After having fined Cairo $50 for leaving the field at Fulton and refusing to consider the appeal from the decision of Empire Adams at the disputed Fulton-Cairo game because Manager Powers did not notify the Fulton team of his intention to appeal his game, President Gosnell yesterday issued a call for a meeting of the directors of the league to be held at Hopkinsville Sunday afternoon to decide the matter.

Plan To Overthrow Portugese Republic--Scene In Capital And The Two Leading Factors. Many Robbers And Murders In Lisbon.

London, May 25.—It is considered certain here that the monarchists have completed their preparations for a serious uprising in Portugal aiming to restore ex-King Manuel to the throne. According to messages received in Paris, a counter revolution will begin in the north, where the anti-republican feeling is strong and where the discontent with the new regime has manifested in strikes at Oporto. If Lisbon, as expected, should follow the example of the north the counter revolution will be a most serious affair and will certainly be attended with much violence and bloodshed, as Lisbon is the stronghold of the republican forces. Disorder has long been rampant in the capital. Robberies and horsebreaking are of almost daily occurrence, and the authorities seem powerless. Arms are at a premium, and the demand for foreign, especially British, flags reveals an unexpected number of citizens who claim foreign protection. Emperor Wilhelm of Germany during his recent visit to London called on Manuel, and it is believed that the German ruler pledged the support of his country to Manuel. President Braga is making every effort to gain the united support of army and navy officers to aid in forestalling the threatened revolt.

Brussels, May 25.—The Journal states that a representative of a financial group which has already collected $1,000,000 for the purpose of overthrowing the Portugese republic is now in Brussels, where he is interviewing various financial personages, to whom he is offering mining and railway concessions in Portugal should the enterprise be successful.

STREET WORK PROGRESSES

Commercial Avenue and Other Streets —Track Laying by Cairo Traction Co.—Going Aboard Rapidly.

A large force of workmen are engaged in the "Y" and tracks leading into the electric power house from Sycamore street. The tracks are being concreted. Brick laying on the street has been finished on the west side of Commercial avenue to a point past Twentieth street. With the exception of a small spot at Eighteenth street, at Fifteenth street and a hundred feet of the track at eighth street still all the brick have been laid on both sides on Commercial avenue between Eighth and twentieth street.

A force of three and four negroes have been laying the brick for some time, in place of the big german, who is an expert at this work.

The excavation on the west side of the street south of Eighth street is nearly completed. On the east side all the concreting has been done and the street is ready to receive the brick pavement.

The excavation under the tracks south of Eighth has been done as far as Sixth street and the track let down to the proper level.

The lesson of chivalry, quite as important in the lad as in his father, in different degrees of course, may be taught in little attentions to mother and younger sister—helping about the house, making provisions which will save mother many steps, during his absence and escorting sister to and from school.

NEW TURN GIVEN TO LORIMER CASE

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS WILL SUPPORT RESOLUTION OF LAFOLLETTE WHILE STANDPATTERNS WILL SUPPORT MARTIN'S.

Washington, May 25.—A new turn was given to the Lorimer case today when a number of Democratic senators declared in a party caucus that they would support the LaFollette conduct of the new inquiry in the hands of a special committee of five new senators rather than to leave it to the regular senate committee on privileges and elections.

It was also declared today that the Martin resolution will have the support of the regular Republicans when it is offered as a substitute for both the LaFollette and Dillingham resolutions.

The Martin resolution enlarges the scope of the new inquiry to include the now famous jack pot fund at Springfield.

MUCH TIME ON LORIMER MATTER.

HAS TAKEN PRECEDENCE IN UPPER HOUSE OVER MATTERS OF LEGISLATION.

L'FOLLETTE AT THE BAT.

Gives Notice That He Will Address Senate Several Hours—Hines Defended Self Before Lumbermen.

Washington, May 25.—The Lorimer case which occupied most of the time of the Senate during the last regular session and thus became a material factor in bringing about the extra session, again has taken precedence in the upper house of congress over matters of pending legislation.

The senate membership appears to be almost unanimously determined that an inquiry into the circumstances of Lorimer's election is imperative. Three resolutions have already been introduced. They come from the insurgent Republicans, the regular Republicans and the Democrats.

Senator LaFollette promised today to continue for several hours his discussion of the Lorimer matter in general.

