In our table showing the number of children in the various districts, we find the following interesting facts: In Charleston district the total number of children for 1901 was given as 30; it should be 34. Stony Creek should be 25 instead of 27, and Willow Springs should be 20 instead of 22. The number of school children for 1901 is 2760 instead of 2860, which gives an increase as compared with last year of 17.

The closing exercises of Jackson school were held last Friday. Miss Bessichighini presided. The exercises opened at 9:30; at 10:30 Miss Payne's and Miss Devan's rooms joined in exercises. In the afternoon Miss Faulk's and Miss Reichling's classes gave an interesting program. Many scholars were promoted. A complete list of the graduates will be found hereafter.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife found the medicine in O'Keefe's Cough Cure that affected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Manawatu, Pa.—Kerr's Pharmacy, Jackson.

A party from Jackson and vicinity, consisting of eighteen persons, enjoyed a picnic at the Agricultural Experiment station last Sunday. D. B. Spagnoli and family were there, it being the first visit to that favorite resort. The young members of the party indulged in dancing and other amusements, and a glad time was spent by all.

Hair brushes, cloths brushes, tooth brushes and brushes of all kinds, sizes and prices can be found at the Pharmacy. Geo. H. Simmons, who had charge of the Keystone Company's store at Amador City, but who left for Colusa county about two years ago, to take a position in J. J. O'Rourke's store in that town, has been appointed manager of the Colusa Sun, by being placed in full charge of the American Bargain House—a well known mercantile house of Colusa.

A large quantity of cement has been shipped from front of the Amador County Bank premises. Many persons are wondering what such a quantity of building material means. We may explain, that the cement was intended for a building in the rear of the bank and will be used in connection with the Amador Ledger. The sale of the Ledger has disarranged the plan, and the cement will be resold for other purposes.

Wm. Tam received word yesterday, from Chichizola, at the Pharmacy, that Anton Bessichighini was accidentally killed. As near as could be learned, he met his death by being crushed by logs. He was singleman, making his home sometime at Volcano and sometime at Jackson. His remains will be brought to Volcano for burial.

Mrs. Buedell has just returned from a visit to San Francisco. She took her daughter Janie, for the purpose of getting the advice of surgical experts regarding her lame foot. She has been crippled from infancy, and of late her foot has manifested a tendency to shrink, accompanied by loss of sensation. The young lady was left in the city under surgical care. The foot will be placed in a plaster of paris cast for a month.

We understand that vague rumors have been circulated in one or two places in the county that smallpox exists in Jackson at the present time. This is not the shadow of foundation for such reports. Neither smallpox nor any other disease of a contagious nature has existed here for nearly a year. Jackson is today as healthy a town as can be found in the state. Any reports to the contrary have their origin in pure credulity.

Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs.—Kerr's Pharmacy, Jackson.

OIL PROJECT ABANDONED.

Will Not Bore In Carbonate District.

The boom in oil, which a few weeks ago promised to bring Amador county within its sphere of operations, has collapsed. A quantity of land in the vicinity of Carbonate was bonded on the strength of oil indications. The excitement extended to Jackson valley and a number of farmers were offered liberal terms for their holdings. But no one was found to muster up sufficient courage or capital to commence actual boring. Every one waiting for the other fellow to go to the expense of proving the ground. So the ground has remained unproved, although it is claimed by those well posted in oil matters, that strong indications exist at several points. The Sacramento News says:

There was a stormy meeting of the shareholders and promoters of the Carbonate Oil Company in the rooms of De Witt's Little Early Buds, last evening. The issue was as to action on the adverse report of the expert employed to pass upon the value of the lands of the company for oil purposes. The expert gave the opinion that the matter and on his advice nearly all the shareholders were inclined to give up the idea of going to the expense of boring for oil. Judge Hinkson championed the cause of those who have faith in the value of the property, and argued strongly in favor of proceeding to bore for oil. Judge Hinkson recited the numerous surface indications of the nearby presence of oil, but after a full and complete discussion, the shareholders and the Carbonate company decided to disband. The promoters include some of the most prominent men in town. They bonded large areas in this and other parts of the county, and pronounced surface indications. The residents of the region had been obliged to abandon wells and springs because of the oil flavor of the water, but the expert refused to consider this testimony in view of that oil in paying quantity exists beneath the soil.

