ARRIVAL AT BOSTON OF THE TINY BOAT "CITY OF BAGUSA"—A THREE MONTHS VOYAGE—HISTORY AND IN-CIDENTS.

[From the Boston Herald.]

Ninety days ago, a tiny boat, less than twenty feet in length, and carrying two men and a dog, left Liverpool, England, with the avowed purpose of crossing the Atlantic to New York.
The bold and hazardous project was the subject of much amusement at the time, and about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the tiny craft was signalled approaching our harbor. At 6 o'clock the collector's tug started down the harbor, and met the venturesome marines at about 8 o'clock, opposite the tower light, and towed them to this city. The boat which has thus accomplished a voyage so hazardous and so altogether novel, is named the City of Bagusa, is twenty feet in length over all, six feet beam, and two feet eight inches in depth, drawing two feet of water. She is yawl-rigged, and spreads seventy yards of canvas; is fitted with a twobladed steam propeller, worked by hand, and her hull is of wood, the boards being only one-half inch in thickness. In this miniature ship are all the arrangements for cooking, &c., and the capacity for carrying provisions and water sufficient for the voyage which has just been so successfully terminated.

THE CREW

consisted of two men, John Charles Berkeley, the commander, and Nicholas Primeraz. These are the two men who, actuated, as the former said, by a "mere whim," were induced to make this attempt, which few could regard as anything but foolhardiness, after seeing the craft in which they launched their destinies, and hung their lives by a mere thread. The former has followed the sea from boyhood, and has led an eventful life. He saved two lives off the Coast of Kent on the 28th of September, 1858, for which he was awarded a medal by the British Humane Society. He is an Irishman, and has a home in Dublin. His companion is an Austrian. On Thursday, the 2d of June, these daring spirits launched their frail bark, and accompanied only by a dog, left Liverpool. In ten days they put into Queenstown, where they were obliged to remain four days, in order to have some caulking done on their boat, which was leaking, and left there on the 16th, having on board one ton of ballast, and 500 weight of coal.
They took the northerly route, the same as taken by the Cambria, the prevailing winds being westerly, and for the first thirty-five days they suffered a great deal, being kept wet through continually. They were also

UNABLE TO COOK

on the first part of the voyage, and were compelled to eat their meat raw, which added to their discomfort, and helped to discourage them. After being eighteen days out, they became short of fire wood, and no means of getting a supply. At this time they luckily picked up a barrel containing about four gallons of tar, which was a perfect God send, they using the tar upon the decks, and the barrel for fuel. On the 4th of July, they celebrated the day of the "Great Republic," drinking the health of President Grant in some prime Irish whiskey, with which they were supplied. On the evening of that day there was a heavy gale, through which, however, they rode safely. On the 28th of August, they lost one of their crew, the dog, who died from scurvy. They had a great deal of very heavy weather, but the little bark bore herself nobly, and the men themselves expressed surprise that she rode the heavy gales so staunchly. She was LEAKING ALL THE WAY.

and the pumps, of which they have two, were kept at work constantly. In the severe gale of last Saturday, they experienced the hardest time of the voyage, but suffered no disaster, save the carrying away of the jigger boom.
The largest number of miles made in one day was one hundred and fifty-three, which was made in the first part of the voyage, and the smallest eleven miles. The average speed was four knots an hour. A number of vessels were spoken on the voyage, among which were the bark Radcliffe, on the 28th of June, bound to Quebec; the ship Maxwell, August 9, and the homeward bound steamer Russia on the 24th of August. From the first of these two they took in supplies of provisions and water! Two whales were very neighborly off Cape Clear, coming near enough to be touched with the hand, and giving the voyagers some alarm lest they should upset their frail ship. One of "Mother Carey's chickens" attended them from the time they left Queenstown till they passed George's Bank.
The men say that they had the most perfect confidence in the success of their enterprise, and in the roughest gale could go to sleep with the greatest composure. Only the lateness of the season prevents them from returning home as they came. Their original intention was to go direct to New York, but they concluded to put into this port, and will go from here to the former place, and will remain this side of the Atlantic till another summer. They were towed to Long Wharf by the tug; and there can be seen this smallest of all crafts that ever traversed the broad Atlantic.

