New line of ties at the Jackson Shoe Store. Dr. C. A. Horrick returned home Saturday evening from a week's visit to San Francisco. He expects to leave about the 12th instant for Los Angeles on a business concerning the state board of dental examiners, and thereafter expects to proceed to the St. Louis exposition, in company with Mrs. Horrick, to be gone about a month.

Ekel Gets Eighteen Months. J. J. Ekel of Plymouth appeared before the superior court on Saturday morning for sentence, having been convicted of assault with a deadly weapon upon Ed. Keyes on the night of January 1 last. The court sentenced him to 18 months in the state prison at San Quentin. The maximum imprisonment for the crime is two years. While there is much sympathy expressed for the defendant, owing to his crippled physical condition, at the same time public opinion is fairly agreed that the sentence was not unmerited. Some 20 years ago, during the flush times in Plymouth, when the town had a population of 1500 or more, and was the liveliest camp in the county, Ekel was mixed up in the dance house affray that occurred there. A number of citizens made a midnight raid, armed with shotguns, upon the house of ill-fame on the outskirts of town. Ekel as attorney of the keeper of the bagnio was there when the raid occurred, and in the fusillade of bullets that occurred he was shot in several places. For several days his life trembled in the balance, and his left arm has been rendered almost useless ever since. He has made a living by practicing law, and was subsequent to the dance house affair admitted to practice before the superior court. Quiet and peaceable when sober, but when in liquor he is inclined to be quarrelsome. The shooting for which he has been sent to state prison was the outcome of drink, a game of poker, and the readily drawn weapon as the result of a dispute. Ekel was kept in the county jail for several days after receiving sentence, in order to straighten out his business matters. He was taken to San Quentin by deputy Jackson last Wednesday.

Jackson School Election. The election for trustees in the Jackson district today is awakening more interest than any contest of the kind in many years. A full board of three trustees is to be elected. There are two tickets in the field, and only one of the present trustees is a candidate for re-election, W. E. Kent, who was appointed a year ago to fill the vacancy caused by the death of T. Conlon. The two tickets are as follows: W. Tam, three years, W. E. Kent, two years, E. H. Harrington, 1 year. This ticket is on a non-partisan, non-sectarian, and entirely unpledged. The candidates will act as their best judgment may dictate under the circumstances. The other ticket is composed of the following: J. R. Huberty, deputy county clerk, is out for the three year term; Geo. Kirkwood for two years, and Chris Marella for the one year term. Every citizen having the welfare of the school at heart should take a hand in the contest, after fairly weighing the issues involved.

Lost An Eye. An Italian named Antonio Franco was raking hay in a field on the south fork of Jackson creek yesterday. While so engaged the team ran away, and Franco was thrown from the vehicle in such a way that a tooth of the rake struck him in the left eye, destroying the sight and producing such a wound that the injured optic had to be removed. He was brought to Jackson, to his boarding place at the California hotel. He is a young man, unmarried, and universal sympathy is felt for him in his misfortune.

Foresters Election. Oro Fino Circle elected the following officers for the ensuing term: P. C. C.—Tina Schroeder. C. C.—May Goldsworthy. Sub. C. C.—Catie Garbarini. Treas.—Helen Simich. Secty.—Carrie Calvin. R. G.—Lillie Levin. L. G.—Florence Head. I. G.—Sophie Forshey. O. G.—Mary Turner. Organist—Alma Mounter. Physician—Dr. Gall. Trustee—Rose Ratti.

Decoration Day. Monday, May 30th, was decoration day, and was observed by all public institutions as a general holiday. In many cities and towns throughout the state appropriate exercises were held, and the graves of the Blue and the Gray were alike beautifully decorated. In Jackson many of our citizens went to the cemetery unostentatiously, and with loving hands and tearful eyes deposited their token of esteem on the graves of our fallen heroes.

Resigned. Sheriff Norman has resigned as trustee of the Jackson school, owing to the fact that his duties as sheriff demand his entire time and attention. Mr. Norman performed his duties as trustee in a satisfactory manner, and now, before election, resigns that the people may select his successor.

Died in Ione. The youngest daughter of the late Frank Frates died in Ione on Friday evening of typhoid, and was interred in the Ione cemetery on Monday. Mrs. Frates, at the time of her death, was buried in San Francisco. Loving friends had the remains brought to Ione Monday, and placed beside those of her late husband and daughter.