Ratto-Brinarielli.

Wednesday morning at half past five o'clock, at Father Gleason's church, Father Gleason officiating, Miss Theresa Brinarielli and Mr. John B. Ratto, were married. They were attended by Miss Marie Brescia and Mr. Joe Lagamarino, as bridesmaid and best man. The bride wore a beautiful light grey cashmere, trimmed in muslin de source embroidery, and the bridesmaid wore a simple white gown. After the ceremony the guests were entertained by the bride's parents at an elaborate wedding breakfast. There were many costly presents as testimonials of the good wishes of their many friends. The bride and groom left for San Francisco for a short wedding trip.

The Fourth Celebration.

Arrangements for the coming fourth are proceeding satisfactorily. There will be at least half a dozen teams entered in the drilling contest. The list of afternoon amusements is the most attractive ever presented in this county. It includes several unique features, such as obstacle race, water walking, tight rope, etc. The minut dance on the platform will be a novelty. This dance was much in vogue in colonial days. It is of French origin and will be participated in by eight couples, all dressed in colonial costume, the customs prevailing in the days of George Washington. The young ladies of Jackson have taken hold of this attraction with such spirit, that it is bound to be decided and sharp. We also invite all visiting Brothers to be in line with us. No uniform need.

TROUBLE IN CAMP.

Two Men Clashed at Teahard Reservoir.

The camp at the Teahard reservoir, where 200 men are employed in the work of completing the dam under contractor A. L. Stone, was the scene of an exciting scrimmage in the early part of the week. It appears that two men named John Conley and John Herbert, who had been working at the Spring Gulch camp, but who had quit, were paid off, reached the saloon kept by G. D. Calvin about 8 o'clock Sunday evening. Conley was under the influence of drink; his companion was sober. They asked for something to eat and were directed to the cook house of the company. Thither they repaired, and wanted to know if they could not get something to eat, saying they had money to pay for it, and showing a $20 gold piece. The Chinese cook told them it was after supper hour. Thereupon Mr. Hall, the timekeeper, appeared, and wanted to know if they were employed on the works, and learning that they were not, he ordered them out. Soon Superintendent Tofflemier came up, and undertook to settle the matter in his own vigorous way. He got a club—a round stick about three inches in diameter and between two and three feet long, and after a few words, struck Conley over the head, knocking him down, and at the same time breaking the club. He next went after Herbert, striking him a heavy blow over the head with the broken club—still an ugly-looking and dangerous weapon. The blow dazed Herbert, and opened a gash in his forehead from which blood flowed freely. Herbert hasted to get away as fast as his condition would permit, when Tofflemier, as Herbert says, threw the club after him and missed him some distance. Conley had to escape up the ditch. Herbert came to Jackson. He was covered with blood when he reached here about two o'clock Monday morning, and had his strict doctor, Dr. Lindicott. He asked district attorney Vicini for a warrant for his assailant but was refused until the officer had investigated the case. The district attorney went to the reservoir the same day, and after learning the particulars from other sources as far as he could, he decided to issue a warrant. The warrant charges the belligerent superintendent with assault with a deadly weapon, and constable Kay served it upon the accused the same day. The employees were greatly excited over the outrage. The presence of a resolute leader among them would probably have led to serious results. This is not the first instance of a high-handed and needlessly harsh treatment. There is no doubt that with such a large number of men to deal with, composed as they are of all nationalities, strict discipline and adherence to rules must be maintained. The management cannot be blamed for refusing to furnish meals at all hours and for all comers. But this can surely be accomplished without recourse to force.

Tofflemier was taken before Judge Golden, Tuesday evening, and admitted to bail in the sum of $1000. On Thursday the preliminary examination was held. The first judge Davis appeared for the defendant. No testimony was presented on his side. He was held for trial before the Superior Court. He is still out on bail in the above named sum.

Later in the day an information was filed by the District Attorney in the Superior Court, to which the defendant pleaded guilty, and was fined $100, which he thereupon paid, and was discharged.

