LOCAL NEWS.

Usual services at the Christian church next Sunday. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

H. F. Fischer came over from Silverton Wednesday to remain a few days. He is looking exceedingly well.

The ladies of the Christian church are planning for a "Rose Carnival" June 7th. Watch for the announcements later.

D. D. Berman returned a few days ago from a couple of weeks in California. He speaks well of the sister state, but has not yet determined whether he will make his future home there.

There is another call for warrants, there being money on hand in the treasurer's office to pay all orders up to and including those of February 9, 1899. See statement elsewhere in this paper.

Elmer Clark went to Salem last Monday to consult an oculist about an affliction of his eyes. Among his associates of the bank it is presumed that he can still see his girl—she resides in Salem.

B. L. Eddy, executor of the estate of Mrs. Sarah C. Applewhite, has filed his third semi-annual account with the clerk. The report shows receipts of $5,841; disbursements, $3,499; cash on hand, $2,342.

On the 28th birthday of John Byron Lillard his remains were interred at North Palestine, near Wells. He died of consumption, and at the home of his brother, Charles Lillard, of this city.

Ben Wolddt departed Monday for a few months' visit to the Fatherland. He will also visit the Paris exposition during his absence. Herman Breyer will officiate as "Mine Host" at the Maple Shade during the absence of Mr. Wolddt.

There is much anxiety in the minds of men who have orchards regarding the future of the crops and fears are entertained that the apples will be a failure in some localities. This is certainly too bad should the fears be well founded.

The death of George W. Buckingham, occurred last Sunday at Dusty. He was a well known pioneer of this county, and leaves a son and two daughters. The remains were interred at Belfountain, Tuesday, and the services were conducted by Rev. Waltz.

Mrs. Lucia H. Addison, formerly a resident of this city, at present national organizer and lecturer for the W. C. T. U., will leave Portland tomorrow for Polk county. It is her intention to thoroughly canvass Polk and two weeks will be consumed in the work. She will then go to Linn for a week's work; although she will likely pass through Benton it is generally conceded that we are a temperate people and that nothing will go democratic this year, so it is thought that she will not canvass among us. Mrs. Addison has many friends in this city.

Dr. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine ever known to science; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a fact which no other medicine can stand. If you have a Cough, we earnestly ask you to try it. In United States and Canada, 50c, and $1.00, and in England 1s. 3d., 2s. 3d. and 4s. 6d.

C. B. Wells recently received letters from his sons who are now residing in Alberta, N. W. T., Canada, to the effect that they are well enough satisfied with that section to locate permanently.

The committee on bicycle path construction report the path completed from this city to within a couple of miles of Albany, also work done on the Mountain View road and considerable progress on the paths in the vicinity of Philomath.

A notice of appeal to the supreme court of the State of Oregon was filed at the clerk's office last Tuesday by Dr. G. R. Farra, from the judgment and decree of the circuit court wherein M. Viola Crawford was granted the sum of $134.00 and costs and disbursements.

Geo. M. Cornwall, publisher of the valuable new journal, The Columbia River and Oregon Timberman, was in Corvallis this week in the interest of his paper. Mr. Montague, formerly identified with this paper, is now employed on the staff of the Timberman.

A gentleman who has just returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon states that while there, in Harney county he found that there was a scarcity of teachers for the public schools. A number of schools were not open on this account, and he recommends teachers of this section seeking a situation to investigate the fields of Harney and vicinity. The wages offered are very good.

Miss Emma Crawford, who has conducted a ladies' furnishing goods establishment here for the past three years, has prepared a petition of voluntary bankruptcy which is to be filed with the United States district court in Portland. She recently became involved and the store was closed Monday. Her stock inventoried about $900, and the liabilities, so far as known, are in the neighborhood of $1,200.

Peter Bengen, an old gentleman who resides south of Philomath, was in Corvallis Wednesday. He relates a peculiar experience which his wife had with two of her chickens. Last winter one of the fowls became quite sick and this thrifty German frau did not propose to let it die without an investigation as to the cause of its illness. Acting under this impulse, she placed the sick chicken upon the operating table, and with a sharp knife made an incision in the breast and removed the craw. In this organ was found about four inches of hemp rope. This was taken out, the craw and outer skin were sewed up and the chicken is well and hearty today. A few weeks ago another chicken fell ill. The same investigation disclosed the same ailment—four inches of rope—the same remedy was applied and the same result followed.

