

There is no Death.

There is no death! The stars go down To shine upon some fairer shore; And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown They shine for evermore.

ENIGMA No. 7.—I am composed of 16 letters.

My 12, 4, 15, 2, 10, 8, is something we lose. My 6, 11, 10, 15, is a crawling thing.

Answer to No. 6.—DALLAS LITERARY SOCIETY.

How the Scarlet Fever is Spread.

The enormous mortality from scarlet fever which appears in the Registrar-General's mortality bills, is now a constant and increasing quantity. It is assuming proportions which are alarming; not the less so, because they are largely increased by individual carelessness.

Death's sewing machine—The needle gun.

Facts and Fancies.

Minor items—the births. Warfare—army rations. Any lapse but a collapse.

A water spout—A temperance oration.

A long headed man is never headlong.

The man who couldn't find his match, went to bed in the dark.

Henry Dart a negro brother of somebody, thought he was a pile driver, and dropped from a four-story window in Boston, head first to the sidewalk.

A curlish fellow refused to one of our shoes blacking urchins his full fee, whereupon the latter exclaimed, "Go along, old buffer; all the polish you've got is upon your shoes, and I gave you that."

"This milk is rather warm for such a cold morning," said a customer. "Yes, father put hot water in it, instead of cold, to keep it from freezing," was the simple but truthful reply.

When a steady well-behaved young man is seen shaking hands with a pump and bidding it an affectionate good night, or saying "Poor Old Cobson Robscrow," there may be faint apprehensions that he has been "taking something."

Servants receive the highest prices in the world in St. Petersburg. Girls that can cook get $40 a month, and all in that proportion.

"Will the galvanic rings cure depression," asked a lady. "What has caused the complaint, ma'am?" asked the doctor. "The loss of my husband," mournfully replied the lady. "Then you had better get a wedding ring," answered the doctor.

A gentleman sat down to write a deed and began with "Know all women by these presents." "You are wrong," said a by-stander. "It ought to be, 'know all men.'" "Very well," answered the other, "if all women know it, all men will, of course."

A colored member of the Virginia Legislature was recently called to account for expressing himself ungrammatically in debate. He subsequently explained that if he did not express himself grammatically, it was the fault of those who kept him in slavery.

A Connecticut fisherman one day baited his hook with a live frog. After patiently waiting for some time for a bite as he chatted with a friend, he found that his lively bait had swum ashore, and sitting quietly on a rock by his side. He wound up his line and went home.

Two ministerial candidates for a vacant pulpit, Adam and Low, having to preach on the same Sunday, Low, who preached in the morning, took for his text "Adam where art thou?" In the evening, Adam gave his return shot, by selecting for his text, "Low here am I."

A drawing master, worrying his pupil with contemptuous remarks upon his lack of ability, ended by asking, "Now sir, if you were going to draw me, what part of me would you commence with first? The boy, with a meaning look into his master's face, answered very quietly, "your neck, sir."

A notorious gambler, who had ruined his constitution by high living and hard drink, said to his physician, the other day, "Doctor, I suffered the pains of the damned." "You may think so now, but you will find the difference."

The following is reported in the proceedings of a late meeting of the Boston Radical Club: There was a momentary hush, and then a voice which said "The world needs silence!" and another in response, "Why, then, did you break it?" After this, no one seemed of so rash a courage as to speak.

A lady was bored to death the other evening by an immovable caller, who talked poetry, delighting especially in Tennyson. He finally inquired of her what passage in Tennyson she liked best. She replied it was a verse—she could not recollect the exact language, but it ran somewhat as follows, and was very expressive of her feelings:

"And she said, I am very weary, He goeth not, she said, I'm a-weary, a-weary, I wish I were in bed."

A Perplexed Frenchman. A Frenchman said to an American, "There is no word in your language I do not comprehend, and all ze time I hear it. Tattletoo, tattletoo—vat you means by tattletoo?" The American insisted that no such word exists in English. While he was saying so his servant came to put on coal on the fire, when he said, "There, John, that'll do." The Frenchman jumped up, exclaiming, "Tare, tattletoo, you say yourself, sare; vat means tattletoo?"

Dr. Perrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or making water, Intense Headaches, are Weakness, Loss of Memory, nervous Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Irritability, Nervousness, and that Sight and Hearing are weakened, and sleep disturbed by dreams; melancholy, sighing, palpitation, faintings, coughs and slow fevers; while some have external rheumatic pain, and in some cases, the most distressing and common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to DR. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six or eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal disease in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo, Ulcers, Contagious Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system. DR.
