

Lake View Iowa,
Oct. 6 1915.

Dear Readers:— Without a doubt each and every reader of the CRESSET has read the explanation of. Why do Historians try to produce wrong impression.

So dear readers when you read something that don't correspond with Articles, like the answer to Miss Little of Okla. compared with the article clipped from the Sioux City Daily Tribune.

When you dont feel satisfied and seem to be in the dark about it; do just as I done, send it in to the Editor of the CRESSET for explanation.

So kind Editor allow me in my own humble manner to congratulate you most heartily on having secured for the readers of the CRESSET in general an explanation, which to my mind the acme of perfection and the greatest of its kind ever produced on the christians' souls, which has for a theme the most beautiful thought that was ever produced by man, that of purity surrounded by its most natural environment, the two men theory.

The two men theory has a great purpose to serve: And I have no doubt as to its fulfilling that purpose to the utmost, inasmuch as that it contradicts the popular ideas of people under the beliefs of the one man theory. And I think the Editor deserves the highest and greatest honors that has ever been conferred upon any work.

And his, is truly a great mind when he can conceive and give us the fruits of his labor, the beautiful passages of scripture under the explanation of the two man theory on all points. So wishing you all the success possible, I beg to remain, Yours Sincerely,
Earl C. Smith.

READ THE CRESSET.

JUST $1.00 A YEAR,

HOME CIRCLE Column,

Seek peace in the home, it is wrth more than all the world beside. Part with everything else before you, surrender peace.

There are some characters who ever bear about the cheerfulness of fine summer mornings everything about them laughs and sings even their tears have the luster of a fresh shower, What a blessing are such characters amid the somber things of earth.

Unfortunately men want their sweethearts to be brilliant and showy and their wives to be domestic and practical. The girls who understands how to sew, cook and nurse a sick child, does not attract single men, and the superficial belle does not attract her husband after marriage. Hence the prevalence of divorce. Either men must become more sensible before marriage, more resigned afterward or mothers must begin to teach their daughters in the cradles the necessity of combining the useful with the ornamental the practical with the entertaining qualities.

A GIRL'S BEST FRIEND.

Remember that the best friend the best confidant, is your mother. Have no friend with whom she is not acquainted. Make her interested in what you are doing, and if the trials of her life are many, just remember that to gain sympathy you must give it. Make yourself your mother's companion and friend, then she will be yours. Do nothing that you conceal from her, and never believe for a minute that when you have really made her understand, she will not care for what interests you. Mother isn't very much older than you after all—it hasn't been such a long time since she enjoyed just what you do, since life stemmed as full of brightness as does yours since she made as many inquiries and tried to think out as many problems as you do, and once you two can meet on this common ground, be sure that you will have nobody who will as thoroughly sympathize with you as does your mother.

Don't call our mother "old woman." We often hear that from young men. Stop and think how it sounds. Old Lady is bad enough, but the "old woman" applied to her who gave you life and nursed your infancy, is rude and unkind. Once it was "Mother, I'm hungry: mother, mend my jacket: mother, put up my dinner," and many such things, and mother would spread the bread with butter and stow away the luncheon with her heart brimming with affection for you. Now, is she the old woman?

While ten men watch for chances, one man makes a chance. While ten men wait for some thing to turn up, one turns some thing up; so while ten fail, one succeeds and is called a man of luck, the favorite of fortune.

Luck and fortune is the result of honest endeavor, work and toil and if you would succeed, go to work.

NOTICE.

THE WORLD'S CRESSET is to be a Five Column Paper. But on the account of not having our Large Press up, we will have to put it out an 8 page Paper on our Job Press, which makes it the size in reading matter that the Five Column would give our Readers. Or in other words we will put our Paper out in this manner until we can put up our Larger Press. And then it will come to you in a FIVE COLUMN PAPER.