The pulpit of the Evangelical church will be occupied by the eloquent divine, Bishop Dubbs, next Sabbath morning at 10:30. C. C. Poling, the presiding elder, will preach in the evening at 7:30.

Our attention has been called to an error in last week's GAZETTE. Mr. J. W. Ingle, of Philomath, and not Mr. John Whitaker was elected delegate to the national convention by the state fusion party. Mr. Whitaker is presidential elector.

The marriage of D. M. Holbrook and Miss Dessa Wilson occurred near Vernonia, Oregon, April 21, 1900. Mr. Holbrook it will be remembered was for some time in the employ of S. L. Kline, and has quite a number of friends here who will wish him much wedded joy and prosperity through life.

The Benton County Flouring Mills Co., have let the contract of improving and increasing the capacity of their mill to Morgan, Norydke & Co. The capacity of the mill will be increased from 110 to 175 barrels of flour per day. The mill will shut down about June 1st and will not be ready for operations until some time in July.

The last legislature authorized Gov. Geer to appoint six individuals to represent Oregon at the Paris exposition, but as the state does not pay the smallest item of the expense it is not thought probable that any of those appointed will attend. It seems like presuming on great individual interest to expect a man appointed to represent his state in anything, to do it entirely at his own expense.

The members of the Catholic church gave a delightful party to the confirmation class at the residence of Mrs. Greffox Monday evening. Among other features of the evening there were stereotyped views exhibited by Father Jurek. The series of views were from the Life of Christ as interpreted and portrayed by the famous painters of all ages. Refreshments concluded the festivities of the evening.

It is very strange how the petty affairs of life go so contrary to human desires. The latest and best to relate is what befell our former fellow citizen, A. W. Rose. He was recently in town from his ranch near Chitwood, and drove back home, consuming two days. It rained one day and not only soaked A. W., but a setting hen he was taking over to the ranch on a guarantee that she would sit. She now refuses to do so.

Elsewhere in these columns will be found a notice to bicycle riders. The notice sets forth the action of the county court in the matter and what steps the sheriff will take to collect the tax. In case any persons refuse to pay the tax there is sure to be a test case made of the matter, as the sheriff's actions are defined for him by the court. However, the sooner the tax is paid the better so far as path construction is concerned, as it takes money to build paths.

The Corvallis sawmill has just completed an order for 10,000 feet of fencing lumber for C. B. King. Mr. King is having a mile of movable fence constructed and Al Kemp is doing the work. The plan of building a fence that can be used to enclose any portion of the farm that is desired, and moving to another point when the pasture becomes poor, is becoming quite popular and Mr. King is right in the van when improvements are being considered. The sawmill has also shipped a carload of 3-inch lumber to the Summit to be used by the supervisor of that district in building culverts and bridges.

EXPERT JOHNSON.

He Discovered a Pure White Sunflower—Entirely New to Botanists.

Mr. A. J. Johnson, forestry expert, visited Corvallis and the Agricultural college last week on his return to Portland from Southern Oregon. Mr. Johnson collects for nearly all the botanical gardens all over the world, and has orders for any kind of plant which is rare and beautiful and worthy of cultivation. He has not made any new discoveries of late, but for the past month has been traveling to all sorts of out-of-the-way places, collecting the roots of rare and curious plants, which he located and marked last summer, but which could not be removed at that time. In this collecting tour he has experienced many hardships and difficulties in finding the plants he was after, as they were mostly in altitudes of from 4,000 to 6,000 feet, and most of them were still buried under the snow.

He first went to the Wallowa country, where last summer he discovered a pure white sunflower—entirely new to botanists—rare, beautiful and valuable commercially on that account. When he reached the place where he had discovered the plant, after traveling five miles over frozen snow two feet in depth, he found the spot he had marked and after shoveling away the snow he found the roots, and as the ground was not frozen, had but little trouble in securing some fifty of the roots. As soon as these were planted in his nursery they started to grow and made as much growth in three or four days as other plants have in as many weeks.