Memorial Services. Rev. J. W. Phelps preached an eloquent memorial sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. The church was crowded to the doors. Special music was prepared for the occasion. All the old veterans in town were present. Examination. At the dental examination recently held in San Francisco there were 84 applicants, 69 of whom were successful. FROM OUTSIDE PRECINCTS

Volcano Items. Haying is now in full blast. The crop is more than an average. Grillo Bros. are contracting for their year's supply at $15 per ton. The people are not much excited over the one case of smallpox, as every precaution has been taken to prevent its spread. Some fifteen of Sutter Creek's young men and several of the gentler sex visited our town Sunday. The men were mostly N. S. G. W's., looking for recruits to the order. Several of our young men have sent in their names, and will endeavor to ride the goat ere long.

Louis Ottinger, of the firm of Knight and Ottinger, was in town during the first of the week, looking after his mining interests in this section. J. Q. Mason is now one of the happiest men in the Pioneer district. After working all winter trying to uncover a rich vein which he felt positive was near-by, he and his partner concluded to suspend operations for the summer. Mason was not satisfied and went back to put in a few shifts alone. On Friday of last week he put in a blast which opened to view the long-looked-for ledge. He immediately notified his partner of their good fortune. The two daughters of Captain Glenn, who have been so very ill of typhoid fever, are fast recovering. Four weeks of anxiety has weighed heavily upon the parents. Bradshaw and Grillo went down to Jackson Sunday to assist in knocking fourteen spots from off the Mokelumne Hill boys.

Landlord Clute of the St. George hotel, has raised $2000 on the price of his property since the Sutter Creek rush Sunday. He is now ready to pungle up to assist in building a railroad to this place. S. C. RIBBLER. AMADOR CITY, June 1. Wm. Bennetts and wife of Fresno, spent a few days with relatives of this place last week. Willie Richards, who has been employed on the street cars in San Francisco, is here visiting his parents. Mr. Swarthout left Tuesday for the east. Mrs. Tregloan and daughter Dorothy left Wednesday for Oakland. J. R. Dunlap and wife returned from San Francisco Sunday. Fidge Ardito and Will Clifton returned from Frisco Saturday. Joe Northington and wife of Breton, are here visiting the former's brother. Mrs. Geo. Wrigglesworth and daughter, Miss Cora, left for Jackson Wednesday. Mrs. L. White and sister, Miss Burns, went to Sacramento Friday night and returned Sunday. The home of Mrs. F. Reeves was burned to the ground Sunday morning about 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Stout and daughter Mariah of Sacramento, are the guests of Mrs. S. Pearce. J. A. Bennetts and son Richard departed for Vallejo Monday. The annual picnic of the M. E. Sunday school was held on Saturday last. Music was furnished by the Ione band, and in the afternoon a ball game took place between the Jacksons and Amadors, the score being 12 to 15 in favor of the Jackson boys. Other amusements were on hand, such as grace hoop, nail driving contest, etc. Everyone enjoyed the affair, and the picnic was an entire success. E. LOIS.

Baseball. In many respects last Sunday's game was one of the most interesting seen in Jackson for a long time. Keen interest by both players and spectators was manifested throughout. There was no time during the game that either side seemed to have a decided advantage. Not a base was secured by either side on balls; one three-base hit was made, and four two-base hits. Several double plays that delighted the spectators were witnessed. We refrain from making individual mention, as all the players did good work considering the practice they have had so early in the season. "Sockey" Ardito was umpire, and it is useless to say that all received a square deal. "Sockey" understands every turn in the game, and places honest baseball at the head of all sports. Following is a complete score of the game: MOKELUMNE HILL. AB R LB SB SH PO A E. Chipetto, p..... 5 0 0 0 0 12 2 4. C. Hamby, c..... 5 3 1 1 1 10 2 2 4. H. Main, 1st b..... 5 1 0 0 0 9 9 0 0. J. Caved on and Killed. Robert Clunich was caved on while working in the slopes of the Melones mine in Calaveras county on Tuesday night of last week. A large quantity of rock fell from eight feet above him, a quantity striking him in the back, fracturing the pelvis bone and injuring him internally. He died the following night. Deceased was 38 years of age, and unmarried. He was a member of the Slavonian Benevolent Society of this county. The remains were brought to Jackson on Friday, and the funeral was conducted on Saturday, the interment being in the cemetery of the Greek Orthodox church.

