REMSEN BOARD WAS ENDORSED

BY THE PURE FOOD MEETING AT DENVER, COLO., YESTERDAY.

USE OF BENZOATE SODA

As Preservative in Food is Approved—Secretary Wilson of Agricultural Department Attentive Spectator.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 26.—President Roosevelt's famous Remsen "referee" board of consulting scientific experts was endorsed by the convention of the Association of State and National Food and Dairy Departments today.

The delegation from the department of agriculture voted "yes". Secretary Wilson was an attentive spectator, but was not a delegate.

The committee, headed by Dr. Floyd W. Robinson, of Lansing, Mich., which had been appointed to investigate the Remsen board previously had reported adversely to the board's findings, declaring that benzoate promoted the practice of concealing insanitary methods and calling upon Taft to institute another investigation on "broader lines".

The debate occupied much of the time of the convention and the government experts warmly supported the board's conclusions.

DECLARATION OF PEACE IS HEARD

PINCHOT APPLAUDS REMARKS OF PRESIDENT OF CONSERVATION CONGRESS—FOR ESTRY FIGHT IS OVER.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 26.—The National Conservation Congress opened today with Chief Forester Pinchot on the platform applauding a peace declaration and Secretary Ballinger in the Kittitas Hills, 125 miles away, studying an irrigation project.

The fact that the charges affecting the administration of public lands are being investigated by President Taft inclines the ranchmen in congress to adopt a pacific attitude.

E. H. Libby, president of the Washington Conservation Association, in calling the congress to order, pointed out that the congress is not held for exploiting any policies of any set of Washington officials.

Pinchot was one of the leaders in the applause that greeted the chairman's declaration of peace. At the afternoon session speeches were made by several delegates.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK IS CONFINED TO HOUSE

Should Rest Till Commissioner Has Made Report and Legislation Enacted Says Aldrich, Who is Chairman.

Beverly, Aug. 26.—Continuing his series of conferences with party leaders and government officials before starting on his long trip President Taft had a two and a half hour talk with Senator Aldrich and Secretary MacVeagh. Aldrich is about to take up the important task of adjusting the monetary system of the country, and it was in connection with his work as chairman of the monetary commission that he was called in conference by the president today.

It is understood that the chances the commission will not be able to place its conclusions before congress for several months to come. There has been talk of calling congress in extra session in the fall of 1910, to give consideration of legislation looking to the enactment of such changes in the monetary system as the commission may deem expedient.

Aldrich said after the conference today that matters had been discussed only in a general way.

Aldrich would not discuss the postal savings banks. It is not believed he is altogether opposed to the idea, but he thought the question of establishing such banks should await the enactment of the monetary legislation.

The question of bond issues, authorized in the new tariff bill, came up for consideration this afternoon. Aldrich is in favor of withholding any bond issues for the time being in order that the monetary commission may have time to consider this subject specifically and possibly to arrange for the placing of a government loan, so far as funds may be immediately needed, in one lump sum.

WALL STREET AFFECTED.

New York, Aug. 26.—The state of Harriman's health continued to be the principal topic of interest to Wall street today. There was little or no definite news to be had and in its absence, pessimistic rumors of a varied character held forth and sent the Harriman and allied stocks spinning downward. At the close of the day's business, which aggregated more than 1,200,000 shares, many pyramided accounts had evaporated into thin air.

The day's losses in the general list ranged from 7 1/2 points in Union Pacific to 4 in preferred; 5% in Southern Pacific; 4% in Reading; 3% in New York Central and 2% in United States steel.

In the less active issues declines of 2 to 4 points were recorded by Anaconda Copper, American Locomotive, American Smelting, Atchison, Northwestern, St. Paul, General Electric, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, People's Gas, Rock Island and Wisconsin Central.