About May 1, Mr. Johnson will leave for the mountains of Eastern Oregon, to collect data for completing his report of the forests of Oregon, for the Geological Survey. This report will be a voluminous and comprehensive affair, containing a description of every forested township in Oregon, with many illustrations.

Death of Mrs. Denlinger.

Word was received in this city Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Harry Denlinger, who went to New Mexico recently for her health. Mrs. Denlinger was the daughter of Henry Hill, of Independence. Her family resides at that place and her funeral will be held there today. She was well known in Corvallis, where she was engaged for some time as teacher in the public schools. Shortly after securing this position, she married Harry Denlinger, but continued her work in the school until their departure from this city. As a teacher she was universally loved by the pupils of all grades, and a beautiful floral piece prepared by them, has been sent to Independence to be placed upon her grave. Miss Garland Hill, a sister of the deceased, who is attending the agricultural college, has gone home to be present at the funeral.

Evidence of considerable building in the western part of the county is found in a report from the Mountain Home Lumber Co. Their plant is on the Alsea road seven miles west of Philomath, and was formerly the Hoffman-Moore mill. The company recently put in a Fay-Egan planer and are turning out first-class lumber and lots of it. They have in stock dry lumber of all dimensions; red, white and yellow fir in abundance, and also some cedar, oak and maple.

Our Instructors.

Supt. Danman has completed arrangements whereby the eleventh local teachers institute bids fair to be a success in every way. It is to be attended by numerous Linn county teachers as well as Benton's educators. The exercises will occur on May 4th and 5th, in the Grange hall at Fairmount, just across from Albany. The assistance of Prof. J. W. Martindale and County Superintendent A. S. McDonald of Linn, has been secured, as well as other valuable assistance that will be forthcoming of interest and profit to all who attend, the parent as well as the teacher. On Saturday evening a fine musical and literary program will be given. A good attendance should result from the meritorious endeavor to give a session of unusual benefit to those who will attend.

STEAMER ALBANY.

The Corvallis & Eastern Railway's Boat Goes to the Three-Mile Rapid.

The fast river steamer, the Albany, formerly on the run between this city and Portland, has been secured by Paul Mohr's Steamboat Co. for service on the Columbia. She will be used as a construction boat between The Dalles and the terminus of the Portage road at the Big Eddy. It is thought that she will be utilized to transport ties from various points on the river to Capt. Johnstone, who, with a competent crew, took her to the middle river Wednesday. One of the purposes that the Albany will be used for is to determine how great is the danger of navigation on the Three-Mile Rapid. This is a very wild place and at no point along its banks could a man be buried, and there is not a thing along its shores to which a line can be made fast. The river pours through a narrow gorge of shelving rock; there is a rapid current and nearly always a heavy sea. It takes a strong boat to stem the current and it is thought that the Albany will meet all requirements, as she is light draught and has been proved to be the swiftest boat on the Upper Willamette.

Additional Local.

The Coffee Club library now numbers 135 choice volumes.

The musicale and domino party given by the ladies of the Coffee Club last Saturday evening, was most enjoyable, and liberally attended.

Brady Burnett received a telegram from Congressman Tongue, Wednesday, advising him of his appointment as clerk in the census bureau at Washington. Brady has accepted and is now awaiting instructions when to proceed to Washington. His salary will be in the neighborhood of $1000 per year.

Up to Wednesday evening the total number of registrations in this county was 1401. Of the country precincts Fairmount is the best registered. Corvallis precinct No. 1 is still about 40 short of the poll of two years ago. Should these voters fail to register and undertake to vote their votes in, it would require the entire election day in this precinct for these 40 men to vote.

At the meeting of the O. A. C. executive board Wednesday to choose a successor to G. W. Shaw, present professor of chemistry, and who has accepted a situation in Colorado; the choice of the board fell on Prof. A. L. Kniesly, second chemist at Cornell University, N. Y.; his duties to begin July 1st. Prof. Kniesly is a man about 35 years of age, has a wife and one child, and comes very highly recommended in his profession. Those of the board present were, J. T. Apperson, W. M. Hilleary and J. D. Daly, with President Gatch.

For Police Judge.

