

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 15—Rev. Grant Stewart, of Seattle, Wash., will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Professor Watkins will sing a solo. Special music by the choir.

The Epworth social at the parsonage Friday night of last week was a most enjoyable affair, some seventy-five people attending during the evening. A fine program was given.

A. VandeVorde is making a very attractive approach to the front and side entrance of the Methodist Church. A wide cement platform is being laid which will be built up by a flight of stone steps.

Mr. Leggett, of Lake Placid, N. Y., has rented the Hibbard beach cottage and is occupying it with his attendant.

The fishing has been exceptionally good for the past week. Mr. Fix caught five large bass and a basket full of waiting from the ocean pier Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, who were in the Bleekman apartments last year are back again, and have taken the Scheid cottage on Grandview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, of Lakeside, Ohio, have rooms at Ocean Spray. Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Young arrived last Thursday from Frankfort, Ind., and are cozily settled for the season in the Field cottage on Bath street. Dr. Young says Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Fowler, of his city, who spent last winter here, will be here again this winter, arriving early in January. Mr. Fowler is the talented editor of the Frankfort Morning Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williamson, who moved from their place of business on Seabreeze avenue to the Bunch cottage, leave today for DeLand, where they expect to spend the season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Branch were in DeLand Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ainesworth, who purchased the Clark place last winter, arrived from Moline, Ill., the first of the week, and have been at the New Seaside. Yesterday they moved to their cottage, where they will be home for the season.

The Daytona Beach Hotel has been leased for the season by Edward Conroy.

Senator Edward Pierce and wife arrived Sunday and are established in their bungalow on the river front.

Mr. and Mrs. Sproul, Mrs. Boyd Shoemaker's parents, are occupying the Shoemaker home on Peninsula drive for the winter. They arrived last week.

CRUISING YACHT DOLPHIN

MAKES VISIT TO DAYTONA.

The cruising yacht "Dolphin," of Walton, on the Indian river, stopped over at this place Wednesday, on her way to Ormond, from which point she will turn south again.

The Dolphin has on board her owner, Capt. C. B. Gifford and wife, and Capt. Gifford's father, Capt. N. Gifford. They have been making a leisurely cruise from Walton, stopping at various points enroute.

The Dolphin is a very nicely finished boat, about forty feet in length, ten or twelve foot beam and was built last year.

CHRISTMAS PROBLEM

What will you buy as Christmas presents for wife, daughter, mother, son, sweetheart, sister, brother, father, mother or friend? Just now this is a very perplexing question but one that can be easily solved by a shopping jaunt along Beach street. All the real live business houses are daily asking you through the columns of the Daily News and the Gazette-News to call at their respective place of business and look over the many pretty and appropriate articles they are displaying.

"Shop Early," is an old admonition, but one that always holds good. Early shopping not only insures a better choice but it relieves the work of salespeople on the few days and hour immediately preceding Christmas.
