

LOCAL MENTION

Sylvan camp RNA. meets tomorrow (Sat.) afternoon.

Cale Rosa was up with his car Tuesday accompanied by Mesdames Ripley and Pence.

Ed. Truett was over from the Reservation to visit friends, Sunday, staying night.

H. E. Gates took another load of stovewood to Gettysburg, Wed., returning Thursday.

Circuit court convenes next Tuesday at Gettysburg, adjourned over from November.

Geo. Gear took four cords of stove wood to Gettysburg with him last trip and is to take four more next trip.

Paul Crow Eagle and Stephen Flexible returned Sunday from a trip to Pierre by team. They were detained on this side of the river for a few days by the ferryboat being put in dry dock.

Sid. Wager and family moved into the Douglas residence, Tuesday, which they have rented till spring, when they expect to get a new dwelling on their homestead, to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

A little prairie fire started mysteriously Monday afternoon three miles up river and one east. Luckily Mr Satterlee and his hired man happened to be near enough to it at the start to get it put out before any hay or other crops suffered.

If you are going to the city soon, phone or write us to reserve a room for you, at the Beaufort Hotel, Minneapolis, Minn.

AGENCY

Messrs. Craig, Warnock and Backus took a trip to Gettysburg last Friday.

E. B. Congdon went to Gettysburg Tuesday to get a car load of oats unloaded.

Ambrose Traversie Sr. lost his home again by fire a few days ago. It was a log house and stood where a more costly one had previously stood.

Miss Hedren and Mrs. R.N. Oliver o'Gettysburg were over last Saturday, the former remaining to assist in caring for Miss Esther White Face, and returning to Gettysburg Sunday.

Miss Muhel was an arrival on Tuesday evening to fill the position of head laundress in the Indian school. She was detained on the east of the river till yesterday, when she was able to walk across on the ice.

Sheriff Laughlin of Pierre was up Tuesday after a couple of Indians who were said to be strays from one of the reservations in North Dakota. They had been detained here by the Agency authorities for the past week. Another case of a married man (Indian) running off with another woman.