There being some difference of opinion as to whether city officers elected last May were elected for a one or two year term, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of police judge at the election to be held on the 21st of May, 1900, in order to settle any doubt in the matter. I am willing at all times to abide by a decision of the voters of this city.

Respectfully yours,
E. P. GIEFFOX.

Corvallis, Or., April 17th, 1900.
W. A. BUCHANAN,
Treasurer of Benton County, Oregon.

Horses' Clothes.

Never before in its history has Corvallis had a harness shop so thoroughly equipped with furnishings for horses as is my establishment. I not only have the largest stock ever shown in this vicinity, but the best. In double and single harness, saddles, robes, whips, etc., you can't do better in the state. We carry an excellent line of leather and shoe findings, and are prepared to do mending and repairing on short notice. You can't visit our establishment without wanting to buy something. Call and see.

J. M. CAMERON.

Eggs and Poultry.

Farmers, I am in the market to buy all your eggs and chickens. Bring what you have to sell, whether it is one dozen or a hundred dozen of either, and I will pay the highest market price in cash.

JOHN LENOWE,
Corner of 4th and B streets,
Corvallis, Oregon.

Wanted.

Old cast iron of any kind. Farmers, we will pay you from one-fourth to one-half more for your iron than any junk dealer. We are ready to do repair work of any kind, at any time. Patronize us. Bring your old iron and get your money.

THE FOUNDRY, Corvallis, Or.

THERE'S PROFIT IN TRADING HERE.

Every item offered below is proof of the above assertion.

The quotations are only a very meagre representation of the values which place this store unquestionably in the lead. This store is crowded with the most complete and comprehensive stock of dry goods we have ever shown. Every line was bought at close prices, and the goods will be passed along to our customers at the usual small margin of profit which has made this store so successful and popular.

The New Spring Parasols Are Here.

This store offers many attractions to economical buyers.

A store that relies solely on low prices to win and hold trade is playing "a losing game." To win such success as this store is winning it is necessary that the low prices should represent goods of strictly reliable quality. Every woman in this city who is posted on dry goods, and who takes the time to compare goods and prices will admit that our values are superior. We make and hold customers by treating them right. We lead; others follow.

F. L. Miller.

LADIES who wish to avoid the bother of home work, or the details of dressmaking, will be interested in our new line of dress skirts. All the fashionable fabrics of the season are included in the line, and the skirts have the fit and "hang" of the best dressmaker's. Take a look at them and you will agree with us.

Prices from 45c to $6.50.

GROCERY selling in a department store no longer attracts attention because of its novelty, but for the reason that the best of food products costs less there than the exclusive grocer charges. This store is easily in the lead in this respect. Our grocery department is appreciated by well posted buyers because it offers an opportunity to supply the family needs in this line at closest prices. Country produce taken.

WHENEVER you find a properly organized and rightly conducted men's furnishing store in a dry goods store there you will find a successful one. Men no longer shun dry goods store furnishings, for they know they can get correct styles at close prices. We invite the attention of our customers to an especially fine and complete line of neckwear just opened.

SHOE value consists in wear, style and comfort. If any of the three are lacking the footwear is not good value. Our shoes are strictly reliable in quality, therefore long wearing; they are stylish, as can be seen at a glance; they are comfortable, because fitted by an expert. All our customers will bear out these statements. We believe this is the best place for you to buy shoes, and solicit your patronage.

IF you want a stylish spring hat for $3.00, just as good as the $5.00 kind, come here. The only difference is in the absence of the name, and "what's in a name." If you are willing to pay two dollars for a name, buy the five dollar hat. If you want to pay only for the hat, come here. Agent for Kingburry hats.

OUR glove stock is the best patronized and most popular in this vicinity, because we make a constant effort to show a larger line, and offer better glove values than any other local dealer. It is not easy to do a satisfactory kid glove business. It requires long experience, careful buying, conscientious selling and a willingness to be content with a small profit. We recognize all these requirements and conform to them. That's why Corvallis women can get better gloves here for the price than elsewhere.

RECENTLY advances have taken place in all lines of cotton goods. Before the advance we stocked up with cords of domestic—shirtings, sheetings, gingham, prints, and other cotton goods. We are now selling these goods at just about what other merchants have to pay for them at present prices. You will find this store a good place to supply your needs in this line.

F. L. Miller.