COMMUNICATION.

As Independence Day approaches and the sign of the fire cracker is abroad in the land; as the preparations for the celebration in Jackson assume definite form, and the bright eyes and expectant faces of our country boys give warning to us older folks that the "day of days, the day of noise, for stalwart independent boys," will soon be here, it makes me think of four things that are gone. Not of the good times witnessed, but of terror and danger to many, caused by thoughtlessness. Two years ago your reporter, in a moment of inspiration, wrote a little article on the "day of days," and the happy father of twin boys, born last Saturday. That's right, Sol, you have helped the school out, and the roads are very dusty now, and unusually rough for this early in the season.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lillie Snell of Nevada City, is visiting Mrs. James Musbett. Capt. W. B. Webber of the Standard Oil Company, was in Jackson this week. E. Richards of San Jose, came up the first of the week to look after some mining interests. Mrs. Eudey and two daughters left Jackson for a vacation to Alameda, to be gone two or three weeks. Rev. S. Dabovich came up from San Francisco last Friday, on matters concerning the Greek church of this place.

Spunking the Roads.

The water pipe for sprinkling purposes has been laid from Martell's station to a point on the lone road, where the Cyclone station once stood—a distance of about three or three and a half miles. It was expected to have the entire road traversed by the sprinkling carts this week. The inclement weather has prevented this at night. Watering places have been established at easy distances along the road. Three four-horse teams are expected to do the entire roadway from Jackson to Amador, and from Martell's station to the Cyclone station. Between Martell's and Lone, and the other from Jackson to Amador. It is intended to make only one trip during the twenty-four hours. The wagons are loaded with water, and will travel upon the road, sufficient, it is thought, to lay the dust throughout the day. The price of each team will be about $150 per month; and the idea is to spend no more than $1000 in the year. At this rate it will cost $1800 a year to say nothing about the price of water or the cost of maintenance of pipe line, ditches and tanks.

Where is Clyde Wrigglesworth?

O. L. McCullough of Aukum, Amador county, has reported to police headquarters that Clyde Wrigglesworth of that place has been missing since the 13th inst. Wrigglesworth is thought to have come to this city. He is described as being 5 feet tall and sandy complexioned. He plays on the violin.—Record Union.

Uncalled-for Letters.

Letters remaining unclaimed in the Jackson Postoffice, for the week ending June 28, 1901:

Grand President Mrs. G. W. Baker.

has appointed the following district deputies in Amador county: District No. 17, Amador county (Chipsa Parlor No. 40, Forrest Parlor No. 15, Alice Bagley, Chipsa Parlor No. 40, Lone, District No. 17B, Amador county (Ursula Parlor No. 1, Amopala Parlor No. 80, Conrad Parlor No. 101)—Ida B. Sutter, Amopala Parlor No. 80, Sutter Creek.

AROUND THE MINES

Transfer of the Plymouth Consolidated.

Sinking in Progress at the Argonaut. Dividends of the Kennedy, Gwin and Central Eureka.

Plymouth Consolidated—The Empire and Pacific mines at Plymouth, owned for many years by the Plymouth Consolidated Mining Company, in which corporation Alvin Hayward and W. S. Hobart were the largest stockholders, have come into the possession of A. Hayward and the Hobart estate. The transfer was made on the 3d inst., on account of the failure of the company to meet the payments due Hayward & Co. It is generally believed that this transfer will lead to the early resumption of work upon this property. The mine produced an average of $60,000 per month for five years. They were worked to a depth of 1700 feet, when the fire caused the shut-down.

The proposition of deep mining, now so popular on account of the developments at other points along the lode, was scouted in those days. But it is very likely that areas of ore as large and rich as any heretofore encountered in the State have been discovered. The famous property, Plymouth has reason to expect another revival of business as the outcome of the change of ownership of the Empire and Pacific mines.

Argonaut—Sinking operations are in progress at this mine. The litigation with the Kennedy is not yet terminated, but the Argonaut executed a bond to indemnify the Kennedy in case the judgment in favor of the former company should be reversed in the court of last resort. This result is regarded as so improbable that the Argonaut concluded to carry the shaft into disputed territory, and gave the bond for that purpose.