TO STOP USING TOBACCO.—Dr. Dio

Lewis says: "I know I do not echo the voice of the world when I say that the use of tobacco paralyzes and dead-ens the moral sensibilities almost more than any other habit in which civilized men indulge. Gentlemen, I advise you to clean yourselves and quit. I would give it up. It is a nasty, disgusting, ruinous habit. But somebody says, 'can't give it up; I want to, and have tried, but I can't do it.' Can't you?
Then I would not. But if you really are so enslaved that you cannot get out of your chains, I will help you a little.
Stop to-night; don't use any to-morrow. The first day will not be so very hard. You can get on pretty well the first day, as everybody knows who has been through the mill, as I have been.
The second day is pretty bad. In the afternoon of the second day your memory is a little doubtful; you can't exactly say whether it was two brothers or three brothers that came over; you can't exactly say whether your grandfather came from the East or the West when he settled here. But be patient the second day. The third morning comes the tug. Now go and take an old fashioned alcohol sweat until your skin is nearly parboiled. Then you will be quite as comfortable for one day as you could wish. There is no dryness of the mouth, no disturbance of the secretions. You are perfectly comfortable for one day. The next day you are in trouble again, but not so bad as the day before. Take another sweat, take even a third or fourth one. Sweating does not hurt people; sometimes it is good for them. Take three or four thorough sweats, and then you will go off under easy sail, and will have no further trouble from your enemy."— The same may be said with respect to alcohol.

HOW TO BREAK OFF BAD HABITS.

—Understand the reason, and all the reasons, why the habit is injurious.
Study the subject till there is no lingering doubt in your mind. Avoid the places, the persons and the thoughts that lead to the temptation. Frequent the places, associate with the persons, indulge the thoughts that lead away from temptation. Keep busy; idleness is the strength of bad habits. Do not give up the struggle when you have broken your resolution once, twice, ten times, a thousand times. That only shows how much need there is for you to strive. When you have broken your resolution, just think the matter over, and endeavor to understand why it was you failed, so that you may be upon your guard against a recurrence of the same circumstances. Do not think it a little or easy thing that you have undertaken. It is folly to expect to break off a habit in a day, which may have been gathering strength in you for many years.

EARTHQUAKE AT THE EAST.

The shock severe in Canada, the New England States and New York.

SCHENECTADY (N. Y.) October 20.

—This city was visited with a severe shock of earthquake at a quarter past 11 this morning. All the inhabitants rushed terror-stricken into the streets.
The excitement is intense. Much confusion prevails, and it is impossible to ascertain whether any serious damage had been done.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20.—A very visible shock of earthquake was felt here about 11 o'clock, lasting fifteen or twenty seconds. The National Bank building, Atwater Block, and other large buildings swayed to and fro, causing persons who occupied the upper stories to flock into the streets. The greatest consternation prevailed.
The shock was also plainly felt in Meadville, Pennsylvania.

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—At a quarter past 11 o'clock this morning, a heavy shock of earthquake was felt here. The buildings rocked to and fro, and everybody rushed to the streets in alarm.
The shock was felt throughout Canada.

BRUNSWICK (Maine), Oct. 20, 2 p. m.—A severe earthquake shock has just passed, throwing down a portion of one of the chimneys of Adams Hall.
The general direction was north easterly and south westerly. The duration was from thirty to forty seconds.

ERIE (Pa.), Oct. 20.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in this city a few minutes after 11 o'clock this morning. It was so perceptible at the Ward School No. 4, that the windows in the building rattled, and in some instances the books and slates were shook out of the children's hands. The scholars all left their seats and fled to the streets. It was so felt on the bay and in some other parts of the city.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Information indicates that the shock of the earthquake was greater in some parts of the city than was supposed by the first report. In one large factory, the operatives at first thought the foundation was giving way, and caught hold of objects to steady themselves, as the building swayed to and fro. At one of the largest iron foundries, the men first thought their tools were coming towards them, but soon discovered that it was the building in motion; there was alarm, but business was not long suspended.

