OFFICIAL PAPER

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

The Press is in receipt of a pleasant letter from Neighbor Geo Shepardson of Elrod S. D. who still keeps up his membership (social) in the Forest City camp. We quote from it as follows:

"I am working on a farm now.
It is the first farm work I have done for a long time. The wheat runs from 11 to 19bu to the acre, oats from 47 to 62, barley 35 to 50, there is no flax threshed yet that I know of. We are having very disagreeable weather, to say the least.
I have been threshing ever since the machine started up—that was the first of September—and I have only got in 14 days. The rest was rain. I never in my life saw such a wet time as we have had since August 17."

He also renewed his subscription to this great and renowned "Liberty Enlightener."

Ye Editor was absent for three days assisting Brother Kiplinger of the Gettysburg Herald, to set up the annual delinquent tax list, and our "angel" type-setter was off to Mitchell attending the Corn Palace in the capacity of reporter so our "devil" had to do most of the work on this week's Press.
We think he did first rate. We offered to "set 'em up" for him, but he declined to take anything stronger than salted peanuts.

OVERLAND TO MITCHELL.

FOREST CITY PRESS: We are having a very fine time. Reached Mr. Wm. Neyhart's Thursday night, Sept. 17, where we spent a very pleasant evening. The next day we went to Copp, by the way of Gettysburg, where we had another nice time. There we held a meeting and were entertained by Mr. Russell and family. The next day we drove 15 miles south to Mr. T. Burn's where we spent a day and a half and had a right royal visit. Held two temperance meetings at this place, which is called Sedgwick.

Monday morning we started on our way again, reaching Highmore at noon, and took dinner with Mrs.
Johnston, president of the W. C.
T. U. of that district, who is a great worker for the White Ribbon band. After dinner we proceeded to Ree Heights, where we called on friends, and then went to Miller, where we spent the night with Mr.

Stratton and family. Mr. Stratton is editor of the Miller Sun.

Next morning I called on old friends and had a right jolly time.
About 10 o'clock started on our way again, passing thru St. Lawrence and Wessington, and reached Wolsey at 4 o'clock. We ate supper with Mr. and Mrs. Shoultz and daughter, and in the evening held a temperance meeting in the Presbyterian church.

The next day we passed thru Virgil and Alpena, on the Milwaukee R.R. and reached Woonsocket about 2 o'clock. At this place we had the pleasure of hearing the noted Mr. Reagan, the great temperance chalk-talker. While in Woonsocket we visited at the home of Dr. Templeton. Next day we passed thru Mt. Vernon and took dinner six miles from that place, at Mr. Grivie's. The night before their daughter was married, so we were in time to have some of the wedding cake.

We next reached Mitchell, where we had a fine time and were right royally treated by the Press Club. The executive committee at the Club Rooms were Messrs. Harry L. Bras, N. L. Davison and Thos. Fullerton. Corn Palace officials were L. O. Gale, President, H. E. Hitchcock, secretary, Robert Burns, advertising agent, and W. E. Turner, treasurer. The Italian Banda Rossa, which played in the Corn Palace, alone will repay anyone who attended the Exposition. But we are having too good a time for me to write more about the Corn Palace this time.

While in Mitchell we were entertained by Mr. J. Sike Wilson and daughter.

M. C. BONSEY.

A B Swearinger of Sioux Falls went over to the Agency last Friday to transact some pension business with the Indians.

We hear it said that the scholars all like their new teacher, and have already begun to make rapid progress in their studies.

Roy Gates bagged eight fine ducks and in consequence thereof the guests of the Gates House had savory duck for dinner on Thursday.

Mrs Lizzie S Robinson and Penn Garfield went to Gettysburg a few days ago, the former on business for the Indian agent in connection with government freight.

Mrs Hugh Wager and children of the vicinity of Gettysburg were the guests of Jacob Kluth and family, who took them up the river to pick bulberries, grapes etc. Mr Wager is lying on Mr Kluth's farm.

N J Devin gave us a pleasant call yesterday, to get a copy of "Anpao kin" to send to his family at Sioux City. He informed us that they would commence shipping cattle to market on Saturday, if everything was favorable.

Cale Rosa gave a watermelon party last Saturday evening which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of friends and neighbors.

Those present from Forest City and the Agency were D L Green and family, Henry Eidam and family, T D Reed and family, J Kluth Jr., Hewitt Turner, Mr and Mrs Zimmer and daughter, Miss Allie, Dr Michael, Miss Lillie Williams, E Ludlow, C Maupin. Gettysburg was represented by Mr and Mrs R B Ellis.

Gettysburg Breezes

Sept. 29.
Grain Market: Wheat No 1 64c.; No 2 60c.; Macaroni 44c.
Flax No 1 79c. Barley 29c to 42.
Oats 28c. Speltz 30c.

The Atlas Elevator Company will buy flax this year, also Macaroni wheat and speltz.

Rev. Arnold is improving slowly. If he has no setback he will be out in a few days.

Every day the sun shines helps to improve the wheat in drying and grading. About 75 per cent of the wheat coming in to market is dry. It will pay the farmer to keep his wet grain at home till winter.

Messrs Crabtree, Barton and Sloat shipped eighteen cars of cattle last week. These cattle were bought in Gettysburg and fetched the handsome sum of $14,000, or $37.75 a head. That is only a beginning of what will be shipped this fall.

Barkus Dunlap and family, from Wisconsin, arrived Monday with a car load of furniture and farming tools, to move in Sully county, where he has bought a section of land. We hope that Mr. Dunlap will find this one of the best countries in the world.
