

THE CRESSET
NORWOOD MO.

LOCAL LORE

—Still dry in our midst.

—Crops look sickly from dry weather.

—The Pleasant Hill Union Sabbath School will have childrens Day on Sept. 19 1909.

—Mr. Martin Miller paid the Ed. a business call on last Monday evening.

—Mr. Levi Royal has been very sick since our last issue, but he is doing fine and getting better at the present writing.

—Mr. Thomas McCraw and wife paid the Ed. a business call on Monday eve.

—There was quite a turnout at the Arbor meeting on Saturday at 3 o'clock when the Ed addressed the people on Home Industry.

—Mr. George Finley and wife made a pleasant call at the Ed's house after services Sunday eve. Last, come again Bro. George.

—Old Uncle Cal Holt called at the CRESSET OFFICE on last Monday morning. Bro. Cal is a welcome visitor at the Ed.

Are you going to take the late train to Chicago. Asked a sweet heart of his best girl. why no, you fool, the engineer is going to do that.

—There is talk of a Farmers Picnic at the Colony Arbor before long, when there will be a nice program rendered.

—Old Sister Redman who got hurt about a month ago by falling out of the buggy is getting better. We had not heard of the accident until last Sunday.

—Leona Simons one of the Composers of the CRESSET OFFICE paid Miss Nellie Parmenter, and Miss Emma Smart a visit on last Sunday; after Sabbath School, and reported a nice time.

—What is the quickest message given? When a young lady retallates with the back of her hand in the mouth of an old Batchler before he gets the word clearly out, can I go home w—And the answer is yes.

—The Union Sabbath School at Pleasant Hill School house under the superpendent of Johnny Bowlers of the Colony was of the best on last Sun. And at the close of the school, the school voted Childrens day two weeks from next Sunday.

—Elder Robbins who was ordained in Christ's Church. Several months ago by the Ed. of the CRESSET, left for Ill, on last Tuesday evening. We regret to have to give the Brother up, he is a devoted Christian man, and labored hard while in Mo., to accomplish something for the Lord. We hope he may have a prosperous journey and his labors in the field of God may be blessed with the Lorrelis of Heaven. God be with you Bro. is our prayer.

—Mrs. Levi Royal's brother from Ark. is visiting his sister and friends.

—There is talk of organizing a Temperance Union at Pleasant Hill School house.

—Mr. Martin Millers daughter from Joplin who is sick, came home to her father and friends a short time ago, was taken to her father-in-laws, Mr. Johnsons on last Sunday by her father.

—We understand that the wife of Ed. Williams of the Metz Times is paying her sister Mrs. Wm. Blake of Whetstone a visit, at the present writing. We had a slight acquaintance with Ed. Williams when he was visiting Mr. Blakes, some time ago.

—We saw Mr. Marion Absher and wife going south toward Fox creek on last Tuesday. Mr. Absher and wife has a warm spot in the minds of the Colony people.

—For the first time in life we called at the home of Mr. Isaac Smart; on last Tuesday and had a fine chat with the old Bro. and neighbor, his daughter Emma should have the sympathy of mothers as she is left without a mother to battle life's rugged road.

—Every second and fourth Wednesday night the Sun-rise Local of F. E. and C. U. of A. meets at Pleasant Hill School House at 8 o'clock sharp. Let all Farmer and laborers come and hear for themselves, the doors will be open, unless just for a few moments. There will be open instruction every night. For all in and out of the Union, come one and all.

—We were passing along by Pleasant Hill School House, a School being taught there this term by Miss Laura Marshall and we stopped for a few moments and talked to teacher and scholars, and we found the teacher a pleasant school-mam and she has won the hearts of her scholars, and the school is in a nice prosperous condition and we must say that Miss Marshall though young, she is master of her position, and worthy of note with her patrons. We hope her great success.

—The Colony mill has moved to the Albert Donelson place and any one wanting Lumber can get any Oak dimensions in lumber that they may order from 24 ft. down. Any thing under sixteen feet is one dollar per hundred at the mill all over that in length will be more. You can leave your order with the foreman of the Colony Rev. L. S. Garrett or myself Albert Donelson and it will be filled.