CONNEAUTVILLE, Pa., Oct. 20.—At 11 o'clock this morning we felt two distinct shocks, like that of an earthquake, from two to five minutes in duration.
Many persons ran into the streets in fear of buildings falling, and some were quite sick from the effects. No damage was done to buildings.

TRITSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 20.—The shock of an earthquake was very perceptibly felt here this morning. People ran into the streets in great alarm. It lasted but a few seconds.

DETROIT, Oct. 20.—The earthquake was very forcibly felt in this city at about 11 o'clock this morning. Reports from various parts of the State would indicate that the waves were very generally felt.

L. P. Fisher, of San Francisco, has published a pamphlet called the Advertiser's Guide, containing a description of all those towns and cities on the Pacific Coast in which newspapers are published. It is an interesting and valuable work, and costs but 50 cents. All should have it. We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Fisher posted up in our office. We are under obligations for a copy of the work.

Thanksgiving Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The following proclamation was issued by the President to day:

Whereas, It behooves a people sensible of their dependence on the Almighty, publicly and collectively to acknowledge their gratitude for His favor and mercies, and humbly beseech for their continuance; WHEREAS, The people of the U. S. during the year about to end have special cause to be thankful for the general prosperity, abundance, and exemption from pestilence, foreign war and civil strife, now, therefore, be it known that I, U. S. Grant, President of the United States, concurring in many similar recommendations of the Chief Magistrates of States, do hereby recommend to all citizens to meet in their respective places of worship on Thursday, the 24th day of November next, there to give thanks for the bounty of God during the year about to close, and to supplicate for a continuance thereafter.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the U.
S. to be affixed, in the city of Washington, in the year of our Lord 1870, and of the independence of the United States the 85th. U. S. GRANT.

By the President.

HAMILTON FISH, Sec'y of State.

The Messenger thinks one of the most absurd performances of the times is the manner in which people at public meetings seek religion. It says:

Excited seekers are agonizing and shouting and praying for faith without any well defined notion of the fact or facts to be believed, the evidence upon which they rest. The spiritual guide at such meetings is generally boisterous and sometimes impatient, if not irreverent, in reminding the Lord that He has made certain promises and requiring and almost commanding Him to come down now, and fulfill them.

Will the Messenger be kind enough to inform us, as to the correct and sure way to seek pardon, and how we can bring about regeneration, and a new birth in a respectable manner, the end of which shall be Heaven.

A SENSIBLE PRAYER.—A "nice young man," who had changed his mind for another, asked his affianced, on the evening of their appointed marriage, if she would release him from the engagement. She replied, in presence of the party assembled: "Yes, emphatically yes, and I am so thankful, let us pray." When all had kneeled down, the fair young girl in bridal robes prayed in a firm voice. She asked for strength to bear her humiliations, and continued: "Have mercy on this new wife. While I thank thee, Oh God, for my deliverance from such a pitiable creature, I would ask thy blessing upon his poor wife. Give her grace to bear the affliction of such a husband. Keep him from drink, and may he become a better man. Watch over me, our Father, and preserve me from ever approaching so nearly to utter ruin. Give me strength to return to my home and preserve my sex from such men."—

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.

—We have received the November number of Ballou's Magazine, and have read it with interest, as we always do every month that Ballou is issued.
It has the best variety of contents of any magazine in the country. Its romances are always well written, its science stories such as only true hearted sailors can write, and all the reading is original and of the best quality. There are 100 pages, 16 of them with illustrated subjects, and all for the small sum of 15 cents, or $1.50 per year. Great improvements are promised for the coming year. All periodical depots sell Bal-lou's. THOMAS & TALBOT, 63 Congress street, Boston, are the publisers.

KILLED.—A man by the name of Hadley, was shot and killed, at Eugene City, on Wednesday night, by the city watchman. It was the result of an old grudge between them.
