

SOMETHING NEW.

Is what we're after all the time and we've just struck a new novelty. If you have photographs of friends whom you love and wish to keep for all time, we are prepared to fix you out in first class style. When you purchase tea or coffee at our store ask for a card explaining all about the pictures, then judge for yourself whether you want them or not. They are indestructible, no glass to break, water, dust or a sledge hammer will not hurt them in the least. You can hang them up or we'll fit them out with easels. We will give you a beautiful medalion of any picture you bring to us. However, we reserve the right to refuse any picture of the things known as scabs, who are running the trolley cars; we have no time to spend on such excuses of mankind. By the way, it's pretty near time the trolley strike was settled. Nobody knows better than the superintendent that the boys are worth $2.25 per day and that ten hours is long enough to work, but the boys have other demands which he doesn't like. Well, if that's the case, why the dickens doesn't he say: Boys, throw out the other provisions and we'll give you the pay and the hours. Of course, if he wants all the provisions thrown out he might as well come into our store to try and buy a pound of poor tea or coffee, which is impossible; impossible at

CITY NEWS.

The board of aldermen will meet tonight.

The board of education will hold its regular meeting this evening.

There will be an important meeting of the Sixth division, A. O. H., this evening.

There will be no lesson in embroidery at the Friendly league this evening.

Miss Margaret Bagnell of New Britain was visiting friends in this city yesterday.

The officers and directors of the Catholic Women's association will meet this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

John T. Sullivan of this city and Teresa Madeline Smith of New York were married in this city December 24 by the Rev. Father McGuane.

A Hebrew Workmen's circle was organized last night at Speedwell hall with forty members. Speeches were made by Mr. Rosenzweig of New York, one of the leaders in the movement; Mr. Elkin of Hartford, and Mr. Litman of the Zukrumpft, a New York Hebrew paper.

A banquet was given by the Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent society in G. A. R. hall last night, and it was largely attended. It was the occasion of the first anniversary of the society's organization. During the evening medals were presented to Mrs. Sarah H. Brennan, president of the society, and Mrs. J. J. Roof. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. I. J. Axelrod, the first president of the society. During the year $400 was spent in aiding the poor and there is now $700 in the treasury.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Cunningham took place this morning from the family residence on South Wilson street with service at St. Patrick's church by the Rev. Father Gleeson and interment in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were Patrick O'Brien, Maurice McGrath, John Duer, William Jackson, Patrick Hanlon and James Doran. The floral tributes included a standing bier from the sisters and brothers of the deceased; mound, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bresnahan; cross, employees of fasteners' department at Holmes, Booth & Haydens; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Tracy; basket of roses, the Misses Heaney and Powers; bouquets, Mamie Cass, Mr. and Mrs. James Bowles, the Misses Bresnahan, the Misses Lawlor and Mary Keefe.

A large audience was present at the Y. M. C. A. meeting for men only at Jacques opera house yesterday afternoon, and listened to an interesting address on the subject, "A Message for an Active Life," by Dr. L. L. Doggett, president of the International school for association men in Springfield. The speaker was introduced by R. S. Ross, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., a close friend of Dr. Doggett. In his opening remarks Dr. Doggett paid a lofty tribute to General Secretary Ross and Physical Director Earl D. Clapp. The speaker had nothing but words of praise for the stand that President Roosevelt and Kipling have taken in regard to the strenuous life question, said that a message for an active life was two-fold, first, "achieve something, second, "master self." Incidental to the address selections were rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra and vocal solos by Miss Flora Stoops, accompanied on the piano by Miss Clara Elton.

The board of public works held a meeting Saturday night and talked over the application of the trolley company for approval of its plans to double track certain streets and to lay rails in Baldwin street. The board will meet again this evening, when the whole matter will be referred to the aldermen. Commissioners Mahaney and Blakeslee, the committee appointed to inquire why the electric lighting contract was not being complied with, reported that Manager Sewell had informed them that the company will furnish better service as soon as the city gives it such protection as will enable it to have the lamps trimmed without having its employees assaulted. The reply was no surprise to the board, all having learned from a very reliable source what it would be before the committee was appointed. But as the contract expired yesterday it was not deemed wise to say much about it, and after accepting the report the board voted to adjourn.

George Collins, a most desperate criminal, who together with William Rudolph, known as the Missouri Kid, was arrested in Hartford yesterday afternoon for bank burglary at Union, Mo. and for the murder of Detective Charles J. Schumacher of the Pinkerton agency, is known in this city, where he lived for a short time. About five years ago he came here from Hartford and secured employment with George Norman, who has a contract with the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. About five years ago he left Waterbury and little has been heard of him since by his Waterbury acquaintances. His stepfather, Louis Laplante, is more widely known in this city. He is a carpenter by trade and has worked at times for Tracy Brothers. He lived here on and off for some time, but six months ago it is said that he left this city and has not been here since. A local young man, who knows him well, says that he is now stopping in Hartford, or at least, he was less than two weeks ago, for he met him in a cafe in the Capitol City about that time.

If you contemplate buying a watch, call on the Upton Jewelry Co and see what they can do for you. They carry a large and varied stock including the highest grades, and you can always depend on getting full value for your money. They guarantee all their goods and will keep all watches sold by them in repair for a year.

Mrs. Sarah P. Terry, aged 82 years, died yesterday at the home of her son, J. Hobart Bronson, on Prospect street. The remains were taken to Hartford to-day for burial.

Patrick Bergin, manager of an undertaking establishment in Holyoke, Mass., was visiting his home in this city yesterday. He says that the people in Holyoke are enthusiastic over the prospects of having a team in the Connecticut league this season.