Hines Defends Self. Chicago, May 25.—Edward Hines, named before the House legislative committee in connection with the corruption fund to elect United States Senator William Lorimer yesterday took occasion before reading his annual address to the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association of which he is president, to defend his acts and to flay his accusers.

Mr. Hines said he had no apology to offer for his acts, personally or as an officer of the association. He defied his opponents and prophesied that he would have his traducers before a tribunal that would not be a grotesque travesty on law and justice.

TWO NEGROES WERE LYNCHED

Woman and Son Had Killed Deputy Sheriff When He Went to Make Arrests For Stolen Meats—Work Quietly Done.

Okeemah, Oklahoma, May 25.—Mrs. Mary Nelson, a negro and her son, eighteen years old were taken out of jail near here at midnight and hanged to the timbers of a bridge over the North Canadian river, six miles away.

The mob which formed quietly went to the jail bound and gagged the jailer and then taking his keys went to the cells; took the two negroes out bound them, put them in a wagon and started north. The two bodies were found this morning hanging to a bridge.

The work was done so quietly that the town was not aroused and no one knew of the lynching until this morning.

Two weeks ago Deputy Sheriff George H. Lonaye went to the Nelson home in search of stolen meat. He found it and started to make arrests when he was shot and instantly killed. Both Nelson woman and son, claimed to have fired the shot but it was later was found that the son had fired it.

After the woman and her son were taken to jail the confessed in laying a plot to kill Lonaye. About a week ago when Jaller Payne went into the cells, the Nelson woman attacked and tried to overpower him and get his revolver.

J. M. Donegan, sheriff of Okfusky county, said he had never heard of a rumor of an attempt of lynching.

THE ALDRICH PLAN

ENDORSED BY SECRETARY MacVeagh TO SOLVE FINANCIAL PROBLEM.

Advices Bankers to Support It with out Regard to Politics—Praises Rhode Islander as Monetary Expert.

While he paid a high tribute to Mr. Aldrich as a monetary reformer, Secretary MacVeagh was frank in saying he did not agree with the tariff views of the former senator from Rhode Island, and added that he thought Mr. Aldrich himself might have changed his opinions some.

"Let me say a word about Mr. Aldrich," said Secretary MacVeagh. "It is proper to differentiate Mr. Aldrich's monetary views from Mr. Aldrich's tariff views. I have not agreed with his tariff views, not even a little, but I never pretended to him that I agreed with him; and as he as well as anybody else that cared about my views knew I did not."

"We must get away from Mr. Aldrich as a tariff builder before we can understand him as a monetary reformer. As a monetary reformer he is assuredly one of the best examples. I do not say he has always been so. He has long been interested in monetary questions and legislation, but it is only during the last four or five years that he has become what he is—a thoroughly enlightened student and builder."

"After hearing me say these things about Mr. Aldrich some of you will say 'Well, we are sorry for MacVeagh. He is another good man gone wrong. The atmosphere of Washington has been too much for him!'"

"As for me, I think—and I expect always to think—that the west knows more about real politics in a minute than the east—including Washington city—knows in a year. But at the same time there are a few things that a western man coming from the east to the west may find it worth while to bring with him."

"All the losses and the personal and family disappointments and discomforts and suffering must be charged to the bankers. One may say that the government is partly responsible also; but the government would legislate if the bankers wisely advise it."

"The nation puts into the hands of the bankers the care and control and the organization of its financial interests. In all periods the banking and currency systems of the world have been formulated by the bankers. It is not enough to say that the bankers suffer from the inadequacy of their systems, because they suffer to much and more and more than any one else."

The banking system of America today, said Secretary MacVeagh, is now an unorganized mass composed of 25,000 units. A central reserve association, he said, would bring them all into a workable organization. It would only be a question of organization and not at all one of centralization. That proposed system could be a central bank, Secretary MacVeagh denied.

As to apprehensions that the central reserve association may become a political institution or fall into the hands of a professional man," Mr. MacVeagh continued, "let me say they are wholly unnecessary. It can never become a political agency. It is easily removed for all time from any remote possibility of being controlled by any few men of any few banks. It cannot be owned by less than all the banks who create it."

In conclusion Secretary MacVeagh counseled the bankers to deal with currency reform in a thoroughly non-partisan public-spirit.

"I hope banking and currency reform will escape the misfortune of becoming a party question," said he. "The outlook for escape is excellent. There is no evidence in sight that the parties will divide upon it."
