of this healthful vegetable tonic; and those who have "shattered their nerves" as the phrase is, either by imprudent indulgence or undue physical or intellectual labor, will find in this vitalizing elixir a prompt restorative. 28-4w
