TROUBLES OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

Proceedings Have Been Instituted to Foreclose $2,000 Mortgage Outstanding.
The Daytona Telephone Company is in financial straits, and proceedings are now pending in the Circuit Court for the foreclosure of a mortgage held by J. A. Clements on the company's property for two thousand dollars.
The notice of the proceedings will be published in a few days, and it is expected that a sale of the property will take place in about three months, as it is understood the company will make no effort to settle the matter otherwise.
When the company started on the De Land line a sum of money was borrowed which it has been unable to repay.
The Gazette-News interviewed W. M. Moore, President of the company, Tuesday, and he stated that the primary cause of the present embarrassment lay in the small capitalization of the company. The capital stock was increased, but still enough available funds were not realized to complete the work.
The De Land, Ormond, and Seabreeze lines all cost more than was contemplated, although Mr. Moore assured us that they were paying a good dividend on the investment.
Over a year ago an assessment of 15 per cent was made on all stock, but a very light response was made by the stockholders. Later an additional assessment of 35 per cent was levied, and this met with a still lighter response. Therefore, Mr. Moore states, the company could not meet its legitimate obligations, so the mortgagee was obliged to resort to foreclosure proceedings.
A meeting of stockholders was held at the City Hall Monday evening, but very little business was transacted other than the resolution of the plaintiff's attorney and board of directors, as follows:
W. M. Moore, President.
J. M. Garland, Vice President.
F. J. Niver, Secretary and Treasurer.
Board of Directors—W. M. Moore, J. M. Garland, W. H. Peck, C. C. Barnes, G. H. Clark, W. H. Edmondson, F. J. Niver.

"A NO. 1" HAS DEPARTED.

After spending nearly three months in Daytona "A No. 1," the famous globe-trotter, took his departure Sunday from Jacksonville by the way of the Gazette-News.
"I ought to have gone from home to home and thanked everybody in Daytona for the kindness your people have shown me."
"I never stopped in my life since leaving home, nearly 20 years ago, in any one place longer than a few days, the longest of my single stop being eleven days in Los Angeles. Somebody will say, 'Well he was making lots of money, why did he leave then?' (as I was making nearly four dollars every day). Well, Mr. Editor, I ponder all kinds of a disengaged tramp never. This is the sole and only reason I left your beautiful city."
"Please be kind enough to tell the readers of your paper and everyone, best thanks for kindness shown to a homeless, friendless and restless traveler."
"A No. 1"
"Champion Wanderer of the World."

LAST WORDS OF A HERO.

An Associated Press account of a fatal railway accident in Tennessee early last Saturday morning, has this to say of the engineer of the wrecked train, who was fatally injured:
Just before engineer Ebb died a physician endeavored to have him drink a little whiskey, in hope of extending his life as long as possible. The engineer refused it, saying, "I have never touched it yet, and don't expect to begin to drink it now." Continuing he said: "I am dying now, so go and look after the women and children in the coaches." He expired a few minutes later.
So died a brave, unselfish hero, and his matchless fortitude will be forgotten and his ennobling virtues remain unused. The devotion to duty and deeds of bravery of such as he are seldom noticed and rarely recounted, though their names are legion.

AUTO. CLUB MEETING.

The Daytona-Seabreeze Automobile Association met at the City Hall Monday evening, Dr. H. H. Sedey presiding. The attendance was not large, although considerable enthusiasm was manifested.
The subscriptions for the purchase of prize cups to be awarded for races in the coming meet were turned over to the club, and a committee was selected to take charge of them, as follows:
Louis Adler, W. H. Peters, and J. A. Hendricks.
An Executive Committee was elected, consisting of the following gentlemen:
Louis Adler, W. H. Peters, S. H. Gove, Dr. E. L. Potter, J. A. Hendricks, Edw. G. Harris, J. B. Parkinson, C. R. Oliver, and G. A. Young.
The meeting adjourned sine die.
Artists' supplies at Barnes.

OF LOCAL INTEREST TO ALL.