Peerless—Crosscutting for the ledge at the 800 level has reached a distance of 30 feet from the shaft. It is expected to cut the ledge at 50 feet. This crosscut is being driven west, as the northeast is believed to lie in that direction. From surface indications, there is quartz to the east, and prospecting in this direction will be in order later.

Kennedy—This company paid a dividend of five cents per share for the current month, amounting to $5000. Total dividend paid to date, $1,801,000.

Gwin—This mine paid a dividend of 15 cents per share in June, 1901, amounting to $15,000. It has paid $85,000 in dividends this year. Total amount of dividends to date, $236,500.

Central Eureka—This company has paid a total of $20,000 in dividends. The last dividend of five cents per share was paid in April last.

PINE GROVE.

The weather is very pleasant now, all that could be desired. The dance in the town hall last Saturday night, was a decided success. Six sets danced. Harmon Bros. and family furnished the music. I noticed that the dancing was overleaved, except Volcano. Now Volcano, I do not think you a bit superior, but you never come to ours.

Ray Hinkle of the Standard Electric Company was seriously hurt last Tuesday. He fell from the trestle of the Bald Rock flume, striking on his head among the rocks. He fell about 26 feet.

Mr. Butler, the Defender merchant, is the happy father of twin boys, born last Saturday. That's right, Sol, you have helped the school out, and the roads are very dusty now, and unusually rough for this early in the season.

Pine Grove is rather deserted since our townsmen left for Nome. The ones who have gone are J. H. Werly, Alex. and Mrs. J. C. West, J. Hamilton and the Chase Bros.

The town is not dead yet by any means. At least it has not seemed so the last few evenings. Be careful boys, and look out for strangers.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lillie Snell of Nevada City, is visiting Mrs. James Musbett. Capt. W. B. Webber of the Standard Oil Company, was in Jackson this week. E. Richards of San Jose, came up the first of the week to look after some mining interests. Mrs. Eudey and two daughters left Jackson for a vacation to Alameda, to be gone two or three weeks. Rev. S. Ice Cream on the 4th.

Mrs. Frank Simich will open an ice cream and soda water parlor in the Perry building on the day of the Fourth of July, and hopes all her friends will give her a call. Ice cream will be furnished at 10 cents per plate.

Advertisements in the LEDGER.

Mr. Black and wife, of Woodland, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. McClutcheon, of the Jackson shoe store for several days, left Tuesday morning for their home in the valley to-day.

Mrs. W. E. Kent, Ed. Kelley and Al Hammack left on a fishing expedition to Mill creek, early this week. Reports are current that they bagged a lot of game, and that too without the assistance of Indians or other experts.

Mr. Chambers left Jackson Saturday morning for Dunsmuir, California. He expects to make his home in that state. Mrs. Chambers will remain with her parents in Jackson for a while, but expects to join her husband in the course of a few weeks.

Dr. A. M. Gall, S. G. Spagnoli, J. C. Barrett, Jas. Dye jr., Wallace Kay, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dye went to Stockton Monday to witness the laying of the foundation for the new post-office in that city by Governor Anderson, grand senior warden of the Masonic Grand Lodge of California.

Mrs. Ella Caminetti and Mrs. Rose Podesta were delegates from Ursula Parlor No. 1, of Jackson, to the national encampment of the N. D. G. W., held at Sacramento the 11th. They report a grand time, and say they were royally treated. Mrs. E. Caminetti was elected trustee for the ensuing year by a very large vote.

N. D. G. W.

Grand President Mrs. G. W. Baker, has appointed the following district deputies in Amador county: District No. 17, Amador county (Chipsa Parlor No. 40, Forrest Parlor No. 15, Alice Bagley, Chipsa Parlor No. 40, Lone, District No. 17B, Amador county (Ursula Parlor No. 1, Amopala Parlor No. 80, Conrad Parlor No. 101)—Ida B. Sutter, Amopala Parlor No. 80, Sutter Creek.

Water Rates.