Married. Rev. W. Tuson was called to Mokelumne Hill Wednesday to unite in marriage Joseph H. Vieusseux and Miss Gladys G. Buroc, both of the Hill. The bride is considered one of the most charming young ladies in Calaveras county, and a great worker in the Episcopal church of her home town. The groom is an estimable young man, well worthy of the prize he has won. An excellent wedding breakfast was partaken of by friends and relatives, after which the couple departed for various points of interest throughout the state. To Cure A Cold In One Day. NOTES FROM GOLD MINES

DEFENDER. Stir and prosperity seem to prevail at this little camp at the present time. A full crew of men are working in the Defender mine, and the little 10-stamp mill never fails to yield its monthly gold brick. A large body of ore is now in sight at the 300 level, a tunnel is being run south, and on Friday of last week a body of pay ore was encountered 220 feet from the main shaft. Three 8-hour shifts have been put to work sinking. Just how deep they will go at present depends upon the nature of the developments as they go down. Superintendent Joyce seems to have the fullest confidence in all his employees, and they in return show great appreciation for his concern in their personal welfare.

Three ledges have been encountered in this immediate vicinity during the past week. Chas. Hagberg, working in the Belmont extension, opened up a 2-foot ledge of fine looking rock; Messrs. Trackwell, Couch and Trackwell have encountered a fine appearing ledge and will work it extensively, while the find in the Defender goes to make the third. The Red Tape will start up about the first of June. Three men are now at work making preparations. The mine is owned by a good company, who pay their men promptly each month. Geo. S. Andrews is preparing to take the water from the Grand Prize shaft, and repair the tunnels. He is not prepared to say at present to what extent he will operate this season. A great deal of very rich rock has been taken from this mine, and it is known to carry much more of the same character.

At the Tom & Dick mine a 140-foot tunnel has been run, with flattering results. This is supposed to be the Defender vein, but being more favorably located the owners look for something big in the future. An old miner who prospected this mine in early days, and who knows its history up to the present time, declares that it will some day become one of the famous mines of Amador county. CENTRAL EUREKA—The clean-up of this mine for last month exceeded that of any month's run theretofore made. It is reported that the aggregate was over $35,000, leaving a larger margin of profit than any previous month. The ore came mainly from the lowest level, the ledge being of large size, and has materially improved in quality. The prospects of this big dividend-payer have been greatly enhanced by the developments in the deeper levels.

BUNKER HILL—Everything is running smoothly, with as large a force of men as it is convenient for them to work. Union and non-union men alike are employed, and all speak in praise of their treatment by the company and its employees who hold responsible positions. FREMONT-GOVER—The situation at this mine remains about the same as last week. Sixteen men are at work putting in the sand flume through the town. Manager Goodall is in San Francisco, and Superintendent Palmer is looking out for the property during his absence. No definite time has been set for starting up the mine, all statements to the contrary being simply rumors. The union men still have two days guards on duty, whose only work is to keep cool under the shade of some near-by tree, and draw their $3 per day from the union's treasury. The company has three men on duty of evenings, looking out for the plant. Everything is quiet, and no trouble is anticipated now or in the future.

Small Enterprises. The importance of small enterprises to a town or community cannot be overestimated. On an average every man that secures employment provides for four persons. A machine shop that employs ten men is furnishing directly support to forty people, say nothing about those who receive benefits indirectly by furnishing supplies, etc. Quite recently a mining superintendent who is looking after a property with only a 10-stamp mill running, remarked that 75 persons were receiving support from the mine. Those of us who are engaged in other pursuits do not stop to think of the advantages to all that any new enterprise would be, but have a tendency to discourage rather than encourage the same. There is hardly a town in Amador county but what has water or electrical power sufficient to propel any class of machinery. A small foundry might be made to pay. A local-steam laundry would be well patronized, and many others that we might mention. When asked our opinion on these matters we shake our wise heads and hoo-doo the project at once. Capital must find investments, and it had just as well be placed in your town or county as in the neighboring one. The people of Ione united, and they now have their creamery, high school and railroad. Quite recently Carnegie agreed to donate $40,000 to a certain city for a public library. The people quarreled as to its location, and the offer was withdrawn. Seeing their mistake they united, selected a location, and received the donation. If your town is an ideal spot for any enterprise, no matter how small, begin to agitate the matter, keep it constantly before the people, and some one will surely start it, and the entire community will be benefited thereby.