James A. Rose went down to Tampa Sunday on a business visit.
R. J. Malby attended the Bond-Stouch wedding at De Land Sunday.
James L. Jackson, a colored waiter at Clarendon Inn, died last Saturday.
Contractor Knight is erecting a cottage on the peninsula for Mr. Foster.
Eastman Kodak developing machines and developers at Harris' Studio.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Foster, of Chicago, are at the Palmetto for a few weeks.
Miss Jane Hamlin, of Chicago, is the guest of Miss Carswell, of North Beach street.
All kinds of poetry and bread, fresh every morning, at Howard & Morrison's Bakery.
G. F. Smith and E. Dillingham attended the Spiritualist camp at Lake Helen last Sunday.
Miss Lela Atkinson, of Indiana, is the guest of Miss Martha Brown, at W. H. Edmondson's.
Judge Isaac A. Stewart, of De Land, was in Daytona this week, looking after important legal affairs.
Prof. Johnson, of Oskaloosa (Iowa) University, will preach at the Christian Tabernacle, 333 South Palmetto street, tomorrow.

LARGE SANITARIUM FOR DAYTONA.

Will Be Erected on the Morris Tract on the Peninsula the Coming Summer.
Preparations are being made for the erection of one of the largest and finest sanitariums in the south to be located at Daytona.
The interested parties are mostly residents of Michigan.
Architect Gove has about completed the plans for the structure, which will have a frontage of 149 feet. The building will be of the most modern architectural design, and will have in connection a private electric light and waterworks plant.
The Morris tract of land, situate about one mile south of the South Bridge on the peninsula, has been decided on for a location.
It is expected the buildings will be completed the first of next January. The sanitarium will accommodate about 100 patients, and almost every disease known to medical science will be treated.
About ten cottages will also be built, and the grounds adjoining will be made into a beautiful park surrounded and interlined by handsome boulevards.
The buildings will be on a high pine ridge fronting towards the ocean.

AN UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.

A dog caused considerable trouble on Friday evening of last week. Robert W. Pryor, a guest of the Hotel Despatch, hailing from Newark, N. J., was bitten by a canine while mingling with the crowd in front of the Thompson Carnival show tents. He returned to the hotel to have the wound looked after, and during his absence a rumor gained ground that he had gone after a gun with which to kill the dog.
Subsequently several men pointed out to Sheriff Turner and Deputy Sheriff Kutz, who were in the crowd, a man as the one supposed to have the gun to kill the dog. The sheriff and his deputy accosted the man and told him that they wanted to search him, as they understood he had a pistol in his possession. The man was Irving Knowlton, of Fort Plains, N. J. He knew nothing of the dog trouble, and was unarmed. Nevertheless, he resisted arrest vigorously, believing at the time, he says, that Turner and Kutz were highwaymen intending to rob him. The sheriff, with understanding, the man's negative for resisting, told his deputy to strike him. Kutz obeyed, striking the man on the head with his pistol, which was discharged by the concussion. The ball from the deputy's pistol struck a colored lad named John O. Johnson, standing nearby, and passed through both his lungs. But the doctors say he will recover. Mr. Knowlton has a sore head, but is not confined to his room.
No one seems to have been in fault in the matter, and the unfortunate affair is regarded generally. Sheriff Turner has a right to search anyone whom he may suspect of carrying a deadly weapon.
Mr. Knowlton is said to be a nervous, impulsive man, and not recognizing the men as officers (although the sheriff says he showed his badge), and being innocent of any wrong doing, his resistance was quite natural.

BICYCLE TAGS HAVE ARRIVED.

T. H. Cave, the newly appointed Bicycle Sidepath Commissioner for this district, hands the following communication to The Gazette-News for publication:
"I have received a stock of Bicycle Tags for 1903, which are now ready for delivery, and are necessary for all those who ride on the sidepaths. The sidepaths are in need of repairs, which can only be done after the money is received for the tags. I shall begin putting the paths in as good order as soon as possible with amounts paid in, to enable people to enjoy the pleasures of bicycle riding as fully as possible.
"All riders who do not help to build maintain the sidepaths have no lawful right to ride thereon, and are warned to keep off."
T. H. Cave, Sec.
Sidepath Commissioner.

FRANK E. BOND WEDS.

Frank E. Bond, of De Land, and Mrs. Stouch, of Willoughby, Ohio, were quietly married at the residence of the groom on Sunday last, by the Rev. J. A. Smith, of the De Land Presbyterian Church.
Mr. Bond is cashier of Volusia County Bank and part owner in the Bond Lumber Company, of Glenwood, and of the Bond & Bond Company, of Newry.
The wedding was a surprise to the members of the family, who had been invited to attend a family reunion and dinner party in honor of Mr. Bond's birthday. The parties have a very large circle of friends, who wish them much happiness in their new relations.