The city council of Placerville has just established the rates to be paid by consumers for the use of water in that town. A comparison with Jackson shows that in many instances the rates there are materially lower than those charged in this town. For instance, for water for the first class, having more than four occupants with patent closets, $1 per month; without closet 60 cents. Second class with four or less occupants, 75 and 50 cents. Hotels from $15 to $4. Restaurants and eating houses $1.25. Barber shops, with out bathtub, $1, each bathtub 25 cents. Printing offices, without water power, 50 cents; for each water power plant, $1.25; court houses $7.50; steam press under 5 horse power, $2.50; for streets, 120 frontage, $1; not exceeding 60 feet, 50 cents.

These are a few items from the schedule, but they are sufficient to show that there is a vast disparity between the rates there and here. Taken as a whole, perhaps, there would not be much difference, but if the Placerville authorities have adopted a fair and equitable rate, it is a long way from being properly adjusted. A revision of the Jackson rates all round would not be amiss. Some are paying out of all proportion to others. It is within the power of the supervisors to establish rates for all towns in the county.

THE FREE SHOW.

Is Drawing Larger Crowds Every Night. Hal the Healer, and his free show are still in town and the lot in front of Billo's store is crowded every night. The show consists of singing, dancing and other amusements. Hal, who is a well known actor, has a fine voice and is a very clever workman. He has a fine collection of teeth without pain, cures deafness and straightens cross eyes every night in full view of his audience. Three assistants are kept busy handling the crowd who flock to the stage every night to avail themselves of Hal's generosity in giving free treatment, and his patients say they experience absolutely no pain. Hal is making a good thing of himself and his clever work is gaining him new friends daily. A visit to his offices at the Big Tree Hotel proved that he is no less popular in doors than out, the large reception room being filled, and he will remain for some days, giving a free entertainment every night.—Angels Record.

We understand that the above company will visit our town when they complete their engagement at Angels Camp and will remain here some time, giving free out-door entertainments.

Teachers' Examination.

The Board of Education of Amador county has been in session the whole of the week, examining applicants for teachers' certificates. Nine applicants were present Monday to be examined for primary certificates. The examination for grammar grade certificates was commenced Thursday. To-day the board will take up the matter of dividing the high school into two grades. These certificates are issued on credentials from a university or a state normal school, showing that the applicant has passed the pedagogical course required to qualify him for teaching. This session of the county board of education is the last under the old law for the granting and renewing of certificates. Heretofore the examinations have been held semi-annually—in June and December. Hereafter they will be required to meet only once a year. The time of that meeting has not been fixed. It is left for each county board to fix the date for the annual examination.

The following received primary grade certificates: Edna A. Rust, Jackson; Edna A. McWayne, Drytown; Rosie A. Cook, Lone; James A. Smith and Mabel Wilson, West Point.

The Best Prescription For Malaria.

Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. Price, 50c. may 24-6m.

Sweepstakes Deal.

The San Francisco papers have been of late full of varying accounts of the deal recently made on the rich group of gravel mines in Trinity county, commonly known as the Sweepstakes group. The advertisements of the contractor for construction work on the new pipeline appear in all the city papers, and this probably started the inquiries on behalf of these papers. The deal was closed the middle of last month. Just what the terms are, it is impossible to ascertain, as the Sweepstakes is a close corporation, and the buyers and sellers are not discussing their business for publication. Senator John F. Davis is President of the deal, and is believed to be the one who represents the Philadelphians.

For Sale or Rent.

The Louvre Saloon and Restaurant, conducted by A. Lubamer & Co., is offered for sale or rent on easy terms. Mr. Lubamer has indicated a desire to go to Alaska. This is a good opportunity for a live man, as the Louvre is well situated. may 24

Isaac Litigation Ended.

The long litigation between the Bank of Yolo, in Woodland, and the former firm of B. & M. Isaacs, at Ione, was at last ended on Monday by the Bank filing a stipulation for dismissal of its last action, which had been transferred to this county, and a judgment of dismissal was thereupon entered up and filed. Judge John F. Davis has throughout this litigation represented the Receiver, N. H. Baughman, Devlin & Devlin of Sacramento to have represented the Bank. The bank is represented by a Woodland firm of attorneys, and A. Caminetti the guardian.

SUPERIOR COURT.

HON. R. C. RUST, JUDGE.
