In Memoriam.

The funeral sermon of Mrs. Jennie F. Hamilton, wife of Rev. E. C. Hamilton, Baptist missionary at Roseburg...

Deceased being a stranger to Rev. Mr. Sharp, he referred to her in the touching and beautiful language of the bereaved husband...

My wife was born in Chicago, Ill., and took her college course in Elmira, N. Y. She united with the First Baptist Church of Chicago...

From a child, till the past few months she was actively engaged in Christian work, in the church and Sunday school...

Her parents still live in San Diego. She is their only child, and who can tell what a crushing blow this sad news will be to them...

Her parents still live in San Diego. She is their only child, and who can tell what a crushing blow this sad news will be to them...

Death came not as a surprise to her. Eleven months since she told me she should not live but a short time...

There was nothing visionary in her idea of heaven. To her it was all real. It was a place to which she spoke of going in the same manner...

Recently we met a stockman who said that the best cure for blackleg in young calves was to chase them as fast as they could run with a dog...

George Connell, familiarly known as "Scotty" and family have moved into the Green Matthews' house on the Matthews' place.

BREVITIES.

Mrs. Geo. Haynes is improving slowly. The Carlad school house burned Wednesday.

The lawyers are busy preparing their cases for court. Georgio Haynes is now conductor on the Roseburg express.

The Masonic building has been refitted and newly painted. HACKWETACK, a lasting and fragrant perfume...

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping cough and Bronchitis. A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle...

Hamilton's new brick will be occupied by Jaskin's jewelry store and Da Motra's barber shop.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, and Canker Mouth.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts. 50 cts. and $1.

A large amount of gravel is being placed upon Lane street. This will afford a solid road leading to the new bridge.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by indigestion, constipation, dizziness, loss of appetite, yellow skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure.

At a meeting of the board of trustees J. B. Whitman was appointed night-watcher.

R. L. Carritt paid us a visit this week. He seems to feel confident of securing the White Rock post office in the event of Cleveland's election.

The dedication ball given by the Roseburg string band at Sloan's opera house was a very pleasant affair. It was quite largely attended.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE."

Notwithstanding the result of the recent elections Hyram Draudinger is happy. It was a girl, born the 10th inst., and weighed eight pounds.

Calvin Wright and Web McKinney start for Lake county next week, where they go in search of stock range. We hope the boys will realize all their expectations.

G. H. Potter announces a grand stereoscope entertainment at Sloan's new hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 18th. Admission, 25 cents, children under 14 years, 10 cents.

Charles H. Ely has placed in his barber shop a new chair of the latest pattern, and secured the services of Frank Wright, whose reputation as a tonorial artist is second to none.

Among the improvements in this city we must not omit to mention the construction of a model chicken-house by El. Sheridan. He drew the plan and superintended the mechanical work himself.

Mag's Lev, representing the house of Emcken & S. r over of San Francisco, was in town this week. He is the same Marquis, advocating the claims of his firm and at the same time urging that California ought, early, should and would cast its electoral vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

Sheep-shearing in this county is now over. The clip this season will not be so large as usual owing to the fact that I lost all our leading wool growers are coming to the conclusion that it does not pay to shear in the fall.

On Sunday, Oct. 12, 1884, M. Kinzie Tilton departed this life at the residence of Harry Roberts, this city. He was afflicted for a number of years with cancer and hope of his recovery had long since been given up.

Three months ago he came to this city from California and made his home with Mr. Roberts, whose wife is a native of deceased. Mr. Tilton was a native of New York state and about seventy years of age. The remains were interred in Odd Fellows' cemetery on Monday.

Last Saturday Hon. B. Herman, Congressman elect, delivered one of his characteristic speeches at the Cleveland school house in Cole's valley. On his return to Roseburg he appeared much elated, and stated that in the midst of his meeting a party arose and said he had always been a Democrat, and had always voted the Democratic ticket, but now he was convinced and would vote for Blaine and Logan.

Mr. Cleveland, who has been with us for some time, has taken his departure. Mr. Hendricks, however, may be found at the San Francisco Beer Hall, where he may be interviewed at any hour by the hungry (or thirsty) politician.

Our granger friend, George Genger, is constructing a fine residence on his place at Pine Grove. It will be, when completed, one of the neatest country buildings in the county. The work is being done by our fellow townsman, John Johnson.

Mrs. L. H. Zigler was the recipient of a check for $250 from Alex. Martin, of Oakland, Cal., a short time since. Mr. M. was a partner of the late L. H. Zigler in the blacksmithing business at Jacksonville, in pioneer days.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Wheat hauling continues. Wheat in town, call and see us. Circuit Court convenes Monday.

Hon. W. D. Fenton speaks Monday evening. A Law School has been organized at Portland.

Times will improve when Cleveland is elected. The East Portland Vindicator has been sued for libel.

The Presidential election approaches. Vote for Cleveland. Marks & Co. are having the cornice on their building replaced.

A few cords of wood on subscription would be acceptable at this office. Twenty-seven students were admitted to the bar at Salem last week.

The big guns of the Republicans have come and gone. They were air guns.

The brick work on the buildings of Sheridan Bros; and Hamilton is now completed.

The genial George Biner, of Myrtle Creek, dropped into our sanctum, one day this week.

The grass is growing finely on the Umpqua hills, which maketh glad the hearts of the stock men.

Hons. L. F. Lane and John Rowley speak at Bogges' school house this evening at early candle light.

The approach of court has induced a number of professional gentlemen to take their departure from Roseburg.

Mrs. Zigler and family returned to Roseburg from Jacksonville last week. They will reside hereafter in this city.

George Langenberg's residence is about completed. The signs of the times indicate that it will shortly be occupied.

Judge Mosher is on the way home from his extended visit east. He will come through Arizona, to visit his son Charles.

The Lane county Fair paid 90 per cent of their premiums, in accordance with their determination to keep out of debt.

Douglas Jones and Wm. Plymale, printers of Jacksonville, are visiting friends and relatives in this city. They return to-day.

Rev. Mr. Borgois, of Wisconsin, delivered a lecture on the "Origin of Man," at the Grange Hall, Sunday, to a large audience.

Hon. W. D. Fenton will speak at the Court House, Monday evening. Everybody should turn out to hear this gifted orator.

The recent rains have furnished considerable water for the Roseburg flouring mill, which have been run night and day for some time.

We fear that malicious mischief has been done in the Masonic cemetery near this city. Several head-stones are broken, while an unusual number are prostrate.

Samuel C. O'Leary, one of the candidates of the Prohibition party for Presidential Elector, is stamping the Willamette. Many Prohibitionists here would like to hear him.

J. L. Fisher, the Democratic war-horse, of Cleveland, gave us a pleasant call this week. He is still suffering from injuries received from being thrown from a horse a month since.

W. J. Andrews, of the San Francisco Examiner, was with us this week, having added three thousand names to the list of the great Democratic newspaper of the coast.

The only original John Diamond has been giving a series of entertainments in this city. We are informed that his overland tour, so far, has not been a financial success. His engagement here has been completed.

Mr. Cleveland, who has been with us for some time, has taken his departure. Mr. Hendricks, however, may be found at the San Francisco Beer Hall, where he may be interviewed at any hour by the hungry (or thirsty) politician.

Our granger friend, George Genger, is constructing a fine residence on his place at Pine Grove. It will be, when completed, one of the neatest country buildings in the county. The work is being done by our fellow townsman, John Johnson.
